Only poor start since arriving in the US was 10th in the BC F&M Turf from the 12 post at 31-1. VALUE: #2 FOOLS GOLD Another Chad Brown runner who comes out of a strong 100k stakes. The winner has now hit the board in 9 straight and it includes 4 straight graded stakes. She's only been this distance once, in the last start, and she ran well. An exotics adder. This filly was 2nd at 10-1 in the debut for a trainer who is normally patient with his younger ones. Didn't care for the turf two back at CD but fired in last. Confident place here. VALUE: #2 FRANK'S ROCKETTE Can't argue how good she looked with a run and hide win at CD. Was bet hard to a 3-1 favorite and crushed them. Wasn't all that great of a field and couldn't find any real runners in the family. Gets Lasix for the 1st time. She could be any kind of filly. He has faced some tough company (top two four back are graded stakes winners). He lost all chance in last with traffic late in the race. Winner two back won a G3 next. VALUE: #9 CARDIFF CAY We don't know how Chatlos will do as he has taken over for banned Hollendorfer in NY. Bred to love turf. Sib, Lochte, was a G1 turf winner and another sib, Inscom, is stakes placed on turf. Has $3M winner, Black Tie Affair, deep in the female tree. A) 3,9 B) 2,4,6,10,11,14 C) 1,8

Forget last as the race was moved off the turf. She is bred on both sides to love the grass and is 1 for 1 on the grass to this point. Pedigree supports the long distance turf try here. Price will be right. VALUE: #7 LEM ME HAVE IT Understandably the connections wanted to get this one on the turf (in debut and last time out) but both times they tried, the race was rained off. Dam was all turf and the sire won graded stakes on grass in his career. Has worked on the SAR turf. He was up on that fast pace, made an early move to get to the lead, and hung in gamely for 2nd. This rider has been up twice and was in close photos in graded stakes in both of those. VALUE: #9 SEISMIC WAVE Might get overlooked a bit in here with a bunch of very good runners. But notice he went off favored in the Belmont Derby even if it was nearly 5-1. Deep closer beat top choice two back and proven distance is no issue. Mott is having a strong meet.
