THE TRAVERS STAKES

Seventh Race

1. DEVIL HIS DUE... 2. DIXIE BRASS... 3. ALYDEED

DEVIL HIS DUE may wind up as the only overlay available on the board for the Travers. Handled by the red-hot Allen Jerkens (who has sprung upsets on such immortals as Secretariat and Kelso with far lesser lights), this colt's two return races following the Peter Pan indicate he's recovered from an arduous spring campaign; return sprint in the mud against sharp older horses was an excellent tightener, and his Jim Dandy effort, in which he gained considerable ground on the leaders around the far turn, has him primed for a career-best performance, which is what he'll need to give Jerkens his fourth stakes victory of the Saratoga meet. Odds of 6-1 or better on that possibility are enticing. DIXIE BRASS tests the limits of his endurance, but he is unquestionably the pure speed and breaks from the inside, while THUNDER RUMBLE, who chased the pace all the way before running him down in the final yards of the Jim Dandy, drew the disadvantageous outside post and picks up nine pounds. If Dixie Brass can set a comfortable pace, he has a strong chance to win, but the connections of THUNDER RUMBLE and FURIOUSLY know this, so the opening fractions are likely to be taxing. ALYDEED, derailed in his bid for the Canadian Triple Crown at 1-20 over a track he didn't like, should have excellent striking position from close range down the backstretch, and will challenge for command into the final turn. If he can get the trip without Lasix, he's the one to beat—but that's too big an "if," and it qualifies him as a vulnerable favorite. FURIOUSLY, wide throughout the Jim Dandy, worked a sensational six furlongs at Oklahoma last weekend; his first three victories suggest he can be "any kind," although his final five-sixteenths in :32 1/5 while under the whip June 17 are cause for concern regarding his capabilities at 10 furlongs. BIEN BIEN is an improving California invader handled by the premier money rider in the game; he could fill out the triple at a long price.

1 1/4 MILES. (2.00) 123rd Running THE TRAVERS (Grade I). Purse $1,000,000 Guaranteed. 3-year-olds. By subscription of $1,500 each which should accompany the nomination; $3,000 to pass the entry box; $7,500 to start. The purse to be divided 60% to the winner, 22% to second, 12% to third, and 6% to fourth. Weight, 126 lbs. Starters to be named at the closing time of entries. The winner shall have its name inscribed on the Man o'War Cup and a gold plated replica will be presented to the winning owner. Trophies will also be presented to the winning trainer and jockey. Closed Wednesday, August 5 with 22 nominations.
