MAIDEN CLAIMING 20K, 6.5F DIRT

4 CHOCOLATECHOCOLATE	4-5	FRANCO
5 SHEER WILL	5-2	DAVIS
2 KATE BARRY	5-1	MARAGH
3 SNIDE	12-1	CARMOUCHE

PICK: 4 CHOCOLATECHOCOLATE

She dropped to the main claiming ranks in her 2nd start. That was on a sloppy track. She was third as a 5-2 chance in there. The next three were on fast dirt tracks and she was runner-up in each. Franco was riding when she was beaten a neck here 3 starts ago.

VALUE: 2 KATE BARRY

She hasn't broke well from the gate in either of her two starts. This 200k purchase started right in the 35k claiming company. Not ideal but that purchase was two years ago. Ran fairly well last out in a 50k maiden claimer. Big class drop. Not facing a lot here.

7 CARLIN CONTENTION	5-2	ELLIOTT
3 DOMINICAN THUNDER	5-1	DAVIS
5 UNCLE BARRIE	8-1	HERNANDEZ
4 COCO SUN	8-1	MARAGH

PICK: 7 CARLIN CONTENTION

She has excuses in her races. She's been on muddy or sloppy tracks in 3 of 6 starts. She was on the turf in the last start (not bred for it). Debut was on a fast dirt track but in with MSW company. Deep closer is going to come flying home. This isn't a tough group.

VALUE: 5 UNCLE BARRIE

He was in the same race as the top choice two back at 18-1. He did little in that race but it was a sloppy track and there is a chance he just didn't want that surface. He's nibbled at this level many times. Likely best chance is bottom of the exotics. Will be a price.

2 MAGGY'S PALACE	6-1	ELLIOTT
5 ROSWELL	5-2	ALVARADO
4 THE BIG CALHOUNA	7-2	FRANCO
3 LAVENDER DISASTER	3-1	PRAT

PICK: 2 MAGGY'S PALACE

She's a closer who won 2 of her last 4 starts. There are those who will peg her as an off-track type. That may be true but she has run well on a fast track (7 of 10 in the money). There will be plenty of pace here to set up a late run. Her second start off a mini layoff.

VALUE: 4 THE BIG CALHOUNA

She has shown good speed in most of her starts. But her last win was tracking the pace. That will come in handy in this race as there are a couple of others in here who will push each other early. Franco was up in the win 3 back. Could end up with run of the race.

4 - AQUEDUCT (2:35 ET) CLAIMING 12K, 7F DIRT 5 SPEAK SOFTLY 8-1 LUZZI 8 KILLY START 7-5 FRANCO 1 MISS LAO 4-1 DAVIS 9 MURSAL 8-1 CARMOUCHE PICK: 5 SPEAK SOFTLY She showed some talent winning 4 out of 5 races in Oklahoma and Texas earlier in the year. Pulled up in the start two back. Gets a pass in the last start. She pressed a fast pace. The top three finishers were 8 th , 7 th and 6 th at the half-mile pole. Gets one more shot. VALUE: 9 MURSAL Less fancied of the two in the race for Linda Rice as this one comes in with 4 straight bad efforts after a win for 35k claiming. But despite the poor form, Rice dipped in and took her for 12k last time out. Eased in that race but has had 7 weeks. Feels like she'll run. Lone miss was three back when she was off slow in a sprint at Kentucky Downs. Winner of last returned to ran 2 nd in 100k opt clm at SAR at 5-1 (beaten less than one). 5 th and 6 th two back both won turf MSW at SAR next. VALUE: 7 MYSTIC SEA She was in the same race as the top choice in start two back. She was 19-1 from the widest 10 post and ended up with a wide trip. In the end, she was only about 3 behind the top choice. Winner of last won a G3 next and has been stakes placed 4 times already. The second dam was placed in graded turf stakes. Weaver always works slow. Rider 24% for him. VALUE: 8 SNICKERY Another first timer for another trainer who does well with debut runners sprinting on the turf when in a MSW race. New York bred by excellent sire Knicks Go who is hitting at over 25% so far on the turf. Sib to a Ny-bred who won 500k (never turfed). Check betting. A) 4 B) 1,3,6,7,8 C) 5,10 D) 2

She looked great in her first three starts but faded last time out in the Wilton Stakes. That was without Lasix which is back in the mix today. The dam is a half sibling to the top sire Tapit. Millionaire Rubiano is in the female tree. VALUE: 1 PRACTICAL LOV This is the other runner for Bill Mott. She was 4 th in the same race Alyeska was runner-up in last time out. This one had the rail there, as well, but bumped hard out of the gate. Velazquez rode her to a placing by a neck at 9-1 at GP. Think she gets sent right away. Two of the three who have run back won (allw and opt clm at AQU). Back in w/ older fillies and mares and back on Lasix. Brown is 24% in allw with a last out in the money route on turf. VALUE: 1 TOUNGUE TWISTER This filly has had the rail once her in career. It came in the start 8 back on this turf and she won it as a 9-1 chance. Wide trip in the last few starts but she'll be able to save ground today. Adds blinkers and the maiden winning rider on her, Dylan Davis. Big shot. Notice this one was 7-2 (but probably due to Brad Cox as much as anything). She didn't have a great trip but was making up ground in the late stages. A better result with a better break. VALUE: 7 CHOPPIN BROCKLEY It's possible she doesn't have any talent. She's been dead last in both starts. It is interesting that Weaver doesn't give up on her and has her protected. It may be that she needs the turf. New sire so there isn't a lot to go on from pedigree. Would toss her into bets. A) 5,10 B) 1,7,9 C) 2,6 D) 3,8
