A CLOSER LOOK

Dubai World Cup

Malek (5-1)

Chances could be compromised by inside post position, which may force Solis to send to ensure a good position; has the speed to work out of a jam, but connections worry about its toll; the victory in the Santa Anita Handicap left as many puzzles unanswered as it solved: he can go a mile and a quarter, but didn't do so in a fast time (2:02 1/5), getting last two furlongs in :26 2/5 seconds; picks up 11 pounds from 115 assignment in Big 'Cap to 126 weight-for-age load here; wasn't asked to do much in Tuesday work, going four furlongs in :50 and change; has Mandella experience in his corner; wouldn't be a complete surprise, but would flatter Bagshot.

Predappio (15-1)

Makes first start on dirt, leaving question of how he'll face sand in his face; trainer wanted to draw between 4 and 8, so Dettori may be forced to go with Solis to keep away from trouble; had a moderate 1997 in top company in Europe; was all out in Hardwicke Stakes (under Stevens) at Royal Ascot last June; could prefer mile and a quarter over a mile and a half considering the fade he showed in final furlong of German and French races; has reportedly been training well away from racecourse; well-supported in English betting shops, but that could be sign of what's expected later in year.

Luso (30-1)

Has benefit of race over track in this event last year, even though he finished eighth; went on to earn more than $1.1 million in Italy, Germany and Hong Kong, where he ended year with major stakes win in Group 2 race over a mile and a half on turf; trainer hasn't missed one of these yet; horse has had dirt kicked in his face as practice for what he'll face; expected to be forwardly placed but doesn't need the lead; former champion jockey Eddery making comeback after undergoing back surgery last fall; has looked good on the race-track here early in the week; seems like a gamble.

Behrens (8-1)

Seeks to erase disappointment stretching back to impressive Pegasus Handicap win at Meadowlands at night last September; worked six furlongs under the lights Monday, finishing well; trainer says, "I like to school horses a lot so I'm sure working under the lights won't hurt us"; returned to track Wednesday with strong gallop; trainer threw out Donn H'cap after bad start; couldn't match strides with Skip Away in Gulfstream Park Handicap in late Feb. before fading to finish third; trainer was third in 1996 here with L'Carriere; more likely to be placed than win.

Kyoto City (50-1)

Has a bankroll $4,620,193 - that could buy much of gold available in local shopping district here, or at least enough to fill large suitcase; realistically, his appearance seems more like a sporting gesture than a well-timed assault; took forever to get out of a gallop here Wednesday morning before going six furlongs in 1:17 3/5, with each furlong faster than previous; had long gallops in preceding days; in race's first two runnings, Japanese representatives were sixth and did not finish; an unlikely longshot.

Swain (20-1)

Suroor's comment that mile and a quarter "might be too sharp for him" leaves a doubt that he may not be suited by distance; hasn't run in a race this short since finishing third in Prix Ganay in France over a mile and five-sixteenths 23 months ago; only win in four starts last year came in top-class Ascot race on a very soggy turf course that not everyone fancied; has trained away from race-course; hasn't run since finishing seventh in Arc, weakening one furlong from finish; was third in the 1996 Breeders' Cup Turf at Woodbine; chance for a place, but victory seems remote.

Oxalagu (30-1)

Participation was cast in doubt Thursday when trainer Andreas Schutz revealed horse was suffering from stone bruise (actually stepped on a golf ball); said horse has "30 percent chance" of starting; decision is expected to be made Saturday morning; unknown to most Americans, campaigned primarily in Germany and Italy last year where he held his own against invaders from England and France, winning 4 of 6 starts; shouldn't mind the mile and a quarter; had fast canter with 2 others on Wednesday, running in front of stablemate Borgia; even if he does start, seems like one to avoid due to setback.

Borgia (10-1)

Some questions of whether she'd be better suited in mile and a half race; like Luso, connections have been trying to teach her to accept dirt in her face, which she'll contend with in a stalking position; has caught the eye more than once on the track this week; probably unlucky not to be closer to Chief Bearhart in Breeders' Cup Turf at Hollywood Park where her mid-stretch rally took the breath away; like the fact Fallon stays with a filly expected to one to follow between now and Arc in October, give her a big chance.

Loup Sauvage (6-1)

Hails from powerful Andre Fabre stable in France, where he won the Group 3 Prix Exbury in a bog two weeks ago; can rate wherever Peslier wants him to be; arguably the best looking horse on the track this week; Mandella repeatedly mentions him as one he fears; a compact, muscular horse, bred in Kentucky, with a nice way of moving; has lost more than he's won, but has kept company with some of Europe's finest; considered by many to be Europe's best chance and would surprise few if got the job done; don't leave him out of exotics.

Silver Charm (3-5)

Chaos surrounding withdrawal from Santa Anita Handicap three weeks ago seems over; no worries for Baffert this week regarding feet; trainer said he desperately needed the six-furlong workout in 1:12 over Nad Al Sheba last Sunday, returning out of breath; colt seemed content galloping in middle of week, and has maintained his laid back attitude; didn't seem to mind the ship around the world; outside box will help Stevens track leaders or move forward and take command; if he repeats his race in the Strub, even if that was against lesser horses, than the others wasted their time coming here.

-Steve Anderson

Horses bred outside the United States, Canada and Puerto Rico are identified by a two or three letter country-of-origin abbreviation that is used after the horse's name in past performances, charts and other statistical compilations published by Daily Racing Form. Horses bred in foreign countries are identified by their name and then the country of origin abbreviation, as in Good Hopes (GB). The country of origin is also shown following the breeders' name in the horse's past performances.
