Shared Heart

Sat a nice stalking trip just off a longshot pacesetter in the Belmont stake last time, but proved no match for a couple of outside closers while just holding third money at this trip; the addition of shades can help and there's not a whole bunch of speed in here so the inside draw could help her assume command from the bell; with 2 starts off the break under her belt maybe she's set to take the step forward that's been expected since the big Florida debut score last winter; one to beat in this moderate entry level allowance.

Lady Jadana

Filly ran well sprinting here in early summer and she should be better in her return to dirt ater getting beaten only a few lengths off the break at KeeneJand; maybe she's closer early on the stretchout in a field without a lot of early lick and her maiden win did come going long, albeit on the lawn; still, a minor award looks to be her ceiling.

Ensign's Soul

She's been given a little time since offering some late run first time with winners at Delaware; didn't do much at this one turn route here earlier in the year, though she has been breezing regularly over the track of late; she'll need to take a good step forward to go with some of these on the turn back.

God's Blessing

Field's most experienced runner has been facing cheap conditioned claimers and the numbers she's earned are significantly light of what the bigger guys in here have run; tough to make a case for her getting in the mix for even a minor award today; looms a big price.

Dreamingly

Beaten last out chalk in her first with winners will tackle dirt for the initial time in this spot; she should be set for an improved effort with the return try behind her and given the top side of her pedigree this new surface should agree with her; capable if she takes to the main track.

Enchante

Broke her maiden sprinting on dirt and wasn't beaten all that much in either of her recent synthetic routes; turn back to this trip should help and the solid barn spots her in field where her positional foot could play out well; from a value standpoint she's worth a look.

Elegant Finish

She'll tackle a flat mile for the initial time while getting a nice rider switch for her local debut; SW dam was a route winner and this gal did show the ability to rally and pass horses last time after graduating in the mud while making her return from 12 months on the shelf.

Jump Up

She looked pretty good breaking her maiden first out from an outside draw over Keeneland's synthetic surface; she's based here and has worked well over the local main track for her first with winners and the barn hits at a nice clip with its runners tackling added ground; her dam was a route winner; she's the main rival.

Grandacious

Last three were all pretty ugly but none two were on grass and she might not have cared for the Poly when she ran in the Grade 2 Raven Run at Keenelands; she also went pretty wide on the turn; she has a solid record on dirt, however, and Calhoun has solid stats with horses making their second start following a layoff; some things to like, especially her record at the distance.

Lady Giacomo

Brings good speed to the table and she may have needed her last start as she was coming off a lengthy layoff; the past 5 years Milligan has a 12 percent strike rate with horses making their second start following a layoff; Gomez attracted and she is back with 3-year-olds only; nonetheless she will need to improve on her career best Beyer Speed Figure to win this and she is going to have to deal with Just Louise early; nice work over this track but others look more appealing.

Dancin' in Her Dreams

Her debut was sensational and it looked like she might be something special when she came back and romped in the Grade 2 Pochanted here last year; that was her last win but she came pretty close in a couple of Grade 2's at Gulfstream before going on the shelf following a dull effort in the Grade 1 Ashland; comeback effort was solid and there is plenty of speed to set her up; big shot in what shapes up as a battle between her and Salty Strike for the top spot.

Ridgester

Comes out of the same race as Dancin' in Her Dreams and she had a pretty wide trip but still managed to finish third; she figures to move forward in her second start back and she ran well over this track earlier this year; comes up a bit short in the class department, however; consider for the bottom half of the exotics.

Just Louise

Romans has had a hard time keeping this one going and she is coming off another layoff; she started off her career on the right track with two wins here - including a score over Salty Strike in the Grade 3 Debutante; she faded badly in her two subsequent races, however, and it would be hard to support her off what she has done this year; she is also going to have to deal with other speed in the way of Lady Giacomo; passing.

Garnet Crystals

Goes back to dirt after trying grass for the first time and note the solid recent numbers. Gordier has put up in the turf to dirt category; another one that ran well over this track in the spring and her latest on dirt at Hawthorne was a key race; exotics possibility.

Miss Dora

She comes into this with two wins from her last three starts and she equaled her career-best Beyer Speed Figure in a sharp score at Turfway in her latest; it was a pretty weak group but she does own the best last-race Beyer Speed Figure in the field; she is also eligible to bounce so we are going to look in other directions.

Salty Strike

Looks like the horse for the course and there are plenty of reasons to forgive her for her last three races; Grade 1 company was beyond her reach in the Mother Goose and the Test and she was trying grass for the first time in her latest; she romped in the Grade 3 Dogwood the last time she was here; looking for her to take a big step forward in her second start back and her tactical speed could give her a big edge over Dancinginherdreams; the pick.

Splendor Town

Was on a roll at Mountaineer and the horse that finished third in her last win there came back to romp by over 11 in a similar race going a flat mile; horse that beat her at Hoosier finished second in a $103K stakes race in her next start there; not a bad effort in her first try on Poly in her latest at Keeneland and the only concern is the barn has had just a single winner from the last 36 they have started here; she looks like she's on top of her game, though; another one for the exotics.

A CLOSER LOOK

3rd Churchill

Birdrun

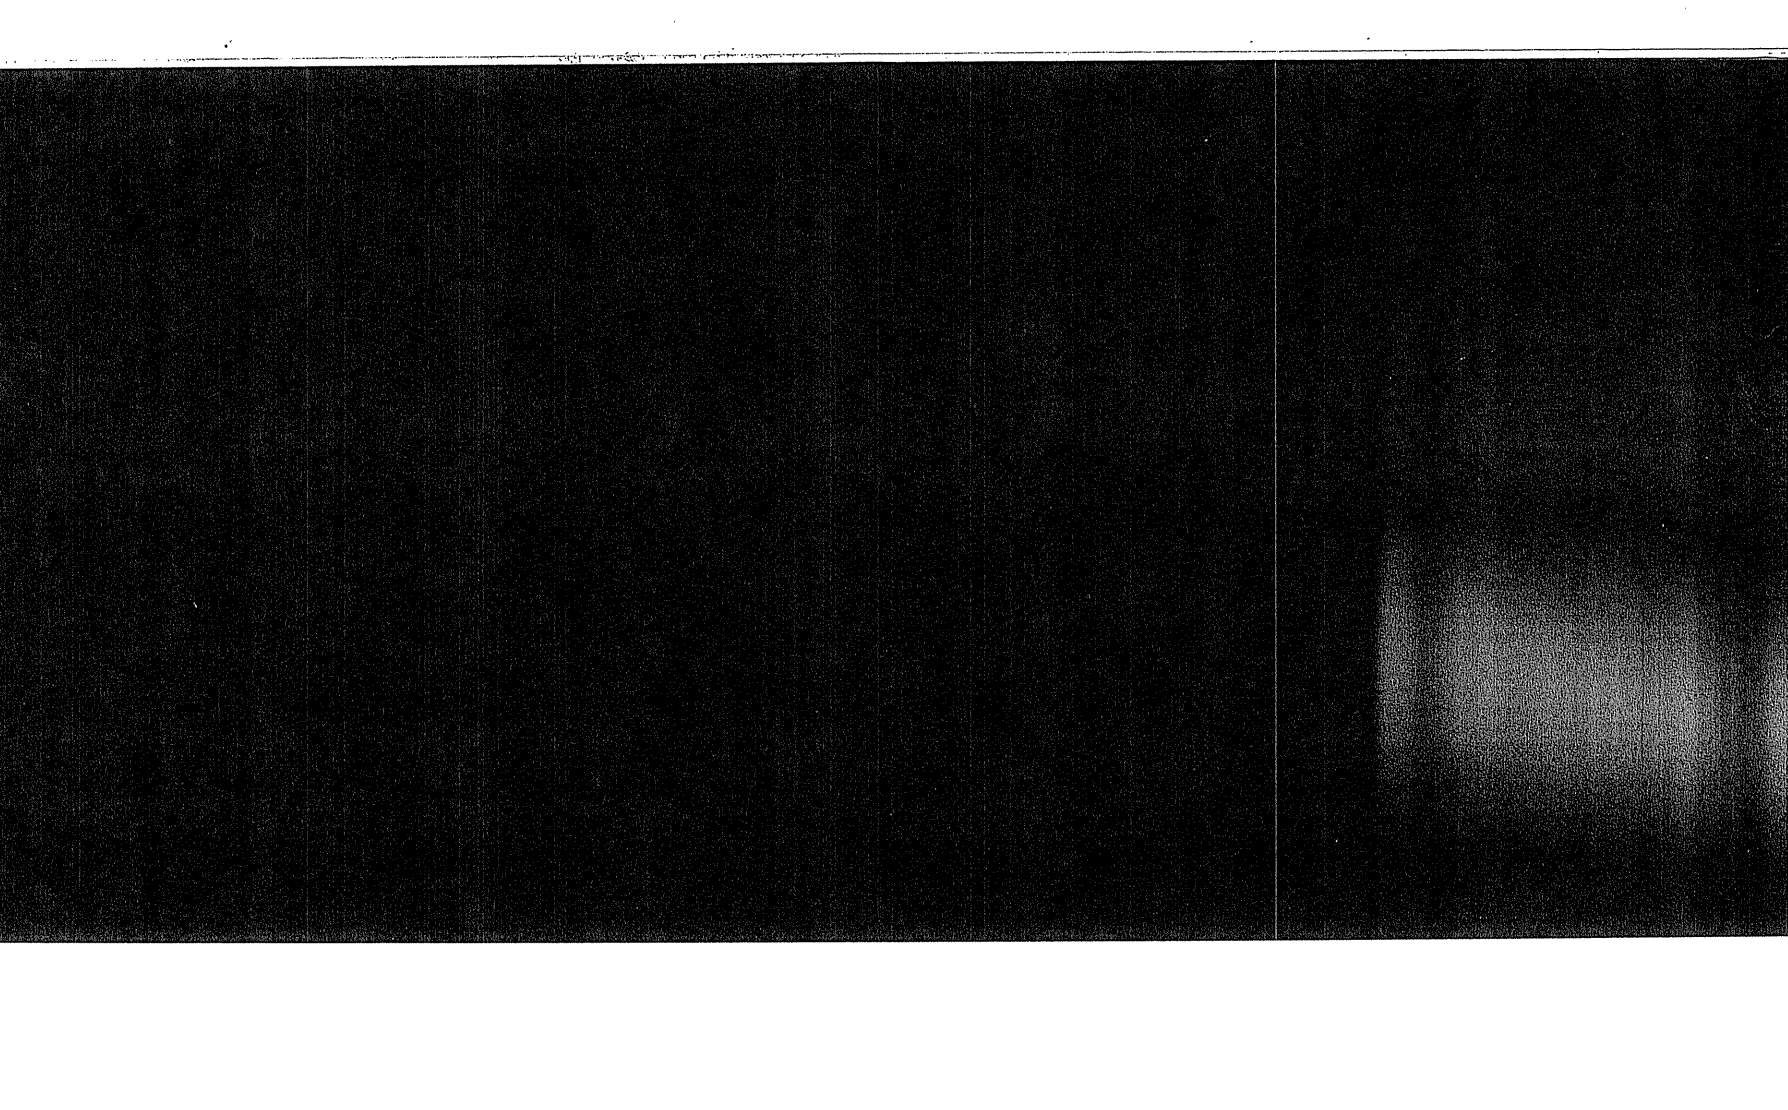

His stablemate, who was coming off a 109 Beyer, won the last race in clever style; this guy, who may have hated the off going last time, brings tactical speed to the party and would not be shocked if rider tries to lull them to sleep on the front end; in the exacta in 9 of last 13 and could be looking at a similar fate; clever move on 10/22 when in company with stablemate Drosselmeyer when finishing final quarter in a sharp :24.45; show horse in the Brooklyn held by a nose in a $100K stakes at Delaware, then was out of the money in the Grade 3 Iselin at the shore; if you figure this guy just needed his last race, then he has a right to move forward; wide in only try locally when going short; expect huge effort.

Baryshnikov

Pro has been consistent this year but can't be thrilled with the local slate; the main negative may be the fact he has never won on conventional dirt and he stopped badly the last time on dirt in the Hoosier fiasco in 2010; he was finishing okay in the Baruch and the winner that day repeated by a neck with a 102 Beyer in the Grade 1 Woodbine Mile; the 10/23 drill suggest he was on his toes in that move; beaten chalk in 3 of last 4 efforts; this is a far cry from beating classified allowance runners in April; hard to adore.

Meeznah

Proven at the distance on grass, she tracked the leaders to no avail last time; this is trainer Lanigan's first Cup starter but he learned under legendary Henry Cecil and also from other greats including Vincent O'Brien and John Oxx; the place horse in this runner's Group 3 win in July, won the Group 2 Qatar Prix Chaudenay for the Aga Khan next out and then was a good third beaten a length and three quarters to Andre Fabre's 4 for 9 near $300K earner Be Fabulous in a $347K race at Longchamp; just may like it here.

Afleet Again

Last race was the best yet since being moved to second in the Philly fray; far from a win machine, he has not seen a cameraman since shocking at 24-1 in the mile Withers last year; runner has limited speed and seems best if the pace is hot and heavy; only one 90 plus Beyer this year and he was losing a bit of ground late in that fray; backers have to hope that this guy can settle, save ground, the pace is hot and he can pick up some minor pieces; a slice may be the ceiling here.

Lightly-raced gelding finally caught a glib surface last time and tried right to the end in a very nice effort; he does seem to move up in the off going so keep one eye to the sky and he has only run one poor effort when hung wide from post 10; the feeling is the distance is well within his scope as kin Cap won at a mile and three eighths on the grass; in good hands, he has been expertly managed and he doesn't appear to have hit his top yet; slight improvement and this runner will be a handfull.

Face it, the defending champ is not coming to this race as sharp as he was last year; repeatedly proven fresh, this event last year was roughly run as this gelding just found a way to prevail; 4 clear as the beaten chalk in last, he had no apparent excuse in the Brooklyn and will need a rebound run; the 8/17 place horse won next in a $84K Delaware stakes; could envision a trip where he will sit 4 or 5 off a very moderate pace hoping the speed comes back; things will have to break just right for him to win the hardware once again.

Troubled in this race last year, he has been patiently placed this season; runner is taking a similar path to this race last year as he posted the 104 Hawthorne Beyer prior to last year's event; two excuses last time, the company and the mud but he still kept to the task and was inching toward the winner late; the place horse in the 2011 opener took a $125K Mountaineer stakes next out, then was out of the money in a $58K Belmont stakes; runner was DQ'ed from purse money after the 7/16 race because the runner tested positive for Methylprednisolone, a form of steroid; half of his wins have been local; should give a good account of himself.

Gung Ho He ran well the last time he was seen racing over turf at LaD while making his first start with Lasix, but he's going to need to be ready to take his game to another level against these, and it is worth noting that both Leparoux and Dominguez ride elsewhere in here.

Fantastic Song He has an extremely nice pedigree for turf and he's run very well in his first two starts, especially in his career debut when he got the better of today's rival Animal Spirits; he exits an oddball run race over a soft turf course at Belmont Park and it wouldn't be a shock to see him show up with his best race yet.

Shkspeare Shaliyah All three of his starts to begin his career have been quality ones and his most recent work-out is stronger than that 51 second clocking suggests as he finished up with a very strong 1/4m; tough to knock anything he's done so far and going to look for him to be ready to run a good one.

Farraaj (IRE) He's an interesting import after four strong starts to begin his career and Crius is a very promising runner who got the better of him in his latest outing; he is making his first start beyond 7f, but he has plenty of potential behind him, and he gets Lasix for the first time.

Wrote (IRE) He finished behind a couple of his stablemates in his most recent race, but neither of them shows up for this, and this colt has to be considered a strong contender while getting Lasix for the first time; this is a barn that has had recent success in America with Cape Blanco and Together.

Coalport

He has the look of a legitimate threat after a couple of strong performances to begin his career and he split a couple of today's rivals in his latest outing while stepping up to the G3 ranks at second asking; Alvarado has won with 8 of 23 (34%) mounts for this barn in 2011.

Caspar Netscher (GB)

He recorded back-to-back wins in G2 events prior to a fifth place finish in his latest outing, and it might be worth noting the "Off slow" in his trip-note comment; he's one of three very interesting horses making their first start in America in here.

Animal Spirits

He's been very impressive in his first two starts, and like many of these, there's no telling what his next level might be; this colt is offering up a lot of promise at the moment and Albarado has had the opportunity to get to know him well.

Excaper

A solid case can be made for his one start over turf being his best performance to date, but it does look like he might have a tough time avoiding an early pace dispute, and that's something to be concerned about.

Euroears

This lifetime .500 hitter won the first 6 races of his career (surpassing the 100 Beyer plateau in 3 of those victories); he is tons better than the most recent effort at Belmont implies where he lost any realistic chance at the start; sensational work tab at Santa Anita suggests he is ready for a breakthrough performance; must be feared if the rail has proven to be favorable up to now.

Giant Ryan

Incredible improvement for this runner who is on a wild win streak; versatile enough to set or stalk the pace, the only shortcoming may be inexperience over this course; local breeze on 10/26 was fair but not overpowering; very difficult to pinpoint his chances against the likes of these speedburners.

Aikenite

He is a very underrated, and unlucky, sprinter who has rallied wide on days which featured golden rails this year including the one at Saratoga on 7/22 which helped propel Jackson Bend to victory; the colt has important prior winning experience over the course (defeating Apriority here in May) and could be flying fastest of all today; the value play and the selection.

Hamazing Destiny

That was a brilliant workout here on 10/24 and he ran a fine race in defeat in the G2 Phoenix when re-rallying after being shuffled back to last; sports a solid record overall especially if you toss his performances at 7 furlongs, a distance where he has never been victorious; Albarado needs to time the middle move at just the right moment.

Jackson Bend
 Disappointed several times in his 3-year-old campaign but has improved by lengths and bounds this season; last month, he tried to rally inside of Uncle Mo in the G2 Kelso and lost all momentum when doing so; recovered nicely for a clear placing; had no chance in the 2010 Kentucky Derby when in heavy traffic; work tab over the deep Saratoga training is excellent; warrants much respect.

Force Freeze
 If you happen to like the chances of Giant Ryan today, you must include this gelding in your wagering as he was a gallant second behind that foe despite drifting in the stretch; began his career in America, winning 3 of his first 4 starts, before shipping overseas; remains a puzzling item and generous odds are certain.

Amazombie
 Californian has never raced outside of his home state but has a solid record and this outer post actually suits his style of running; veteran Mike Smith has been aboard for nearly all of this one's victories; could be good enough at this juncture to turn the table on Euroears who got away unpressured in their July match-up.

Big Drama
 Defending champion of the Breeders' Cup Sprint is one of the few horses to ever reach the celestial 120 Beyer plateau; repulsed all challenges in last year's victory when staying a bit off a dead rail; can unleash a powerful middle move if the situation warrants which may be the case because of the inside heat; Dominguez will likely bide his time just off the first flight and try to grind the inside front-runners into the ground; legitimate favorite.

Apriority
 The other runner trainer by David Fawkes will fly under the betting radar but may be worth a saver play; just like Euroears, he did not show his true colors in the G1 Vosburgh; he was exceptionally brave in his only appearance at this oval when losing by inches to Aikenite; upset possibility.

Grand Adventure

With a full field of 14 set to go in the BC Turf Sprint, one of Grand Adventure's first tasks will be to hold his position from the rail; could be a little sharper here than he was last time as he will be making his second straight sprint start after cutting back from a mile for the Grade 1 Nearctic; closed well for fourth in that six-furlong stakes that was won by one of the top choices for this race, Regally Ready; as for Grand Adventure - a class act as a Grade 2 winner of $754K - the main concern here is that the five-furlong trip might be less than optimum for him.

Holiday for Kitten

She is one of three females who will be facing males in this spot, the others being Broken Dreams and Rapport; she's also the lone 3-year-old in the race; has more natural speed than a number of these, with her main pace rivals likely to be Rapport and California Flag; as for the move back to turf off the synthetic-track score in the Grade 2 Thoroughbred Club of America at Kee, note she is a two-time winner on the grass; also like the fact that her dam won nine races; might get a decent trip with her speed.

Broken Dreams

A mare facing males, she closed last last out to register her first stakes win in the Grade 3 Sen. Ken Maddy at SA; will be shortening up from six and a half furlongs to five-eighths of a mile this afternoon, and the distance feels a little less than optimum for her; still, she has run well over the local course in the past and like a number of these she can share.

Perfect Officer

A multiple stakes winner, he's played runner-up in a couple of important divisional races in his last two starts, the Turf Monster and Woodford; like that he is a versatile sort in that he has won races over a number of different courses, as well as on turf rated both good and firm; he also has registered six of his seven career wins on the grass; is proven at five-eighths of a mile and can see consistent runner being part of the superfecta.

Great Attack

He is multiple stakes-placed on turf and has reason to take a nice step forward this afternoon as the BC Turf Sprint will be his second start since April; hooked a quick Woodford crowd in his comeback, and could be a little closer to the pace here than he was in that race if the fractions are tamer; is a winner at five-eighths of a mile, and like that his dam was a Grade 3 winner; could contribute to the pace.

He is one of two past BC Turf Sprint winners in the field, the other being Chamberlain Bridge; his score in the race came two years ago, when it was run at about six and a half furlongs at SA; like that he comes into this year's running on top of his game, as he tracked a hot pace last time and won his third Grade 3 Morvich at SA; he also draws an improved post over what he had in last year's BC Turf Sprint, when he broke from the 12-hole; has more natural speed than a number of his rivals; and looking for him to be forward; a $1.2mm earner who is 10-for-20 on turf, he is a win candidate.

A New Zealand-bred, he was supplemented to the Breeders' Cup to become eligible to run this afternoon and have to like that he has not made a wrong move since his first North American start in September; won an allowance sprint on the main track at PID, then tackled Grade 3 rivals one start later, again on a synthetic track, in the Phoenix at Kee; as for the move to turf, he's a stakes winner on the green, too; can share.

Regally Ready

He went on a turf sprint tear earlier this year, when he won four such races in a row including a Grade 3 at this five-furlong trip at CD; in that race he defeated defending BC Turf Sprint champ Chamberlain Bridge; more recently, Regally Ready has accounted for the Grade 1 Nearctic, a race in which he set the pace over a laboring course and held for a neck win in a strong performance; might get an ideal tracking trip over a course on which he is 2-for-2; choice.

One of three females facing males, she will be making her turf debut and note her sire gets 8 percent winners from his first-time turfers and 10 percent winners overall on the grass; her dam has thrown two turf winners to date, Direct Line, a Grade 3 winner, and Speak Wisely; this one is also a half-sister to Grade 1 winner Adieu ($907K); has good speed and draws outside of pace rivals Holiday for Kitten and California Flag; can move forward in what will be her second start since last November.

Havelock

He was a good-looking winner of the Grade 3 Woodford last out at Kee, when he closed fast for a clear win over Perfect Officer of Country Day, both of whom return in this spot; might be closer to the pace here than he as last time as he was cutting back from a mile and a sixteenth; he also hooked a fast crowd in that race; is proven at the five-eighths of a mile trip, and looks like a leading contender.

Country Day

He gets a rematch with Havelock and Perfect Officer, who he finished just behind last out when third in the Grade 3 Woodford at Kee; might be sitting on a peak race here in what will be his third start since July; also like that he is a half-brother to Due Date, a stakes winner on turf who overall has won six grass races; a drawback is the wide post.

Camp Victory

He's held his own against some of the nation's top sprinters this year-on both turf and synthetic tracks-as he was second to Smiling Tiger in the Grade 1 Triple Bend in July, second to The Factor in the Grade 1 Pat O'Brien in August and second to Regally Ready in the Grade 3 San Simeon on turf at SA in April; is back on the grass, where he is a four-time winner, and could rebound from fifth-place finish last out as he might have just regressed some after putting up a series of triple-digit Beyer Figures; win candidate.

Caracortado

He started his year off with a major win on the grass, in the $300K Sunshine Millions Turf at SA in January; seeks another major turf win here, and makes a notable distance move as he cuts back to five furlongs off a win in the Grade 2 Del Mar Mile; figures to be making his case in the later stages, but the concern is that the distance might be a little less than optimum for him; class runner can share.

Chamberlain Bridge

The defending champ in the BC Turf Sprint, he won it from the rail here a year ago and will again deal with an extreme post this afternoon as he drew gate 14; it's a tall task, but like that he is a true five-eighths of a mile horse unlike a number of his rivals; he also has reason to move forward in what will be his second start since June; was a close-up third in his comeback and the race has become a key one, with the winner returning to take the $100K Maryland Million Turf Sprint at Lrl with a Beyer Figure of 95; the seventh-place finisher, Heros Reward, an allowance at PID with a Beyer of 84; and the 10th-place finisher, Regally Ready, the Grade 1 Nearctic at WO, with a Beyer of 94; win candidate.

The Factor

Sophomore is quick and though there's other speed in this heat, he figures to be firing from this inside draw to assume command early; Baffert colt understandably packed it in late after setting the hot pressured clip in Santa Anita's Ancient Title, but he's been tearing things up in the morning as if he's no worse for the wear; he proved that he can handle a route of ground on the Triple Crown trail back in the spring and will have to be run down in this one turn mile, but he'll have to work hard every step of the way.

Shackelford

This year's G1 Preakness winner will tackle older rivals for the initial time while trying one turn for the first time since his maiden score here nearly a year ago; though he's a classic winner he does have the look of a runner who'd be a pretty good miler and he could work out a nice trip here if one of these decides to go after The Factor early; one to consider at an improved price.

Tapizar

Takes a big step up the class ladder after wiring the field in his first crack with older rivals off an 8 month break at Belmont; though he broke his maiden here from a tracking spot last fall his best game is speed and the presence of several with similar a style is going to make things difficult for him from the bell; 3 year old has a tough task at hand.

Tres Borrachos

Gelding got caught arguing the quick fractions from an inside draw in Santa Anita's G1 Goodwood and had little left late in that 2 turn heat; while he may not be a great work animal, his interim drills aren't very impressive and now he'll pick up some weight; he did run well after getting a nice pace setup at one turn at Hollywood back in the spring, but he's winless on 6 career spins on dirt; these may prove to be too much for him.

Wilburn
Improving sophomore has taken his track with him, with each of his 5 scores coming at different venues, including a sloppy win going long here in the spring; he ran away from some of these in the G2 Indiana Derby last time and though he's done most of his damage at 2 turns, he proved first out at Santa Anita that he can roll at this type of configuration as well; he's a big player while stepping back in with older rivals.

Irrefutable
Baffert's second runner in here took advantage of the hot clip in front of him to get second money in the Ancient Title; he's had breaking issues in his last couple and maybe the added ground of this heat allows him a little more time to get into stride, but he doesn't have any experience going long on the main track; though he boasts a local front running win, don't think he'll prove to be a legitimate threat for the top spot today.

Jersey Town
Upset the G1 Cigar Mile at this configuration at Aqueduct under about this time last year but hasn't hit the winner's circle in limited spins since; he was no match for a loose Uncle Mo on a speed favoring track last time, but he does figure to get a better set up here and with just a few starts under his belt this season he certainly has a right to take a good step forward today; the way he's been working in New York he could be the price to spruce up exotics here.

Caleb's Posse
Took a step back when stretched out in the Indiana Derby but the G1 SW is a 5 time one turn winner and he should move forward on the turn back; he'll try older rivals for the initial time today, but he does figure to get plenty of pace in front of him and his late running efforts at Saratoga this summer suggest that he'll love this one turn mile; one to favor late.

Trappe Shot
This G2 SW was pretty sharp sprinting earlier this year and he has little chance running into a front end bias when off the board at even money in Belmont's G1 Vosburgh last month; 4 year old was able to settle and finish in both of his route stakes tries at Monmouth last summer and with the promise of a pretty solid clip in front of him here he should appreciate the stretch back out for a barn that excels with runners second off the break; from an advantageous tracking draw he's the one they'll have to beat.

 He's out of a mare who was a Grade 1 winner racing over turf and he's run some nice races in his career, but he has been at his best racing over synthetic surfaces and he's never run a race over turf that is anywhere near strong enough to get himself into the mix against these; he has flirted with becoming a top runner at times in his career, but he looks like more of an outsider.

 He's a multiple Grade 1 winner over turf and he's shown the ability to jump up when least expected, but it's still difficult to give him a favorable push against a field of this caliber; can't help but respect his overall body of work, but simply viewing this as an extremely tough assignment for him.

Sea Moon (GB)

Lightly raced three-year-old was a beaten favorite in the St. Leger, and even though he's stepping up to take on older horses for the first time, he's proven that he's a quality runner, and it's not unreasonable to believe that his best races are still in front of him; he's reunited with Moore and races with Lasix for the first time.

Brilliant Speed

He's a sharp three-year-old who seems to keep improving and he's been particularly good in his two most recent races; he chased a gate-to-finish winner in his latest outing in a race that turned out to be a sprint to the finish; nevertheless, he's going to need to really step it up against these.

2009 Breeders' Cup Filly & Mare turf winner nearly made it back-to-back wins in that event last year when narrowly defeated by Shared Account; she's proven that she can hang with the boys and her connections are showing a lot of confidence in her by opting for this spot; she's one of two Juddmonte homebreds in here.

Hansen
 He'll be easy to spot because he will be going to the front and he is very white; hard not to be impressed with the way he ran in both of his starts over Poly at Turfway but that was a very weak field he destroyed in the Kentucky Cup Juvenile and he will get a serious class test today; not a lot of other pure speed in the field so he might be able to take them a long way if they leave him alone up front; tough call.

Prospective
 Almost perfect in three starts at Woodbine but his Beyer Speed Figures come in very light and he will be trying dirt for the first time; the horse that finished second to him in the Grade 3 Grey is a maiden; first foal out of a $133K stakes winning mare needs to improve quite a bit to make any kind of impact; passing.

Creative Cause
 He is a length away from being undefeated and he had a big excuse for his loss in the Del Mar Futurity when Majestic City cut him off; loved the way he improved in his first try going around two turns in the Norfolk and it was his first start on dirt; $1.1 million dam won the Grade 1 Apple Blossom and it is easy to imagine him taking another big step forward here; he also has good tactical speed and Rosario should be able to have him in a stalking position; looks like the main threat to Union Rags.

Speightscity
 Improved dramatically when he moved to the main track in his second start going 1 1/8 miles at Saratoga but this is a big step up; it also wasn't the strongest group of maidens around; horse that finished second came back to run third in a MSW at Belmont; all three sibs to race are winners but no real stars to report; needs to show he belongs.

Alpha
 He was a very impressive debut winner at Saratoga and he got away a step slow when he finished second to Union Rags in the Champagne in his second start; he was clearly outrun by Rags in the stretch in the Champagne but he is a half to multiple marathon winner Numaany and he could improve going around two turns; Gomez adds to the appeal; contender.

A CLOSER LOOK

10th Churchill

Goldikova (IRE)

This looks like a carbon copy setup of last year's victory with Sidney's Candy setting a fast pace; her 3 other 'Mile wins were from posts 10, 11 and 4; should be able to save all the ground then will be tough to hold off late; case could be made that she may be a tad below last year coming off 2 runner-up finishes when heavily bet; gets 3 pounds from the older male rivals for this; is strictly the one to beat.

Zoffany (IRE)

Group 1 juvenile is a tough call off the USA debut when 5-2 odds then finishing last; 3-year-old's not coming into this event in his best form beating just 1 runner in his last 2 starts combined; prefer European runners to fire their best effort when racing 1st-time off the plane; off latest would be a complete shocker if he landed a major slice against this kind.

Courageous Cat
Doesn't do a lot wrong and gets another crack at Goldikova after she beat him at Santa Anita in this race in 2009; figures to get 1st run on the closers with Strong Suit as they sit just off Sidney's Candy; G1-stakes winner is out of a 1.4M-earning G1 grass dam who produced G1 full After Market (903K turf); can't leave off the exotic tickets underneath.

Mr. Commons
3-year-old's Beyers have skyrocketed in recent starts but burned odds-on money in latest after being nosed 2-back; has a big late kick but races at his highest weight assignment ever and seems in deep today; stakes winner is a kin to SW Jungle Fighter (250K turf); others appeal more.

Gio Ponti
Was too far back in last year's Mile hoping he is able to show a little more tactical speed in the rematch with Goldikova; G1-stakes winner posted the field's best Beyer when 2nd best to Zenyatta in the '09 Breeders' Cup Classic over a synthetic surface; not sure he liked the wet turf courses he was faced with all summer but off latest victory is coming into this year's Mile the right way; looms a logical contender for win honors.

Get Stormy
G1-stakes winner over the CD turf course has been beaten by similar foes in recent starts so hard to make a serious case for him here; clearly Sidney's Candy appear to be the speed of the speed but his last win was on the lead so projects to be right in the pace mix from the gate; know him early but unsure about late.

Jeranimo
His Oak Tree Mile score represents a best-last-race Beyer; showed much better tactical speed in latest while more known as a closer from his best-career efforts; with all the speed signed on here figures to be rallying from midpack; Grade 2-stakes winner's dam was a SW (3-for-14, 74K turf); will be using underneath in the exotics.

Byword (GB)
Got away from Goldikova then won his last 2 starts; Group 1 winner is a kin to G1 Proviso (930K on North American turf); the late runners get plenty of pace to rally into for this so hard not to use this guy on the deepest exotic tickets underneath.

Court Vision
G1-stakes winner hasn't won since the 2010 Woodbine Mile; is winless on the Louisville lawn and hasn't hit the board this year; if he couldn't handle similar rivals in the last 2 Miles when coming into those races in much better form then had to make a serious case for him on a winless drought and going layoff after a layoff which is not a good win angle.

Sidney's Candy
Set the pace in last year's event but does not get off easy with Couragous Cat and Get Stormy to press the pace; G1-stakes winner reunites with the win rider who trails 28% winners for the trainer since 2010; he still hasn't won at a Mile on the grass yet but is the one to catch.

Strong Suit
 Group 2 winner comes off a huge Racing Post Rating when giving 5 pounds to the runner-up finisher while winning in spectacular fashion; if he can only repeat latest will be tough to deny; lone race at Mile was a narrow loss when on the pace; figures to stalk Sidney's Candy then get 1st run on the closers; 3-year-old is a head away from being on a 4-race winning streak heading into this event; the pick.

Compliance Officer
 Stakes winner was claimed in May for 25K and is now in the Breeders' Cup; 5-for-5 off the purchase but asking a lot off the New York-bred scores to post his 1st graded stakes triumph; displayed best form on wet turf courses; is hard to recommend.

Turallure
 G1-stakes winner got another well-timed ride from Leparoux who is now 3-for-3 piloting; deep closer won over the Louisville lawn in June; clearly gets a hot enough pace to rally into for this; graduated from post 10 so perhaps he will be able to handle the ground loss from the widest-post position draw; view as an exotics possibility.

Fiat Out

Blame got a 111 Beyer winning this here last year; avg. winning Classic Beyer is around 117; lowest winning fig for a Classic was 110 for Raven's Pass at OSA in 2008, that on synthetic; lowest dirt fig was 112 by Saint Liam at BEL in 2005; been training splendidly at CD, though it's worth noting the 2 times he's run here he finished 6th; in his defense, he's a much better horse now than he was then; Solis knows what it's like to rejoice after the Classic, having guided Pleasantly Perfect to victory at OSA in 2003; still, this guy couldn't handle Havre de Grace in the Woodward, that gal's back for more, as are some crack 3yos and a bigshot Euro so big works aside he's still got some work to do.

Drosselmeyer

2010 G1 Belmont winner plugged along nicely to get 2nd in the G1 JC Gold Cup at BEL Oct. 1, earning a career-top Beyer of 104; that being said, today's foe Flat Out still handled him easily; take away that Belmont win and this guy has only an ungraded SW, an N1X and maiden win to his credit; at least got to triple digits Beyerwise last time but he'll need to vault forward if he's to have any sort of shot here; Mott won the 1994 Classic with Cigar; Smith the 2009 Classic with Zenyatta, 1997 Classic with Skip Away.

Ruler On Ice
 This year's G1 Belmont winner; they can never take that away from him but looking back he was the beneficiary of a number of things - first, Derby winner Animal Kingdom was eliminated at the break, this guy got a sloppy track he loved and beat Stay Thirsty just before that guy really blossomed; at least you know he can go this far and he's got 2 100+ Beyers of which to boast; Gomez won last year's Classic here with Blame and 3yos have done very nicely in this race (won 9 of the 27).

So You Think (NZ)
 One of the top 3 or 4 Europeans; was all-world in Australia, went to Europe this year and showed them what the fuss was all about; 4th in the G1 Arc was better than looked - first, 1 1/2 miles may not be his best distance and he was left with far too much to do; he finished smartly, however; THIS is his favorite distance and he's handled various grass courses well enough to make you believe he can handle just about any footing; connections have said they want to show him off to the world instead of going back to Australia; handy, rugged, has speed and surely the class and stamina; gets blinks for the first time, too.

Ice Box
 One of his best moments came on this track at this trip when despite a ton of trouble he finished full of run to be 2nd to Super Saver in the 2010 G1 Ky Derby; alas, he hasn't come close to duplicating that form; 5 G1 tries since have seen him run 9th, 6th, 8th, 6th and 7th; even if he can somehow bring back that spring 2010 form that still may mean he plugs along late to get a minor piece of the pie - and that's even with a return to his best.

Rattlesnake Bridge

3yo has come along nicely this year; good 2nd to Stay Thirsty in the G1 Travers shows he handles the trip and can make a dent in top company; that being said, Thirsty handled him pretty easily, then this guy was no match for To Honor and Serve and Ruler on Ice in the G2 Pa. Derby; so he must not only turn the tables on all of them but then beat some other toughies; McLaughlin sent out Invasor to win the 2006 Classic here.

Game On Dude

Won the G1 Santa Anita Handicap under these circumstances; just missed when 2nd in the G1 Hollywood Gold Cup (this trip, synthetic) and just won the G1 Goodwood on dirt at SA; has a nice steady gallop which can put him right into the race and then his guts keep him there; if the pace is hot, he showed in the Goodwood he can handle that, too; daddy won this race here in 1998 but there's other speed to deal with and while it's nice to have beaten Awesome Gem and Coil it's a whole other matter to beat this bunch.

A dynamite filly; many triple-digit Beyers, including a 111, show she's more than capable of winning this; in fact, when she got the 111 she was whip-pin' the boys in the G1 Woodward, including Flat Out; sire Saint Liam won this race on way to HOY honors and they're hoping for the same thing here; mare Zenyatta won in 2009, and distaffers Jolypha (3rd in 1992) and Zenyatta (2nd last year) show the right gal can do big things; Jones has said she's the best he's had, and he's had Hard Spun and Eight Belles so that should tell you something.

Can't blame 'em for taking a swing; after all, this guy is 3 for 7 here (accounting for nearly half his 8 wins); also comes off a game win at this distance in the G2 Hawthorne Gold Cup so the surface suits and his trip suits; that being said, his only prior foray into G1 waters saw him a non-threatening 5th in the G1 Whitney at SAR Aug. 6; that's the lone blemish in his last 4 starts (won his other 3 most recent starts); still, is the horse-for-course angle enough to get you to thinking about him as an outsider to an outsider who's got a shot?

Uncle Mo

Last year's 2yo champ missed this year's Derby after falling ill, and only recently have we really heard how sick he was; so, it's a huge credit to Pletcher and co. that they've got him back as good or better than ever; talent isn't the issue: distance is; has a high cruising speed but for the most part that seems most effective going shorter; daddy ran 3rd in the G1 Ky. Derby, dam sire Arch produced last year's Classic winner Blame so there is some pedigree; it's encouraging, too, that he still made THIS race; still, talented as he is he may not get an easy pace and he remains a question mark come furlongs 9 and 10, which makes you swallow hard when taking what may be a favorite's price.

To Honor and Serve

Have the love the way he's developed lately; oh, he was meant to be a nice horse based on his super fall last year but things didn't go so well this year; that is, until he romped at SAR Aug. 26 and romped again in the G2 Pa. Derby Sept. 24; daddy was 2nd in this race (here, to Invasor) in 2006, grandsire won this at GP in 1992 and there's loads of stamina on the bottom so there's really no distance issue here; has ample tactical speed and Mott won this race with Cigar in 1995; with the question marks surrounding Uncle Mo, if you like a 3yo in this race, maybe this is the guy you should wrap your arms around.

Absinthe Minded

Once was a one-dimensional frontrunner but her sharp early speed has been missing from recent starts; is in a field today loaded with other early zip; the runner-up finisher from last took a Grade 1 event next out with a 98 Beyer; posted the field's best Beyer speed figure in April at longer around 2 turns at Oaklawn Park; stakes winner's dam banked 252K; hasn't shown her best in last pair on CD dirt; will be seeking the winner elsewhere.

Freedom Star

Was dueling into defeat in latest; no help that there's a ton of other gate speed signed on for this; leaves the Baffert barn for the 1st time in career; Grade 3-SW is out of a stakes-winning dam (218K); the 2-back runner-up finisher Beyered 95 in her next-out G1 Lady's Secret triumph; know her early then hopes to hang on late.

Buckleupbuttercup

Faded in the Acorn during spring the last time traveling a 1-turn Mile; the sprint-to-route angle is a winning one for the trainer but she comes off 2 of 3 dull efforts; G3-SW is a kin to 129K-earner She's a Blue Devil; was badly outrun vs. the 3-back winner who repeated in a G3 event with an 88 Beyer; others appeal more.

Ailalea

Horse for the course winning a G3 event in May, 2010, in a similar CD Mile-dirt test; blinkers on is winning angle for the trainer but owns her career-best Beyer without the hood; her CD win last year was with blinkers on; G3-stakes winner is out of a SW dam (94K) who produced 332K-earner Sea of Trees and 463K Spritely; finished close vs. the 3-back winner who repeated in a G3 event with an 88 Beyer; will be using on deepest exotic tickets.

Maristar
 Exits a best-last race Beyer speed figure cutting back in distance for this; has an explosive late kick and gets a good pace flow to rally into for this; is out of a G1 dam (1.9M) who won the Breeders' Cup Distaff; G3-placed runner's a kin to SW One Nice Cat (163K); last win 3 starts ago beat the runner-up finisher who Beyered 80 in her next-out AP-60K stakes win; will be using undermeth in the exotics.

Lacie Slew
 Have to go back to May, 2010, to see a bad race on her form; she has a win over the CD main track; super-fresh barn and winning trainer-jockey combo add to the appeal; stakes-place runner is out of a SW dam (314K); chased the 3-back winner when finishing 2nd best; that one repeated in a MTH -G2 event with a 103 Beyer; looms a logical contender for win honors.

Persuading
 Horse for the course likes to be forwardly placed but projects to press a hot pace while possibly losing ground racing wide; she's won her last 2 dirt starts in Louisville handling both wet and fast tracks; dam was a SW (135K) producing G3-SW Belgravia (127K); appears the one to beat.

Anunciata (Per)
 1st-time import breezed nicely over the track for this but probably could use a race coming off the March layoff; won 4-of-5 in Peru but never raced for this kind of price tag before; seems best at longer than 1 Mile; will be taking a wait and see approach.

May Day Rose
 Speedster drew outside of at least 3 in here that want to be placed on or near the lead; she may be the speed of the speed and her last Mile test at OP was sensational; she showed she can stalk the pace in the 3-back score; the 1-turn Mile suits her very well; Grade 3-stakes winner is a kin to SW May Day Vow (166K); one of Baffet's top riders Garcia reunites with this winning with her at OP last spring; the pick.
