Pick: 6 Quick Brown Fox

In the last 3 years, Richard Mandella is 6 for 12 (50%) with 8 in the money (67%) with a debut 3YO+ sprinting on dirt in a MSW at Santa Anita. The ROI an amazing $6.21 (average win payoff of $12.42). Sire was a champion. Dam won 3 Grade 1's in 6 career starts. Mandella's live 1sters always have a sharp 6F drill.

Value: 1 Disposition

Michael McCarthy is 12 for 34 (35%) w/ 20 in the money (59%) with a $3.43 ROI with a first time starter sprinting on dirt and off at 7-1 or less. Interesting that Dettori is off #4 Ms Bo J and lands here. Sold for 190k a year ago and that is despite the fact the sire fee is just 7k. A sib was 3rd in the 2016 Louisiana Derby

Pick: 2 Stay Hot

5 entered and 5 can win. Evenly matched race but this one has just a bit something more. Winner of 3 of 4 turf starts and the lone defeat was in the BC Juv Turf when he was up on that fast pace and tired. Won the Baffle despite cutting back to a sprint. It's likely he improves on the stretchout. Has a strong late kick.

Value: 4 Lord Bullingdon

Makes his first start of the year after taking the Eddie Logan in his last start. Ran down the pacesetter in there after that one had an easy time of it up front. Encountered some trouble in a few of the turf starts prior. Love the worktab coming here for a trainer who does well off the bench. Rispoli stats aboard today.

8 Can't Sleep	5-2	Dettori
3 Quick Kate	3-1	Hernandez
6 Clubhouse Bride	8-1	Gonzalez
4 Recalcitrant	8-1	Gutierrez

Pick: 8 Can't Sleep

Looked live in the debut given the clocker report comments on her morning activity. She didn't take much money but won like a good thing. Gaines was either first (3 times) or 2nd in a close photo (2 times) in 5 of her last 8 with a last out maiden winner and sprinting on the turf. One of those winners had Dettori up.

Value: 6 Clubhouse Bride

Logical thought would be that trainer Eric Kruljac would move this one back to the dirt where she is 2 for 2 vs. keeping her on turf where she basically eased in her only start. That says that turf race was not indicative of her talent. He trained the dam of this one and sibs so he knows the family. Think she rebounds.

That runner-up has since won a MSW with a 94 Beyer and an opt clm by 11 with a 105 Beyer. Good efforts in the last two. Notice he was 5 clear of third two back. Gets a wide post which will give Dettori options. The one to beat here. Value: 1 I Don't Get It Reddam 4YO was formerly with Doug O'Neill and now moves to a lower percentage trainer. They thought he was worthy of a shot in the G1 Santa Anita Derby last out and didn't run all that badly considering the stumble at the start and 5-wide trip as a 30-1 chance. Slow 3F work a week ago signals readiness here. A) 6 B) 1,4 C) 3,5 D) 2	6 Matanzas Creek	8-5	Dettori	4 Hey Brother	2-1	Rispoli	1 I Don't Get It	6-1	Gutierrez	5 Fifth Street	3-1	Hernandez	7 – Maiden Special Weight 65K, 1M 1/8 Turf (7:00) 58 <table border="0"> <tr><td>2 Bartholdy</td><td>4-1</td><td>Dettori</td></tr> <tr><td>6 Let Seamus Go</td><td>5-2</td><td>Hernandez</td></tr> <tr><td>4 Nitti</td><td>15-1</td><td>Fresu</td></tr> <tr><td>3 American Glory</td><td>3-1</td><td>Rispoli</td></tr> </table> Pick: 2 Bartholdy Sire won the 2017 BC Juvenile Turf and his best runners have been turf runners. Have to view the last race as a prep for the longer turf races this year. That was a good track and he ran ok at 7-2. Blinkers come back on. 300k purchase has one of the best route turf riders in the world aboard. We'll see more today. Value: 4 Nitti He beat 14 foes at 18-1 odds in his last start in Ireland. He took some money in the first US start when 9th in the common race many of these come out of. He lost quite a bit of ground from a slow start from the gate. Never easy to overcome a bad start from the rail. Draws better today. He is a Grade 1 winner and has triumphed in 15 of 20 career starts so far. He's 8 for 10 here at Santa Anita. His only loss in the last year and a half was a reasonable 5th beaten 5 in the Grade 1 Breeders' Cup Sprint. Tricky breaking from the rail in this spot. Value: 3 I'm a Gambler First time racing on dirt for this 31-raced, 5YO gelding. He has worked well on the main track but this will be his first try on it in the afternoon. Has just one placing since arriving here in the US in 7 starts. That could be the reason to try something else with him. Glatt has been automatic lately. The winners went off at 20-1, 17-1 and 9-2. Willing to excuse the last two. Something went wrong in last that sent him to the bench. Got into a lot of traffic two back. Well-spaced worktab for a return. Value: 10 Smooth Salute Nobody was catching that wire to wire winner last time out as he went :49 for the half and put that field asleep. Won first off the claim two back at 11-1 with Franco aboard. Ended up with wide trips in the last two. Just seems like a better horse since the claim. Will have to navigate the wide post.
