SUNDAY SILENCE was bumped lightly by Pulverizing racing into the first turn, then remained close, well out in the track into the backstretch. He was steadied when Easy Goer moved by near the end of the backstretch, then caught him with a rush approaching the stretch. Sunday Silence held a narrow lead into the stretch under a left-handed whip, then outgamed Easy Goer, brushing him repeatedly after his rider switched his whip to the right inside the final furlong.

EASY GOER quickly reached a striking position and eased to the outside at the first turn. He moved from the outside to catch Houston racing into the far turn, but was replaced by Sunday Silence while dropping inside near the stretch. Easy Goer came again to lead briefly approaching the final 16th and narrowly missed while brushing with the winner. A foul claim against Sunday Silence by the rider of Easy Goer for interference through the stretch was not allowed.

ROCK POINT, unhurried early, made a run from the outside approaching the stretch, remained within easy striking distance to the final furlong but lacked a rally while lugging in during the drive and brushing with Dansil. DANSIL, reserved while saving ground into the backstretch, eased out on the far turn, then was brushed by Rock Point while weakening under pressure. A foul claim against Rock Point by the rider of Dansil for interference after entering the stretch was not allowed.

HAWKSTER, outrun to the far turn, raced wide into the stretch and passed tired horses while being carried out slightly by Houston. HOUSTON, prominent from the outset, sprinted clear while racing out from the rail into the backstretch, was steadied along the inside after being replaced by Easy Goer before the stretch, then bore out while tiring.

PULVERIZING was steadied along behind the leaders into the first turn, eased out bumping Sunday Silence lightly and was finished soon after entering the backstretch. NORTHERN WOLF came over after the start bumping Sunday Silence, raced outside Houston while showing speed into the backstretch and stopped badly.
