

ON THIS DATE (1990) – SUPER ABOUND is the only Minnesota-bred to ever win a Grade 1 race. It came on September 3, 1990 when he upset his more famous stablemate, and Kentucky Derby winner, Unbridled, in the Secretariat Stakes on the turf at Arlington Park. The Frances Genter owned entry finished first and second for trainer Carl Nafzger.

Arrieta just 3 off the riding lead going into this week. Will save ground. VALUE: 7 SIERRA HOTEL Might end up being sent to the lead in here from this wide post. He was game on the lead at 14-1 in his last start and ended up 2nd nearly 3 clear of 3rd. Has some turf in the pedigree. Speed edge. Might be a pace to run at as a few in here may be sent to the front. Shuffled three back and lost all chance. Sneaky late runner in here. VALUE: 5 AZARUK All 3 starts at this meet are decent and put him in the mix here. He has some tactical speed that will have him in the right spot early. He has won two times at a 5.5F distance. VALUE: 7 CHAMPS SUCCESS Not sure if this one can handle the turf but there are some things to like. This trainer has had a big meet (4 for 12 so far with 8 in the money). He has sizzled in works since last. Takes a class drop. Won the last time she had the rail. A) 1,3,6 B) 2 C) 4,5
