Too Wild for Words

He makes the turf to dirt move here, and note this will be his first start on conventional dirt after beginning his career on the Polytrack at AP; he won both of his races on that synthetic surface, and note both came at demanding kind of distances, much like this seven-eighths trip can be; has the speed to hold his position from the rail and exits what is becoming a productive race; as the third-place finisher from it came back to win a $30K optional claimer at Haw in his next start; with a Beyer of 85.

Homerun Berti

Looking for this one to be prominent on several counts; for starters, he is moving from a quick five and a half furlong race to seven-eighths; he's also drawn an inside gate, and drawn a near bullet in his final prep for his CD debut; dam was a class runner as a multiple Grade 2 winner of $799K; a real threat to wire the field.

Plutonium

He cuts back to one turn after showing speed around two and that can be a winning move for a horse; he's also back on old-school dirt after racing on the synthetics and turf and note the last time he ran on dirt he was a winner, at Hoo; seems like one who can share.

to one turn after d around two and winning move for also back on older racing on the turf and note the n on dirt he was Hoo; seems like share.

Good Lord
He spit the bit after a half-mile last out in an uncharacteristic, off-the-board finish and perhaps he did not care for the wet track; like the fact that he is a winner over the local strip, and that he can stalk and pounce;
might get a nice trip behind
Homerun Bertie and
Commandeered; could share.

Glenwood Canyon
He ran a strong race last out on the outback from a mile and an eighth to seven furlongs and looking for him to be even sharper here in his second straight sprint start; also note that he hooked a multiple Grade 1-placed runner last time in Aikenite, who is to run back Saturday in the $1mm BC Dirt Mile; looking for this one to come rolling through the lane;
choice.

Commandeered
He ran a significant race last time, when he won a seven-eighths allowance in his first start since January 2009; the distance can be a demanding one, and he took them coast to coast to win by a clear margin;
since then he has been flattered, with the seventh-place
finisher from the race, Leavenworth, coming back to take an N1X at AP with a Beyer Figure of 81, and the eighth-place finisher, Cognito, a $15K claimer at Mth, with a Beyer of 82; again gives up recency to these, but draws a post that might give Velazquez options,
perhaps tracking Homerun Berti; on a pedigree point, this one is a half-brother to multiple Grade 3 winner Confide
($230K); win candidate.

Jumpin Charlie
Just like fellow rival Too Wild for Words, he will be testing his skills on conventional dirt for the first time in his career; like that he's a winner on both a synthetic surface and on turf, and perhaps he is sitting on a peak race here in what will be his third out since September 2009; the race he exits has already produced one return winner, the runner-up, who came back to take an N2X at Kee, with a Beyer Figure of 87;
could share.

Victory Notion
He returns to the overnight ranks after splitting a field of restricted stakes foes last out at Del Park; he's a significant closer and would benefit here if Homerun Bertie and Commandeered make for some serious fractions up front;
could come rolling for a piece.

A CLOSER LOOK

2nd Churchill

Solar Rocket

Given a respite following that game, all-out maiden breaker in January; returning workout pattern is strong with several superior workouts at today's trip; breaks from the fence for the first time, an underestimated factor, but still warrants serious respect because of the high-percentage connections.

Donegal County

Scored in sharp fashion but against soft opposition and will have trouble classing up against the likes of these; doubtful he can be the main pacesetter force today and the ability to rate and win remains questionable; cannot endorse for the top spot even with Leparoux in the irons.

Crider

A G3 stakes-placed runner, he gets major class relief today and is a true contender despite the vacation involved; steady breeze pattern along the come-back trail and solid trainer/jockey tandem at the helm; very hard to dismiss from consideration.

Lubango

The last race was much better than the running line suggests as he was pinned to the rail by the odds-on favorite throughout the running which in turn set up the race for the last-to-first winner; set a strong, pressured pace when winning here in his maiden voyage and looks like a legitimate contender now; the selection.

Join in the Dance

Exits an above average race where he held on for the show award, a fine performance considering the layoff involved; was the pacesetter in the memorable 2009 Derby but it is unclear whether his future is in route racing or the sprint game; mixed signals indeed.

Dream Now
Californian has little in the way of main track experience and this appears to be a tune-up for a turf assignment; trainer has established an excellent win percentage this year but a wait and see approach seems proper for this gelding.

Walking the Beach
At first glance, he seems to be aiming high in this spot but the son of the mighty Medaglia d'Oro can hit the board now at healthy odds in light of some superior local workouts; broke maiden here as the favorite last season when benefiting from some hot early fractions and the same type of tempo may be the case today; worthy of exotic wager inclusion.

Tidal Volume
Broke slowly of all and did not recover in his latest appearance and although he should upgrade as a result of that tightener, it seems unlikely he can be a major force today unless he catches a sloppy track; on a fast surface, he will likely arrive after the fact.

China
If you want to see an example of a nightmare journey, take a gander at the replay of this colt's last performance; amazingly captured the place despite all that traffic trouble and if he can secure a clear trip now, he should land into the exacta; note excellent workout of 10/23.

Olympist
Picks up Gomez for his first try at this oval but will have to overcome too many obstacles including this outpost; sports an above average work tab during the last month but still suggest waiting until next time when he presumably stretches out to a route.

Backtrack

Gelding offered quite a bit of promise earlier in the year, but has since proven that the graded stakes ranks are a bit out of his league; he should have some bottom on the turn back and surface switch, but now he'll move inside with little speed to speak of; have to side with others in this spot.

Cool Bullet

Fresh gelding has fired off drills in the past and his recent steady worktab suggests he's again ready to offer a good one for a barn that does well off this type of break; SW was in over his head on Independence Day on the Jersey shore, but he looks to fit well today and his positional foot should have him in a good spot early in this one; contender.

Don't Put It Back

He's pretty quick and he beat older last time, earning the field's highest last out Beyer; 5 time winner has been doing his damage at Hoosier, however, and he will get a class test against this stakes bunch on a track over which he hasn't done a whole bunch; don't know that he's as quick as Bulldogger early and if that rival does clear this guy may have trouble going on.

Don Tito

Lightly raced colt seeks his fourth straight score following a solid effort over older allowance foes on Hollywood's synthetic footing; he's been given some time to recover from that effort and he proved in Florida that he handles dirt just fine; he's obviously got talent and he's a contender on his best, but 2 cross country trips in less than 2 months may take its toll on an inexperienced animal.

Backtalk

Field's lone local winner has done so twice, with his lone poor effort coming when severely overmatched in the Derby...

Bulldogger

No shame in failing to make the lead through those quick splits behind Discreetly Mine last out at Saratoga...

Wasn't beaten much in his 2 stakes tries on the lawn and now he'll step back in with that kind off a huge main track score...

Noble's Promise

Field's lone G1 SW shows up in an interesting spot for his first start since getting within 3 lengths of one of the better runners in Europe at Ascot...

Apart

Not sure how many times Campbell had to steady him in the Grade 2 Super Derby but he was on heels most of the way down the backstretch and then finished full of run when he moved outside at the top of the stretch; obviously he was much the best and he has worked smartly leading up to his return; lightly raced and he seems to be getting better with each race; Gomez attracted and there should be an honest pace for him to work with; big shot.

Stream Cat

7-year-old has been away for more than a year and considering he has done his best running on turf and synthetic surfaces this is probably being used to set him up for something in the near future; he has won coming off the bench in the past, including a couple of wins in Graded races, but the last time he actually ran on dirt was in the 2005 Breeders' Cup Juvenile at Belmont where he finished eighth; passing.

Silver Edition

That was a big effort in the Hard Spun in Delaware but he has never won a race longer than six furlongs in his 33-race career and he is facing a pretty solid group of proven route winners; both times he tried two turns he was up close early and faded late in Grade 3's at Oaklawn; expecting the same scenario to unfold here; passing.

 He wasn't going to catch the winner of his latest and it looked like Torres knew it and saved a little for today's race; expecting him to move forward in his second start back following a layoff and there should be enough speed to set up his good late move; in his last four starts here he has two wins and in his two losses he ran into Blame, who figures to be the second choice behind Zenyatta in the Classic tomorrow; contender.

 Like the way he altered his running style in his win in the Star or Cozzene and he was good enough to win the Grade 3 Northern Dancer the last time he was here; this is clearly a tougher field than he beat in his latest but he could be sitting on a big effort in the third start of his current from cycle and Dominguez figures to have him sitting in a perfect stalking position early; nice set of works since he ran is also encouraging; the pick.

 Pretty sure Zito didn't want him to duel with his coupled stablemate in the Star of Cozzene but the fractions were average and he just may have been too sharp coming off of a long layoff; plenty of class here as he came close to winning the Preakness but how big a toll did it take? flopped as the chalk in his next start and you would have thought he would have hung around a little longer in his comeback race; solid stats for Zito in the second start following a layoff category and no surprise if he takes a big step forward here; could go either way.

Prince Will I Am

Has never been betting coming into this; 3-year-old exits a turf victory and is just as good on dirt; Grade 1 stakes winner defeated 2 next-out stakes winners in last (100-89 Beyer) noting the 5th and 10th-place finishers from latest took 70K and 68K events next-time out; the 2-back show finisher Beyered 83 in his next-out 40K claiming win then 89 in a n3x alw. victory; view as an exotics possibility.

Million Seller

Filly faces the boys; won the photo finish at a much shorter distance when facing much lesser in last; have not seen her best game when traveling extended distances previously; stakes winner's sire won the Breeders' Cup Classic and BEL Stakes; tough call.

Eldaafer

Exits one of his best-career efforts when racing over a synthetic surface; the 6-15 dirt mark and recent solid form suggest he will be a major player here; 55-day freshening for a super off-the-bench barn; G2 runner's sire won the Breeders' Cup Classic and BEL Stakes; is out of a G1 dam (3-11, 564K); the pick.

Romp (ARG)

Narrow-upset victory racing on a synthetic surface in last but his 5-0-0-1 conventional-dirt record does not entice on the surface switch; G2-placed runner saw the 2-back runner-up Beyer 86 in his next-out optional-claiming win; the trainer has good win marks with runners going 2nd start off a layoff; has much to prove on the main track and will be seeking the winner elsewhere.

Gabriel's Hill

Appears to own the best gate speed in this event but stamina is a major issue; stakes winner's sire won the Breeders' Cup Classic and BEL Stakes; is out of a G1 dam (7-10, 747K); the trainer has good win marks with runners going 2nd start off a layoff; know him early but unsure about late.

Awesome Gem

Displayed his best 2010 form on conventional dirt which helps the cause for this; the barn hits hard with main-track starters and he is 4-12 lifetime on dirt; Grade-1 stakes winner posted a field-best Beyer speed figure in 2007 at 9F on Santa Anita's synthetic surface; finished 7th in last year's Breeders' Cup Classic however seems better suited for this; appears the one to beat.

Giant Oak

Exits a co-best-last-race Beyer speed figure racing for a high percentage fresh barn exiting a 34-day layoff; put up a huge effort in most recent race despite a tough trip; the 2-back show runner Beyered 105 in his next-out G3 win; stakes winner is out of a G3 dam (8-30, 442K) who produced stakes-placed Cause She's Crafty (4-21, 148K) and SW Apple Martini (6-36, 352K); is just 1-for-17 the past 2 seasons which is the biggest knock against but of recent form looms a logical contender for win honors.

$30 upsetter on grass marks his 1st-ever conventional-dirt attempt today; 3-year-old is out of a G2 dam (3-7, 101K); the fact that he won at a longer distance in latest while most of these have never raced this far is a major plus; lightweight receives a 1-3-pound break from each runner in the field; will be using on deep exotic tickets.

Alcomo (BRZ)

Just missed in last start when the beaten-betting favorite; he is a marathon specialist however both wins since 2009 occurred at Parx Racing; G2 stakes winner exits a July freshening for a high-percentage off-the-bench barn; owns enough positive angles to use on deepest exotics wagers.

Precision Break

Up-and-down form with latest start 20 days in England being very poor; 1st-time Import won 7 races prior to 2009 but has just 2 wins since; projects to be sitting close to the early pace then hopes to find stamina late; will be taking a wait-and-see approach for his USA unveiling.

A. U. Miner

Exits a co-best-last-race Beyer speed figure when edged for the place money by Giant Oak; stakes winner is a sibling to G1 Star Parade (9-35, 1.2M); has never been better but have to be concerned about his dull effort in the Foster and at times has been way off his best form here at CD; 3 wins this year but two of those pictures occurred from the rail; loses ground for this with the widest post position draw; have mixed feelings.

Dos Lunas
Miss is out to prove that 14-1 maiden breaker was no fluke; she did have the excuse of the slop in the second start and possibly hated the synthetic last time; the bad news is she has to race the Natalma rivals once again; from cozy slot, got to figure Court to ask for speed early and often to gain position; needs a turn around.

Tale Untold
Any horse that can fight to beat 18 others and miss by a nostril can run and it was a back to back thing in those valuable sales stakes; she was not exactly flattered though when the winner of the 9/17 race came back to run poorly; the winner of last had lost her prior 3 and went off at 20-1; the trip should be within her realm as top kin I'm in Love won a $100K stakes going 8 and half furlongs on grass; interesting.

Quiet Oasis (IRE)
Considering the way she acted up, that maiden breaker was impressive as she was bet like a good thing and she fought hard late; she was left with too much to do late in her debut and may not have adored the soft going last time; fact she entices Dettori is an obvious positive; would not be shocked if she rebounds here for a slice.

Kathmanblu
Was green in the debut, toss it; she just recovered too late after bad start in the P G Johnson but came away with gusto in last; miss clearly prefers the grass and she has the two races under the girth now; like fact she holds a proven stamina edge on some in here and her rider knows this course like the back of his hand.

Forest Legend
Hung wide when overmatched last time, at least she is back on her preferred surface; place horse in the maiden breaker has not raced back but show horse 8/15 has lost twice since; she has a right to have a solid career as dam won a G2, was grass only and earned over $200K and kin Silver Reunion won on grass and was G2 placed; just might be the bomb in the gimmicks.

One more reason to race in California.
 A 25% purse increase.

On Dec. 26th, our purses go up. On average, we're offering $425,000/day at Santa Anita.

Flat out, you can run for more money this winter in California than anywhere else. For the full story on why you should run here, visit BigCalPurses.com

Arch Support
 Would not be shocked if she is used early here as she does have some semblance of speed; miss has been pretty consistent but must try to turn the tables on several that have already had her number; the blood is there as dam banked over $325K on grass; needs to improve to make a respectable impact.

Winter Memories
 She has made her multiple G1 grass winning and million dam proud so far; visually impressive in her style taking the Ms. Grillo and the pace should be legit for her to do her settle and rally thing; able to handle any kind of going, she gets cozier slot this time and her foes will have to have their running shoes on to hold her off.

Wyomia
 Okay, it was a short field but like the way runner in the company line last time were spaced out; she has a right to perform on turf as both of dam's wins came on grass and two of 3 of her siblings that won cashed on turf including G2 Virginia Derby winner and over a million-dollar grass earner Red Giant; she doesn't appear to be speed crazy and gets strongman Bejarano for insurance; nice.

Fancy Point
 Toss debut when she ran into the roadblock; she certainly was flattered by the eventual Jessamine winner Kathmanblu; not sure the race sets up all that great for her as she was getting late in the lone win and pace figures to be hotly contested; things will have to break right for her and she may be better off from slightly off the pace.

New Normal
 Like fact she has been able to handle good and firm going and must respect her tactical speed; also like the way she was inching away late in both of the wins; homebred has the blood to star as dam banked over $400K on grass and she dropped G2 placed Distorted Economy;

More Than Real

Like fact she came down her early to get acclimated to the surroundings; miss has shown a little late foot and she appears to be on the improve; could envision a trip where she will setting mid-pack, try to save ground, hope the speed comes back; Flay-vorful price makes her interesting in the exotics at least. her trainer on her last work; Pletcher: "She came out of it in good order. She's a filly with a lot of promise."

Flood Plain (GB)

Beaten by a debuter last time but she still fronted a dozen at the wire; mid-pack late, she finished with interest and have a feeling she'll appreciate the distance as her half sister Sampi graduated going a mile and 70 yards on soft turf over 13 rivals; value will be there.

Together (IRE)

How high must the expectations be? well, her half bro Jan Vermeer took a Group 1 and banked over $600K taking 3 of 7; her experience may prove the key to success before the smoke clears as she has as many races as anybody in the cast; she has already proven her ability on the big stage and ran her eyeballs out in defeat last time; stablemate and the winner of the Moyglare has taken 3 of 5 career and won at Longchamp on 10/3 in the Group 1 Prix Marcel Boussac; in world-class hands, she fires every time and will be a handful.

Allure d'Amour

Agile enough to almost overcome the crowded debut, like the way she was coming away late when not whipped; winner of the debut took a N2L allowance; next out; SW dam was Group 2 placed; her tactical speed could be one of her best assets today as she can get first run on the deep closers; another intriguing price play.

Nina Fever

Reformed claimer has one way to go and that's to the front to try to steal it and only if she gets a chance to suit up; there is hope she can get the trip as kin Don't Park Now took 5 dirt routes; can never toss anything easily from a 24% barn and she'll make them come catch her if she greets starter.

Evening Jewel

Cal.-bred fires every time and handicappers must decide how relevant her tough-luck Ky. Oaks loss to Ladies Classic ML favorite Blind Luck is to today's sprint; Santa Anita Pro-Ride sprint graduate took game to another level upon stretching legs around 2-turns; she doesn't often lose 2 in a row although dirt sprint is uncharted territory; others rank a tad higher.

Moontune Missy

Lightly-raced 4-year-old nearly made it 2-2 off long layoff, only to be nailed late by My Jen; she owns lowest Beyer ceiling in this BC event however and likely must deal with much quicker splits than she's encountered recently; lass has responded to Garcia's handling yet needs to perform even better to pull off giant upset; others entice more at this stage.

Gabby's Golden Gal

Gate-to-wire '09 G1 Acorn upsetter proved that was no fluke when capturing G1 Santa Monica over foe (Proviso) who has now won 4 straight G1's on grass; of course, Baffert-trained daughter of sw dam of $220K emerges from longest respite in field, a more than 9 month absence; top horseman seems fit to try this but it's wise to demand value if backing her today; liable to prove vulnerable late after prompting fast fractions.

Sweet August Moon

Last-place finisher in 'Gabby's Santa Monica ended summer in strong fashion; her Hollywood Park G2 triumph came over (Free Flying Soul) 3rd finisher in '09 BC Filly and Mare Sprint and she paired-up 96 Beyers to repeat at DMR; pace stalker now attempts to avenge KEE loss to trio while competing on dirt track for 1st time; Pennsylvania-bred would be a surprise.

Switch

The next 3-year-old earns this shot off route placing to Zenyatta; filly out of G3 winning dam of $399K was not embarrassed in either loss to Evening Jewel but has never sprinted against this level of opposition; she's heading in right direction for 21% '10 trainer and may factor late if rating/finishing behind rapid splits; eligible to inject value into exotics if relaxing early.

Rinterval (IRE)

Like Switch, this Irish-bred suffered "narrow" route loss to Zenyatta but she lacks a winning profile; mare reunites with Bejarano, in the irons that day, although runner could be hard-pressed to adjust to much faster pace and new surface; additional solid placing, this one at 71 vs. Informed Decision, could interest some yet suspect she won't see the lead on dirt against these; leaning in another direction.

Jessica Is Back

This 1-time claimer has done quite well as "speedy" router although had little trouble turning back to capture Calder's Princess Rooney; can't fault her too harshly for failing to reel in Rightly So at Spa and that foe could conceivably have her hands full with Secret Gypsy today; believers get decent price for barn which has already upset BC event with a reformed claimer (Miesque's Approval in '06 Mile); not impossible.

Dubai Majesty

500 Churchill Downs batter is nearly a millionaire following game G2 score over 3 of these; lifetime best Beyer victory came on this strip over Secret Gypsy and she has since displayed versatility winning on turf and polytrack; main knock on half to Majestic Dinner (sw $497K) appears her inability to score at this distance so far; dangerous from off the pace.

Rightly So

Fleet NY-bred silenced doubters with 2 graded stakes wins, the latest a Ballerina route over field including Informed Decision; leading out of post 1 helped that day however and presence of inside-drawn Secret Gypsy (and other potential pace players) could present stiff challenge in 1st try outside of New York; of course, we are dealing with hard-knocking filly possessing tenacity and high early zip; must be dealt with.

Champagne d'Oro

This filly and Gabby's Golden Gal similarly followed up speedy Acorn upset with G1 7f win; half-sister to 9 winners doesn't own the recency issues of that foe and, despite disdain for synthetic strips in early '09, acquitted herself nicely while prepping at Keeneland; she's breezing well at site of Ky. Oaks flop, when never involved out of tough slot; some positives are on view at decent price but can she secure favorable trip from way outside?

Tidal Pool

Local graduate figures a long price if drawing in; sharp route efforts against Blind Luck, one of them on this surface in the Oaks, are noted although lone prior 7f try was last-place Test finish; last Friday's breeze was a strong one however 3-year-old enters difficult test off 3 off board finishes; prefer others.

First Passage

Jessica Is Back's mate has class issues to address if getting into this BC event; daughter of sw dam of $150K has lacked the necessary stretch punch at today's distance since breaking maiden at Gulfstream Park; missing place by just 3/4 in the Ballerina leads connections to take a shot; others rate higher at this juncture.

One more reason to race in California. A 25% purse increase.

On Dec. 26th, our purses go up. On average, we're offering $150,000/day at Golden Gate Fields.

Flat out, you can run for more money this winter in California than anywhere else. For the full story on why you should run here, visit BigCalPurses.com

A CLOSER LOOK

8th Churchill Indian Gracey California invader has speed and it figures to be on display from this inside draw; she's been beaten by a couple of the gals she'll face again in this spot and there does look to be enough early lick to keep her honest early, however; she worked well before leaving her Hollywood base and Bejarano gets back aboard, but she'll need to prove she can run as well over dirt as she has on synthetic out West.

Theyskens' Theory Import split the field in her G1 Ascot try 6 weeks ago after a sharp pace score against weaker foes; she'll get Lasix for the initial time in her dirt debut, but her pedigree does suggest she'll take to the footing as her half brother Stevie Wonderboy, who banked 1 million, was a Breeders Cup Juvenile winner over the Belmont dirt 5 years ago; she's used to carrying weight and can't be overlooked against this field.

R Heat Lightning Spinaway winner has continued to work well after getting on track too late when splitting a couple of these gals in a slow renewal of the Frizette; she's been able to rally from off the pace in one turn events and though her pedigree doesn't scream route, her SP full sister Hot Trip took 2 of her 3 main track route tries; price will certainly be more enticing this time.

Awesome Feather Undefeated Florida bred had no trouble handling 2 turns for the initial time at Calder in her return from the freshening, earning a number that's better than anything today's rivals have run; these are quite a bit tougher than the Florida Stallion Stakes runners she's been beating up on, but she should only get better second time going long and she did show that she's capable of rallying past runners.

Harlan's Ruby
 She's been working well over synthetic since the runner up finish in a slow Alcibiades; her lone dirt try came over the track and it wasn't much, but she has improved since being put on Lasix and maybe that warrants her another shot on this footing at a price; still, she's got a lot of moving forward to do in order to step with some of these gals.

Joyful Victory
 It's not easy to win first out going 2 turns, especially from the 12 post, but she did just that at Delaware and her first crack with winners wasn't bad despite being turned back in the 8 panel Frizette; 400K filly figures to only get better with experience and though the gals who finished in front of her last time return as well, she should love the stretch back out; Dominguez clicks at a huge clip for this barn, so don't overlook this gray at a nice price.

Izsheleg
 Maiden is ambitiously placed after getting beaten by some of these without much of an excuse; she's worked ok in the interim and maybe the addition of shades helps in her second route attempt, but she appears to have her work cut out for her; looms a longshot.

A Z Warrior
 Move East to a dirt surface proved the trick as she finished in front of some of these in taking the one turn Frizette; she shipped back to her Hollywood base in the interim so she'll be making her second cross country trip in a month for this one; though her sire was a classic winner going long, neither of her most successful sibs, multiple SWs E Z Warrior and J Z Warrior, owns a route score, so don't know that she's really going to prosper on the stretchout; she's certainly got ability, but as the morning line chalk she doesn't figure to offer much value.

Delightful Mary
 They paid 500K for her in training earlier this year and she didn't disappoint while taking her first 2 starts North of the border quite impressively though she didn't have enough late, she took a big step forward on the figure scale second time going long and she worked a sharp 5/8s over the local main track for her initial dirt try; lightly raced filly can have a say in here.

Believe in A. P.
 She certainly looked good beating up on a Philly Park maiden field when trying a main track route for the initial time, but she got a quick clip in front of her and didn't beat much; her dam was a G1 SW main track router so maybe this is what she's wanted to do all along and she figures to offer generous odds to those willing to find out.

Soundwave
 She's been pretty good sprinting, but the numbers she's earned are light of what the bigger gals in here have run going long; sire was a G1 SW at 2 turns, but her dam was a SP sprinter and none of her foals to race has won going long; don't think that she's going to take the step forward at the trip she'll need to in order to make an impact with this bunch.

Tell a Kelly
 G1 SW came up just short in her initial 2 turn try while prepping for this last month, beating a couple of these in the process; her pedigree suggests this will be her best game and she has a right to improve second time going long; late-running style would appreciate some pace up top and she's likely to get an honest clip while switching to a pilot who knows his way around the local oval contender.

Jordy Y
 Tracked a slow clip in the Alcibiades and held ok for third money in that initial 2 turn try, she'll have little choice but to take back from out here and maybe that benefits her as she did well making one run into the hot clip 2 back at Arlington; top West coast pilot won his lone start when called upon by this sharp outfit; using her underneath in exotics at a price.

Plumania (GB)
Conditioned by a man who has had success in Breeders' Cup races with horses such as Arcangues, In the Wings, Shirocco, and Banks Hill, this filly was in top form in winning the Saint-Cloud against boys back in June before finishing three-quarters of a length behind Midday in the Prix Vermeille; obviously it wasn't her day when finishing 17 of 20 in the Arc, but it's probably a good idea to look for her to be ready for a much sharper try while shipping over for this.

Harmonious
If not for being fanned 6-7 wide into the stretch in the Del Mar Oaks, we might be looking at a filly who is unbeaten over turf, and it's also worth noting that Evening Jewel enjoyed a very comfortable trip that day, despite an anxious moment at the top of the stretch; she was absolutely dominant in the QE II Cup at Keeneland in her latest start, and feel that this filly is eligible to be ready for her strongest performance to date.

Midday (GB)
She's recorded four Group or Grade 1 victories in her last five starts including getting the better of one of today's key rivals in Plumania in her latest outing; her merits are obvious, and she's earned the right to be the favorite in this contest, but it might also be worth remembering that she saved every step of ground in this event a year ago, was put into an all-out drive three furlongs from home, and she may have been a little bit fortunate that a fast closing Pure Clan didn't hit top gear just a little bit sooner.

Hot Cha Cha
She's likely to be sitting on a top try while making her second start back from a layoff and going synthetic-to-turf, but her best race just might be a cut or two below what will be required to win this event, and she was beaten by today's rival Eclair de Lune in the Modesty and Beverly D.; She certainly has proven to be a tough one to keep out of the mix in her 18-race career, and she is a proven commodity racing over this turf course.

One more reason to race in California. A 25% purse increase. On Dec. 26th, our purses go up. That means at Santa Anita a Maiden Special Weight purse increases to $54,000* and a first-level Allowance purse increases to $56,000. She did what she had to do in winning the Yellow Ribbon while making her first start in America in her latest outing, but this is a much tougher group of horses that she's meeting up with today, and not wild about the fact that this filly has just simply failed to show up in four of her last seven starts.

Red Desire (JPN)
Her first start in America was a real puzzler, and even though she was backed to favoritism in the Flower Bowl, she still felt like she was a little dead on the board; looking through her company lines overseas, Buena Vista is a multiple group 1 winner, Gloria De Campeo is also a multiple group 1 winner, including the Dubai World Cup earlier this year, and Vodka has won five group 1's, four against boys, including the Japan Cup last year; she failed to make a favorable impression when getting beat by Ave and Changing Skies in her North American racing debut, but her connections were likely most interested in having her primed for this.

She won this event in 2008 and it's really difficult to not root for this mare to be able to find a way back to one of her better performances just one more time; she used to be able to produce an electrifying stretch run, but she just hasn't looked like the same filly that she once was in her last eight starts.

Milwaukee Appeal
She hasn't won this year on conventional dirt and all 5 career wins occurred on synthetic surfaces; latest was her best Beyer of the year so comes in here in top form; was forwardly placed in 4 of her last 5 starts but projects to be pressing the pace while 3-wide today; others appeal more.

Acting Happy
August absentee adds blinkers which is a winning move from the barn; should increase her gate speed with the new hood however is in a race loaded with other frontrunners; G2 stakes winner is out of a Grade 1 dam (8-13, 582K); the 2-back runner-up finisher Beyered 93 in her next-out 100K stakes win then 94 when capturing a G3 event; view as a pace factor for part.

Persistently
Late runner should get a good setup with tons of early speed signed on for this; Grade 1 stakes winner was not up to the challenge of Life At Ten in latest; she hasn't run a bad race since blinkers were added; upset Rachel Alexandra 2-back at a longer distance but overall have mixed feelings.

Seeking the Title
You can excuse her G2 loss over a wet surface; she rallied very well in her MTH fast-track runnerup effort and was shockingly too close to the pace in the CCA Oaks; G3 stakes winner chased the 2-back winner who Beyered 91 in her next-out 200K stakes win; reunites with the G3 win rider and should be rallying strongly in deep stretch trying to catch the speed.

Unrivaled Belle
 Owns rock-solid form but couldn't handle similar fillies in last pair; likes to be forwardly placed but projects for a wide pace-pressing journey; Grade 2 stakes winner's sire captured the Breeders' Cup Juvenile; is out of a G2 dam (6-22, 605K); form is just too good to leave off the exotic tickets.

Acoma
 Is 2-for-2 on Churchill dirt and exits her best-race ever when scoring at $49.60 over a synthetic surface; Grade 2 stakes winner is out of a G3-placed dam (7-15, 285K) who produced G1 Arch (5-7, 480K), G3 Festival of Light (3-9, 632K) and SW Alisios (7-14, 265K); the trainer scores with a high percentage of route starters; will be using in the exotics.

Blind Luck
 Always makes it exciting at the wire involved in 4 win-photo finishes among her last 5 starts and winning all but one; is here on a 34-day freshening for a super-fresh trainer; won the Oaks by a whisker over the track and catches a field loaded with speed to help setup her terrific late punch; Grade 1 stakes winner exits a co-best-field-best Beyer speed figure; the pick.

Havre de Grace
 Exits a co-best-field-best Beyer speed figure when averaging 2 narrow defeats vs. Blind Luck scoring over her home track at Parx Racing; at CD Blind Luck has the homecourt edge; she has super tactical speed and while likley to lose ground breaking widest projects for a solid trip stalking a plethora of others frontrunners for this; Grade 2 stakes winner's sire captured the Breeders' Cup Classic; 34-day freshening for a super-fresh trainer; is strictly the one to beat.
