Sweeping Story

Has butted heads with Ruby Surprise all year, and would love to close out the year by finishing ahead of that nemesis; problem is that there are other contenders in this spot that she'll have to improve even more to take the measure of; one of many in here that could be found setting the pace, you'll note that her third place finishes at this track came in the KY Oaks-G1 and in a N4X at this one-turn mile distance; would be a surprise if she got the job done, but not if she boosted the exotics slots.

What happened last time on the Santa Anita hillside course? perhaps she got cooked by racing too near that suicidal sub-.44 opening half-mile; well-traveled gal visits her sixth different track this year and she can give Day the same response she did under his handling at Saratoga, she'll be a serious contender at this mile distance; love her versatility on dirt and turf and on fast and wet surfaces as well; conditioned by the high percentage trainer Mandella and wouldn't be here if he didn't think she belonged; deserves respect off back-to-back-to-back 100-plus Beyers this summer and if she bounced a bit last time, then chance are her form is in an upswing today; like her alot.

A CLOSER LOOK

Distaff

Heritage Of Gold

It wasn't so long ago when this mare was the frame of reference for the division; she ousted Beautiful Pleasure off her throne at Oaklawn, then scored back-to-back wins over top company under the Spires; her true class was revealed in the rematch at Saratoga when she did the unthinkable running down Beautiful Pleasure in the slop; life hasn't been so glorious since then; an extremely dull effort in the Personal Ensign was an early sign she may have peaked too soon; Amoss had her checked after the Spinster debacle and got a clean bill of health; despite the absence of physical problems, she's been working on turf to protect her from any additional wear and tear before today's race; as a confidence builder and a conditioning activity, turf works are less than what she needs to have a chance at beating Riboletta and getting back into the Eclipse race; appears headed for a minor share again.

Crimplene

History shows that the Distaff has been the most formful event on Breeders' Cup Day; outside of One Dreamer's upset in '94, this race has always been won by a filly or mare who was voted champion 3-year-old or older female in year-end polls; it is unlikely you'll have to look across the Atlantic for the winner this year; this filly does sport terrific credentials though; she's a classic winner in two countries and a multiple Group 1 winner up to 1 1/4 miles; her lone start on dirt was a 6th behind colts in the UAE Derby; while she may be one of the best in England, her recent regression and questionable dirt ability undoubtedly gives the yank an edge.

Lu Ravi

This mare has had a terrific career but has always been a cut below the very best of the division; she escaped Heritage of Gold for three races this summer and turned in awesome performances; note, however, that those she beat at Sportsman's, Delaware, and Monmouth are nowhere to be found in this race; while her attempt against Ribolletta is not a true representation of her talent, it does not inspire much confidence; in the cat fight for a minor check.

Spain

Lukas deserves a lot of credit for turning this filly's fortunes around and bringing out her true talents; Mth Oaks and Turway BC wins, plus the runner-up try in the Spinster, create a solid foundation for a potentially strong 4-year-old season; for now, she'll have to be content with chasing her elders and hoping one or more of them don't peak like running today; mid-pack finish most likely.

Jostle

Even if she doesn't win today, she's pretty much sewed up the 3-year-old filly title; the division took a beating from critics as not being especially deep this year, but it certainly has risen in stature with recent performances by this filly and Plenty of Light; her season started off on the wrong hoof in New Orleans, but she hasn't taken a backward step since, reeling off wins in the most prestigious sophomore races; we may still see her peak again this afternoon; she wasn't facing much in the Cotillion, but Servis and Co. got what they wanted from her, not to mention a 106 Beyer; if one of the big mares has an off day, you can bet this one will be ready to exploit the situation.

Surfside

This filly is the product of two great champions and has demonstrated the talent to become one herself before she's retired; injury caused her to miss most of this season and she only returned to the races at the beginning of the Keeneland meet; while her Haven Fun was an honorable effort despite faltering under the weight of her own pace, it is doubtful that one 7f race will be enough preparation to have a chance at beating the most talented group of mares seen in many years; an early fave for Belmont in 2001.

Speaking of Time

This is a filly most everyone in attendance would love to own; she's earned a lot of money (more than paid for her $25k purchase price) and has given her connections many thrills by competing at some of the highest levels in the sport, all after starting her career in claiming races; on the other side of the coin, she's not BC material; she's never won a graded stakes and has chased Ribolotta four times this year to no avail; she also comes here off a loss in the least competitive prep for the Distaff; in too deep.

Riboletta

In the span of six races, she has blossomed into one of the most impressive mares we've seen, at least since Bayakoa; trainer Inda has said as much and he should know, having been an assistant to McAnally when Bayakoa was winning coast-to-coast; her explosive late kick is as authoritative as it is demoralizing to her competition; all McCarron has done recently is given her a slight nudge and she's taken off without hesitation; the whip has been used more to wave at the crowd after crossing the finish line; like Bayakoa, Riboletta seems to handle any track with equal ease; she scorched 3f here 9 days after her Beldame win, a positive sign considering many good ones have left their best outside the Downs' ancient walls; remember though that this is a horse race, not shooting fish in a barrel; Riboletta can be beat; but if she runs her race, it is hard to see how.

Beautiful Pleasure

The defending champion has made few major missteps on the road to her title defense; like last year she exits a huge effort in the Beldame with a big Beyer; of course this year someone else earned an even bigger Beyer in that Belmont fixture; she had everything her own way in that race—a commanding lead and an affinity for the course (note her previous 3 races at Belmont); yet when it was time for the real running to start, Chavez was whipping and driving while McCarron was on autopilot; on current form she's the main threat to Riboletta and the most likely winner if the Inda mare doesn't have it today.

-Vance Hanson

Cindy's Hero

Upset winner of the Del Mar Debutante is from the family of the multiple G1 winning filly Silverbulletday, who won this race in '98; 3rd as the favorite to Notable Career, she was making up ground late going a mile at Santa Anita; has been defeated twice as the favorite; supporters will be confident with Stevens in the saddle.

This Zito filly broke her maiden first time out on a muddy track at Saratoga before she finished as an also-ran in the G1 Spinaway and the Ky Cup Juvenile Fillies; just when the betting public gave up on her, she exploded with a 2nd place finish under McCarron in the G1 Frizette behind the undefeated and multiple graded stakes winning Storm Cat filly Raging Fever; this is her second try going 1 1/16 miles; should be a big factor with a late run today.

Dominated at Calder then ran fifth after checking near the first turn in the Alcibiades at Keeneland; connections are willing to throw that race out, and so are we; has handled a route of ground with ease, and though she was facing easier company, she won by such large margins in the past that you cannot discount her.

Nasty Storm

Out of a multiple winning router, she won first time out on this oval but was ineffective in subsequent sprint races, including an NIX at Saratoga; woke up with a 2nd place finish going a bit longer in the G1 Spinaway then improved with extra distance at Keeneland, where she finished a head behind She's A Devil Due in the Alcibiades; win at the track and improvement going longer should be strongly considered; Gulch filly has yet to run her best; like her chances here.

Raging Fever

Dam was G3 placed in the Golden Rod S. at age 2 and her first foal, Stormin Fever, is a G3 winning full brother to this undefeated filly; was favored each trip to post except in her last, where she had Bailey and first Lasix and won by almost 2 lengths; one of the few to have gone this distance, she simply waited to make her move in the Belmont stretch; unbeaten and twice a G1 winner; may be hard to deny.

Dam is a stakes winning earner of $180k who is a 3/4 sister to G2 winner Whatyourpleasure ($356k) and stakes winner Larla, and full sister to G1 winner Five Star Flight ($351k); won her first main track start at Keeneland in the Indian Summer, but she has yet to go two turns; English Gr. 3 winner starts for Hall of Fame trainer Neil Drysdale, who is sure to have her ready.

Caressing

Keeneland September sales graduate is a half sister to 2yo stakes winner Platinum Blonde, who was also G3 placed as a juvenile; her dam, stakes winner Lovin Touch, ran 2nd in the '83 Black-Eyed Susan S. and is a half sister to Hattab Gal, who produced multiple G1 winning millionaire Sea Cadet; sire ran third in the B C Sprint as a 3yo; filly broke her maiden at EIP just days after Greta K. lost her bug then ran an impressive race in the Bassinet S. at River Downs; continued improvement in the AP-Wash. Lassie S. stretching out to a mile says she could be a big factor going an extra 1/16.

Xtra Heat

$5k auction purchase is out of a stakes placed mare; broke her maiden for a tag first time out then went on to win 4 straight stakes on the east coast; reaffirmed her class with a brilliant stretch move to win the G2 Astarita at almost 8-1 at Belmont over Gold Mover, who beat the boys in her second start, the G3 Ky B C; there has been some question about this filly's ability to go the distance, but her sire won the Louisiana Derby in '93 - dam ran mostly in sprints; this filly hasn't done anything wrong yet and this really is a wide-open race; throw into exotics.

Out of a stakes winning earner of $125k, she is the top earner of leading freshman and 2yo sire Storm Creek; saw her first defeat in the Colleen S. at her home track, then she went on to win a pair of graded stakes events there and at Saratoga; faded late at Belmont when stretching out to this distance, and it's likely that she can get worn down on the lead dueling with the other speedsters in this race.

Golden Eagle homebred is a 3/4 sister to multiple G1 winning millionaire General Challenge; saw her first defeat as the hot favorite in the CTBA, where Cindy's Hero took advantage of the fast pace and drew clear to win by less than a length; this filly returned to go wire-to-wire in the one-mile Oak Leaf, in which she beat that rival by more than 4 lengths; never worse than second in 6 starts, she should only get better at longer distances.

She's A Devil Due

One of several undefeated runners in this race, she held on to win the Alcibiades at Keeneland over Nasty Storm and Cash Deal when going from a 6-furlong sprint to the distance of today's race; closer can come from way off the pace if she loses ground early like she did in her first 3, or track close behind the leader to win, as she did last out in her first graded stakes attempt; wouldn't be a surprise to see McPeck and company in the winner's circle again here.

Bert Klein homebred is the first foal out of his stakes winning mare Allthway Bertie, an earner of $233k; it took her a few races to get a win, but she drew away at TP under Pat Day going short; on to the AP-Wash. Lassie, and she led all the way; she had the lead when Jeremy Beasley went to twirl his whip and give her a tap, oops... it was gone, and so was this filly; peaking at the right time?

Muhtathir

Chestnut's tactical gear led to his powerful upset Group 1 win over BC pre-entrant Kingsalsa; lacked a solid late bid in his North American debut but now draws the beneficial rail slot as opposed to post 11 and has that experience under his belt; Suroor conditioned Daylami to a win in the BC Turf last year and states that this miler "wants fast ground" to fire his best shot and he may well get it; Dettori can afford to be aggressive and secure a forward stalking spot since likely pace threats Affirmed Success and North East Bound are drawn outside; threatens from start to finish with a ground-saving journey given a firm course condition.

Altibr

A change in strategy has been responsible for this runner's recent American success; he'd previously accomplished his most important score (the $500K Dubai Duty Free) in wire-to-wire fashion but rate-and-finish tactics have been necessary for him to perform at a high level on the turf; was getting to Hap late in the Fourstardave however it all came together in winning an important Mile prep in Kentucky; Shadwell Stable colorbearer has never been better and he'll need to step forward again as he tackles his toughest assignment; can factor if the 'hard drive' at Keeneland didn't take just a bit out of him.

Walkslikeaduck

3-year-old has done little wrong since switching to the grass but is tested for class facing elders for the 1st time this afternoon; put forth a big effort in the Del Mar Derby although the runner-up from that event returned to finish a tiring 6th behind War Chant in the Oak Tree Mile; his positional speed may prove to be not as effective at a mile as it has been at 9 furlongs; the distance of his 2 best efforts; there's no questioning this colt's talent although this may be asking too much too soon at this stage of his career; a 2001 BC Mile contender?

Indian Lodge

Colt's 2nd Group 1 stakes win of the year over soft ground at Longchamp earned the field's best Timeform rating (128); this Irish-bred has really matured with experience and he's recently attained a higher level of consistency winning 6 of his last 9 starts; note his lengths triumph over Kingsalsá and Diktat, a pair of accomplished BC pre-entrants who didn't draw into this race; Eddery (who's ridden 2 BC winners) returns for the ride after upsetting a favorite (Dansili) who he'll meet again today; European shipper needn't be far off the early pace while some give to the ground will only make him tougher; appears capable.

Arkadian Hero

Near miss in the Atto Mile after spotting the field 8 lengths at the break was certainly a tremendous performance; that poor start represents a relapse of a problem that plagued him earlier in his career (on both 9-20-97 and 5-30-98); doesn't boast as impressive a European resume as many of these and his very best races overseas came sprinting; consistency doesn't seem his trademark as he's only won 4-of-19 since his 2yo campaign; Cumaní conditioned Barathra to a '94 BC Mile triumph; it's possible that North America's firmer ground suits him so late run isn't out of the realm of possibility with an alert break.

Affirmed Success

Multiple Grade 1 dirt winner's BC flops sent Schosberg looking for alternatives and turf racing was a natural option for a son of top grass sire Affirmed; he's made a smooth transition to the grass earning competitive figures while winning 2-of-4; his detractors will argue that the recent Kelso near miss was yet another example of him coming up just a bit short in a big race however (as his 5-race stakes losing streak when heavily beat from 11-26-98 to 9-6-99 indicates); was outgamed by Forbidden Affra despite setting moderate fractions but it took a 109 Beyer to deny him victory; Chavez has the option to go to the lead again here with main pace foe North East Bound-drawn in post 14; hard-hitter always seems to fire and figures tougher if able to control a moderate pace; factors from the bell but may be vulnerable to a late challenge.

War Chant

Emphatically answered a number of questions in the impressive Oak Tree Mile win; 3-year-old emerged from a 5-month layoff to defeat elders while making his grass debut; his eye-catching move belied the talent that earned him favoritism in the Santa Anita Derby; certainly has a suitable pedigree being a son of Danzig (sire of '92 and '93 Mile winner Lure) and the '93 Distaff champ; more obstacles await as he picks up weight meeting a tougher field than he encountered at Oak Tree (favored Iridanos was never involved in the running); Drysdale is an excellent 5-for-20 in BC events and the (really) big horse is still in the barn; has the talent for this task, although wagering value will not be in evidence.

Talented colt's improving Beyer pattern was halted in the Kelso as a less-than-ideal trip and moderate pace worked against him (1-2-3 Kelso finishers ran that way for much of the race); interesting that Bailey chooses King Cugat for 5-time winning BC trainer but 7-time BC winner McCarron can ably deputize; 600 lifetime batter has yet to win at a mile however he seems to possess the right rate-and-finish strategy for this race; has been favored in 8 of 10 outings and may offer value as a longer price than he's ever been sent postward; an interesting exotics consideration as a rare overlay for Mott.

A pair of stakes upsets in important Belmont events have suddenly landed this 5-year-old in the national spotlight; accomplished both recent wins by closely attending moderate paces from inside posts however he must deal with a wide draw today; has solid ancestry for this event as his $3 million earning half-brother Paradise Creek was runnerup in the Mile to Lure in '92; earned the best last-out Beyer in the Kelso and now tries for his 3rd in a row carrying an additional 10 lbs.; no disputing his current form although the wide draw may preclude him from getting the kind of favorable trip he needs to defeat this Grade 1 field.

North East Bound

In such good current form that a switch to the main track didn't stop him from achieving a triple-digit Beyer in a Grade 2 score; speedtype has always been at his best on the green and his ascent to graded success included a 4th behind Hap and Altibr after a speed duel; figured the likely pacesetter before the post position draw although post 14 definitely complicates matters; to run and gun hoping to clear Affirmed Success and Muhtathir; 10-time winner faces enough obstacles in this spot as he's unproven on the grass in G1 and G2 events; speed and retreat appears the likeliest scenario today.

Sprint

More Than Ready

More Than Ready is not known as a particularly fast work horse, so when you see him rattling off bullets in the a.m., it's easy to buy into Pletcher's assertion that this outstanding 3yo is doing better than ever; he obviously likes the track, having won his first stakes here as a juvenile, and his 4th-place finish in the Kentucky Derby may have been his most valiant effort; horses with natural speed who have been competitive at the highest level in routes can be very dangerous in this event - names like Precisionist, Gulch and Cherokee Run come to mind; if he enjoys a trouble-free trip (bumping incidents - have plagued him), expect this ultra-game competitor to make his presence felt in the final furlong; top-three material.

Trippi

Swift stablemate of More Than Ready has a high cruising speed, and rarely tires; he doesn't need the lead to win, and probably won't get it in this spot; has prevailed on several occasions despite breaking near the back of the pack, but needs an alert beginning here to have a shot at the top prize; judging by the results of the Kentucky Derby, as well as trip comparisons from the Vosburgh, would give his stablemate the edge in this contest; however, if everything breaks Trippi's way, he could grab a minor share.

Caller One

Last three performances were stellar, but what about that fade in the Derby Trial? Chart notes say "...went to the front at once, made the pace inside, swerved out when appearing to shy as he left the chute, showed the way for nearly six furlongs and gave way steadily thereafter..." After the race, trainer Chapman said Caller One could not handle the track at Churchill Downs; however, after the 3yo's excellent 5f breeze on Saturday, the trainer said he has worked better over this racetrack than he has any other track; conclusion - Caller One's failure in the Derby Trial was due primarily to inexperience, not to the racing surface or one-mile distance; he's the most talented individual in the race, he's tough; he's in peak condition - he's the pick to control the proceedings from gate to wire.

Shadow Gaster

Bumping at the start of his latest put an end to the win streak; ran huge in the race prior, earning a Beyer figure (114) that a select few in this race have topped; nevertheless, the feeling here is that the winner of a single Grade 2 event has lots left to prove; like many of the lesser lights in this contest, he's picking up significant weight over a track with which he is unfamiliar; Terranova would appear to have a better shot with Gander.

Five Star Day

Speedster's domination of the Phoenix BC field was complete, and his final quarter was accomplished in an amazing :23 flat; however, after cruising through a first half in a leisurely :44 4/5, you would expect him to have plenty left in the tank; three days earlier at Keeneland, the 3yo filly Surfside blazed a half in :43.2/5, and she was prepping for the BC Distaff at 1 1/8 miles; Greely trainee doesn't always break well, and if he spots a horse like Caller One a length or two at the start, he'll pay the price in the final eighth; weight is another concern - the most 'Five Star has carried in victory is 120 lbs. - the extra six he picks up here could prove troublesome; nice horse, just not his day.

Some may view that lackluster 3rd in the Phoenix BC as a sign that this hard-hitting boy is tailing off a bit, while others might argue that Keeneland's speed-favoring surface didn't play to his closing style; one thing's for certain - he loves Churchill, and will enjoy a home-court advantage over most of today's contestants; McGee trainee can be counted on to give his best effort, but he hasn't hit 110 on the Beyer scale in nearly three years, and several of his younger rivals have reached or exceeded that number in their latest starts; sun is setting on a terrific career.

Valiant Halory

Zito 3yo has been defeated by several in here recently at long odds, and is not likely to turn the tables on them all; his 3rd-place finish in the Derby Trial resulted in a Beyer figure of 87, the lowest in his last nine starts; least accomplished member of the field would do well to finish in single digits.

Elaborate

Gonzalez trainee was no match for Kona Gold last out, and gets a negative 8-lb. shift in the weights for his trouble; 5yo gelding's lifetime-best performance came in the 7f Triple Bend, and you have to wonder if he'll run out of real estate at today's shorter distance; Paco's numbers are strong with sprinters on dirt, but don't believe he's got the goods this time; pass.

Successful Appeal

Kimmel trainee came into last year's BC Sprint on a high note, having just demolished Five Star Day in the Grade 2 Kentucky Cup Sprint, a race in which he earned a stratospheric Beyer figure of 119; he ran creditably at GP to finish 5th (his first and only loss at 6f), and has yet to recapture that form; can't picture him keeping up early, or outfinishing Kona Gold, More Than Ready or several others; between a rock and a hard place.

Kona Gold

Probable favorite is as tough and consistent as they come, with 14 top-two finishes in 16 starts; he's better now than he was two years ago when he checked in third in this race at 16-1; Headley charge put to rest concerns about seconditis with an impressive three-race winning streak leading up to this engagement; he can carry the weight, handle the track and should benefit from a heated pace duel up front; he's probably the best candidate for everyone's show parlay; if Caller One isn't at his absolute best, this guy will be ready to take charge; caps off a perfectly managed campaign with another top-two finish.

Agnes World

Would not be too quick to dismiss the chances of this classy performer based on his lone dirt start - a 6th-place finish off a yearlong layoff; that race came at the beginning of his 4yo campaign, and he really didn't hit his best stride until much later that year; in his last nine starts, he's finished no worse than third against the world's top turf sprinters, and snagged a pair of prestigious Group 1's along the way; grandson of Northern Dancer and Seattle Slew is certainly bred to handle the Churchill main track, and seems to enjoy traveling the globe in search of competition; multimillionaire at double-digit odds - interesting.

Dream Supreme

George would have to pinch himself if his talented 3yo filly were to deliver a Breeders' Cup Sprint victory on the heels of the Yankees' umpteenth World Series conquest; she's imposing vs. members of her own sex, but has yet to face colts, and her speed figures won't scare anyone in this crew; furthermore, she hasn't won carrying more than 118 lbs, and will be making her Churchill debut; too many obstacles.

Honest Lady

Thought this gal had a shot at Dream Supreme in the Ballerina until the hole closed and Lady was forced to steady at the eighth pole; they appear evenly matched, which means it's hard to picture either one hitting the board; all the evidence suggests Honest Lady is more effective going seven furlongs to a mile - her only win (from two starts) at six furlongs came in her career debut; there's no doubt she's tough enough to tangle with the boys, as her game runner-up effort in the Met Mile attests; however, she tends to lag so far behind in the early going that even with Churchill's long stretch, she'll likely be left with too much to do.

Delaware Township

Perkins is as good as anyone in the game at developing talented sprinters, and he pulled all the right strings leading up to the Forest Hills, discarding the blinkers and switching to Day; as a result, Delaware Township, who had broken poorly in his two prior starts, got away cleanly from the treacherous inside post, and won by a clear margin in fast time; on the downside, he's picking up 10 lbs., making his first start at Churchill, and hasn't beaten many of this caliber; top-three finish would be a mild surprise.

Petrushka

Enters this as a lightly-raced 3-year-old filly asked to tackle her elders in her U.S. racing debut; as the likely favorite (5-2 choice on the morning line), a case can be made against her due to a lack of valuable experience and seasoning - a huge factor at today's 11-furlong trip; was supplemented to this race for $90K, and her Group 1 European hat trick obviously merits her a spot; recent wins have come by diminishing margins, but no sweat there - that's no easy task; has proven her speed (pair of 7-furlong wins to begin career) as well as quality and stamina, and has been rated atop a strong crop of European 3-year-old fillies; according to folk on Breeders' Cup scene, this filly has a good temperament and has acclimated well to her new surroundings; 10/29 workout in :49 3/5 was accomplished by her getting her final quarter-mile in a snappy .22 3/5.

Tout Charmant

Dispatched of an odds-on and streaking Perfect Sting through the lane of her latest, and did so after putting away a pace challenge from Wild Heart Dancing (next out winner of the Grade 3 Athena Handicap at the Big A); critics will say that she did so with the aid of a pokey pace, and they'd be right, but the pace may not be exactly blazing in here, either; will be asked to go longer today, but that may help her to relax - as should top jockey McCarron (very familiar with this filly); makes first start over this course, and the Churchill lawn is often a quirky one for Californians to handle; trainer McAnally has 4 Breeders' Cup wins, including the '95 Turf (Northern Spur, Chris McCarron up).

Collect The Cash

Enters this off a lifetime best, at least according to the Beyer Bureau, and did so over Grade 1 company - albeit at the expense of fellow 3-year-olds; currently on a 4-race winning streak, but names like Enter, Key Out and Harbingerspring don't have the ring of Colstar, Perfect Sting and Petrushka; likely to ensure an honest pace for Stronach's Sting, but trainer Orseno insists that, "We're in here to run one-two."

Tranquility Lake

Cashed in on basically a free pass up front in her latest, but it is hard to fault a horse for delivering the expected when presented with opportunity; slow opening fractions (.25 3/5 opening quarter-mile) helped late, but she did run her final quarter in .22 3/5, with Canani admitting pre-race that she may have been a touch "short" because of missed training time following the Palomar win; enters this on a high note, a stark contrast to last year's busier campaign that ended with her getting cooked in the Yellow Ribbon; staying the 11-furlong trip outside cozy California the obvious question everyone wants answered.

Perfect Sting

Has a will to win and remarkable consistency - both attributes of any champion, but simply put, she really hasn't moved forward this year; '99 'Sting model may have in fact been even better than this one, and she had trouble making an impact in this heat last year when clearly in top form (note, last year's experience with this trip may help this time around, but distance limitations may exist here); in her defense, she's 4-for-5 this year, and a slow pace (:24 opening quarter-mile) may have been her primary enemy last time; makes 3rd start of current form cycle, and may be sitting on a peak effort, especially if her 10/25 workout is any indication (out in 1:13 in change, and seen to be moving very well under little urging - via satellite); all-world jockey Bailey captured the inaugural running of this event last year aboard Soaring Softly.

Snow Polina

Used the Flower Bowl as her final prep for this race, and last year's 'Bowl exacta finishers (Soaring Softly and Corretta) turned in an encore in this race; squandered a big stretch lead to Colstar in latest, but that filly was moving very well under a full head of steam - Bailey said perhaps he should have moved sooner, but hindsight is always 20-20, especially through eyes of a Hall of Fame rider; expect her to be tighter for this effort (2nd try since mid-August), especially with Mott doing the tightening; jockey Day (11-for-89) has more 'Cup wins than anyone, and Mott (31-5-6-4) is 2nd to only Lukas (4 times as many BC starters) in BC earnings; has won at trip in Europe, and interestingly faded behind Soaring Softly as the chalk in her only other try at trip; on the bride and well in hand throughout her impressive 10/30 workout, according to DRF's Mike Welsch.

Colstar

Enters this fresh off a trio of tries on the NYRA scene, and it should be noted that last year Soaring Softly entered the 'Cup off tries in the New York Hcp., Diana Hcp. and Flower Bowl Hcp., also; in fact, 'Softly had a very similar profile, as she was 6-for-7 in '99 entering this heat, won the 'Bowl off a very similar pace/running line in the final time of 2:01 2/5 and had also been one-for-one over the local course (GP last year); Colstar is the only member of this group to boast of a race over the course, and it was a winning one; final quarter-mile of 'Bowl was run in a swift .23 4/5, and this filly came from nearly 5 lengths off the pace to get the visually impressive win; $90K supplement was going to be put away following the 'Bowl, but 'Sting's recent loss may have brought about some more enthusiasm from connections; sire won '91 BC Mile at Churchill, returning $55.40 to win, but we won't expect that much for our $2 to win on his daughter.

Juvenile

Point Given

Is he in this league? that's the question; Baffert shipped him out of California pretty quickly, perhaps reasoning he wasn't up to Flame Thrower's standards; it was a move that paid off, with a win in the Ky Cup and a runner-up finish in the Champagne; now he's back against the California runners, who are widely viewed as being the strongest juveniles this year; minor award appears most likely.

Scorpion

His sting hasn't brought down any stakes opponents; City Zip squashed him repeatedly in summer stakes, and last time he was stomped against A P Valentine; even if we view that race as not being representative of his ability, he doesn't appear to possess the class necessary to win a race of this quality.

Dollar Bill

Point Given couldn't beat A P Valentine; neither could Yonaguska; Dollar Bill is the only horse to have done it; granted, he did it in Valentine's debut, when he had an experience advantage; still, it is a statement of his immense quality; ran well in the Breeders' Futurity...just don't see anyone other than Arabian Light coming out of that race to challenge in the BC; longshot.

Macho Uno

"The Macho Man," a half-brother to 1998 Classic winner Awesome Again, is not to be taken lightly; this colt has been nothing short of brilliant in 3 starts; even his lone defeat was outstanding; he acted up prior to the start, giving Prado a bloody nose - yet came within a neck of Yonaguska and City Zip - the two best short distance 2YOs in NY this summer; the question is how he matches up against the California juveniles; City Zip and Yonaguska are nice horses, but no one is comparing them to Flame Thrower and Street Cry.

Noverre

Considered one of Europe's best juveniles on the basis of a four-for-six record in Britain and France; his two losses came in G1 company; can he handle the dirt? he should; Rahy has produced a number of G1 winners on dirt - Early Pioneer, Serena's Song, Exotic Wood; his half-brother, Arazi, also had no difficulty taking to dirt, specifically CD; now the bad news...this is a dynamite Juvenile field - not the ideal setting for a horse trying dirt for the first time; demand value.

A P Valentine

The way Pitino (Celtic Pride) is succeeding with his horses, he might want to quit coaching the Celtics and go full-time into horse ownership; just this week it was announced he sold Valentine to Coolmore for an estimated $15 million; that's a serious statement on the part of the Irish lads there; they think the Champagne represents just the beginning for this horse; of course, some thought that about The Groom Is Red...and he never quite put things together as an older horse; loved how he burst through a narrow opening on the rail to win the Champagne; this field appears lengths tougher, however, the top threat from the East.

Turnberry Isle

Irish invader was spectacular overseas, winning 3 of 4 impressively; in the same boat as Noverre; his ability to handle dirt is a total unknown; by a good dirt sire (Deputy Minister); comes armed with some pretty serious connections, but he has never been tested in a G1 race; faces a daunting task in his main-track debut.

City Zip

Connections tried rating him in the Champagne, a style that did not work; according to trainer Linda Rice, he will be placed in a pressing position today - presumably just off the flank of likely pacesetter Flame Thrower; while that might be how he wants to run...not convinced he wants to chase Flame Thrower; those who do pay the price - the only horse who has gotten near him, Street Cry, has done so by closing off the pace; respect this horse's honesty, but doubt he is in the class of these around 2 turns; Carson City typically do best in 6f and 7f races.

Street Cry

Looks like Real Quiet, doesn't he? that colt couldn't catch Indian Charlie on the speed-favoring tracks out West, but in the Derby - in a longer race and on a fairer racetrack - he got the better of him; Street Cry may do the same thing here against Flame Thrower, hard to believe he lost the Norfolk despite running a sub-1:35 mile; that's an extraordinary time for a 2YO; breeding and running style indicates the extra sixteenth of this race should suit him perfectly; sitting on a smasher.

Arabian Light

Unreal...that's the only word that describes his Breeders' Futurity victory; he blew by the field on the turn with a six-wide rally; that might be how you win at Bel, but not normally at Kee; when a horse does something like that, it is an indication of immense talent; Unshaded made a similar move to win the Lexington this year, and later won the G1 Travers; that's the kind of horse Light will probably be; maybe he is not the best of his generation right now, but with maturity and time, he may develop into a G1 performer; deep-pocketed connections are forking up the dinero to supplement, tough, especially if Flame Thrower and some of the other favorites get caught in a pace duel.

Kalanisi

If he reversed those 2 head defeats at the hooves of Giant's Causeway, many would regard him as the best turf horse in training; competed admirably against the classiest horses in Europe and beat Montjeu in his most recent appearance caused quite a commotion in one of his morning trials here as he propped and tossed his rider; lightly-raced 4-year-old draws a cozy slot and should save ground; distance remains question mark as he has never attempted 12 furlongs (note that he shares the same sire a Daylami); it also will be interesting to see how he handles the tighter turns of the Churchill Turf course; yet to finish worse than 2nd and boasts some gaud Timeform ratings; has the look of a very dangerous import.

Fantastic Light

Godolphin emerged victorious in last year's Turf with Daylam but this colt may not own the same stretch pop as that gra terror; courageous when taking the Man O'War in his North American debut (looked better after 6 furlongs when he behind a pedestrian pace), but wasn't able to repeat that effort in the Turf Classic; was he the victim of a Euro-bounce capable at 12 furlong although it could be argued that he prefers slightly shorter routes; draws favorably and receives a better pace scenario today; easily 2nd best behind Montjeu in the King George but that foe was on a different plane; working with a purpose and should be rallying powerfully, but a win may be slight out of reach.

Subtle Power

Lightly-raced son of Sadler's Wells didn't make a favorable impression when facing elders for the first time in the Turf Classic; to be fair, his late-running style was compromised by the tepid fractions set by John's Call; Group 2 winner at this distance, but he wasn't facing the upper crust of the European sophomore division; in fantastic hands as Mott has had great success in the Breeders' Cup; 2nd off the layoff and off the plane may work to his advantage and there should be plenty of upward potential; still, it's hard to envision him improving 7 lengths on John's Call in a mere 4 weeks; outsider needs a pace collapse in order to pull off the upset.

Montjeu

Trainer Hammond wasn't too keen on running in the Turf after the defeat in the Champion Stakes; after much wavering, his connections decided to race at the 11th hour; can't question his class as he took the French and Irish Derbies along with the Arc last year; his win in the 2000 King George was one of the most visually impressive performances in recent memory as he was on cruise control; no match for Sindar, but not many are (3yo won this year's Epsom Derby, Irish Derby, and Arc); he returned very quickly for the Champion and was only defeated a length at a distance that isn't his best; loves 12 furlongs, had 3 weeks to recover from the Champion and should sit a great trip behind a quick pace; major factor.

Fruits of Love

Consistent veteran is an excellent shipper (note near-miss in last year's Canadian International) and loves firm ground (took the 1999 Hardwicke over a star-studded cast); that being said, he's a nice fit here; nagging physical problems have limited him to only 2 starts this year, but he earned a big Timeform rating when defending his Hardwicke trophy (Yavana's Pace is an 8yo that was toiling in Australia at the end of '99, while Blueprint is 0-3 in the States); couldn't match strides with the exciting German 3yo Samum (Timeform rating of 130, 6th in the Arc) or the filly Catella in his last, but wasn't disgraced; reunites with Peslier and shouldn't be that far off the pace; millionaire gears up on the far turn and can be a menacing presence at the quarter pole; expect good things.

Ciro
 Exciting sophomore colt picks a tough spot to make his first start vs. the accomplished older set; demolished some steady 3-year-olds in the Lawrence Realization as he swept to the front while 6 wide and wasn't asked for his best in the lane; note that Whata Brainstorm returned to take the Grade 3 Calder Derby with a 96 Beyer and Lodge Hill won the Canadian classic Breeders' Stakes earlier in the year; Group 1 winner in France earlier this year, although he couldn't match strides with top European sophomore and Arc winner Sinndar; much better since the addition of Lasix and blinkers as he handled the then-invincible King Cugat in his U.S. debut; excellent tactical speed and would benefit from a contested pace; lightly-raced colt still might have some improvement left and could have a say in the outcome with a strong late rally.

Mandar
 Trouble-prone colt has the talent to beat anyone on his best day and is a multiple Grade 1 winner this year; probably best in the Arlington Million as he was squeezed at the break, steadied throughout the far turn and into the stretch, and never had a chance to shake loose until too late; proved he liked this course with an impressive score in the Woodford and Nakatani may place him closer to the pace today; hard-hitter was only beaten 3 and change by Dubai Millennium last year, so his class cannot be questioned; dangerous Irish-bred should give a good account of himself, but didn't run well at 12 furlongs last June; shares same sire as Daylami, but will he be as effective at this distance?

Aly's Alley
 Almost basked in Breeders' Cup immortality in 1998 as a fast closing runnerup to Answer Lively at 76-1 in the Juvenile; in-and-outer has only visited the cameraman once since that Churchill afternoon, (in a restricted turf allowance); tactics not a secret as he will gun for the early lead and hope to slow the fractions down to a crawl; with Mutamam and Quiet Resolve entered, however, that task might be easier said than done; wasn't disgraced in the Keeneland Turf Mile as he couldn't keep up with the quicker fractions evident in non-marathon events; don't like how he folded vs. Fantastic Light in the Man O' War after setting slow splits; pace factor looks to be outclassed and outBeyered by several of these; longshot.

Mutamam

Dominated Group 3 foes in his last, but the vanquished that day fails to set the heart racing (4th finisher Commander Collins is winless since 1998, and finished 11th in the Turf Classic); has taken 3 of his last 4 in gate-to-wire fashion, and one could excuse his defeat at the hands of Fruits Of Love as he definitely disliked being rated; think jockey Hills will send from the start, but there should be early pressure in the forms of Aly's Alley and Quiet Resolve; boasts an excellent win percentage, but receives the acid class test today; Montjeu, Kalansi, and Fruits Of Love all own better Timeform ratings; early factor may not receive the best pace scenario, and will have to be at his best; leaning elsewhere for the winner.

John's Call

Old John is the sentimental favorite because of his high level of participation at such an advanced age; received a heady ride from jockey Samyn in the Turf Classic and was able to control a slow pace; versatile sort is just as effective when stalking and think he'll be nestled off the leaders in the early going; couldn't match strides with Fantastic Light 2 back despite an excellent hedge-skimming trip; absolutely loves this distance and note that the venerable John Henry also won the Turf Classic at the age of 9; connections showed confidence by ponying up a 12% supplement; multiple Grade 1 winner this year faces his toughest test to date; not completely convinced he can do it one more time.

Quiet Resolve

Canadian-bred millionaire raced well at Keeneland at a much shorter route, but has never crossed the wire first in a Grade 1 (helped by the stewards in the 1999 Atto Mile); the quality of competition in his last 2 wins is questionable (Craigsteel is winless in North America, Casino King's big U.S. win came at Remington Park, and River Boat is a former claimer that was 40-1 in the Niagara); plenty of early lick here (especially with the stretchout), but he faces a wide trip and other speed-types in Mutamam and Aly's Alley; solid homebred should be involved for awhile, but may be overmatched when the real running begins.

Down the Aisle

Big gray homebred has only finished off-the-board once in his career and enters this in grand form; earned Grade 1 status in the United Nations, but defeated a marginal field (Aly's Alley isn't considered a strong contender in today's race); has winning experience over this course and owns the right running style with a fast pace expected; much the best last time as he raced in the 7-8 path throughout, and doggedly wore down the pacesetters in a course record-equaling performance; runnerup Crowd Pleaser returned to Beyer 101 when winning the Sycamore; interesting at a nice price, but must avoid another wide trip from a tough post; mixed feelings.

Williams News

The Canadian International was a heartbreaking defeat as he lost by the slimmest of margins; that race can't be rated very highly as Mutafaweq was hampered by 22+ lengths by Fruits of Love in the Grosser Preis von Baden; Grade 3 winner hasn't been competitive vs. top-notch turf horses, and failed at 1-2 in the Debartolo at Remington 2 starts back; far outside post won't win him many supporters, and it took him 27 races to hit a 106 Beyer top (Ciro bettered that speed figure in both of his North American outings); never off the board over this grass course and benefits from a quick pace, but this test will be the toughest in his career; long-shot.

Captain Steve

As good as he is, as hard tries, it's just tough to em him handling this kind of pany at 10is; at 9is, maybe in the Derby he hit the w the eighth pole, and there always been distance s cions; gave his all in Goodwood - just got bea better horse; at least you he likes it here, he'll try his out, they're no dummies forked up a bunch of mor run and since summer become the horse we th he would - all of which him something of a shot.

Euchre

Like the way he's been died; they've allowed hi progress and despite ge drilled pretty good in the P. Classic he came right back a fine 3rd in the Goodwo he just kept to it while ever was watching Tiznow 'Steve go at it tooth and now that still doesn't near up to this caliber, and Pacific Classic raises some tance questions; a big assured on a nice horse one that still seems to something of a reach vs. caliber, at least at this sta the game.

Golden Missile

Just a few months ago he was in the middle of the Horse of the Year debate; well, that's 3 losses ago, but there's still cause for optimism - first, his Foster win here was awesome, so you know he likes the track; 2nd, after the Whitney he was found to have a foot injury which ended up getting infected - they thought he was over it and while he ran decently in the Ky. Cup and HAW Gold Cup he still wasn't back; while others have knocked heads and maybe knocked themselves out, he's regrouped; eligible to peak now, and with Mr. Bailey aboard he's more than a little enticing.

It took a while, but once he got the hang of it he blew through his allowance conditions, won ungraded stakes, won a G3 stakes then ran well in another G3 stakes; maybe it's the Principle all over again - finally reached the point of ineffectiveness; sharp, likes it here but for all those positives number of others have it much faster and beaten it been much better; outsider.

Albert the Great

Huge JC Gold Cup win, but there are some caveats - Skimming fizzled, Agol Lack was never a threat, and 'Kio and Behrens both threw in clunkers; now must find a way to turn the tables on Pegasus - couldn't handle him on his home turf of Belmont, with FuPeg at about 90%; so what to do now with Pegasus tightened down, away from his home ground of New York, with Tiznow, 'Steve', 'Thief and 'Kid all over him from the bell? of course, it may well be a case of a horse coming into his own for a trainer who like Neil knows how to get them ready for the big dance; dangerous.

Lemon Drop Kid

Had a big year no doubt, but the Woodward win, while still a win, didn't have his previous fire; then he came back as a no-show in the JC Gold Cup - is he over the top after a busy year? there are other concerns - he's got a bit of General Challenge in him, meaning when he's at home he breathes fire, but he hasn't been as imposing outside New York; also, aside from Behrens, who was he really beating? that being said, his devastating Whitney run wasn't so long ago and you know he has the talent to win this; Scotty's sticking to his guns, saying this guy still isn't getting the respect, that he's being dished for one loss, and you know what? he might be right, and that means the potential overlay of the day on maybe the best horse in the nation...but there are questions to answer.

Dust On the Bottle

Considering how good he looked in the HAW Gold Cup he probably deserves this chance; after all, he got a solid Beyer (107) and it marked his 3rd straight win - he's in the best form of his life so why not take a shot? of course, the water is much, much deeper and while he is in the best form of his life it's going to take another huge jump to compete with the biggies here.

If it were anyone else you would probably be worried he missed the JC Gold Cup, but that would mean you don't understand Neil; certainly had the horse fit enough for the Jerome, didn't he? and wouldn't a hard race in the JC Gold Cup - and it would have been a hard race the way Albert ran - have done more harm than good? now Neil has had 2 months and knows what it takes to get this horse ready to go 10fs; has the tractability to do whatever - was on the lead, supposedly as a 'short' horse in the Jerome, through 6fs in 1:08 and change, and wasn't even running hard; maybe Neil never had any intention of going in the Gold Cup, that he saw what he wanted to see and could train the big horse up to this; can make that $70 mil look like a real bargain.

Pine Dance

Proved in the Penn. Derby he could dirt, or at least could mud, and the Beyer wasn't that bad; but beating up on Mass Market is a far cry from tackling FuPeg, Tiznow and the elders; the distance is no problem, and obviously if it rains he won't mind, but odds he's biting off an awful lot here and if a horse with European lines wins odds are it's the Giant's Causeway; nice horse, but in pretty steep.

Vision and Verse

The fact Mott sends him here is interesting; thought the horse would have a big year - it just hasn't worked out; didn't run at all in the Meadowlands Cup, so Mott wheeled him back in 7 days and his JC Gold Cup wasn't bad; but it was hardly the type of performance that leads you to believe he can jump up and beat these; still, Mott isn't here for the camaraderie, so maybe he's found something; won his only start here, working nicely here and races as a 3yo show the distance is no sweat; kinda interesting.

Gander

Are his Woodward and JC Gold Cup placings indications he's stepped his game up or that those heats weren't that strong? probably a bit of both; give him credit - he's the only one besides Albert who showed up in the Gold Cup, and if he had another 16th in the Woodward he might have gotten there; probably does deserve this shot, though he must make up 6 lengths on Albert, and if that's the case, how does he also deal with FuPeg and Tiznow, and what if 'Kid and/or 'Missile bounce back? a pretty tough spot to seek your first graded win.

Significant Update - HIP 1438

SPONTANEOUS, stakes winner since the catalog on 9/17, 1st Slide Show H. at Remington, equaled the track record of 5f :56.2 on the turf. Winner of 3 of last 4 starts and $108,567. Selling as a racing or broodmare prospect.

Tiznow
We've been saying it since the early summer - this is going to be an important horse in 2001; heck, he's an important horse now, and maybe even more so after this; but there are concerns: this is his 3rd race in just over a month, and reports were he came out of the Goodwood dead tired; still, love the way he pulled McCarron to the lead in the Goodwood then fended off 3 or 4 challenges by a very good Captain Steve, he's a big, rugged animal who can probably bounce back quicker than most, you know he loves 10fs and he's run faster than FuPeg - his last Beyer was 119, and the avg. winning Beyer for the Classic is 117.3, a fig FuPeg and most of the others in here have never reached; scary, scary, scary.

Giant's Causeway
The Affirmed of Europe - doesn't dazzle, but doesn't let you go by either; you don't win 5 G1 stakes in a row in Europe by accident, so you know quality is there; but there are issues - yes, he's bred for dirt, but he's still never raced on the stuff and had it kicked in his face, and it's going to be kicked in his face here; also, unlike everyone else here he's had to ship halfway around the world - that's derailed better horses like Dancing Brave, Zilzal, etc. and a number of other Euro bigshots; but maybe most critical is his style - in Europe he stalks, goes to the lead and dares you to go by; the splits here will be much faster, meaning he'll most likely be farther behind than usual, so does he have the oomph to make the kind of move he'll need to get to the lead, then have the fortitude to hold off FuPeg and the others? that's a pretty tall order, but at least you get one of Europe's best for your $2 and big Classic efforts from the likes of Arcangues, Jolypha, Ibn Bey and Swain show you he's far from a pipe dream.
