Guaranteed Sweep

Familiarly with this course is a definite advantage for this colt as is the top-notch record of the trainer involved; lost by a scant length against these recently but earned his best lifetime Beyer over this surface and at this trip; would be the right selection if he happens to catch a muddy track; don't discount completely even over a dry surface.

Caught wide early in his tightening race and understandably faded; the mile does not appear his optimum distance but he has been training in excellent fashion since with a focus on the a.m. move of 10/18; must pick up four pounds off last failure, however.

Ole Rebel

Has never attempted the mile and despite an excellent sprint record, and being a multiple winner over this course, may have too much work to do; drew away powerfully 2 back for the score but enjoyed a fortunate inside path when doing so; trying two turns for the first time in a field such as this may prove too demanding a challenge.

By anyone's standards, "Derby Bill" Watson has earned the Best Credentials in the Handicapping World. He can't lie about his winners because he was out in front on radio and TV regionally and nationally...
Picked by ESPN as an on-air racing handicapper
"Derby Bill" has been handicapping for over 25 years, even being paid by the race tracks to provide expert "tip sheet" selections for their customers. He has been a national and regional broadcast handicapper for radio from Belmont, Churchill and Pimlico, and now for television. ESPN thought enough of "Derby Bill" Watson to make him an expert commentator on their national shows.
You don't achieve those highly respected positions unless you know what you're doing. Isn't it time you put "Derby Bill" to work for you so you can be a winner too?

Seek Gold

No factor against Balto Star who held off the onrush of Dynever in the Meadowlands Cup; this gelding seems to be a 9 furlong specialist and the cut-back to this distance may prove a bit too demanding; no disgrace in the performance two back when losing to the mighty Ghostzapper after a troubled beginning; remains difficult to pinpoint in this situation.

Absent Friend

Claimed in August and rested and the return victory was strong but against high-grade claimers; this seems an ambitious placement although his latest workout over this soil was razor sharp; note that 3 of the victories at a mile were around one turn; have doubts he can class up against this crew.

Sophomore is an obvious talent but is spotting way too much experience and position; has won the bulk of his money against fellow Canadian bred and although the last placing showed much courage, the outermost post at this configuration is too much to overcome.

Bare Necessities

If you are looking for experience, this is your mare. A veteran with 25 career starts, she was in good form while winning five of seven races from March 2003 through January 2004. She won a pair of Grade 3s, and was a contender that, beaten by 2 1/2 lengths by Azeri in the Vanity, unfortunately, her recent form has not been as good; she only finished 8th of seven in the Grade 3 Arlington, Matron; needs her best.

Island Fashion

Was an easy winner of the Grade 1 seven furlong La Brea, then repeated at that same distance in the Grade 1 Santa Monica; she ran a very strong race when she stretched out to 1 1/4 miles, and finished second vs. males in the Santa Anita Handicap; disappointed in the Apple Blossom, and in Group 1s in Japan, then took four months off; it is encouraging to see that she was coming back prep; I expect her to run a nice race second time back; her best performance wins this, and 5-1 is a better price; my selection.

Stellar Jayne

Have to respect a winner of three of her last six starts, especially when one was the Mother Goose, and another was the Gazelle; two of those losses were second-place finishes behind Society Selection, and Ashado in Grade 1s; on a sloppy and a muddy track, it would be easy to downgrade her for the third-place finish in the Grade 3 Indiana Oaks at Hoosier, but not if you believe that 103 Beyer; major player helps to make this a contentious field.

lo (UAE)

and 2nd with Grade 1 many her last 2 starts make definite threat here; she is of a Graded Stakes winner that is a half sister to stakes winners; she has 1 to race that is a stakes er; this filly had to dig in ily to capture her win last showing a lot of guts; ys a question of regression ch a hard fought battle but nt work is sharp and she : have only 4 races; she is ultimate contender in a well hed field and expect an est effort.

er World

foal out of a winning dam is a half sister to multiple ed Stakes winner Coaxing ; filly has the speed and a de 2 win under her belt; she fits from an inside post but s much tougher company i she did in Canada; would d to step up her Beyer num- several points and this sn't look like the spot for to wire the field.

e Gold

n won at 2 and retired a de 2 winner with $554K in nings; she has produced 3 ace all winners; like this filly ring into this off a big effort he Alcibiades; she was just iten a head for all of it and s making only her 3rd career rt; Zito a master at having e ready to peak at the right e and this filly looks to have t more gas in the tank; she'll e a price and looks like the and coming star.

way Model

m a stakes winner at 2 wing 4 of 7 starts; she has pro- ced 3 to race with 3 winners; s filly received Lasix for the t time last out and made a mēdous move in the lane to outure the Alcibiades; she was oture to win that posting hēst Beyer number so far; do estion if that may have been r peak performance and if e has enough left to handle her horses; still she has rned her way here and ouldn't be taken lightly.

Culinary

Dam won 1 of 6 races and this is her 2nd foal; this filly beat Alcibiades winner Runway Model in the Grade 3 Arlington-Washington Lassie; that was only her 2nd career start after having broken her maiden by 11 lengths; distance fits pedigree and she has a nice work over the track; Mr. Stidham at home in Lone Star and would look for a big effort from this lightly raced filly.

Dance Away Capote

Dam was winless in 7 starts and is a half sister to Skip Away; she has produced 2 others to race both winners; this filly made a big move in the Alcibiades to be a very close 4th; she broke badly and had to come from last in a field of 10 horses; would assume that race took a lot out of her and would need to be very special not to bounce off that; last Beyer makes her competitive but not convinced she can match that number here.

Sis City

First foal out of a winless dam that is a half sister to multiple Graded Stakes winner Swamp; this filly has the early speed but again can't see a gate to wire triumph in the field; she started to drift out in the stretch of the Frizzette settling for 3rd and will have Balletto plus several others closing in on her here; can't recommend.

Mona Lisa (GB)

Dam was unraced and is half sister to 3 Graded Stakes winners; she has produced 5 winners including 2 stakes winners; tough spot for a maiden but she does come off a 4th place finish in a Grade 1; trainer well respected in Breeders Cup events but this gal doesn't look like she can make it happen here.

Sense of Style

Dam a winner and stakes placed and is a half sister to 3 Graded Stakes winner and 2 stakes winners; she has produced 3 other winners including Graded Stakes winner in England Valentine Waltz; disappointed at Keeneland as the favorite but was coming off the toughest race of her career; she had some trouble getting through at the head of lane and could definitely be forgiven for that effort; note she is also getting Lasix for the first time here; her 92 Beyer is slightly the best number of these and wouldn't count her out off her last.

Sweet Catomine

Highly respected filly who easily handled the company in the Grade 2 Oak Leaf; she looked like she was far from hitting her best stride and could bring a huge game to this; she is the first foal out of a stakes winning dam that is a half sister to 3 stakes winners; she relishes the distance and after the easy winning stride of her last looks like the one to beat.

Culture Clash

Dam was winless in 6 starts and is a full sister to multiple Graded Stakes winner El Prado; this is her 2nd foal; filly finished way behind Sweet Catomine in the Oak Leaf and not convinced she gets close to her here, making only her 3rd career start and could improve but not looking for a major impact.

Sharp Lisa

Dam winless in 6 starts and is a half sister to Bien Bien; she has produced 1 other to race that is a winner; this filly is not to be overlooked either as she finished a strong 2nd at Keeneland posting an 89 Beyer in her 2nd start; an improvement off that effort puts her in the game here and worth a look in exotics.

Play With Fire

Dam won 2 of 5 starts and is a half sister to 4 Graded Stakes winners; she has produced 7 others to race with 5 winners including 1 stakes winner; has been keeping the tough company but hasn't been able to find the winners' circle in 3 Graded Stakes; she finished strong in the Frizette but didn't have enough to run down Balletto; recent work is very sharp but not convinced she can outrun a couple of these here either.

Special Ring
 Hard-hitting gelding is a 7-time winner at this mile distance, and he successfully defended his Eddie Read title in July; had a pretty easy trip that day, however, as he set moderate fractions while well off the rail as the lone frontrunner; they were getting to him at the end of the race, and he didn't gallop out extremely well; that was a pretty grueling effort, but the subsequent layoff may reinvigorate him to another good performance; he is at his best when he is on the lead, but the presence of Soaring Free may not allow him to relax up front; working well for an excellent barn, but a speed duel could doom him to defeat; taking a wait-and-see approach.

Soaring Free
 Hard to knock a horse that has won his last 6 starts on turf, and he would not be denied over his home turf in the Atto Mile last time out; quick recent works indicate that he has retained his good form, and it's possible that he is the speed of the speed in this lineup; even if that is the case, he probably will be pressured early by Special Ring; Beyer Speed Figures are going the right way, but he'll have to be at his very best to reach the winner's circle; leaning elsewhere for the winner.

Domestic Dispute
 He's a multiple Grade 2 winner on the main track, but his only turf race wasn't very pretty; in the 2003 Oak Tree Derby, he set a slow pace while alone up front, but couldn't muster the response needed to fend off the ralliers in the stretch; probably found the 10 furlongs of the Jockey Club Gold Cup too far last time out, and he should appreciate turning back in distance; don't think he's quick enough to make the lead, but he could fall into a solid stalking trip; must show more in order to beat these on grass.

Artie Schiller

Looked very impressive in breaking the track record in the Jamaica, and he finished his last 3/8s of a mile in a fantastic 33.3; was a bit washed out going to the post on 9/26, but soon settled into a nice stalking trip while in the 2nd path, took over turning for home, and turned the race into a romp; 3yo steps up against older in here, and one has to wonder if he is susceptible to a bounce after 3 straight Beyer tops; has the tactical speed to sit a great trip with possible first run on the pacesetters, and he certainly knows how to win; contender but could be best played 'underneath'.

Antonius Pius

This son of Danzig cost $1.5 million as a yearling, but he has often been his own worst enemy on the track; enigmatic colt had the Poule d'Essai des Poulains: wrapped up; but veered into the rail in late stretch; often very keen and hard to handle in the early stages of his races; and trials saps his stamina for when the real running begins; adds Lasix for the dangerous O'Brien barn, but he must be on his best behavior to defeat this quality field; one to watch in the paddock and warmups, but will side with others for win honors.

Diamond Green (Fr)

He's been extremely consistent this season in Europe, but the big prize has proven elusive; finished ahead of Antonius Pius and Whipper in a very sharp effort 2 starts back, but never really picked up his hooves in the Queen Elizabeth II at Ascot; he has yet to win at this mile distance, but picks up Frankie Dettori for this, and has proven to be a solid performer at the Group 1 level; trained by a world-renowned horseman, he should provide some value; don't count out.

Musical Chimes

She took a good deal of money for last year's Filly and Mare Turf, but she threw in the towel pretty quickly; it looks as if she's found a home between 8-9 furlongs, and she handled the boys in the Oak Tree Mile at Santa Anita last time out; had a pretty good trip stalking a pair of pace rivals, however, and was all out to get the job done; one has to wonder if she can put 2 grueling races back to back against the boys; rarely runs a bad one, but a minor award may be her ceiling here.

Singletary

Hasn't been off the board this year, and he did not have an easy trip in the Oak Tree Mile; raced 4 wide every step of the way, and was still battling it out gamely to the wire; that was a very grueling effort, but this will only be his second start off the layoff, and it wouldn't be surprising if he puts up his usual mid-100 Beyer effort; respect his tactical speed; interesting exotics factor.

Pt's Grey Eagle

Previous connections dropped him after a second in MSW first time out a year ago; a $62,500 well spent, he was ignored after his 2nd place finish at Fairplex and won a G1 at Santa Anita at almost 30-1; unlike the other 3yos in here, this young gelding has run against older horses and beaten them; his only finish worse than 2nd place was on turf; might boost exotics.

He beat Champali in front running fashion at Arlington then ran on the front end through torrid fractions in the Phoenix, where Champali turned the tables on him; has several works on this track and is the horse for the course with a 3-for-4 local record; some things to like.

Cuvee

Was a well regarded 2yo but was well beaten in last year's B C Juvenile at SA, where he faded to the back in his first start past a mile; hasn't been able to get to the winner's circle in two starts this year, and he's raced only once since his 3yo debut in May; pace factor, but it would be a surprise if he could hold on versus these older foes.

Defending B C Sprint Champ looks to make it two straight but the major difference is that this year he is not coming off a win and 2 seconds; disappointed in Dubai and still wasn't in his best in the Vosburgh last out, where he was in fourth; a head back from Speightstown works at Belmont aren't giving many clues.

Another starter here who has a claim in his past; he went on to find his next two wins in stakes company after connections snagged him for $85,000; and he finished fifth in the '03 Dubai sprint race; his only win this year was in an allowance at Belmont, and he was soundly beaten over the summer by a few he'll meet in here; hard to play off recent form.

Lightly raced 4yo came into this last year with solid 3yo form but was bumped out of contention when racing in the 2003 B C Sprint off quite a long layoff; the rest of the year was dull with minor awards in Graded stakes, but it looks like Frankel has him at his best coming into the race this year; drew off in the Forego at 7F but the only time he went 6F was in the 2003 Sprint; a lot to like about him, but the outside post doesn't help.

Cassidy's 2nd hope has kept her form despite making a number of cross country journeys this year; 1-for-5 BC pilot Valdivia may try to slow the pace down up front with the G2 Sheephead Bay winner, note she came within 1 length of Light Jig at Hollywood and finished 3rd to Star Over the Bay, a 6-year-old gelding entered in the BC Turf; eligible to inject value into exotics.

The field's only 3-year-old is a deserving favorite in the Filly and Mare Turf; filly captured both the G1 English and Irish Oaks overseas before a gallant effort to outfinish 16 foes in the Arc (race captured by the colt Bago, 7-for-9 lifetime); Kieran Fallon guided Islington to a win in this event last year and could be poised to repeat; connections also mull over starting in the $2 million Turf instead of this apparently softer spot; of course, value will not be on tap in her first U. S. start; formidable.

Gray filly has come up wanting in her only G1 and G2 tries; set a soft pace in Keeneland comeback yet still was outfinished by Super Brand, a confirmed long-shot today; half to Chile Chatie ($317K) and Jadada ($448K) is another yet to earn a 100 Beyer so Bejarano, 2-for-5 while hooking up with trainer Shirota, may try to hustle her up early and hope to slow down the fractions; has enjoyed a decent 4-year-old campaign but doesn't appear a threat against these.

Light Jig (GB)

The morning line 2nd choice gives off mixed signals; drew off to a convincing Yellow Ribbon win yet only 2000 victress Tranquility Lake posted as low a winning Beyer in the past 13 runnings of that key BC prep; perennial Eclipse winner Frankel finished 1-2 in this event in '02 with Starine and Banks Hill but sports a 2-for-57 career BC mark; of course, this filly is 4-for-6 in America, owns fine tactical speed and enters this major goal relatively fresh; capable if Ouija Board doesn't fire her best shot.

Aubonne (GER)

14-time BC winning rider Bailey (won this event with Soaring Softly and Perfect Sting) will pilot longshot making her 3rd U.S. try; is she a G1 quality turfer? G3 heights were the highest she ascended to overseas and note chestnut could not last after setting a slow pace in the Beverly D; German-bred did encounter traffic in latest and the right rider is aboard to cure that problem; others rank higher for the win.

Riskaverse

Millionaire finally put to rest distance limitations in her $19.40 Belmont upset; losses to Wonder Again, Megahertz, Yesterday and Shaconge adorn her resume however; also note she posted the lowest winning Beyer in the Flower Bowl since Far Out Beast's 98 in 1993; half to Cozzy Corner ($303K) now stretches out an additional furlong under 1-for-4 BC jockey Velasquez, who is now 2-for-2 aboard her; requires very best effort to factor for a slice.

Megahertz (GB)

Frankel's 2nd starter enters the BC off a 5 month freshening and she has proven she can fire fresh on more than 1 occasion; acquitted herself nicely in this event at Santa Anita and proceeded to capture 3 of 4 with lone loss behind a slow pace in the G1 Gamely; 5-for-48 BC rider Nakatani is aboard her for the 1st time; main concern could be off the board finish in her only U. S. try out of California; dangerous.

Yesterday (IRE)

The '03 3rd finisher has been a bit disappointing this year overseas; 3-for-25 BC trainer O'Brien also saddled Santa Anita runnerup L'Ancrese and adds blinkers while trying to get filly to remember G1 winning form; Irish-bred is capable of recapturing best stride and a generous price will tempt those seeing fit to try to beat Ouija Board; not impossible.

12 Wonder Again

Wonder Again

G1 winning mare attempts to shake off a disappointing defeat over footing she relished in a pair of July triumphs; can't question mare's ability but is she coming into her toughest test in the best fashion?; no one tops the 110 Beyer this filly-sister to Japanese G1 winner Grass Wonder fired in the Diana although she breaks from the extreme slot this afternoon; Prado is in the midst of an excellent year yet sports an 0-for-33 BC record; others entice more for the top prize.

A CLOSER LOOK

7th Lone Star

Sun King

Checked in third to Proud Accolade and Affleet Alex in the Champagne-G1 in his first stakes try and first start outside the maiden ranks; gets a good post today for his stalking style and seems to be the kind of colt who will improve with distance as his sire did; though he got a little leg weary in the final eighth in NY, expect he will be more than able to finish well today and if a quick pace takes the life out of the top picks, he could come along to pick up the pieces; player.

Roman Ruler

Just a neck away from being a perfect 4-for-4, this Baffert trainee gets a hood removal today and with a bullet 5f on his work tab at Santa Anita prior to shipping to Texas, expect we can see the Roman Ruler in Del Mar this time; was an easy winner of the Norfolk S. vs an overmatched field, he meets colts exiting G1 competition and must be at this best today; may prove more of a forward factor this time with no real gate-to-have-the-lead type in the gate; likely to sit off Proud Accolade and/or Consolidator before kicking into gear.

Affleet Alex

Tasted defeat for the first time to Proud Accolade in the Champagne but have to like the way he was coming back again at the finish; has rallied from behind in each of his starts and as the Champagne (marked his first start beyond a mile, he to feel he'll move forward of that; along with Roman Ruler he is the only dual stakes winner in this race and a 5f mile over this Lone Star track may give him an edge his other rivals don't have; like his chances to rebound to a winning effort with 21 days to recover from his last; the pick today.

Consolidator

Breeders' Futurity winner may look easy at Keeneland and Bejarano as he obviously was not at his best in the Hopeful over a sloppy track after coming in with the gate; Lukas has knack for getting his 2yos ready for this event and have to admire the way this colt pulled away late in the stretch suggesting he will be one of the strongest finishers today; get up for part and bullet Churchill Oct. 18 says he's holding his form.

Proud Accolade

Mr. Perfect after three starts and the deserving favorite today, this colt passed the mile and beyond test in the Champagne; has been on or just off the lead in each of his races and expect he will be not worse than second after the first call today and is likely to be in front; outer post today shouldn't him too much with his early speed and two works since his G1 win prove he is still sharp; owns the highest recent-race Beyer of this bunch, but have to wonder if he will be able to withstand late challenges from Afleet Alex, Consolidator, Sun King, Roman Ruler and the Europeans; the only way he can is to get an easy lead, something can't see him doing from this post; a vulnerable fave.

Twice Unbridled

Still eligible for a maiden race, this colt is very ambitiously spotted; granted he has closed like a housefire in both races and traffic problems last time contributed to his effort, but seems like there is another two-turn event with his name on it somewhere on the West Coast; would like the board if he lives up to connections expectations; pass.

Wilko

Started ten times since May at eight different racetracks in Great Britain, so can't imagine the shipping or strange surroundings will cause him problems; just-off-the pace style overseas may find him farther back in a race where the opening splits will be faster than he's seen; traffic problems contributed to his third behind Scandinavian in the Royal Lodge-G2 last out; sire won the Breeders' Cup Classic and have to admire this colt's durability; look for him to come running and complete the exacta with Afleet Alex.

Regardless of how the AP stewards came down, he was clearly the best horse in the Arlington Million; unfortunately, he was upstaged within the hour by Kitten's Joy, a 3yo who eclipsed his 10f time and Beyer by the equivalent of about 3 lengths; unlike recent years, there were no real standouts among the European runners this year, and having held his own throughout the campaign he can be held in high regard; that said, he is no High Chaparral, Fantastic Light, or Daylami - continental runners who towered over their BC fields on class; and this year is also different due to the presence of an exceptional American colt; major threat to KJ, who we are standing by.

Request for Parole

Ticket here was most likely punched in July with his half-length win in the U.N., though telling that his two closest rivals that day can not be labeled 11 specialists; has never been a fan of soft ground, which he encountered in NY, but ultimately feel the quality of competition proved to be the biggest stumbling block rather than the condition of the course; unless there is severe regression by the pair that just beat him, he's running for a minor check.

Strut the Stage
A nice horse but not nearly as talented as Quiet Resolve, his former Sam-Son stablemate who crashed the exacta at a price in the 2000 Turf; in fact, you have to go back two years to find an effort in G1 company; solid defeats to lesser talents this season suggests this assignment is way too tough.

Kitten's Joy
The more we've seen of him, the more we like him. To Sunshine Forever and Manila, the last great 3yo turf stars based in America; SF had a few more chinks in his armour at this point in '88, while Manila had fewer still in '86; like the Jolley colt, this guy has never finished worse than second on the weeds, has proven the dominant leader of his division, and owns a victory over his elders in the Turf Classic; course condition does not matter, nor is it important who is riding - he simply shows up and does his job every time; perhaps the one thing that makes a win probable is that there are no Europeans the quality of a High Chaparral or Fantastic Light to fear in this renewal; formidable.

Better Talk Now
Relinquishes his Knickerbocker title today in an attempt to pull off a massive upset against some of the world's best; appears, however, that he is in the same boat as Request for Parole; both have faced (and lost to) inferior company this season, and while Man o' War performance (in his case) was no disgrace, he had no answer to what could be the public's third choice; unlike Parole he doesn't seem to mind a little give in the ground; still needs more than that to threaten.

Magistretti

Not necessarily one of the brighter lights on European stages, but he's definitely elevated his game since moving to the Biancone barn; stretch bid in the Man o' War was beautiful and though no match to KJ in the Turf Classic, perhaps his close proximity to the early leaders forced him to expend his energy earlier than he would have liked; arguably a truer 12f horse than Powerscourt, and for that reason he might prove to be the bigger threat to KJ if allowed to rate a further off the pace this time; one to fear in the final quarter.

Star Over the Bay

The claim of the year? Perhaps if he still had residual value as a stallion prospect, but still fairly astute nonetheless; hard to knock what he's been able to do for Mitchell and company; he is the only one with experience over this turf course, and in a normal race we would find the lone-speed angle appealing; the downside is that this is the toughest field he has ever faced by far, and being king of the California marathon scene isn't what it used to be; difficult to endorse for more than a top-tier super completion.

Mustanfar

Perhaps in any other year he would have been the nation's leading sophomore grass runner; unfortunately, colts like Kitten's Joy, Artie Schiller, and Prince Arch (to name a few) have relegated him to a lower rung on the totem pole; perhaps is better than most of those in the 10f-12f range, with the exception of Kitten's Joy, and that's a big exception; impressive win in the Sycamore still only produced a 99 Beyer, at least ten points under what will be needed to vie for a top-three check; think a faster, stronger Mustanfar shows up at Belmont next year.

Ghostzapper

Historically, it takes a Beyer performance in the 1:14-1:20 range to win this race and there is much to like here with the colt having posted within those parameters and beyond in his last 4 outings; it has been more than 8 weeks between starts, but Frankel is superb at keeping his charges tight on the sidelines; the main question here is whether this stalker type will be able to sustain a bid with the added 1/4 mile; sharp drills are encouraging and he can press the expected hot pace on a track that is generally considered a fast surface; ranks as a major player wet or dry.

Deep closer type will have to buck the trend in that no BC Classic winner has come from farther back than 12 lengths after a half mile; will be challenged to stay within that range with the pace expected to be fast and contentious; on the upside it is encouraging that he handled the distance in his last race, but will need the race of his life to land a share of this prize and doubt that he has a forward move in him at this stage of his career.

She is a Champion and the Queen of Hearts, and trainer is renowned for his great successes with female runners including the last filly to win the Kentucky Derby; still, this mare will have to rewrite history to land the prize here; she ran poorly in the Metropolitan vs the boys, couldn't break the triple digit Beyer level at the distance, has been peaking every other race and this is one in her downside, and she has never eclipsed the 114 Beyer level; connections report that she is in superb form and expect much out of her here, but her best is probably not going to be good enough; makes her presence felt early, but is more likely to fade from the spotlight.

Veteran has yet to make it to the circle this year and has been beaten by 4 of these rivals already; still, he is an honest performer and can't be dismissed lightly; would feel more confident had he finished better at Hawthorne, but this race sets up well for his off the pace presence and with a little help from a sizzling pace he can pick up the pieces for a minor award.

Outran his odds to capture his first graded stake victory and has been improving steadily throughout the year; may have been aided by the muddy conditions in Louisiana though, and will have to try to stay closer to the pack to challenge these; we still haven't seen the best of this guy, but he is up against some quicker rivals who are farther along in their development and is likely to be left with too much to do coming for home.

Roses in May

There have been several BC Classic winners that have taken it on the front end and this colt has shown some tenacity in fending off challengers; will be tested to his limits with several other speed horses entered and will have to sustain his bid under pressure for a 1/8 mile longer than he has ever run; performed well with 6 weeks off between starts for his latest and work-tab suggests that he is still sharp for this event; impact player from the break and will be tested to the limits, but pedigree suggests that he can handle the added ground; contender.

Personal Rush

Clear winner vs GT company in Japan and have to respect the fact that he improved while on the rise and stretching to the Classic distance, somewhat of a wild card here, but Timeform ratings measure up, tracking style plays well in this contest, and youngster is primed for the conditions, on the downside, there is the trip over, but he has the pedigree top and bottom to go the distance, certainly worth a look in the paddock and likely to add some value to the exotics.

Funny Cide

Last year's Triple Crown darling may not get the job done as often as one would like, but he has been a gutsy runner in every start this year and hasn't dipped below the triple digit Beyer level; it will be interesting to see if he is called upon to challenge Roses in May from the break or lay off that responsibility to another, either way he is likely to be in the mix early and stands as good a chance as any to land a piece of the prize; primed for his best and shouldn't be ignored.

Newfoundland

Seems to have gotten things straightened out with the addition of front wraps for his chest, willing to toss the whipper in took from Ghostzapper, he's back and certainly looks capable of challenging Roses in May and company when at his best; does present a somewhat iffy proposition, but he has made 3 solid runs at this distance vs top notch rivals with the speed to track and he finishes well; can land a share.

 Year winner vs G1 company in Japan and have to respect the act that he improved while on the rise and stretching to the classic distance; somewhat of a wild card here, but Timeform ratings measure up, tracking style plays well in this contest, and youngster is primed for the conditions; on the downside, here is the trip over, but he has the pedigree top and bottom to go the distance, certainly worth a look in the paddock and likely to add some value to the exotics.

His best would put him in the mix with these, but he has yet to hit the circle this year and has shown a declining trend in form; veteran has earned a good deal of respect for challenging the best all year long, but couldn't beat them with his best and is less likely to finish as close this time out; prefer to back others.

Pleasantly Perfect

Won this event last year and looks ready to defend the crown; lightly raced, but has 4 solid outings this year and the powerful effort, at this distance, in the Pacific Classic has set the table for this challenge; West Coast runners have performed well over the fast Lone Star surface and pace scenario should play to his advantage here; Mandella shined in the series last year and expecting him to keep some of the light with this guy; my choice for the repeat.

Dynever

Posted a 106 in the MedBC last year in prep then ran the race of his life to capture 3rd place in the BC Classic; tuned up for this contest with the exact same effort and has had a bit more time off so may have even more in the tank this time around; colt is the only one with experience over this strip, but gets a tough draw with the outside post and may have trouble landing a good spot; impressed with the consistency and looks ready for his best, but the 13 hole may blow his chances; interesting, but investing in others.

Gentlemen J J

Was flying late in latest and he added distance figures to his the cause of trying to nail down 1st win of the year; the way he circled the field and was making up lots of ground late seems worthy of losing a demand value (15-1).

Sea Dub

Another one that figures to be closing late at a big price; finished behind similar in most recent, but was too far back early to be given a real chance to win it all; this is obviously a much tougher spot, but seems capable of sneaking into the exotics underneath.

Waupaca

Learned to rate in latest after being 1st at the 1st call in 9-of-last-10 starts; the blinkers are removed for this, so maybe the rating tactics are a permanent fixture?; has talent and latest ranks as a career-best Beyer despite the style change; finished behind some of these over this course in June; some serious upside.

Needwood Blade (GB)

Finally earned a United States victory when nailing the speed in G3 NoCal stakes; has had many close defeats and needed 9 furlongs to get up, which is why the shortening up today is very much a concern; last represents the best last-race Beyer in the field; 9-time turf winner should be moving strongly in the late stages trying to land a share.

Since his Dallas Turf Cup late-running victory over the course, he has not come close to duplicating that effort; recent as the favorite was poor and he faces much tougher today; mixed feelings.

Ball Four

Steps way up following a troubled 3rd in New York; rider is 5-for-14 for the barn in 2004, scoring 1st time riding him 2-back; won from post 10 in grass debut, but wasn't facing this kind; would have to move up quite a bit to knock these off.

Spanish Chestnut

Big effort from the 10 post in his Keeneland debut to earn a huge Beyer when bet down to 2-1 for the sloppy unveiling; any concern that he may have just loved the gooey going was removed when he drilled the bullet 5/8's here last Sunday; Biancone babies are known for firing a big shot first time out, but the second out numbers are pretty impressive as well; scary and certainly the one to down, but the likely short price does not entice.

Logan's Draw

Speedster couldn't last after pressing the pace when Lasix was added in his local return last out; draws well for barn that has had a nice meet; love the 10/18 drill for his return to stakes company, but if he's unable to make the top early, will he be able to stalk and finish with these?

-Steve Grabowski

A CLOSER LOOK

12th Lone Star

Calverstown
Like the inside post for this but it doesn't look like he has the speed to take full advantage of this inside draw; he needs a contested pace to have his best shot, but on the positive side this rider has won with 5 of 21 mounts for barn at the meet and with 11 of 44 for barn on the year.

Stauch

Veteran has a little back class to draw from and have to like the way he returned running off the layoff in latest; not thrilled about playing this barn on the turf, and he did get an ideal setup in latest; rider has won with 2 of 12 mounts for this barn at the meet.

Distorted Cat

Stretches out a bit after a couple of sprint efforts off a layoff and it's been awhile since he's visited the winners circle; 3rd place finisher from latest returned to win on the dirt, and 1-28 career mark makes it tough to have confidence on the win end; rider has won with 2 of 10 mounts with barn on the year.

Rock Harbor

Can't ignore that this is a lightly raced 3-y-o boasting improving form and a case can be made that he's the only one in the field with potential for better; on the flip side he's facing some hardened campaigners and still has to prove himself; barn is having a big meet and look to rider that has won with 6 of 19 mounts with barn at this current meet and with 13 of 59 with barn on the year.

Toratora

If nothing else this colt appears to be well meant in this spot returning to turf making second start of current form cycle; he has run a race or two over turf that can place him in the hunt with these, so if he can get a little racing luck from the outside he can have a say; rider has won with one of 7 mounts for this barn on the year.
