PICK: 5 EASY ACTION
 Trainer Norm Casse has 3 wins at the meet already and 2 of them ridden by Santana. Pressed a very fast pace here in Sep and was outfinished by the 3-1 second choice. 4th beaten 7 from there ran 2nd in a 50k claimer in the next start last week. He can set or press the pace but doesn't need the lead to win. Back on Lasix. 3rd start off the layoff. Ready for a big race.

VALUE: 3 UNDERHILL'S TAB
 He's got some races that put him in the mix. Love the way he tracked last time out and then closed strongly in that high claiming win. Ran 2nd in the start 4 back at FG. The winner won two more opt clm since. That 91 Beyer makes him a player. May get a great trip with tiring speed in front of him.

The dam won the G2 Pocahontas here (on dirt at this distance) in just her second start and was 3rd that year in the BC Juv Fillies behind Songbird at 25-1. Showed a bit of speed in the debut before weakening. Trainer has a few sprint to route MSW wins with 2YO's in their second start here at CD. Trainer Al Stall put in 4 works since the debut. The last the best of those.

VALUE: 8 AMY Z

Shuffled back and steadied in the debut when facing a full field at a very tough distance of 7F. Showed more speed on the stretchout and ran 4th at 44-1. Has two good 5F works for a trainer that can win with this kind. She should be better in her 3rd career start and 2nd time going long. Nice price.

11 SIEGE OF BOSTON	9-2	TONER	RUIZ

PICK: 6 SMOKIN' T

Fired in all 3 starts on this CD turf. He was 4th at 14-1 in the G2 American Turf beaten just 3. He was second a head in a 200k stakes but was DQ'd out of purse money. He won for fun in an opt clm here earlier this year. All 3 of those starts were with Velazquez in the irons. Discounting last on a good turf at PIM. The winner won again in allw for 4 straight. Gets the best trip.

VALUE: 9 STITCHED

Geroux has ridden this one to some of his best efforts. Upset winner of a G2 at 46-1 three back. He might get that same trip today, stalking early in moderate fractions. G1 company might have been a bit too much to ask last out. Has speed but doesn't need the lead. Is very dangerous at a price.

PICK: 7 MAGIC TAP

He ran pretty well, and the Beyer figures prove it, all four times he went long after the debut. Was in a photo for the show money last time out in the G1 PA Derby. 3rd in there came back to run 2nd a head in the G2 Fayette at KEE next. 5th won the 150K Discovery stakes at AQU two weeks ago. Has an excellent worktab for this. Lasix is back w/ the class drop. Will be tough.

VALUE: 8 COOKE CREEK

Lone poor effort in the last 5 starts came two back in the G3 Blame when he was nearly 30-1 and ran without Lasix. Had to go 6-wide in the last start which was his first off the layoff but nearly got there in the end in a many horse photo. He's 7 for 10 in the money on a fast dirt track. New rider up.

PICK: 9 GENETICS

She had just a terrible trip last time out as the favorite. She was steadied and in tight on the rail for most of the running. She checked badly at the head of the lane and lost all chance before rallying late for third. Strong pedigree. Dam was a G2 winner and sib was a G1 winner (both on the grass though). Think she'll be better suited with this wide post and a wide trip.

VALUE: 1 LOVELAND

Can't overlook the start that Norm Casse has had to the meet (3 wins in 5 starts) or the entire year for that matter (26%). Nice run in the debut for 2nd at KEE in a good time. Winner got clear but this filly was near 5 in front of the rest (beat 10). Casse 29% with a 2nd timer sprint to route in dirt MSW.
