

ANALYSIS by ALAN SHUBACK

There are two things to remember about the dirt course at Nad Al Sheba, where the Emirates Racing Association's $15 million Dubai World Cup card will be run on Saturday night (Saturday morning in the U.S.).

One is that it was made to resemble that of Churchill Downs so that Godolphin horses might become acquainted with the surface for the Kentucky Derby. Second, and more importantly, its stretch is 2 1/2 furlongs long. This gives stayers and closers a better chance than they might have on American tracks with short stretches.

Remember, too, that the 6-furlong Dubai Golden Shaheen is run on a straight course. If one side of the draw is packed with speed, the winner is likely to come from that side. Jockeys inexperienced with straight courses must also beware of moving too soon, as Tyler Baze did last year, probably costing Avanzado the victory.

race 2 | GODOLPHIN MILE

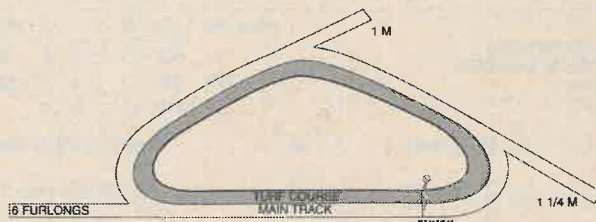

DURING looks like an international good thing here. Trained by Bob Baffert, who has won the Dubai World Cup with Silver Charm and Captain Steve, he is a miler born and bred and looks good enough to hold off defending champ FIREBREAK, who just held off 2002 winner Grey Memo last year. During is surely superior to Grey Memo, thus his selection is made in the utmost confidence, especially as Firebreak has not run since December. The frequently disappointing INAMORATO should plod on for third, but the others all look outclassed.

race 3 | U.A.E. DERBY

Decidedly not a Kentucky Derby prep this year, it may be the card's best betting race. Southern Hemisphere 3-year-olds have been entered in abundance, the best of them perhaps LITTLE JIM, an Argentine Group 1 winner on dirt who won the UAE 2000 Guineas and who was a bit unlucky when third last time behind Chilean-bred Petit Paris in the Al Bastikiya. The selection, however, is ASCERTAIN, a three-time winner in England on the Lingfield dirt track. His 108 Timeform rating compares favorably with a number of promising European classic candidates. He will be saddled one last time by Nick Littmoden before moving on to Niall O'Callaghan, who sees him as an Illinois Derby and Pennsylvania

Nad Al Sheba

Dubai World Cup

Derby type. JACK SULLIVAN, second in the UAE 2000 Guineas, should not be overlooked.

race 4 | DUBAI SHEEMA CLASSIC

This is a tight fit between a pair of French mile and a half types in POLISH SUMMER and FAIR MIX. Polish Summer rates a slight edge, and his appearance marks the debut of the trainer-jockey team of Andre Fabre and Gary Stevens. Polish Summer possesses a turn of foot, but Stevens must beware of his tendency to lug in late. He beat Bright Sky in his prep and wins this with a repeat of his very good second in the Hong Kong Vase, in which he had WARRSAN back in third with Fair Mix fifth. Fair Mix won a course and distance prep for this and should hold on for second from Warrsan. Hard Buck would have to run his best race to crack the first three.

race 5 | DUBAI GOLDEN SHAHEEN

American invaders have won three of the last four runnings of this race. It should be more of the same this time with favored Breeders' Cup Sprint winner CAJUN BEAT taking the prize. He will benefit from an 11-pound weight shift to his advantage over ALKE, who beat him last time in the Deputy Minister Handicap, as well as from the services of Jerry Bailey, who is experienced over straight courses. Pure American speed should carry the day but longshot players might look to MEINER SELECT, a consistent Japanese sprinter. Hong Kong invader Multidandy is a threat to crack the first three.

race 6 | DUBAI DUTY FREE

A good betting race even with the absence of Godolphin's Vespene, who goes instead in the Queen Elizabeth II Cup at Sha Tin on April 25. BRIGHT SKY has been pointed to this race since November. The 2002 French Oaks winner beat subsequent Prix Jacques le Marois and Breeders' Cup Mile winner Six Perfections in the one-mile Prix d'Astaire in her last win in August. She was misplaced in the Breeders' Cup Turf and inconvenienced by soft ground when third in the Prix de l'Opera and second three weeks ago to Sheema Classic selection Polish Summer in the Prix Exbury. She will have the ground and distance to which she is best suited and should take the measure of the excellent South African trainer Michael de Kock's hot SURVEYOR and the improving ex-de Kock CRIMSON PALACE, a filly now with Godolphin who is the choice of Frankie Dettori over 2000 Guineas winner Refuse to Bend. Dermot Weld, always dangerous with invaders, could surprise with the improving Evolving Tactics.

race 7 | DUBAI WORLD CUP

Foreign trainers are justly criticized for bringing horses to the Kentucky Derby off just one prep race while facing Americans who have had between three and five preps. That is one of the main reasons the selection here is VICTORY MOON. Trained by de Kock, Victory Moon has been in Dubai all winter and has run three times, winning Rounds 2 and 3 of the Maktoum Challenge. He has won five of his seven starts at Nad Al Sheba and holds a conditioning edge over PLEASANTLY PERFECT, Fleetstreet Dancer, and Medaglia d'Oro – each with just one prep. Beware using Medaglia d'Oro in the exotics as he will have difficulty staying Nad Al Sheba's stamina-testing 10 furlongs, especially as he has drawn wide in post 11. ADMIRE DON, 2-for-2 at the distance, is a serious Japanese challenger who could sneak in for third behind Pleasantly Perfect, the one Yank who will stay. Another Japanese invader, Silent Deal, could be the longshot special.

Dubai Duty Free

Checkit (IRE)

Very consistent and should give a good account, though place claims at best; Has won 4 times from 6f to 1m on ground varying from good-firm to soft. In touch towards rear, 3rd of 10, 1 1/2l behind Winisk River at Nad Al Sheba 1m Handicap (good to firm).

Evolving Tactics (IRE)

Irish raider from internationally astute trainer Dermot Weld's stable. Shipped into Chicago last summer to score off the plane in Gr2 American Derby and remains open to some further improvement after impressive local debut. In 8 starts has won 3 times from 1m to 1m3/16 on good-firm ground. Slowly into stride, won at Nad Al Sheba 1m Handicap (good to firm) in February beating Kundooz by 3l.

Martillo (GER)

German 2000 Guineas winner and added another Gr2 in July at Hoppegarten; Has won 4 times from 7f to 1m on good and soft ground. 7th of 14, 9l behind Six Perfections in Prix Marois at Deauville 1m Gr1 (soft) in August.

A CLOSER LOOK

Dubai World Cup

Admire Don (JPN)

Talented performer but is difficult to assess in this company; Multiple Gr1 wins on dirt in native Japan and just outdued by Fleetstreet Dancer in the Gr1 Japan Cup Dirt at Tokyo in November. A winner of 8 races from 16 starts ranging from 1m to 1m5/16 on dirt. Handily won seasonal reappearance in February Stakes at Tokyo 1m Gr1 (good), beating Silent Deal 1/2l.

Dinyeper (GB)

Consistent performer in Turkey but likely to find a few too good in this class. Note performance of Grand Ekinoks in Sheema Classic earlier in card for a line on Turkish form; Has won 15 times from 1m to 1m4f including wins on dirt over 1m1/4. Tracked leader, 2nd of 7, 2 1/2 behind Victory Moon at Nad Al Sheba 1m1/4 Gr2 (fast).

Domestic Dispute (USA)

American raider who got back to winning ways last time when upsetting in Gr2 Strub Stakes at Santa Anita; this is much tougher; note how During fares earlier in the card. Has won 3 times from 6f to 1m1f. Rallied, won at Santa Anita 1m1f Gr2 (fast) in February beating During by a nk.

Fleetstreet Dancer (USA)

Decent performer but finds wins hard to come by; perhaps best effort in Gr1 Japan Cup Dirt when rallying furiously on a sloppy track to nail Admire Don on the line; however has a bit to find with his compatriots here; Has won 5 times from 71 to 1m5/16. Lost 2nd late after pressing a moderate pace, 3rd of 5, 4 1/2 behind Pleasantly Perfect in San Antonio Handicap at Santa Anita 1m1f Gr2 (fast) in January.

Medaglia D'oro (USA)

Frankel ships to Dubai looking to add to his championship earnings. Top-class performer in USA closely matched with Pleasantly Perfect; Held on stubbornly over this trip in BC Classic after pace pressure throughout, although stamina slightly suspect over a more demanding Nad Al Sheba course. Has won 8 races from 6f to 1m1/4. In tight first turn, easily pulled clear winning Donn Handicap at Gulfstream 1m1f Gr1 (fast) in February beating Seattle Fitz by 5l.

Winner of 4 races at 1m including one on dirt. Closed well, not trouble winner in February Stakes, 2nd of 16 behind Admire Don at Tokyo 1m Gr1 (good) in February.

Victory Moon (SAF)

Pride of South Africa won the Gr2 UAE Derby at this meeting last year and should go close again here; Takes a long time to get into gear in races and others will get first run; has the stamina to be staying on in the final yards and has every chance to wear down the more speed-oriented USA runners in the shadow of the post. Winner of 7 races from 6f to 1m1/4 including 6 wins on dirt. Tracked leaders, won at Nad Al Sheba 1m2f Gr2 (fast) beating Dinyeper by 2 1/2l.
