 Slow gate breaker has a little something to prove off the synthetic surface, noting his worst finish ever was on conventional dirt; his Lexington was a nice effort and based on his late-moving style, it appears he wants a lot more distance; is out of a 281K dam and might be willing to back if he showed more run when landing behind Tres Borrachos on real dirt; mixed feelings.

Racecar Rhapsody
 1-race winner is out of a 219K race dam; should appreciate the added yardage for the Preakness; rallied from last, but could not catch the top 3 rivals in the Lexington, which include two runners returning for this; rider Albarado goes for a Preakness double, winning on Curlin in 2007; view as an exotics possibility with late kick.

Big Brown
 The only knock against is racing back in just 2 weeks after such a massive 20 post performance when more than 8 lengths clear of his male rivals in the Kentucky Derby; the 'Derby winner has lost the last 3 Preakness races, but from 2002-04 the Derby winner repeated; his Beyer speed figures tower over these and rider Desormeaux repeated with 'Derby winner Real Quiet ('98), but lost with prohibitive favorite Fusaichi Pegasus; hard to go past off the romp in Louisville after a very wide trip; gets a whole new cast of characters to defeat as only 1 rival from Churchill Downs dares to face him again; the pick.

Kentucky Bear
 5 weeks since his good 3rd-place finish in the Blue Grass, which wasn't the strongest race after observing the results of the Kentucky Derby; out of a 199K race dam and is another 1-time winner giving away experience to every runner in the field; been working lights out for this; seems to have potential, but would have to run the race of his life to land a top-tier placement.

Another runner, who is seeking his 1st win of the year in the Preakness; winless since his Belmont Park debut; hung on the money at a shorter distance in latest; reunites with the debut-win rider and traveling this far from a wide post position-is the primary drawback.

Rebounded nicely from a dull Gotham to be within range of the leaders in the Wood Memorial; New York-bred commenced career 4-for-4, but has found it difficult to crack graded stakes company; would be a complete shocker off last pair.

Major disappointment in the Kentucky Derby after never missing the exacta in 5 straight starts with the last 2 being grade stakes victories; adds blinkers for this and is the only one from the Kentucky Derby, who dares to face Big Brown; certainly thought he would a major factor on the 1st Saturday in May, but broke poorly then was rank; deserves another chance vs. Brown despite this tough post position; the main rival.

Hey Byrn

Won at the Preakness distance in the Holy Bull when defeating much lesser; drew the far outside post position and had a similar wide draw when no match for Big Brown in the Florida Derby; has developed nicely from his 2-year-old season, but have him ranked a few notches below the top contenders.
