Lively Mount (Jpn) (30-1)

Japanese dirt champion has disappointed twice since running off several straight wins, the last three of which were at the expense of lesser types at regional tracks not under the jurisdiction of the Japan Racing Association. Has been working steadily, putting in daily 3-mile gallops at Nad Al Sheba. Has never faced this quality of competition and appears to be overmatched.

L'Carriere (10-1)

Ran the race of his life when beaten 2-1/2 lengths by Cigar in Breeders' Cup, then disappointed in season's debut at Gulfstream, a race from which he should improve. Has made a nice impression in the morning at Nad Al Sheba but is another who has never won beating top quality competition. Draw suits to a tee but attempted wire job but likely to find others to tough in mid-stretch.

Larrocha(Ire) (20-1)

A seeming preference for a mile and a half may find this stoutly bred filly lacking the speed necessary to be a factor, although her heart is in the right place and she has shown a liking for the track. Didn't beat much in Nad Al Sheba win but was preferred by Godolphin for this race over Dubai Duty Free entry Valley of Gold, who beat her in both the Irish Oaks and Prix Vermeille. Best chance if race turns into war of attrition over deep sand track.

Seasonal debut was just what was needed and should relish expected fast ground on a deep track which will provide cushion for his notoriously tender feet. Runs well for Stevens and can be counted upon to put in a late bid but there is concern about his ability to get the distance against proven top-class 10-furlong types. Solid chance to be in the picture if he gets the trip. Breezed in :52 2/5 at Nad Al Sheba Sunday night.

Halling (4-1)

Local favorite who has never been beaten at Nad Al Sheba, winning twice here at the distance including most recent effort. Only loss in his last 10 starts came at the hands of Cigar when he failed to handle the track, to put it mildly. Must have a chance if he runs to his best although his failure in Breeders' Cup can be interpreted as a failure of Dubai form. Dettori stays put. Discount if it rains and track comes up heavy.

Impressed mightily in pair of Nad Al Sheba victories. His last knocked the talented Cezanne out of this race and into the Dubai Duty Free. Lightly raced and still improving, he has always been highly regarded and seems to have come into his own under the warm desert sun. Choice of McCarron to ride is evidence of Godolphin's seriousness of purpose. Acts on fast or heavy ground and is probably the one most capable of upsetting Cigar.

Huge Southern Hemisphere 4-year-old weighing 1,200 pounds has been in and out throughout his career. Trainer admits he lacks a turn of foot but he could be staying on when some of the others have called it quits. His best efforts have come at a mile and a quarter but this is his first try on anything other than grass. A fast early pace would be a great help.

Cigar (1-1)

Wins this at 95 percent but 11 days lost to training are a cause for concern. Has looked his usual magnificent self in the morning and has exhibited a liking for the sand. Weights are to his advantage, has best record at the distance and on dirt. Do not be surprised to see him in the front earlier than usual, forcing others to make their runs late over this tiring track. Impressed when breaking :49 1/5 at Nad Sheba Sunday night.

Surprise late addition was trounced by Halling in first try over track and one cannot see him reversing that form. A model of consistency, his only poor performance came when Pentire beat him by five lengths at Sandown. Has the look of a Group 2 type in spite of his Jean Prat score (the race was sub-par). There are any number of others who make more appeal.

Top class in every aspect, a thoroughly genuine individual who will be running late. Has shown that he relishes a tight and, although he has been idle since September and will be making his dirt/sand debut, he must be considered very dangerous. Beat the very good Singpiel off a 7-month layoff last spring. If the leaders falter in the final furlong, he could come on to take it all.
