CLOSER LOOK Beaten chalk in Oaklawn's G3 Fantasy didn't have much excuse for that poor effort after making a sharp late run in a prep for that heat; gal who finished first in both of these heats returns in this spot as well and the inside starting slot doesn't look to benefit a filly who has shown little early interest; nice to see a top pilot take interest, but this filly looks to have her work cut for her in this spot.

CLOSER LOOK While her numbers are light compared to some of these, this gal did quite well to get second money behind the front running winner of the G1 Santa Anita Oaks in her second start since seeing her number put up in the G1 Breeders Cup Juvenile Fillies last fall; beaten chalk puts the hood back on for this and she's been working pretty well in the interim, including a couple of sharp local drills this past week; expect she'll offer some value from this inside draw and that warrants her a look today.

CLOSER LOOK Held on to tie for the runner up spot when stretched out for the initial time in her first start with winners at Sunland last out; she did track a pretty quick clip in that one and returned to work well out West in the interim; with just a few starts under her belt this filly has a right to improve, but she's yet to run particularly fast and will need to move forward quite a bit to loom any type of threat.

CLOSER LOOK Pletcher filly looked pretty good taking the G2 Gazelle at odds on while beating just 5 foes to the wire on the Wood Memorial undercard; she had things her own way up top in that one and drawing outside, that's not likely to happen again in this spot, but after breaking slowly she showed in the promising maiden breaker that she's capable of settling early and that could give her first run on the gal drawn in the outside slot; proves to be the main danger.

CLOSER LOOK Barn's second runner in here has their top pilot named for her local debut; she doesn't look to have any issue with shipping as she's been all over the place and hasn't been out of the exacta in 5 career spins; she hasn't run very fast, though, and was handled rather easily by 2 of the big girls in here in her last couple of starts; may be best used underneath in exotics from here.

CLOSER LOOK Outside drawn runner began her career in impressive fashion by taking each of her first 2 starts over the local main track, including the G2 Pocahontas in just her second career start; filly has looked little short of terrific in taking those last 2 graded stakes heats in Louisiana and she's working like she realizes she's back home; her 2 triple digit Beyers stick out in this heat as both exceed the Beyer par for the level at this time of the year; she'll again be a short price and the starting slot is no bargain, but on her best she's going to be very tough to handle.
