Comes off a couple G1 3rds so there's talent here; trouble is, both time he chased home Tiz the Law and both times was well beaten (by 5 1/4 and 7 1/2 lengths, respectively); at least figures to keep coming and he's run just 5 times so there's room for further development; of course, it better come in bunches here as he's got a lot of work to do if he's to cut into, negate or overcome the gap between and Tiz the Law; but hey, he's trending the right way, the Beyers are moving north and he's worked well since; stranger things have happened.

No match for Art Collector, one of the top 3yos, when 4th in the G2 Blue Grass at KEE July 11; in his defense, that was his first start in almost 4 months and he was far back early; trouble is, he's almost always far back early as that's his style; the good news is he does figure to keep coming, though too often he leaves himself with too much to do; working splendidly, though Beyerwise he's yet to run a race good enough to win this; but could he be this year's Rumbo or Woodchopper or Menifee, a horse with late omph but who gets you to the airport just in time to see you plane take off?

Ran the race of his life to win last fall's G1 BC Juvenile, taking the 2yo championship with him; trouble is, he hasn't won since; hasn't run badly but the reigning 2yo champ doesn't appear to have progressed at 3; maybe the BC Juvenile just wasn't very strong as nobody has come out of that to make a splash; since 1980 (39 runnings) only Nyquist (2016), American Pharoah (2015) and Street Sense (2007) won this as reigning 2yo champs; it's encouraging they feel good enough about him to want to give this a go, but he has to run a race he hasn't run yet to have a say.

Yet to beat winners so he's being asked a lot, comes off an OK 2nd in the G3 Indiana Derby but was no match for clear winner Shared Sense; that runner, good as he looked that day, isn't being brought back for this so that may be telling; worked very well over the track of late, though his 2 priot starts on this track don't exactly get the heart pounding; and with a career-top Beyer of 87 he'll need a significant move forward to do what it normally takes to win this race, and just be competitive vs. a bunch of guys here who have routinely Beyered triple-digits.

Pletcher won this with Always Dreaming in 2017, Super Saver in 2010; $975K son of Candy Ride has done nothing wrong in 3 starts; comes off a strong 2nd in a 9f optional claimer at SAR July 25 and the way he kept to his task says today's added ground will be no problem; the Beyer was also smart; that being said, he's run just the 3 times, tries a new distance and faces much tougher than he's seen before; they could easily have opted for the G2 Jim Dandy at SAR or the G3 Pat Day here so the fact they give him this shot is encouraging, though obviously it means biting off an awful lot.

After a good 2nd in the G3 Ohio Derby he moved to trainer Mott's shedrow and was promptly tossed into the G1 Travers where he performed decently, lagging back and keeping to his task to finish 4th; trouble is, he was never a threat to big winner Tiz the Law, and not really a threat to 3rd finisher and today's foe Max Player; Mott won this race last year with Country House; considering his love for this track (3 for 4, accounting for all 3 career wins) you can't blame 'em for taking a swing and he does have a feel now for the 10f game; still, he needs a big move forward.

That Oaklawn win April 11 was a pip as he rallied strongly from far back in the slop to post a 46-1 upset, suddenly tossing his name into the Triple Crown hat; trouble is, then came a dull run in the G2 Blue Grass; of course, the Blue Grass was his first start in 4 months but he still posted a career-top Beyer that day so it's not as if he came back dull - it seemed more a case he just wasn't good enough; and if anything this spot looks even tougher, and no Beyers over the 90 mark leave him with a lot to do just to get involved.

 3rd in the Ellis Park Derby Aug. 9 but was never really a factor and was well beaten by Art Collector (8 1/2 lengths); in fact, that was the second time he finished well back of Art Collector (4th, beaten 9 3/4 lengths here June 13); both career wins came here so at least you know he feels at home; still, his 4 G3 efforts saw him beaten by 11 1/4, 5 1/4, 5 3/4 and 3 1/2 lengths and the water is a lot deeper here.

 First 6 races were terrific so this son of G1 BC Mile winner Karantontie has talent to be sure; things didn't go well at all in the G1 Belmont, however, as he was well back early and could pass only a few tired foes, ending up a well-beaten 6th, far behind Tiz the Law; so, it's not as if he comes into this riding high; in his defense, maybe that Belmont run was just one of those days; after all, he's worked lights-out of late for a trainer who darn near won this race with Lion Heart (2nd in 2004); but even a return to his best form doesn't appear to be enough.

Tough to be too enthused as he was no factor in the division of the G1 Arkansas Derby, no factor in the G3 Indiana Derby and no factor in the Ellis Park Derby; form prior to those 3 wasn't bad, but obviously came vs. much weaker than he faces here, and that also means he doesn't exactly come here in top form; at least been working very nicely over this track but it's tough to build much of a case; for stabbers.

Looked in deep water turning for home in the G1 Haskell at MTH July 18 but put his head down and finished resolutely, just failing to catch top-class Authentic to lose by a whisker; that type of determination is most encouraging and that run also represented another step forward; the way he's run hints today's 10th furlong shouldn't pose too big a hurdle and note ample tactical speed to be forwardly placed, maybe even ahead of the likes of Tiz the Law and Honor A. P. allowing him first run; been working splendidly and another move forward could make him a big player.

Smith/Shirreffs won this with Giacomo in 2005 and appear to have another good shot here; $850K son of G1 SW Honor Code out of G1 SW Hollywood Story has done little wrong in 5 starts; his G1 SA Derby win June 6 was a beaut, and flattered when the horse he easily beat back into 2nd (up-to-that-point-unbeaten Authentic) came right back to win the G1 Haskell; some were less than thrilled with his Big City in the Shared Belief at DMR Aug. 1, feeling he should have beaten those but the Beyer was actually the same as in the SA Derby and that DMR race was a means to an end; worked strongly since.

The big horse here and his G1 Travers was a tour de force as he stalked, took over with ease and drew off to win in a romp, under wraps, earning easily his best Beyer; in fact, there were questions prior as his Beyers hadn't been the division's best; well, the Travers may have flushed that notion; still, good as he's been, and he's been super, who's the best horse he's beaten?; certainly hasn't beaten the likes of Honor A. P. or Authentic so this is his toughest assignment and remember his lone loss came here; working splendidly and is proven at 10fs; Tagg won this with Funny Cide in 2003.

Baffert has won 5 Derbys, 2nd only to Jimmy Jones (6); $350K son of top sire Into Mischief's only loss came to Honor A. P. when 2nd in the G1 SA Derby; posted a then-career-top Beyer but moved forward again when holding on to win the G1 Haskell at MTH July 18; that he almost got caught in the Haskell and was no match for Honor A. P. in the SA Derby has many worried about the 10fs and pedigree-wise this may be pushing it, but he's done little wrong, has worked splendidly and may be the controlling speed, and with no 'Collector to press him that makes him a little scary, right? -Michael Hammersly
