Throbbin' Heart

Those were a couple of strong efforts on the NY circuit to begin career and now this miss lands here sporting an experience edge over most; Boyer edge is huge and the price on the board will be small; we wouldn't play this race as if this is any sort of a cinch and the tote value will likely be best if using this gal only as the top of exacta saver bets.

Brush the Rail

This miss was dust in the wind in the opener and now gets blinkers for 2nd try; check the fact that she was split 2-1 on the board last time and then at least consider sprinkling this number about the lower rungs of exotics just in case; hard to take off that one dull effort.

She managed just one start and no morning works during Sept. and the speed figure earned with 3 prior foals; blinkers added left much to be desired; note early trouble then but even with a clean trip this miss probably isn't fast enough to threaten here, outsider.

Dad hits with a hefty 19% of all firsters while the unraced dam lists 2 prior foals who are a combined 1-14-16; local works have been split, but don't overlook the long bag in the tab prior to Sept. 29; dam steady with firsters and the gate drills all look pretty sharp; exotics chance.

Golden Fusaichi

Fusaichi Pegasus 12 for 108 with juvenile debuters; sire ran 2nd in only start at 2, took Kentucky Derby; 4 for 38 dam lost 8 times at 2; this is her first foal; give him good look on the board and in paddock/post parade.

Ben's Moon

Malibu Moon about 15% with juvenile first timers in a 1144-horse sample; sire graduated in second start at 2 at 5 furlongs on dirt for only win in 2-race career; 2 of 3 of unraced dam's, other foals to race won; 2 sibs; ran at 2 to no avail; top sib was probably near $50K earner; Don't beat at the line; this guy looks live.

Flying Vee

Halo's Image about 14% with juvenile first timers in a 158-horse sample; sire took juvenile debut, earned over $550K; 12 for 42 dam earned $180K, lost 4 times at 2; two of 5 sibs won; one was a double winner at 2; that top earner, Little Billy, took 3 of 11, earned about 40 grand; bullets in hooves.

Massive Drama

Kalwin 4 for 25 with debuting juveniles; sire won thrice at 2, earned over $700K; this is the first to roll from a SW 7 for 25 dam who earned nearly $140K, didn't run at 2; seems to be on edge off second best of 15 spin last Friday.

Prayer Answered

Songandapraye 11 for 74 with juvenile debuters; sire was unbeaten in 2 starts at 2, earned almost $400K; 2 for 8, dam earned a grand a start, was out of the money in only juvenile try; 2 of 3 sibs won; both ran at 2 to no avail; top earner Tricky Weather took 3 of 15, earned over $80K.

Megalodon

Caught slop in bow, fans got off of her in the turf bow and they were right to do so; SW 8 for 14 dam banked 6 figures, won debut at 2; all 3 sibs won; top earner Lake Lady was a double winner at 2, went on to bank nearly $300K taking 4 of 9; tough to pull the trigger on this guy.

D' Wildcard

Was caught between runners in debut, never a good spot, and he just gave way; runner was flat; tired when the winner parlayed to a win in a $74K BEL stakes; last Sunday by 2 with a 95 Beyer; SP 6 for 25 dam banked 6 figures, was in the money in 2 of 3 juvenile outs without winning at 2; all 3 sibs won including near $575K earner D'Wildcard; like the draw; Coa 24% when he gets a leg up from Violette; look out.

Southern Gale

Stormy Atlantic about 12% with juvenile debuters in a 249-horse sample; sire lost only start at 2, won in third start, earned almost 150 grand; this is unraced dam's first to race; must respect these drills that are like clockwork.

Say what you want about the competition this gelding faced in breaking his maiden at Mnr in his most recent start, but he was an impressive winner that night and when he switched to his right lead at the top of the stretch he showed that little extra something that is nice to see; don't lose sight of the fact that he cost 485k, and this barn is well known for jumping horses up when they take over.

Based on his strong connections he's tough to count out of this race entirely, but he was beaten by a couple of today's rivals just two starts ago, and this race is even tougher from top-to-bottom; he isn't likely to be involved in the early running the way he was in his most recent start, so he'll need to see a fast and contested early pace to have a chance at picking up some pieces late.

It seems reasonable to suggest that he's going to need to show up with the best race of his career to see his number posted on top versus these and he isn't likely to have an easy time, trying to employ his front running tactics; he's been at his best racing over this surface, but can't envision him staying on to the finish without a clear early lead and catching an early breather.

Don't care for the way he failed to run his race as a favorite in his most recent start, but with the exception of that race, his form has been consistently good since being equipped with blinkers; he's won three of his eight starts and he's versatile enough to adapt to a fast early pace, so going to look for him to bounce back.

This colt clearly has some natural ability to work with, but this isn't an easy spot for him to make his first start beyond 6f and his connections couldn't have cared to see him land in post fourteen...

Four times as many slices as wins makes him a tough on top only key, cozy slot anyway, but he's a deep closer anyway; backers can point to fact Cotto was up for the last race but that was when he looped the field to kick off the year; needs very best.

Hot claim box item has thrived for Shuman and nothing wrong with hitting the exacta in 8 of 14 at the shore; he was beating up on much softer this summer here and basically flattened Lenny with the win last time; this guy doesn't need to lead to score and like Gomez taking reins; major player.

Ten slices, 2 wins and part of that is a product of having no speed and having to have things unfold perfectly; last score was by a nostril in a NIX here in the summer of 2004 at 8 and a half on the dirt; got a feeling he's your ticket ONLY if you think they will go bonkers early and there will be a complete pace melt down.

Keeneland Kid
The layoff did him a world good, he's in good hands, he won for this great front rider and was boosted a l when place horse in the Lor Branch took a N1X before sto ping twice; toss 2007 deb and stakes tries and good for comes better into focus; sha and very dangerous.

El Chile Dog
Onions in the mouth of betts in 7 of 22 when he could close the deal but he's run h super races for 24% train and seems to thrive as Jersey homebody now; lo recent series of drils, Bra already knows this one a gelding's been a tiger sin getting confidence in the N spot at Churchill; just may be Dog Day Afternoon.

Now a Victor
No secret in debut, but made the backers sweat ou photo; much easier in next a note show horse was over clear in BEL finale; dam u precocious, but this is her foal so far from 3 other winn and an O for 8 performer; b is a solid 19 for 59 with stre out runners in the last year; o; interesting commodity i great betting race.

Red Sail At Sunset
It's been the inner strip a Philly only for this guy and i thrilled with the post too either; can't fault those to build an exotic bet arou him with the 8 slices locally, that local donut is stann ba ers in the mug; winner 9/22 return to take an open $3 BEL claimer by over 3 with a Beyer last Friday; has to be on any spread ticket in the v ticals.

Crusader Rabbit
Likes to cut it close on the b day and is facing a cou today that have been arou the block and back; nice of from fence last time, but now is marooned; place horse in DEL finale took a N2X there a head with a 93 Beyer on 9 and show horse 9/5 tool $20K Penn National opla 1/4 by a half with a 82 Beyer can never toss anything fi this barn easily.

Talkin About Love
Locally based filly owns 5 more wins here than the remainder of the field combined; 5 race winning streak was snapped in a heat from which the odds on runner up will tackle older rivals in the BC Distaff tomorrow and that gal only bested her by a length; inside draw will be to this Grade 3 stakes winner's benefit as the speed draw outside her should provide a ground saving trip; looks to be the one to beat.

Boca Grande
McGaughy filly has been a bit of a disappointment considering the promise she flashed in taking the Grade 2 Demoiselle first time going two turns in just her third career start, but it's not as if she hasn't been facing some of the better fillies of her generation; have to view the beaten chalk effort at Hoosier as a throwaway as she was basically eliminated at the start, although she was doing some running late; may just simply be a filly in need of two turns and is likely to be cranked for a much better try here, need only break cleanly to be a huge factor, but this track has traditionally held true late runners hostage.

Tessa Blue
This gal has looked like a new animal since she was sent long during the summer; hard to discredit her effort in the Grade 3 Indiana Oaks where she earned a Beyer Speed Figure good enough to make her a contender in tomorrow's Distaff, but maybe the effort was a bit too good and it may be difficult for her to even approach that level just 3 weeks later; obviously tough off her last, but if she gets bet hard off that number we'd be looking to beat her.

She's in career best form, but she'll be taking a big step up in company while returning in just two weeks; the Meadowlands score looks good on paper, but she beat a watered down field of just 3 rivals in that off the turf; her running style plays well over the track, but she'll need to take a big step forward to seriously threaten today.

Gets local hero Bravo to the stretchout off the sprint return from 5 months on the shelf; she showed a little bit of ability going long last winter and figures to be better with her last behind her; expect her to compete at a higher Beyer level than she'd reached as an early season sophomore, but still, she was beaten handily by Boca Grande in the Comely back in April, her lone attempt in the graded stakes ranks.

It's a long way from a narrow victory in a preliminary allowance event to competing with graded stakes winners such as those this gal will meet today; with Elliott opting to pilot Talkin About Love this gal will get a new rider who certainly knows his way around big money events and it was nice to see her rate when sent long for the initial time, but she looks to be severely outclassed with this bunch; possible pace factor at best.

Grace and Power
Hard to knock her undefeated status and this miss was gutsy when successfully stepping from maiden ranks to small stakes company; inside post lets her save important ground in a large field and this one does have a right to move forward again; certainly merits exotics respect.

Sea Chanter
Pletcher trainee was topped by 'Wish at Bel but did not a career best Beyer score in that one; she's by a solid turler and was a romping debut winner on sod last spring; the 2-back try was against males so upgrade accordingly; this is another for which an inside post allows a ground-saving trip; one of many chances in what is a wide open affair.

Saki to Me
FuPeg hits with 6% of turf debuters and the dam never tried sod before dropping 1 prior foal to have tried turf with that one 0-for-6 on the lawn; perfect record certainly noticed but she's going to have to improve considerably to threaten these; improvement very possible in 2nd try vs. winners and 2nd dam was by Affirmed - a reasonable turf influence; still going to side against this miss today.

Namaste's Wish
Switch to turf seems to have made all the difference in the world to this daughter of Pulpit and even the first tilt vs. winners was a success; $600K seller is licensed to move forward figure-wise yet again and if that happens then it could be lights-out for the rest of these; major player.

Life Is Sweet
Switch to turf was a wise move and the Storm Cat filly won in a cake walk that day; she is certainly licensed to take another step forward in 2nd grass attempt but the plot thickens in this company; new jock-tries hard now as Kent D sticks with the one next door; certainly have to cover this number considerably in the multi-race exotics.

Here's another by Pulpit and he connects with 10% of his turf beginners while the dam went 4-for-6 on sod which included a $100K stakes score; this is mom's first foal; speed figures earned on dirt have been limited and the last should probably be downgraded given the 4-horse field; runner has too much to do to threaten these.

Winner of last is in the BC Juvy Fillies tomorrow but the group in Louisiana was much softer than those, and probably softer than those too; now that wasn't a bad showing by this one in just 2nd start and initial distance try; she does have a right to step forward in 2nd tilt vs. winners; price will be reasonable for those willing to include this number generously on exotics tickets; consider for part.

She was 2-5 when winning for the only time, on Polytrack, but those grass efforts at least validate her as a reasonable candidate today; Lasix in with the move to U.S. shores and you know she's fit after a start just 20 days ago; if this one hits the ground running she can give'em a go and G. Gomez sees fit to take the call; one of so many possibilities.

The group she met in Louisiana was probably a cut below these; unlike the runner-up that day this gal had known a number of prior chances and isn't as much of an improvement threat now; at least she has a couple of competitive tries going long on sod but others are more likely this time.

Sire hits about 12% with turf debuters and this is the first foal from an unraced dam; barn doesn't hit with many lawn beginners and the winner of last is probably outclassed by the field in tomorrow's BC Juvy Fillies; no big turf names in the immediate pedigree and wide post a toughie in a large field; prefer others.

Check the $500K price tag and the big names in this pedigree while observing the steady improvement in terms of Racing Post Ratings; Dettori named and this marks 2nd start vs. winners; observe that there were 17 behind this gal in the maiden win and note the addition of LASIX for U.S. debut; she was favored in Gr. This one clicked at first turf opportunity and then proved it was no fluke when moved here for a 2nd such chance; latest was no disgrace but she's going to have to move forward to threaten top honors today, and from a tough post too; she can be competitive for the exotics but might have too much to do to actually prevail.

Cobra Strike
Gray colt exits post 1, out of which he broke less-than-ideally in NATC Futurity that appeared strong on paper but shook out with disappointing winning Beyer (78); the race was captured by multiple stakes-winner Preachin Man, who competes in today's 9th race, the BC Juvenile Turf; $100K 2-year-old buy needs Beyer advancement to tussle with these although a kind rail would aid cause at decent price; leaning another way.

Lantana Mob
Winner of Grade 3 Sapling and Tyro over this strip seems the one to beat in this $250K heat; half to Honky Tonk Dance (10-for-73, $150K) was far from embarrassed at Belmont in G1 won by War Pass (103 Beyer), the 5-2 ML favorite in tomorrow's BC Juvenile; potent race stalker draws nicely inside and should be involved from the bell despite turning back out of 1 mile event; horse for course is formidable for Asmusen barn connecting with 24% of its juveniles.

Margo's Gift
Washington state invader brings along rider Frazier, in the saddle for 3 of his wins, along for the trip to New Jersey; dangled for a tag in initial outing yet has racked up trio of stakes victories against statebreeds at Emerald Downs; class is the issue off Sept. 29 loss to Smarty Deb (4-for-4 filly tries the BC Juvenile Fillies tomorrow); Sept. 16 score came in handy fashion at this distance from off the pace; others rank a bit higher.

Law Enforcement
NY-bred belongs in view of Sept. 3 win when matching Lantana Mob for best Beyer in this field (90); homebred suffered 1st defeat at Finger Lakes at hands of Outrow-trainer By the Light, who has captured all 3 starts; he's now routed with Gomez in the irons for debut triumph, but faces tougher task under co-topweight; requires very best.

Miss Macy Sue

Horses who showed resilient fighting speed at Presque Isle Downs have done extremely well in their subsequent starts and this lass could be a classic case; she draws ideally, has scored from the rail twice before and has turned in some superior works at her Hawthorne headquarters; she easily held off Wild Gams in her last score who came back to win in impressive manner; narrow vote in the hopes a gold rail is the order of the day.

Miraculous Miss

She was trounced by these 2 back and would need a maniacal pace to upset this group; the most pivotal statistic in her favor is the exceptional win percentage of trainer Steve Klesaris who has been a .300 hitter for most of this year; should be flying late but will there be a clear, rallying seam? should secure good early position without expending much energy.

Dream Rush

Scored in the G1 Test Stakes, one of the highlights of the Saratoga meet, and has been rested since; she has shown rare ability to handle turns perfectly; Big A work tab is exemplary but she has thus far failed to rate and win, a major drawback in a field such as this, filled with talented speedburners; sophomore has never met her elders and has limited duel experience, an important maturing factor.

Shaggy Mane

Flopped at 6 to 5 behind some of these same ladies last month; she is a very quick, but one-dimensional lass who draws a poor slot; sports a superior workout regimen at Hollywood but that may not be enough to compensate for this point of departure; could win this pace battle but lose the war.

Baroness Thatcher

Her streak of bad luck continues because of today's draw; brilliant effort in defeat in the G1 Ballerina when hipped at the wire by Maryland; jammed up inside thereafter at Keeneland on a day which favored outside sweepers; has yet to defeat older ladies and this is only her second attempt at this common distance; may be too many obstacles in her path.

Your Round
 Ellis Park debut graduate draw, rail in inaugural running of the Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf $180K yearling made nice impression closing for 3rd ir Prussian's 89 Beyer win (bes; turf figure in the field) following less-than-ideal getaway, but subsequently disappointed against Gio Ponti and Nownow; Eddie Castro now picks up mount as Velasquez lands on Preachin Man; Hubley barn is churning out solid profit with 2-year-olds although this individual needs to kick in with lifetime best performance; leaning in another direction.

Cannonball
 The only NY-bred has really turned it around since switching to the green; followed up $37.40 Belmont sprint upset with game, stakes score at expense of Moral Compass, who contender Gio Ponti handled in his debut; gelding projects as pace player out of cozy slot although The Leopard, Prussian and Preachin Man have similar ideas; Trujillo is latest to pilot perfect turfer (Johnny V. rides The Leopard and Gomez Texas Fever); others rate a tad heavier.

The Leopard
 $2.5 million juvenile flashed talent on the main track however it's the grass that's Pletcher/Velazquez hope brings out his best; true that turf debut couldn't have come under easier circumstances as runner waited along as controlling speed en route to $3.60 victory but colt still harbors potential to do even better; today's chances figure to boil down with how he deals with a faster and more contested pace in only 2nd grass try; upside remains in corner of son of 17% turf sire and colt doesn't figure to be favored; consider.

Cherokee Triangle
 .500 batter didn't enjoy a smooth journey in either defeat; son of G3 Ari-Wash, Lassie runnerup Brief Bliss did exactly what he was supposed to do as 2.5 standout in Louisiana yet can't deny he displayed quality as runnerup to BC Juvenile hopeful Old Man Buck, who later snagged the show in Keeneland's Grade 1 Breeders' Futurity; pace stalker owns patient style to not get mixed up with lively fractions and tempts at price on the toteboard; eligible to inject value into exotics with late run.

IF IT'S NOVEMBER...IT'S TAYLOR MADE

If the 18th November turkey has been cooking for hours and you've been waiting an entire year for your mother-in-law's Thanksgiving Day desserts, it must mean one thing, it's November. And if it's November...it's Taylor Made. If the weather ever cools down, stop by the Taylor Made November consignments and get yourself a hot cup of cider and the dam of a Grade 1 winner. The dams of 2007 Grade 1 winners Cotton Blossom and Unbridled Belle are graduates of our Keeneland November Consignment. This November, our plate is once again full with the prospects of breed-changing broodmares.

Prussian

Best last Beyer individual in the Juvenile Turf puts 2-for-2 mark on line vs. international field; homebred must overcome presence of fellow speedsters Cannonball, The Leopard and Preachin Man but he's impressed thus far; homebred is product of legendary 19% grass sire Danzig and $115K earner Crystal Downs (G1 placed overseas); difficult to eliminate despite likelihood of quick pace.

Stakes-winning dirt sprinter draws worst of pace players while making grass debut in BC event; there's speed and talent here although today also represents runner's 1st attempt beyond 6 furlongs; G1 winning sire has connected with 13 of 124 on the green (did not try turf) and colt is 1st colt to start out of unraced dam; note trainer Werner boasts solid stats both with 1st time siders and dirt/turf runners; turf with others this afternoon.

Discreet Cat

Talented colt has now lost 2 straight after beginning his career with 6 victories in a row and being touted as the best horse in the world; it was obvious something was amiss early in the Dubai World Cup and his troubled Grade 1 Vosburgh try was far from terrible for a runner who had been away half a year; his wins last year were little short of breathtaking and his G1 Cigar Mile score was one of the most impressive efforts in recent memory; problems in the route, as he's never gone two turns, the pace, as it will likely be short and the pace, as from this draw he'll probably be gunning along with several others; if he's able to relax early he's an obvious danger.

This guy has stepped up his game since settling foot on the synthetic surface and wasn't too far off a couple of guys who will be returning for the Classic tomorrow when beaten chalk in the Grade 1 Goodwood at Santa Anita; if Discreet Cat is sent as expected from the rail this colt could sit an excellent trip down inside, but the question remains whether he's merely a synthetic specialist or if he's just matured as a 4 year old; wouldn't take a short price to find out, but he figures to be a decent price and is usable in exotics as such.

Zito 6 year old only runs well on the front end, so there's little doubt he'll be firing from the bell, but he'll likely find quite a bit of company there; he's fired well fresh in the past and the guy who beat him in his last two will be one of the choices in the Classic, but it's difficult to surmise a scenario in which he outruns his pace challengers yet still retains enough in the tank to hold off the latecomers; part of the pace.

IF IT'S NOVEMBER...IT'S TAYLOR MADE

If the leaves have turned to brown and the nip of late autumn is in the air, it must mean one thing, it's November. And if it's November...it's Taylor Made. When the geese start heading south, you should be heading to Taylor Made's November Consignments. Year after year, our graduates are at the head of their class like Taylor Made November Graduates Sacramento and Skipping Around, the dams of Breeders' Cup entrant Hystericalady (G1) and 2007 Grade 1 winner Sugar Shake respectively. It's no wonder buyers flock to Taylor Made's consignments at Keeneland and Fasig-Tipton in November.

Sophomore tries older following a career best Beyer Speed Figure effort against his peers in the Grade 2 Jerome; long try at two turns was a disaster; but he's bred to handle the role and he's progressing to the top quite nicely; spots these quite a bit of experience, but maybe the lack of seasoning helps him avoid a regression in his third start back from the layoff; Min colt is interesting at a price.

Hasn't done his best running off brief freshenings such as this and the poor effort in the Grade 1 Forego is tough to overlook as it wasn't as if he was setting the track on fire with his early, albeit contested splits; doesn't have much two turn experience and it's likely that he's keyed up for his return which, with his natural speed, puts him right in the thick of the pace duel early; faces a tough task in this spot.

Good news for this local lover is that the Breeders Cup is being run at his beloved Monmouth Park this year, but the bad news is that he draws outside rivals who are just as quick early as he is; he's fresh, has a quality win over Classic contender Lawyer Ron and it's hard to knock his Grade 3 win in which he repelled a pace challenge en route to the handy score; if he overcomes the pace obstacle once again here we're sold, but until then we'll land elsewhere.

Expected a big year out of this colt after his Gulfstream Park wins last winter, but while he did recover to take the Grade 1 Met Mile, he's been a bit of a disappointment; he's working as if he's back on track now, however, and the Jimmy Jerkens barn excels with fresh runners; with a hot pace in front of him guaranteed and a sharp turn of tactical foot, he should have every chance to run these downs.
