Was closing fast in the Grade 1 Ashland and came within a length of winner Well Chosen when they hit the Keeneland wire, so she shouldn't have any problems getting the extra sixteenth here; out of a stakes placed mare who sold for $1.2 million as a weanling, this filly brought $350k as a yearling; nicely bred filly looks like she's approaching top form and could play upsetter here today; like her chances.

Wasn't running very well in Europe but beat Well Chosen in her first state-side start on the Santa Anita main track when that filly tired following a fast early pace; since her distant third in the Las Virgenes, she's been finishing mid-pack when running in graded stakes races and getting beaten by a few of these; was passing horses late in her last start but still looks a notch below some of these; prefer others.

Only time this filly did not hit the board was in her lone graded stakes start when she caught a sloppy track at Oaklawn; solid allowance contender blew her foes away on Mar. 22, including Came Unwound, but had to settle for second after some traffic problems in the Althea Stakes; out of a full sis to the graded stakes winner Cheshire Kitten ($196k); will have to do her best to make an impact here.

Half sister to G2 winner Golden Gear ($634k) is out of a stakes placed half sister to millionaire Clabber Girl and G1 winner Famously Free; consistent in her trio of 2yo outings, she really started to wake up after turning 3 and broke her maiden on turf in her first start of the season; moved right up to win and place in Grade 1 company; $250k 2yo purchase has had more than a month between races and exits a bullet work over this strip; strong contender for the win.

Roza Robata

$12k 2yo purchase has been facing lesser company while racing in mid-western overnight stakes, but she was convincing in the slop at 5-1 while taking the G3 Honeybee at Oaklawn; winner of 3 straight as a 2yo, she's finished first or second in 6-of-8 tries but hasn't been facing the class that she'll meet here; using others.

Banshee Breeze

After a dismal effort in her 2yo debut, connections put her away until Feb., when she promptly won a Gulfstream special weight by daylight in her first start back; was favored in her next 2, including the Grade 2 Bonnie Miss, and rewarded backers with another pair of easy victories; lost her role as the favorite to Hedonist in the Ashland, who was an also ran that day; first foal out her G2 placed dam gets a rider switch to Bailey; may be considered for exotics wagers.

Diamond On the Run

Dam earned $257k as a stakes winning router and is a half sister to graded stakes winners Super May ($826k) and Ide ($363k); $200k yearling purchase was impressive winning her debut at Saratoga and went directly to graded company, where she settled for the runner up spot 3 times before winning the G2 Davona Dale; has been getting some long works in preparation for the stretch out to this distance; major contender.

Came Unwound

Out of a multiple stakes winning mare ($594k), this filly won her first five starts as a 2yo before suffering her first defeat in the G1 Oak Leaf; getting back into shape after the layoff, connections gradually stretched her out in distance and she went off at her longest odds in the G2 Fantasy S., where she settled for a close third; likely to set the pace or stalk the leader, she could be tough going long today; could break into the top 3 at long odds.

Nurse Goodbody

Broke her maiden by 5 lengths going much shorter as the favorite here and went on to face stakes winners in the G3 Debutante, where she split a large field; $32k yearling out of an Eng. Group 3 placed mare has won every attempt against non-graded stakes company but has yet to hit the board when racing against fillies of this caliber; works are fast but would be a surprise today.

Try N Sue

A bargain yearling at $3,500, she finished no worse than second in her first four starts versus New York-breds; beating her odds since returning from the layoff, she just missed in the G3 Florida Oaks at 25-1 behind Pantufla while going 2 turns for the first time; consistent filly looks like she always tries but class may be a problem here.

Star of Broadway

Out of a half sister to G1 winners A Phenomenon and sprinter Seattle Meteor, this filly has been favored every time she's been to the races; undefeated in her first 3 starts, she was beaten soundly by Keeper Hill when stretching out to the mile, and she suffered her only off-the-board finish in the G1 Santa Anita Oaks, also behind Keeper Hill, who was runner up that day; closed quickly after a fast pace in the Beaumont and will be asked to go longer today; obvious contender.

Soft Senorita

Another who broke her maiden in a Saratoga special weight restricted to New York-breds, she won her first stakes race by a head over Try N Sue in her third start; went on to place in some good graded stakes races at Aqueduct and ended her 2yo campaign with 6 board finishes from 8 starts; was not a factor at 35-1 in the Ashland but should be stronger with that race already behind her; only runner here to have gone the distance; worth using at long odds.
