Fact he won at first asking gives him a right to fire fresh; runner proved last time he could take the heat of a duel and still live to tell about it; would love to see him find that killer instinct but he has trained fast and steady for this placement; show horse in last took a $25K N2L claimer next out, the won an open $16K seller at Del Mar with a 85 Beyer; invader looks live.

His style suggests he will need plenty of help up front; love this work pattern accentuated by the second-best of 49 spin last Saturday; show horse in the May debut cashed at this very level next out, was 2nd a head in a $81K stakes, then 2nd a neck in a $105K stakes; toss last wrong surface and maiden breaking rider re-hired; not impossible task.

Back to favorite pilot but this runner took what seemed like forever to graduate and he came back to earth in a thud last time; he did catch very fast splits in last and just could not keep up; blowout 8 days ago may have him on his toes, but things will have to unfold just right for it to happen.

Toss local debut since it was off the layoff; tactical speed should put him in the right spot from the get go and the local drills since shore smasher have been solid; future very bright for this guy with several stakes performers in the family including Grade 3 winner, multiple stakes winner and over $650K earner Electrify; the one to deny.

A CLOSER LOOK

2nd Churchill

Post Ranch

Moved forward to crush 3 maidens in the Belmont mud a few weeks ago at this one turn mile trip; he'll tackle winners for the initial time in this spot, but he's experienced from the fence and he should be able to secure a good spot down inside early; he wasn't beaten all that much on a dry strip first time out so surface condition doesn't figure to pose him much trouble; repeat threat.

Gentle Tap

He'll tackle one turn for the initial time while making his first start in 5 months; barn does a nice job with its returnees and Leparoux sees fit to take the call on a runner who boasts a regular breeze pattern for his return; don't know that he's going to get the pace in front of him that he may need for his best here.

Notoriety

Four year old is the field's most experienced runner has picked up quite a few minor awards and he just missed trying 2 turns at this level at Keeneland last time; he has local experience at this trip and did break his maiden over a wet main track so he should be able to handle any track condition; capable of getting in the exotics mix once again.

Santiva

Sophomore makes his first start since failing to handle the footing in the Belmont Stakes 5 months back; he was far from embarrassed against the better runners of his generation over a fast strip in the Kentucky Derby and did break his maiden in the G2 Kentucky Jockey Club over the track around this time last year; this represents a significant drop in company and if set for his best he should win this, but it wouldn't be a surprise if this prep were to set him up to offer much better in a more lucrative spot next time.

Lion's Dub

Switches surfaces while stretching out past 6.5 panels for the initial time; he was in against better on the Keeneland lawn last time and he did run ok sprinting on dirt earlier in the year, but he looks to be significantly slower than this bunch and will have his work cut out for him today.

Chilled
Broke towards the back of the pack and had little shot from a wide spot after taking money in the Kentucky Cup Sprint over synthetic footing 6 weeks ago; maybe the return to dirt helps and kin to a route winner, his dam's 3 wins all came going long so maybe he appreciates today's added quarter mile.

Congo
Pletcher colt was sent to the bench after going on a nice run over Aqueduct's inner strip last winter and he'll make his first start in nearly 9 months here; barn's main man gets the call on a runner who despite trouble defeated the future Belmont Stakes winner 2 starts back and the outfit does often have its runners cranked first time back; can't overlook.

Relinquere
Lightly raced colt wasn't beaten much while making his return from 13 months on the shelf at Keeneland; he figures to be better with the effort behind him and he did crush cheap maidens in his lone dirt spin; he's kin to a couple of good ones including G1 SP, G2 SW router and 1.4 million earner Diamond Stripes, so though he returns in just 3 weeks, with a top pilot taking the call it wouldn't be a shock to see him contend with these.

Katz My Song
Barn's second runner in here couldn't ration his early interest when beaten chalk on the turn back to sprint in New York; there's not a lot of lick in here so he should be able to have things his own way up top if Castellano so chooses and he is kin to a route winner; pedigree suggests today's trip should be right up his alley; looks as if they'll have to run him down.

Bonaroo
Set the pace before backing out of it late in the 10 panel Keeneland heat last time out; figures to have some bottom on the turn back to this trip and he did break his maiden over the track so the local return could help a runner who may be able to secure a trip tracking the speed drawn inside him here; still, a minor award is his likely ceiling.

Nacho Friend

The Laurel stakes that he played runner-up in last time has since become a key race, with the winner returning in his next start to take the $150K Maryland Million Classic at Lrl with a Beyer Figure of 97, and the fifth-place finisher, Pocket Patch, the $100K Maryland Million Turf, also at Lrl, with a Beyer of 84; has more natural speed than a number of these and might get an ideal tracking trip behind Gladding; placed in six stakes, he could break through with a stakes win of his own in this afternoon's Ack Ack.

A four-time stakes winner, he exits the Grade 3 Iselin that went in good time; shortens up some to a mile and a sixteenth and note he was a stakes winner at the trip in July, when turning back from a mile and a half; has natural speed and might get a nice stalking trip behind Gladding and Nacho Friend; contender.

Free Entry
Likely bounced in last off the 2-back fresh career-best Beyer not handling a synthetic surface posting a career-low speed figure; he is a sibling to SW Thunders Dove (287K); massive class relief for this but have to get by Wine Police to score.

Derivative
Snuck through the claim box when winning latest over a synthetic surface; huge surface, class and distance change from latest-fresh win; he is out of a SW dam (232K); the CD win was accomplished over a wet track; have him ranked a notch below the top contenders.

Artefacto
Florida invader exits a best-last-race Beyer at 5F traveling the longest distance of career today; projects to race on or near the lead with Fast Bullet and Doinmysongndance expected to be major pace players; high-percentage dirt trainer adds to the appeal; is a sibling to stakes winner Bourbonnais (173K); the 2-back runner-up and show runners both won next out (87-77 Beyers); view as a speedy exotics possibility.

Doinmysongndance
Adds more speed in a race with Artefacto and Fast Bullet also gunning early; 7-week layoff for this he may need one off the bench; wish he fared better in prior CD dirt attempts fading badly at shorter distances; know him early but unsure about late.

Fast Bullet
Odds-on debut winner projects to race on or near the lead with Doinmysongndance and Artefacto expected to be the other major pace players; super-repeat trainer adds to the appeal; is a kin to 181K-earner G3-placed Blairs Roarin; must overcome a potential duel; a speedy contender for win honors.

Wine Police
Horse for the course won fresh here in June; the runner-up finisher from last Beyered 101 in his next-out DEL 75K-stakes victory; sizzling-Kentucky jockey wins 28% for the trainer since 2010; stakes winner is out of a SW dam (405K); will be using underneath in the exotics.

A CLOSER LOOK

5th Churchill

Seeker: Colt has only won once, seems to be figuring it out, and will be a decent number since the Baffert will be hammered; tons best of the rest in his debut at Saratoga, and may not have cared for the surface in his Nashua effort; his upside is his pedigree as his dam won several stakes and banked nearly $350,000 and she has dropped some outstanding performers like 5-race stakes winner and also near $350,000 player Classify; he should give a good account of himself.

Sum of the Parts

Youngster has the homecourt thing going on; troubled next out, was bothered at the break at Monmouth in the Sapling and then a closing 2nd in his last race, when the show horse was nearly 4 clear; several winners in the family, none special, but his dam was a monster who won multiple Graded races on way to a near $550K career; the 10/25 drill was solid considering it was 3 ticks the best and tied with another Amoss student the older Tidal Volume, who is 5 for 8 career including a win in a $50K stakes at Fair Grounds; surprise package.

Blacky the Bull

Lightly-raced runners for the most part are the order of the day for this inaugural running of this race; the beaten chalk from the fence in the Fairplex stakes, he was between runners in the debut and the show horse that day graduated at Golden Gate in a MSW with only a 57 Beyer, then was 2nd a length and a half in a NIX at SA on 10/15; life and death to earn the diploma last time and you don't quite know how much it may have taken out of him; probably needs the race of his life.

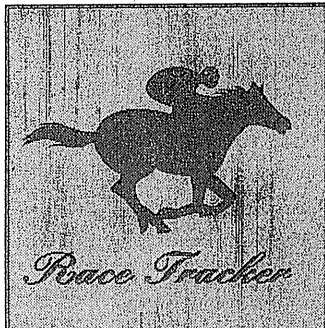

Trinniberg

Sometimes you have to put up or shut up and this guy's connections put up $100,000 to run here; to recoup the fee, he has to win; the only off effort came when wide in the sloppy Saratoga Special and he was hooking the unbeaten charge who looms a major threat in the Juvenile on Saturday; this guy worked decently here on 10/22 outworking stablemate Butler Cabin, who just won a $16L N3L fray at Calder, by two fifths; jockey Willie Martinez was up for that 10/22 work and he had this to say, 'Martinez: "He was sharp and the main thing was to get him to relax"'

Shumoos

Agile enough to overcome trouble two back, runner ran her eyeballs out in defeat in her first Group 2 effort, beating a dozen home and just never kicked last time; not sure she was beating anybody on 9/3; the place horse that day came back 6 days later to run 6th; even though she has natural speed according to her connections, since she will probably be facing the fastest splits of her career, she may have to prove she can settle and find a lane to rally into in time; trainer Meehan is patient with his babies, so just the fact that this one has progressed so rapidly may prove important; although her dam was unraced, dam's kin Cat Fighter handled the dirt taking a Grade 2.

A CLOSER LOOK

6th Churchill

My Gi Gi

Deep closer returns to the grass course which is her best surface; finished evenly at a longer distance in the dirt debut for a new trainer; she is by a 12%-winning turf sire (17% with 2-year-old winners); dam was a stakes winner in Ireland (1-for-5, 92K); 2 siblings are 0-for-4 combined on the grass; beat the show runner in the debut a next-out 60 Beyer LAD-MSW graduate; others appeal more.

Dayathespa

Was outfinished when sent this far in last; she projects to race on or near the lead; will have to shake off Stopshoppingmaria from the gate to make the front; beat the show runner from last who took a Grade 1 event next out with an 88 Beyer; the 5th-place finisher from last captured a 250K-event in her next start with an 80 Beyer; she is by a 16%-winning turf sire (19% with 2-year-old winners); dam finished off the board in her only turf start; 2 kin to race on turf are 0-for-5 combined; 48-day layoff for a winning-fresh trainer; view as a speedy exotics possibility.

Up (Ire)

Wokeup 2nd-time out graduating when placed on a synthetic surface; she is by a 17%-winning North-American turf sire (0-for-1 with 2-year-olds in N. America); dam finished off the board in all 3 starts in Ireland; 1 of 3 siblings to race on turf is a grass winner (Group 1 Dutch Art 4-for-19, 889K); races for a super 1st-import and 1st-Lasix barn.

Stopshoppingmaria

Seems the one to catch but the win rider lands on Stephanie's Kitten; she may have bounced in last off a 2-back field-best Beyer speed figure; she is by a 14%-winning 1st-turf sire (14% with 2-year-old winners); stakes-placed dam (1-for-6, 23K) did not race on grass but 7 of 8 siblings to race on turf are grass winners including stakes-placed Peter Paul Rubens (4-for-12, 148K turf); can take these a long way up top so will be using underneath in the exotics.

Stephanie's Kitten

Johnny V seemingly had other options to ride but stays here; Grade 1 stakes winner on a synthetic surface is a full to 1-for-3 turfer Lady Kitten (19K); she is by a 16%-winning turf sire (19% with 2-year-old winners); is out of an unraced dam; beat the 3-back runner-up finisher a next-out 66 Beyer AP-MSW graduate; winning-juvenile trainer adds to the appeal; may be better on synthetics so will be using underneath in the exotics.

Sweet Cat

Could not last after making the lead in last as the win rider lands on Stephanie's Kitten; replacement Gomez wins 30% since 2010 for Pletcher; is by a 16%-winning turf sire (19% with 2-year-old winners); is out of an unraced dam; 2 kin are 0-for-6 combined on the grass; defeated the 2-back runner-up finisher a next-out 64 Beyer KEE-MSW graduate.

Royal Bonnie

Hard Not to Like

Defeated the boys in latest wakening dramatically off her 2-back favored loss vs. similar rivals; she relished the turf in latest; if you can toss the Natalma event she fits very well here; is by a 21%-winning turf sire (19% with 2-year-old winners); is the 1st foal out of a 3-for-7 stakes-winning turf dam (261K); on best day looms a logical contender for win honors.

Dear Lavinia
 She hasn't done much wrong during her career; 1 of her 2 losses was vs. Elusive Kate when bet over that one then landing under 2 lengths for all the money; can turn the tables at a much better price; she is by a 13%-winning North-American turf sire (17% with 2-year-old N. American winners); 1st foal from the dam who was a stakes winner in Ireland (2-for-7, 70K); the pick.

Customer Base
 Perfect on synthetic surfaces; she may have needed the last start off the 46-day layoff for a superior 2nd-start off the bench trainer; she is by a 13%-winning 1st-turf sire (13% winners with 2YOs); dam won 1-of-2 races on the grass (9K); lone kin to race on the weeds went 0-for-2; leaning elsewhere.

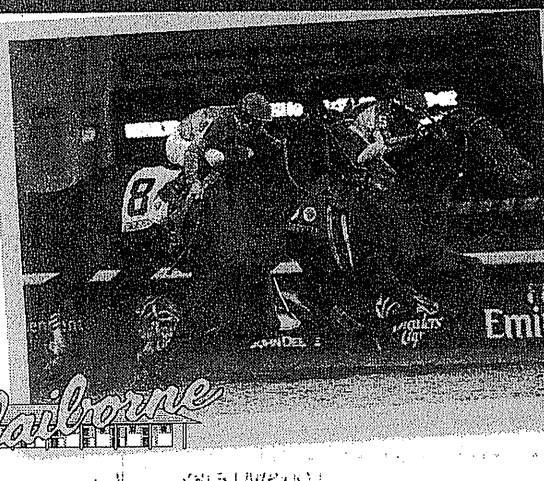

Somali Lemonade
 Exits a best-last-race Beyer speed figure; has an explosive late kick hoping Stoppingmaria sets a fast pace up front to help setup the stretch punch; has never raced on firm green which is the lone knock against this perfect runner; she is by a 14%-winning turf sire (13% with 2-year-old winners); is out of an untraced dam; 4 of 5 siblings to race on turf are grass winners including stakes winner Rasta Farian (3-for-18 turf 173K); view as a strong exotics possibility.

Bourbonstreetgirl
 Troubled trip when landing behind this same group which represents the lowest Beyer speed figure of career; she is by a 12%-winning turf sire (13% with 2-year-old winners); is out of a 3-for-12 grass Grade 3-placed dam (116K); 1 of 3 siblings to race on turf is a grass winner (1-3 Amaretta's Way 27K); will be backing others.

Karlovy Vary
 Graduated at a longer distance when sitting just off the pace; she projects to press the issue wide; is by a 14%-winning turf sire (12% with 2-year-old winners); dam won 1-of-8 (30K) (no turf); 1 of 2 siblings to race on turf is a grass winner (full Rocket Legs 2-22 turf 97K); know her early but unsure about late.

7th Churchill

Irish Gypsy

Couldn't stay with Tanda in their last meeting, and that runner has her own work cut out for her today; Beyers are a little light, and though she's versatile enough to lead or rate the inside draw could force her hand a bit; lone try at 7 was okay but the figure was relatively light; nice works for this but that's not out of the ordinary for this barn.

Great Hot (BRZ)

An early duel set up this closer and the runner-up (Beyers of 94 and 92 in prior 2 starts); obviously, more fast splits are likely here but she's in against older and better, and she's going to need to step up off that 82 Beyer to win this, as her best figures have come in routes.

Turbulent Descent

Clear favorite will be backed off that Test score and resulting 103 Beyer, and she's worked well since; obvious merits but at a light price, possibly as low as even money, it may be worth betting that this 3yo filly regresses off that career-best figure; she beat a couple of these same rivals last time, and she does just love to win, but those seeking value will take at least a modest start against her as she meets older for the first time.

Champagne d'Oro

Now here's the 2010 Test winner, who dominated in the 2010 edition, but that was her last win; she's 0-for-8 since, and hasn't really been that close; that includes several 2-turn tries, for which she can be excused, but even her sprint figures are light compared to the best of this field; also, she's at her best when on the lead, and there's other speed in here.

Golden Mystery

Way up in class off those last couple of scores but those Beyers put her in the ballpark and the latest works are superb, indicating she's still on the improve as she makes her third start off the layoff; she's a pace-promoter but she doesn't need the lead, and in fact rated in the opening furlongs last time before ranging up to challenge just as the leader went to the half-mile pole; a similar scenario could unfold here, as she may get a perfect trip just off Tar Heel Mom, and then get first run at that rival, giving her the jump on the closers; barn has been exceptional all year and the price will be right.

Tamarind Hall

Remote 2nd behind Pomeroy's Pistol in that last one, and though it was an improvement Beyer-wise off her first start back she'll need another step forward to contend here; she has the speed to get position despite this wide post and though she won the Bed O Roses with a perfect trip she seems up against it against a field of this quality.

Her Smile

3-year-old filly meets older for the first time but she has a very nice workab leading up to this race, and she also earned a competitive Beyer recently in a race at this same distance; she had trouble in the Charles Town Oaks last time and that's a two-turn race anyway, making it easy to forgive, and she had a lot to do late in the Test when behind a few of these same runners; given some help up front she'll be rolling late, but she will need some help because of her running style.

Pomeroy's Pistol

Big effort in the Gallant Bloom in her first start off a short rest, and she's going to be tough here if she can run back to that effort; her Beyers have been on a steady climb, and with a slight step forward she's right there against this field, in terms of figures; given a moderate pace and a forward trip she's certainly capable.

Shotgun Gulch

Stone closer may have to pass them all to win this, and from this outside post a wide trip seems likely; that wouldn't be a big negative if there figured to be wild fractions and a pace meltdown but this sprint just doesn't seem to stack up that way; another issue is the light Beyers; not expecting her to get there in time.

Questing (GB)

Import has been right there on the wire in each of her overseas stakes tries and now she'll try dirt for the initial time; she'll get Lasix for this and her pedigree certainly suggests this footing will agree with her as each of her 3 sibs to race was a main track route winner; barn does boast a recent winner first time in the states.

Candrea

Argued the fractions in Santa Anita's G1 Oak Leaf and held quite well for second money when run down by today's foe Weemissfrankie; Baffert filly has worked extremely well in the interim and got herself acquainted with the local main track in the Halloween breeze; she's already proven that her sprint tilted pedigree isn't going to hold her back at 2 turns and the inside draw should give Garcia the option to secure a ground saving spot if the other speed in here is sent hard; dangerous.

Rocket Twentyone

Got up to upset the Arlington stake first time with winners and she was given a little extra time off the try; she'll try 2 turns for the initial time here, but her dam was a multiple route winner and she's kin to 3 who won going long; she'll need to keep improving, but the price figures to be right.

Miss Netta

She was no match for the top 2 in Belmont's G1 Frizette, but she was coming late after losing her best shot at the start; she's kin to 3 route winners on different surfaces, including G3 SW turfer and 365K earner Dyna Da Wina, so 2 turns should help her move forward; clean break gives her a legitimate shot.

Grace Hall

Undefeated G1 SW filly toyed with 4 rivals in her first 2 turn try at Delaware, but the waters do get much deeper here; she has a right to move forward from a figure standpoint second time going long and she proved 2 back at Saratoga that she can pass runners; she's a contender.

Self Preservation

Expecting this gal will be involved early, given a clean break, and she lures Rosario, gal who pressed her into submission last time also shows up here as does the gal who took both of this one's stateside starts; maybe she moves forward second time on dirt and she did work well before leaving her Santa Anita base, but she's got some improving to do in order to threaten.

 Tries dirt for the initial time after a solid effort in her first main track try in Keeneland's G1 Alcibiades; though her lone score came against maidens on the lawn, she is kin to a couple of main track winners and her sire's career best try behind Giacomo came over this track so maybe she appreciates this type of footing as well.

Homecoming Queen (IRE)
 Barn's numbers with imports this year indicate their runners can not be taken lightly here; filly took a while to get through the maiden ranks, but she's moved forward quickly since then and she'll get Lasix for the first time in her initial dirt spin; sire was precocious, taking a couple of turf G1s overseas as a juvenile and this gal is kin to multiple G1 overseas turf winner and 6.6 million earner Dylan Thomas who was crushed by Bernardini in the 2006 Jockey Club Gold Cup, his lone dirt start in the states; can't be overlooked, but she may not have the upside of some of her more lightly raced foes.

My Miss Aurelia
 They paid a lot for this undefeated filly at auction last year and she hasn't disappointed, most recently impressing in the big figure G1 Frizette score at Belmont; the number she earned in that one towers over today's rivals, but it did come in a one turn mile and she'll have a new configuration to deal with today; fact her lone sib Albergatti was SP going long at Oaklawn in the spring suggests she'll stretch out effectively and if that indeed is the case this morning line chalk will be tough to down.

Undeclared New York bred was the best of a moderate group of West coast fillies this year; she capitalized on a quick, contested clip to take Santa Anita's G1 Oak Leaf, but she just got up to defeat a rival who was part of the pace in that one and who returns here as well; she's returned to work well and is certainly capable on her best, but from out here we'd prefer to beat her on the win end.

Frolic's Revenge

Didn't factor late in the Alcibiades, but she does figure to appreciate the return to dirt in here; she was pretty good going long in Florida and she'll secure the services of a top pilot for her first spin over the local main track; she's capable of firing off a tracking trip and the pace of this heat suggests she should have ample targets.

Sprinter draws outside for her initial route try and toughest test to date; recent drills aren't much, but her G3 SW dam was a main track route winner who dropped 2 time SW router El Kingdom so maybe she's able to go on at this trip; still, she faces a tough task from out here.

Awesome Belle

Barn took this heat's 2010 renewal with Awesome Feather and now they'll bring this half sister to 616K earner and G1 SW Midas Eyes in attempt to make it 2 in a row; she looked like a new animal when shades were added in the initial route try in Florida, but now she'll move to a tough draw while facing a better bunch than she's ever seen assembled; don't think she'll be able to repeat from out here.

Dubawi Heights (GB) She was beaten by Stacelita just two races back at Arlington Park but it's impossible to knock anything she's done since breaking her maiden in her third start in America; multiple G1 winner retains the services of Rosario and he's only won five of six aboard this miss; she merits her share of respect, especially when considering that this race is likely going to shape up in her favor.

Stacelita (FR) She's a group 1 winner abroad and a multiple grade 1 winner in America, and her one defeat from three starts stateside is a strong third place finish against boys in the G1 United Nations; she's obviously a top contender in this event, but it is worth noting that today's rival Announce beat her in her final start in Europe.

Harmonious Really have to respect the effort she gives just about every time she breaks from the gate and she is eligible to be ready for a strong performance while making her second start back from a layoff; Wygod-homedred has been a little disappointing since an extremely impressive run in the QEII Cup last year, but she does seem to be going well heading into this.

Cambina (IRE)

She was game in hitting the finish at the same time as Nereid in the G1 American Oaks going 1 1/4m, but feel that this miss is at her best between 1m and 1 1/8m, and she'll need to produce the stretch run of her life if she's to prove to be a threat against these.

She's been about as impressive as a filly can be in her first four starts, and that includes a win over one of today's key rivals in Announce in her latest outing while taking on G1 competition for the first time; she's trying to join the ranks of Banks Hill, Oulija Board and Midday as the only three year-old fillies to win this race, and that isn't out of the question by any means.

Announce (GB)

She's gotten the job done in five of her 10 starts and she's proven herself at the G1 level in her two most recent races in France; Juddmonte homebred must be regarded as a legitimate threat while shipping over for Fabre, and eh trained the winner of this event in 2001 (Banks Hill).

Really feel that she's one of the more interesting betting options in here with regard to price as this Fipke-homebred has a strong pedigree for turf, she's out of a dam who was a G1 winner racing over turf while winning 14 of 29 turf starts for 863k; she ran very well in the G2 Canadian in her latest start against a tough mare who returned to win her next race at Keeneland on 10/8 going 1m over turf in a G1 with a 101 Beyer.

Even though she's defending her title in this event, it's difficult to view her as being anything other than an outsider; she's only made two starts this year, both sub par performances, and unless she's just a different caliber horse running over the CD turf than she is anywhere else, she'll have a tough time of it against these.

Miss Match (ARG)

This rallying mare goes back to her own gender after failing twice against top-notch male opponents; drilled a superior 7F in preparation for this and should receive the proper pace set-up from speed merchants Plum Pretty and Ask the Moon; earned her personal best Beyer at this 9 furlong trip and has an expert rider in the irons who has been aboard for 3 of her victories; dangerous if closers have fared well on the card.

Pachattack

Just missed in the G1 Spinster when hooked from the outside by favored Aruna, a very brave effort indeed; draws a particularly favorable slot now and should be able to stay within range at all times; excellent blowout on 10/29 brightens the prospects and perhaps that can enable her to turn the tables on Ask the Moon who defeated in her in the G1 Personal Ensign.

Sophomore is lightly-raced but has matured rapidly this year; this is her first attempt against older rivals which is often a major hurdle; she has finished out of the exacta only once in her career and that was when racing wide at Gulfstream, a day where inside speed ruled; stalk-and-pounce type must be respected despite the relatively light portfolio.
