CLOSER LOOK: Projects to save ground then make one run; has yet to produce a speed figure as a 3-year-old to top his best 2YO Beyer which was produced in a 1-turn Mile when rallying from 10th; you get a 36%-winning jockey-trainer combo since 2017 coming together for this; recent form suggests to rank a notch below the top contenders.

Both wins were rallies from 6th; style suggests he should prosper at today's distance; was troubled in last pair; he returns to CD dirt for the 1st time since his career-debut score; worked an April 21-CD bullet for this; sire finished 7th in the Derby then won the Belmont.

3 wins on the lead; try to catch me; set a slow pace when winning 2-back but went very fast early in last finishing last with a career-low Beyer; clearly today's added distance is a major issue; sire finished 4th in the Derby then won the Preakness.

4 of his 5 wins were produced when racing either 1-2-3 at the 1st call; was coming back on the winner of last while 2-back closed into slow fractions; main knock against is that his lone CD start represents a career-low Beyer; sire finished 18th in the Derby; is consistent enough to use in the exotics

 Was full of run in his Florida Derby romp when closing into a wicked-hot pace; Pletcher won this event in 2017 and has 2 Derby triumphs; curious that Johnny V who won on him in last takes Vino Rosso for this; looms a logical contender for win honors.

Deepest of closers has a rider who has won 3 Derbys; loomed boldly in his 2-back near-miss finish but flattened out; style suggests today's added yardage would only help his cause; sire finished 5th in the Derby; using on deepest of exotic plays.

 His 1st-dirt start was an eye-catching performance when widening on the lead under mild urging; his sire finished 18th in the Derby; liked that his 3-back win was via a stalking trip; clearly he wants to be in the pace mix early; trainer is 1 for the last 24 with graded-stakes starters; the pick.

 Projects to rally from off the pace following a race he needed off the 7-week absence; being out-finished 2-back at shorter is cause for concern especially when he was favored and received a perfect trip but could not fire best effort; others appeal more.
