How to play the Pick 4 by Byron King

Race 11
Saturday's late Pick 4 at Gulfstream, featuring all graded stakes, starts in race 11 with one of the most competitive races in the sequence: The Grade 3 Orchid at 1 1/2 miles on turf. The most likely winner is RIPOSTE (7), a multiple graded winner last year who ran a useful second in the Very One Stakes in her seasonal bow after being away since June. She doesn't have a large margin for error, however, and others will offer larger prices. So also on the tickets go PHOTO CALL (9), TABREED (1), and WHITE ROSE (2)

Race 12
Contention seemingly runs three deep in the next leg, the Gulfstream Park Oaks, a race where ESKENFORMONEY (6) holds a slight advantage to these eyes over BIRDATTHEWIRE (8) and EKATI'S PHAETON (3). Running in the one-turn Davona Dale at a mile last out, they were part of a three-horse photo with EKATI'S PHAETON first across the wire, with BIRDATTHEWIRE and ESKENFORMONEY completing the order of finish.

Race 13
Two horses, TWILIGHT ECLIPSE (8) and IMAGINING (3) hold a class edge in this race, the Pan American. The latter has been unlucky to chase champion Main Sequence in five straight races, and IMAGINING should benefit from being stretched out in distance after a needed comeback in the 1 1/8-mile Gulfstream Park Turf Handicap.

Race 14
Let's go two deep in the Florida Derby, using MATERIALITY (7), who has done everything right in two starts, including having won a minor stake at this distance of 1 1/8 miles, and UPSTART (9), who was best in the Fountain of Youth, only to get taken down for interference.
