A CLOSER LOOK

Desert Stormer

Raw Gold

The Breeders' Cup XIV card begins with a race named for the '95 BC Sprint winner; this filly is a granddaughter of Blushing Groom, sire of electrifying '91 BC Juvenile winner Arazi; she's also a granddaughter of Slew o' Gold, 2nd in the inaugural BC Classic here in '84 (following Gate Dancer's DQ); this miss won 2 stakes here at 2, including the G2 Landaluce; came back to win 3 stakes last year, including the G3 Santa Ynez at SA (Hidden Lake was 3rd); the last time she raced on this track, she finished a close 3rd to Track Gal (entered in today's BC Sprint); Hofmans sent out '96 BC Classic winner Alphabet Soup; it's not out of the question for the trainer to begin the day by winning the Desert Stormer.

Tiffany Diamond

'Diamond certainly didn't sparkle last time when 4th in a field of 5, but keep in mind she was in against Exotic Wood, a contender in today's BC Sprint; Tiffany was outrun by Madame Pandit and Advancing Star at Del Mar, but she's worked smartly since her last race; perhaps her recent a.m. activity is a hint that she's going to improve on her last couple of performances.

Madame Pandit

No match for Advancing Star in the June Darling, but she turned the tables on that rival last time; "She (Madame Pandit) got slammed pretty hard (in the June Darling). I think a lot of people overlooked that," McAnally said after the Autumn Days; must spot a pound to Advancing Star this time; this daughter of '84 BC Classic winner Wild Again is a darn nice filly who deserves considerable respect.

Advancing Star

Connections had hoped to run her in today's BC Sprint, but she was ranked 4th on the also-eligible list and failed to get in, so this is Plan B; won the Maker's Mark by 4 lengths as a 2-year-old. (Hidden Lake was the runner-up); also ran 2nd in the G1 Starlet here at 2, then went on the shelf with a stress fracture to a shin; this is a granddaughter of Raja Baba, sire '87 BC Distaffer winner Sacahuista and '88 BC Juvenile winner Is It True; looked awesome in this year's June Darling when defeating Madame Pandit, then was game when narrowly beaten by 'Pandit in the Autumn Days on the turf; with the switch back to the dirt, believe this filly's the one to beat.

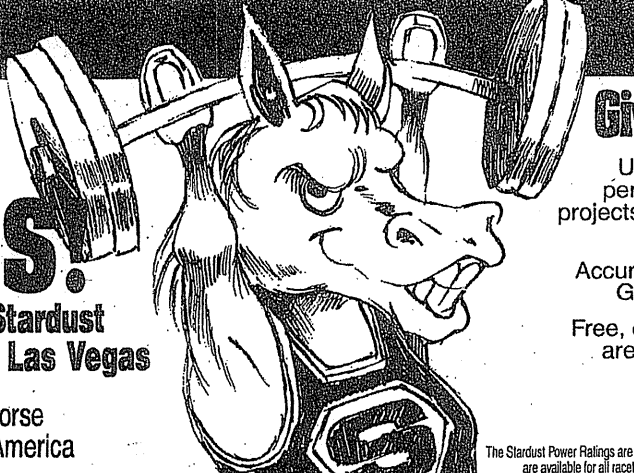

Ivory Mint

Only 5-year-old in the field (everyone else is 4); this is a daughter of Key to the Mint, sire of '96 BC Distaff winner Jewel's Princess (also entered in today's Distaff); sports an excellent record on this track, but would be surprised if she succeeds vs. the likes of Advancing Star, Madame Pandit and Raw Gold.

Stop Traffic

From the Mandella barn, as is Advancing Star; this sharp filly got the job done in the Cascadia at SA after a deceptively easy victory in Fairplex's Pio Pico; don't forget, she also once ran 3rd in the G1 Acorn; chance.

A CLOSER LOOK

BC Juvenile Fillies

Marie J
Any time a horse wins by 15 lengths you had better take notice, but that was against maidens and the jump to winners, especially multiple stakes winners is massive; hails from Baffert, who is winning everything in sight and those Beyers are improving; $385k yearling buy has a 3.55 dosage index (d.i.) so should get the trip; 2nd time blinkers; still have to side with proven foes.

Vivid Angel
Bob's ace went right to the front with first-time blinkers and never looked back in the Oak Leaf, but the track was rather speed favoring and she doesn't seem quicker than a couple others in here; $40k yearling buy has a 1.31 d.i. and beat a couple others here last time; showed an ability to rate sprinting, and if can do that here, then would a good shot; nice Beyers; tough piece in a confusing puzzle.

Bay Harbor
Half to Boston Harbor, who won last year's BC Juvenile, romped in return with first-time Lasix at Keeneland; fact never has gone 2 turns is a big negative (last 11 winners had route experience), but at least has a 2.29 d.i. so you know she's bred to get the trip; fact pressed the pace sprinting, suggests may she be near the lead here; the splits could be lightning quick and this race has been dominated by stalker-closers; sure it's Lukas, but she seems like a bit of a reach.

Kirby's Song
Queen of Woodbine off those 2 Canadian stakes scores since adding Lasix; 1.86 d.i.; best stuff has been around 2 turns; style seems to fit the profile of the typical Juvenile Fillies winners, but the Beyers are very low; solid barn and like the fact she's proven vs. winners and routing; you'll be singing a happy tune should see score for you.

Primaly
Half-sister to BC Classic runner Whiskey Wisdom, was ultra impressive in her first start with Lasix earning a much-improved Beyer; 1.67 d.i. and hails from one of Canada's premier trainers; best races are on or very close to the lead, not the style of typical Juvenile Fillies winner and not the style to be looking for in a speed-laden race; part of pace picture; 3 for the price of one mutuel field action

Love Lock

If there is a trainer who has dominated this race it's Lukas who has won 3; this one has every right to improve 2nd out off a rest and ran well over a track that was speed favoring last time; working great since and has a 3.00 d.i.; dam's first foal (she a half to $275k stakes winner Turn and Dance); some big Beyers and held her own against Countess Diana earlier this year; expecting a big effort.

Balisian Beauty

At least the Beyers are moving the right way on this $105k yearling buy who has a 3.00 d.i.; closer's style has been dominate in the Juvenile Fillies history and there is a ton of speed signed up; negatives are the fact she's never beaten winners and those Beyers are well below the top guns; will blinkers on make her quicker early? heads mutual field.

Countess Diana

Leader of the division thanks to wins in the Schuylerville, Spinaway, and Alcibiades; looks like the speed of the field as she outdueled the quick Salty Perfume at the Spa and outdueled Beautiful Pleasure last time; fact only came home in a snail-like :7 2/5 for the final half furlong is a very ominous sign, and she was staggering, too; add that to the fact there is lots of other speed for her to outdueled and that no filly has every wired this race in its 13-year history and perhaps you have a vulnerable favorite; then again, the race has no proven closer and sometimes the speed of the speed kills the other speed and keeps on going; Byrne is having a fabulous year and this gal has a 2.73 d.i.; the one to catch.

Career Collection

Awesome in the Cal Cup against Cal-breds, and has a right to improve 2nd out off a rest; Dollase has always said she'd be much better routing; finally earned a Beyer that suggests she fits with the big gals; like stalking style as race has a ton of pace; 2.04 d.i.; fact she's won 3 stakes, is proven at the distance, trains over the track, is proven here and hails from a high-percentage barn suggest she has a good shot to be posing for pictures.

Lily O'Gold

$50k yearling buy managed to pass a completely worn out Beautiful Pleasure, but you would like to have seen her do more as they crawled home the final 5/16s in :35 4/5 in front of her, yet she was no threat to the winner; lone route win came on the lead and she's certainly not quick enough to accomplish that here; 2.75 d.i.; lowish Beyers; 3rd part of mutual field.

Nancy's Glitter

First to sweep the Fla. Stallion Series and that last win came at this distance; however, a 7.00 d.i. (largest in the field) says she may not want to go this far and this is a big step up in class and she may need the lead to win, as do many in here; you have to believe Countess Diana to be the quickest of the quick; hard to dislike a horse who's never been worse than 2nd and won 5 straight with okay Beyers, but they say pace makes the race and if that's the case then she appears up against it; first foal from $186k stakes winning dam is a pace factor, but after that...

Diamond On the Run
$200k yearling buy is bred to run all day with a 0.94 d.i.; beaten by Countess Diana and Beautiful Pleasure in prior pair; seems to want to be fairly close to the lead, but isn't overly quick and doesn't seem to have much of a stretch kick (a bad combo); solid Beyers, good barn, and has moved forward since getting Lasix; never beaten winners; will side with others.

Beautiful Pleasure
Lost a speed-duel to Countess Diana in the Alcibiades; 4.50 d.i. says doesn't want to go much farther, but she's a full to multi-millionaire Mecke, who loved to route (own Arlington Million, Super Derby), and a half to Jeb, a $181k turf, route stakes winner; stole the race from Diamond On the Run and Carrielle one back, but she obviously isn't quicker than Diana and speed has been death in prior Juvenile Fillies; if she's learned to rate (like Mecke), then she'd have a shot off that huge Beyer one back, however the last 12 Juvenile Fillies winners had finished 1st or 2nd in their last effort and this post really hurts; tough call.

Carrielle
Skipped the Frizette, but that was by design, according to Bond; closer passed 7 in the Matron with first-time blinkers, but didn't make up much ground on the winner; Beyers are moving the right way and style fits the pattern of most Juvenile Fillies winners; lack of a win against winners is a knock as is the lack of a Beyer in the 90s; been working on that very deep Spa track; 61% of winners here during the winter meet since '91 at this distance (fast or wet-fast tracks) either led or were within a length of the lead after 6fs, which is just the opposite of the typical winner of this race; 2.50 d.i.; price should be right.

A CLOSER LOOK

BC Sprint

Carmine Lake

Sheikh Albadou did it, Dayjur almost did it, but they were easily the best sprinters in Europe; she did win the Prix l'Abbaye beating Pas de Reponse and Royal Applause, who have both shipped here, too, but her Timeform figure of 107 (before her l'Abbaye win), while solid, isn't imposing; there is BC in her pedigree - mom is the daughter of Royal Heroine, the '84 BC Mile winner; very nice filly, but she seems best at 5fs, and her day in the sun may have come at Longchamp Oct. 5 at a nice 17-1; shaky, and rail sprinting here is historically a killer.

Bet on Sunshine

Do not underestimate this guy; he's got 2 Beyers of 111 and 2 Beyers of 110, so if he fires his best shot he can be right in the thick of it; fairly tractable, too, so he should get position a couple lengths behind the front tier; won 4 in a row, and while admittedly it wasn't against this caliber, it was against some pretty darn nice sprinters; do note his last 2 forays into graded stakes found him wanting; some positives.

Pas de Reponse

Though she lost the l'Abbaye, she's still probably considered the 2nd best sprinter in Europe, behind Royal Applause; Timeform gave her a 113p in its October edition (the "p" means she's likely to improve); only time out of the money came when they asked her to go a mile; obviously the dirt is a major question, but she's by Danzig and his Dayjur sure adapted nicely; quality filly is more than a little scary.

Northern Afleet

This is one tough call - his Met Mile run, when he was on top of a 6f split in 1:07 4/5 was tremendous, and remember he beat likely favorite Richter Scale that day; but what happened in his last sprint? the good news is Bailey sees fit to ride, and he saw fit to ride before the Met Mile; it's also this guy's home course this time, not Belmont; throw in a great, stalking style which can have him in position to take advantage of a pace collapse (one we usually see in the Sprint) and still get first run on the closers; Hofmans has been tremendous in pointing for a specific race, like with Alphabet Soup last year when he won the Classic; still a lot to like about this guy in spite of the Vosburgh dud.

Elmhurst

When he beat Crafty Friend he got a great set-up as 'Friend went nuts early and it's darn near impossible to win on the lead going 7 1/2fs at Hollywood; when he won the Ancient Title he also got a good set-up, but let's face it - it's quite possible he gets a great set-up again; Sahadi showed last year with Lit de Justice and with her work with Fastness she knows how to crank 'em up for the big race; the horse likes it here and the Sprint winning profile is an off-the-pace one (only 3 wire to wire winners; 8 of the 13 winners did not have the lead until inside the eighth pole); the main problems are that he'll encounter traffic, and that he's not close to as talented as 'Justice or Fastness; certainly worth a long look, however, as a price play.

Track Gal

She can still fly early, and she won't be intimidated by anything the others do for a half mile; oddly enough, there isn't a lot of speed in here, though Exotic Wood and Men's Exclusive don't figure to let her get away; the problem is, the race is 6fs; in her other BC appearance ('95 at Belmont) she never made the lead; she's at her best when she can make the top and that could be tough here; at least you know she loves the track and she's working gangbusters; her top Beyer (110) is still a bit behind what it takes to win the Sprint (avg. winning Beyer is 114.4); a pace factor for sure, but after that...

Hesabull

He's kind of a horse without a distance; quality G2 animal is probably best at 7fs or even a mile; quick enough to get position but not really quick enough to clear, and he doesn't really have the oomph to go and get them; maybe the blinks add a bit more zip; always tries hard and this is probably his favorite track, but...

Royal Applause

With a pre-Abbey ranking of 126 he's the top-rated sprinter in Europe, and why not? even in the Abbey he only missed by a half; like Dayjur who would wire his fields in Europe, this guy has speed, and that seems critical if he's to challenge the Americans; he must be fast if he can go wire to wire in the Cork and Orrery to win by 1 1/2 lengths against 22 foes; flipped in the gate when schooling Saturday, but behaved well when given a 2nd chance at gate class Tuesday; "The important thing is we not miss the break," his head lad said; Sheikh Albadou all over again? it's possible.

Confide

If this race had been run in March he would have been considered a major player; there are no guarantees at all fellow 3yo Smoke Glacken could have handled him sprinting; stepped on a nail and reportedly nearly died from an infection that ensued; it's a good story to have him back, but horses almost never return to their best form after such an ordeal; did set a track record in the Belmont slop, but only by a neck over a decent foe, but hardly a BC Sprint type; high respect for Perkins, but this is a tough chore for this guy.

Richter Scale

Great job by Byrne this year; horse signalled his readiness with a powerful :57 1/5 move last week; 3 straight Bayers of 112, 110 and 111 show he's got the ammo to win this, and tactically he can do whatever needs to be done; handled 6fs just fine, thank you; the work indicates he's handled the ship west just fine, and if that's the case you're looking at one tough customer and the deserving favorite...but we all know favorites don't win this race, right (favorites only 3 for 13)?

Men's Exclusive

Know who has the top 2 Bayers in the field? nope, it's not Richter Scale - he has a 112 which ties him for 2nd; it's this guy, with a 117 and a 112, both, coincidentally, earned at Hollywood (the avg. winning Sprint Beyer is 114.4 - he's the only one in the field who's run that fast; always been at his best 2nd time off the bench; well, this race is his 2nd off the bench; never out of the exacta in his 8 starts vs. winners; showed .43 3/5 speed in April, so he has the jets; but he doesn't NEED to do that; he can throttle back a smidge and stalk; and he's shown he still has the oomph to go on by; the price figures attractive on a horse with seemingly a million angles in his favor.

Trafalger

A nice Lukas horse who hasn't been able to step up and beat the top 3yo sprinters (Richter Scale, Tale of the Cat and Smoke Glacken), and in his first West Coast try, when the pace fell apart helping Elmhurst to win, he couldn't muster a run; he's been going steady all year, and except for that 109 fig earned in the Jerome his Beyers have been going the wrong way; outsider.

For all his good efforts and good figs, notice he hasn't been doing a lot of winning; so he beat Hesabull in the Bel Air... Kid Katabatic beat Hesabull in the Longacres Mile, too; does have a nice style for this andy anyone who saw his loss to Elmhurst when he tried to go wire-to-wire here at 7 1/2is through splits of :44 3/5, 1:08 1/5 had to be impressed...but it was nonetheless a loss; at least you know he likes it here and he did have a bit of trouble in the Forest Hills which cost him some; blinkers go on to help his already fine speed; quite playable, and the post is terrific for his pace-pressing style.

Good to see she's back, and in case you forgot she's extremely fast; but the hurdles here are not insignificant; yeah she went 1:08 flat at SA, but this isn't against Fleet Lady and Pareja; if she goes :44 flat she might not even be on the lead as Track Gal and maybe Men's Exclusive can do that split in their sleep; McCarron rides and we all know Chris isn't the kind to really bust them out of there; it's easy to envision him sitting a cozy 3-hole trip, but that begs the question - can she then outkick Richter Scale and the others? tough call, at a shorter-than-should-be price.

A CLOSER LOOK

BC Distaff

Ajina

Looking for a threat at a price? she might be the one; after a disastrous opening half of the season, she upset Sharp Cat in the Mother Goose, then pummeled Tomisue's Delight a couple of times; was no match for Hidden Lake at Bel, but who is? under the circumstances Ajina ran well to finish a clear 2nd; given that Sharp Cat and Tomisue's Delight have beaten elders and that this gal has already handled those two, doesn't that make her appealing? if Hidden Lake fails to duplicate her Bel form, she might be the upsetter; the stronger half of the Paulson entry.

Radu Cool

Connections blame an inside trip for her failure in the Las Palmas; whether you believe that excuse or not, there is no disputing that she failed to run her race; tossing that race out, her form is solid; she's won her last 4 main-track routes; albeit against weaker foes; has never raced 1 1/8m on dirt, but she's faltered at the distance on turf; might get a piece in a best-case scenario.

Minister's Melody

Ambitiously placed; she remains eligible for a 3X and is only a minor G3 winner; name a quality horse she has beaten - Lady Of Blue? Aiken's Taken? they're not in this class, not by a longshot; ran fairly well in the Lady's Secret, but if she couldn't beat Sharp Cat off a layoff, how is she gonna handle her today (much less the others)?

Jewel Princess

Proved last year that a victory in a BC prep isn't a prerequisite for taking the Distaff; she ran a very ordinary 2nd in the Lady's Secret, only to come back 3 weeks later with the race of her life; the knock on this gal is not her last race - it's her entire year; she hasn't looked as dynamic as she did in 1996; since the Feb. 16 Santa Maria, her performances have been far from extraordinary; won the Santa Margarita over Hidden Lake, but she was all out to take that race in slow time; has been raced sparingly over the 2nd half of the year (reportedly has had a hind end problem); perhaps that explains her lackluster form; nevertheless, her connections aren't acting as if she's lost a step; "I'm really looking for a big effort out of her," said Nakatani following her 1:00 drill last week. "She's coming up to the Distaff better than ever," not buying it; defending champ is the lesser half of the entry with Sharp Cat.

Clear Mandate

The Spinster has been the dominant prep for the Distaff, producing 7 of the 13 winners; doubt that number will increase to 8 - this gal hardly dominated, edging G3-caliber Feasibility Study in snail-like time; a 91 Beyer won't win the Juvenile Fillies, much less the Distaff, where the average winning Beyer is a 112; looking past that one race, she appears outclassed.

Sharp Cat

Has taken giant strides since getting spanked by Blushing K. D. in the Ky Oaks; loved her Lady's Secret performance; she was downright awesome in that race, laughing at Twice The Vice when she came to her at the top of the lane; who is going to go with her? Ajina, Escena, Hidden Lake and Minister's Melody have some gas, but their connections would prefer to sit right behind this filly; no one wants to run with Sharp Cat and compromise their chances; owns the top last-race Beyer and exits a key Distaff prep - the Lady's Secret has produced 2 of the last 4 winners of this race; fond of Hol with 2 stakes victories here; gone on the lead? perhaps; the main threat to Hidden Lake.

Escena

Surprised to see her in this race given that Mott and Paulson already have Ajina in the line-up; with her 2 victories this year having come on turf, races like the Yellow Ribbon and Matriarch would have suited her better; Mott seemed pessimistic earlier this week, telling DRF that "I think Geri and Ajina both have legitimate chances. And then you have a horse like Escena, who's doing very well," she probably is, but what will it matter if she's not good enough? and quite frankly, that looks like the case.

Hidden Lake

There are many who believe she is vulnerable, claiming 2 turns is her Achilles' heel; here is what the stats say - going one turn she's 14-6-4-2, around two turns 7-1-0-4; those numbers don't tell the whole story, though; the real reason this horse has been doing so well is because of John Kimmel; his chiropractic therapy has solved her chronic back ailments; under his care she's 4 for 4, with a win around 2 turns; exits easily the toughest BC prep; the top-4 finishers from the Beldame were all G1 winners in 1997; winless in 3 starts at Hol, but that is of little significance; she had no trouble handling the track in the past, running 3rd in her debut, 2nd to Advancing Star in a 2YO alw, and 4th in the G2 Railbird as a 3YO; a much better filly than when she left SoCal; imposing.

A CLOSER LOOK

BC Mile

Decorated Hero

Timeform sings this one's praise: "small, strong gelding: has a quick action: acts on any going: help up: tough, genuine and consistent"; rated a high 123, whereas favorite Spinning World pegged at 129; sire was favored in this race in '88 at CD; and failed to fire after having to break from horrendous post 12, so his son catches a break while drawing the hedge; trainer's lone BC winner was Royal Heroine in inaugural Mile here in '84; jockey is the darling of English racing world and won this event with Baratheas at CD in '94; horse likes to stay close to the pace, a plus and has had excellent season while mainly taking on Group 3 competition, but jumped up with solid Gr. 2 win in France; appears to be weaker opponent in comparison to Spinning World, but like most in here, has puncher's chance.

Wild Event

Moved to the fore with excellent Kee BC Mile effort, beating a top class field at 9-1 in game, game effort; has handled the cut back to a mile off longer races earlier this year with aplomb; Goldfine/Guidry tried different tactics in Ky., taking him back off the pace and he responded, which bodes well for his chances here as historically, front-runners haven't fared that well; has been in Cal. since 10/22 and had leisurely tour of the turf course Tuesday; 5 of 13 Mile winners have come from posts 1 or 2; marks Guidry's BC debut and trainer has had only 1 other starter back in '87; Beyer numbers are light and foes he faced this summer are suspect; asking for career-best effort here may be just a tad too much.

Spinning World

Arrived in Southern California from France on Sunday; top-rated Miller in Timeform at 129, and them noting he's a "high-class performer" is something we already know; post 9 was tough to overhaul last year at Woodbine (only a 1-turn mile), but he still gained favorable position and beat them all home save Da Hoss, and post 3 here looks ideal; both late starts in '97 have been open-length scores, something not often seen in European racing, and beat the mighty Helissio in his prep for the Arc; biggest concerns are how he'll handle 2-turns for the first time and the tighter layout of this course and the hardness of the course itself; only 2 of 8 Mile favorites at 2-1 or less have won; deserving favorite, but isn't invincible.

Lucky Coin

Beast of the east off commanding wins in last 3 efforts at this distance on NY circuit; only Lure ('92) has been able to lead at every call, and with defection of Anet, could be driver's seat on the front end; 112 Beyer on 9/20 and in the Kelso the best mile turf figs of the bunch; Royal Heroine ('84) only locally-based horse to win a SoCal BC Mile; owner coughed up 120K to supplement to this race and had to breath a sigh of relief when drawing post 4, with the local speed way to his outside; if able to clear the cast, he has a good shot of becoming only 2nd horse to win Mile from wire-to-wire

El Angelo

Has been sharp all year and is one of only 3 horses in the field with multiple wins over the course, giving him home-court advantage; had tough go of it in roughly run 'Shoe while breaking from post 8, but races since have been getting better and better; fits historical profile of past winners by his running style, with most winners coming less than 5 lengths off the pace after the opening 1/2; fresh, while making 2nd start since early Aug.; Sahadi noted "he didn't even break a sweat" in Tuesday's drill; has proven his worth against local foes - should be in the ballpark of the avg. winning payout of $18 - and not a bad bet.

Geri

Got tour of the course when it opened last Thursday with 7fs move; Mott has noted this one missed training following the WO effort due to grabbing a quarter, but the injury has healed; Gr. 1 winner on both surfaces, but is spotting turf expertise to the field with just 4 turf outs; came from the clouds up north, but could be in for rough afternoon if he's that far back this time over the tighter course; only one Mile winner came from further back than 3 1/2 lengths after the opening half; veteran connections are nice, but looks vulnerable at a price that might be too low to bite on.

Pinfloron

Perhaps the steadiest of entrants in the race with 5-3-2 career slate from 15 starts at the trip and has home-court advantage as this being his backyard; didn't miss by much in Oak Tree BC Mile after lagging behind early; exhibited early speed in earlier part of the year and he can't afford to be as far back as he was last time; strong factor here off Shoemaker effort (108 Beyer) vs. top field of milers this summer; last Saturday's work was sharp; excellent gate rider in Flores; strong threat here.

Naninja

Fifth behind 3 who come back in here off the Oak Tree BC Mile, but was only a length from the front; 2-1-0 mark from 3, local starts encouraging, but they came against modest (for BC) N2X and optional claiming opponents, but did top Magellan at Del Mar 2 starts back while being 3 lengths back after a half; first BC starter for Mitchell, perennial leader this circuit by races won, but mostly only Royal Academy ('90 under Piggott) has come from more than 4 lengths off the pace after 6fs and this one hasn't shown the early speed to be in that position; outsider despite McCarron's presence.

Strong work last Thursday, getting 7fs in 4/5 faster than Geri - "He gets a hold of this track," reported Corey Nakatani, who also said the soft and wet conditions last year at Woodbine where not in his favor; regardless, was able to weave through traffic from far back in both the Woodbine Mile and Shoemaker efforts, while coming up short, so his biggest handicap will be the bulky field; classy one has only been a bit player in graded races since Strub win in early '96, but is always a threat at this distance and course; very playable as 4th choice or higher.

Came on strong to be top contender for this race this summer in Ky. and NY but defeats in last pair has taken a little of the shine off; finished 6th in this race in '95 at Belmont at 35-1; top '97 race came over yielding course, which isn't too likely here; Day one of top BC riders all-time by wins and money earned; has the running style to be a factor here and exudes class, but Steinlen is the oldest Mile winner (age 6 in '89, and at the ripe old age of 7 may have lost a step or 2 off his best - also things start to get dicey once you get to post 10; has the speed to be a factor, but some of the younger foes with fresher legs will be able to gun him down.

Fantastic Fellow

3yo pulled off mild upset in Oak Tree BC Mile (first graded stakes win) over pair he faces again while taking on older horses for only the 2nd time; sire was superb miler; a cut below the best overseas earlier this year, but has proven his mettle in SoCal with lone flop coming at 1 1/8 miles; Lukas said prior to his 10/31 work "we wanted to give him some zip" - and got it in the form of a 1:11 1/5 and he gives the ball to Kent D. with Solis on El Angelo; Lukas saddled Steinlen to win '89 Mile; post 11 looks to be next to impossible to overcome regardless of his early speed; siding with experience, those more favorably drawn.

Magellan

Worked under Eddie D. with stablemate Via Lombardia last Thursday and was unable to catch that one; makes only 3rd start under the care of Drysdale, who ranks 5th on the list of all-time BC trainers by money won, and has an excellent 33% win rate with BC starters (5-for-15); was caught behind horses in the Oak Tree until the final 1/16th; key rider switch here as Eddie D. replaces Corey Black, but most of the factors go out the window with him in the outside post, as only the mighty Lure ('93 from post 12) has been able to pull off that trick; has best shot here if sent from the get-go and hoping for the best, which is not the kind of strategy you want to have to settle for with a million bucks on the line.

A CLOSER LOOK

BC Juvenile

Nationalore
 Favorite Trick, Grand Slam and Souvenir Copy are the faves, but is there a longshot with a legit shot to succeed? well, this guy's not impossible; proven capable at the distance (dosage of 2.67 doesn't hurt, either), shown a liking for this surface; and his Beyer earned in runner-up in Cal Cup Juvenile not too shabby; and the clocking looks legit (Cal Cup Juvenile Fillies winner earlier that day, Career Collection, prevailed by 9 in 1:43 2/5); trainer even has some BC experience, started Critical Factor in the Juvenile Fillies at Woodbine last year and saw that one finish 3rd at 82-1; could round out the tri with a little luck.

Souvenir Copy
 Trying to find fault with this guy, Favorite Trick and Grand Slam mighty tough to do; continues on the upgrade. Beyerwise, comes off a biggie in the Norfolk while showing capability around 2 turns (bred to get a route effectively via his dosage of 2.86 while boasting 3 full sisters winners, a full bro (Gold Tribute, 2nd behind '96 Del Mar Futurity winner Silver Charm) victorious as well; trainer Bob loves the guy, saying prior to the Norfolk 'if he gets beat I'm going into hiding'...I've never had a horse train like this; while the day after the Norfolk Baffert called this hoss 'the best 2yo I've ever had'; working great, won for Chris at Del Mar, has a cozy post, tracking style as pros; any cons? not that we can see, and might be wise to remember that whenever the BC has been held in California the Juvenile winner has exited a race at Santa Anita.

Favorite Trick
 Perfect thus far; and he's virtually impossible to fault (although many might take exception to his 'sprint' pedigree (dosage of 4.60, is a half to multiple sprint winners Crafty And Evil and Cold N Calculating with mom a proven sprinter, her kin decidedly sprint oriented); but 'Trick has developed quickly, shown he can handle 1 1/16 miles; and he can handle hoopla also as prevailed on Ky Derby day in the WHAS; stylewise very similar to Souvenir Copy, should have that one in his sights throughout from just off the early pace; trainer Byrne expecting his colt to be ready during crunch time, believes 'You're going to see an even sharper colt Saturday than he was for the Breeders' Futurity.'

Johnbill
 The longer the distance the better for this guy, who has a dosage in route range at 3.57, mom kin to 1981 Belmont winner Summing; highly regarded by his trainer, and Baffert has said that 'Right now I think Johnbill and Souvenir Copy are the best 2yos in California'; no doubt an up-and-comer, and if the pace too fast, the faves get caught dueling, then he could pick up some major pieces.

Double Honor

Part of the Lukas-trained trio and maybe the most suspect as he's been beaten by Favorite Trick, Souvenir Copy (twice); bred to handle a distance via his dosage of 3.27, should have staying power via mom (1.86 dosage) who has a full sis a capable router; but 'Double has had the fades of late, really shouldn't have lost the Del Mar Futurity after a trouble-free journey, big lead early in the lane; he's seemingly a cinch to go fast early a la the Norfolk but that last eighth could be a real problem.

Time Limit

Also trained by Lukas, also route capable even though his dosage a sprint-friendly 4.14; and he was only 3 behind Favorite Trick at Keeneland; speedy style plays right into the teeth of an expected fast pace; thus, that first half should be a doozy, really help set up the trackers, kickers in the cast.

Dawson's Legacy

Going the 1 1/16 miles doesn't appear a problem but runner sure has plenty to prove from a class standpoint, is obviously well behind these Beyerwise; and interesting to note pedigreewise that even though dosage a route-friendly 0.65 his accomplished half bro a 19-time sprint winner; anyway, he's in steep with these, doesn't have any 'angles' in his favor although Regal Classic's came from Woodbine to be 2nd in 1987 behind Success Express at this locale.

Grand Slam

Done little wrong, seen extremely talented sorts in Coronado's Quest (recent winner of the Cowdin at Aqueduct), beat highly regarded youngsters K.O. Punch and Lil's Lad; trainer knows what it takes to win this race (scored with Boston Harbor in '96, won 5 in all); bred to go the distance (dosage of 3.24), bred to win early (mom 9 of 15 in the money as a router, thrown $303k earner Leestown, 6 wins at age 2); true, 'Grand won the Champagne on a 'wet-fast' surface but he ran extremely fast regrdless; and Stevens had his choice of this guy and Souvenir Copy, and he chose to stay with this one; the outside slot could be a real negative with Favorite Trick and Souvenir Copy drawn inside.

A CLOSER LOOK

Buck's Boy
Off-the-pace horses have prospered in this event; only 2 of 13 Turf winners led after a mile; 7 of last 8 Turf winners were in 4th position or farther back after a mile; furthermore, late speed has been effective at 1 1/2 miles on this course (64% of winners since Nov. 1991 were more than a length behind after a mile); this runner is improving, but needs to go forward again to make an impact here; hard to overlook the fact his only grass stakes win came against other Illinois-breds; adapted well to graded stakes company on dirt last time, but he didn't encounter pace pressure; has dosage index (DI) of 1.89; will side with those who already have graded or group victories on grass.

Awad
Competed on this course twice last year, finishing 2nd to Talloires in the G2 Caesars Palace Turf Handicap at this distance in July (109 Beyer figure) and running 3rd behind Sandpit and Northern Spur in the G1 Hollywood Turf Handicap at 1 1/4 miles in May (103 Beyer); he was better at age 5; won G1 events such as the Arlington Million and Early Times Manhattan in '95; his only graded victory in the last 2 years was the Sword Dancer at this distance; this is his 3rd BC Turf appearance - was 9th last year and 6th in '95; has 2.50 DI; Donk: "Awad will always run hard, so we always have a chance with him"; leaning toward others in the win pool.

Big Sky Chester
There are class and distance clouds over this guy's head; hasn't competed in a graded turf stakes or earned a triple-digit grass Beyer; his longest previous turf race was 9 furlongs; against Grade 2 types on dirt, he faded in the stretch; reportedly cost 50 grand in a private sale last year; Hone, who has been leading trainer at Turf Paradise in Phoenix the past 3 seasons, said, "I don't think he'll embarrass us"; has 3.00 DI; handicappers who factor ground loss into their figures might take a more favorable view of his chances and think about using him in quest of a big-balloons payoff if they're spreading in trifecta or perfecta pools.

That was a serious bumping incident in the Yellow Ribbon and this filly is rather lucky she's healthy enough to race a week later; Weld: "I think the best horse won the race. I'm just happy there wasn't a bad accident"; running in G1 races on consecutive weekends seems to be a grueling assignment; realize she won after a 10-day layoff last year, but that was a G2 race at 1 1/4 miles where she appeared to be a standout (was even money in the Pretty Polly); been effective in 2nd-after-layoff situations, as evidenced by her win in the G2 Tattersalls Gold Cup over Oscar Schindler (who would later win G1 Irish St. Leger and run 4th in G1 Arc de Triomphe); Weld said her white-blood-cell count was high before the Beverly D; Sadler's Wells is the only sire responsible for more than one-Turf winner (in the Wings in '90, Northern Spur in '95); she has tactical speed and 3.57 DI; would like her more if she hadn't started in the Yellow Ribbon.

Singspiel

Race lost considerable star appeal when this champion was injured while galloping here Thu. morning; he would have been one of the shortest-priced horses in the 7 BC races; with his absence, this becomes a wide-open betting event; suspect his feat of running extremely well in North America, then winning the '96 Japan Cup less than a month later, then taking Dubai World Cup on sand in his next start will look even more impressive as the years go by; after the Juddmonte Int'l, Dettori called him "the best horse I have ridden"; won '96 Eclipse as outstanding turf male; of the other Europeans entered in this race, the only one with a G1 victory this year is 3yo filly Borgia (who has 2 wins at that level in Germany).

Chief Bearhart

Of the North American-based horses in this field, he might be the most dangerous; main knock is his flop in last year's Turf on his home course; Frostad: "He was over the top last year"; tough customer has been 2nd or better in 9 of his last 10 grass starts; as for the layoff before the Sky Classic, he was scratched from the Arlington Million because of a temperature - and Frostad said "that really threw a wrench into the works"; solid from standpoint of recent Beyer's; has 3.00 DI; can't argue with those taking optimistic view.

Hasn't been able to supply an encore to his triumph in the G1 Manhattan, perhaps because of some artificial slow pace scenarios; Boniface to DRF: "I think he's the best turf horse in the country when there's a legitimate pace"; wouldn't mind seeing a better-than-3rd finish at this distance; has 3.50 DI; if a couple of the big guns don't fire, he could be part of the exotics mix at juicy odds.

Majorien

Impressed as a juvenile when he finished 2nd to Revoque; it took awhile for him to develop this year; several horses trained by Head were sidelined by a virus; Head: "He ran very well last time. He looks like he's back to his best now"; has 2.76 DI; trainer-jockey combination sizzled in France last month (also won G1 Prix de la Foret with Occupandiste); Head trained '94 BC Turf runner-up Hatoof, who went off at 12-1; the Turf has been won by a 3yo male 4 times; needs to take a step forward here, but fact he's rather lightly raced and in expert hands makes that a possibility; factor.

Lately, horses who have competed in Germany have been tough in the Turf; in fact, '96 Turf winner Pilsudski made his 2 pre-Cup starts in the same races as this filly (he won the Grosser Preis von Baden before running 2nd in the Arc de Triomphe, then headed for the BC); furthermore, '94 Turf winner Tikkanen and '95 runner-up Freedom Cry each raced in Germany within 4 starts of the BC Turf; her rider is the 1997 champion of Britain; Fallon: "Borgia seems to be improving and if she had got a clear passage in the Arc, she would have finished 2nd"; first filly since 1955 to win German Derby; Peslier, who rode her in the Derby, said she was "lazy and still green"; gets 127 Timeform "Black Book" rating and has 1.00 DI; loves the distance; previous 2 fillies who won the Turf (Pebbles in '85, Miss Alleged in '91) were 4-year-olds; one issue is whether she can run her 3rd excellent race in a row; logical contender.

Each Turf winner has been 5 or younger; high-level wins in last 2 years have been in G2 Pan American this year and G2 Bowling Green last year; Clement has conceded the 2nds and 3rd in G1 events this year have been a bit frustrating; "I definitely think he's a Grade 1 horse," Clement said after the Turf Classic; somewhat similar to NY-raced horses such as Awad and Ops Smile in that he needs a legitimate-to-fast pace to set up his stretch run; has 3.00 DI; Clement early this week: "I am not sure we will get the pace we need. But there is quite a bit of money for 2nd"; Santos sticks with Chief Bearhart, but doubt this one's supporters will complain about Bailey in the irons.

Val's Prince

Had a big tactical advantage in the Turf Classic, getting first run on Flag Down, Awad and Ops Smile; might have been closer to leader Dowty early last time, but Picou said "my horse came out sideways and hit the side of the gate"; Picou is this one's 4th different trainer (his first start for Picou was Jan. 6 this year); has improved since being gelded in the spring; been successful at this distance despite high DI of 6.33; there's a relatively short run of 443 feet from the start to the first turn in this race; it's not that easy to separate the 4 BC Turf horses who ran in Turf Classic last month - perhaps the best approach is to use the highest-priced of those 4 in exotics.

Purchased by Craig for a reported $1.25 million; was trained by Francois Doumen in France; his win in the G2 Prix Niel looked even better when Peintre Celebre came back to dominate the Arc; wouldn't get too carried away with that angle, as Peintre Celebre was boxed in; McAnally: "He was lucky to beat Peintre Celebre, but he's a young horse who is getting better and better"; has a 120 Timeform rating, which is considerably lower than Borgia's 127; has 5.00 DI; McAnally-McCarron tandem triumphed with Northern Spur in the 1995 Turf; gets Lasix; would be at least a mild surprise.

Joined an elite group winning the Jockey Cup Gold Cup for the 2nd straight year; Slew O' Gold accomplished the feat in '83 and '84 while Creme Fraiche won the '86 and '87 runnings. Slew O' Gold came out of the '84 Gold Cup win to run 3rd- later placed 2nd through Gate Dancer being dq'd- in the memorable inaugural B C Classic interestingly enough run at Hollywood Park; thanks to Sonny for supplementing 'Skippy but after all the horse has earned a chance to prove he is the best; tactical/pace pressing speed a huge factor as will get the jump on Touch Gold; expecting either 'Gold or 'Skippy to be the favorite; favorites have won 4 of the first 13 runnings; one interesting note; along with Deputy Commander 'Skippy is the lone winner at the distance; however, Skip Away's 3 wins in 8 10f starts have all come at Belmont; must respect but there are questions to be answered; Bailey off to honor commitment to Behrens.

Honor Glide

All 9 career starts have come on the grass; tough spot to try a new game as with $4 million on the line have to expect more than one of the known main-tracking monsters in Skip Away, Deputy Commander, Touch Gold and Behrens to be poised for a career best run; positional speed on the turf will not translate into positional speed on the dirt especially at this level; strange placement as would have looked better in the Mile on the turf.

Deputy Commander

Fans of the home-field advantage take note, "Commander is the lone entrant who has raced on the Hollywood main track; five 3yos have won the Classic and 3 used the L.A. Super Derby as a stepping stone; Sunday Silence won the '89 Super Derby before winning the Classic while Unbridled and Concern both ran 2nd in the Super Derby before scoring upset Classic wins; with Gentlemen and Formal Gold both out the speed of Commander will entice plenty of action; trainer Dollase knows how to win on B.C day as Wally won the B.C Distaff with Jewel Princess in '96; Dollase confident about Commander's shot at the win as when asked how the Deputy Minister colt was training he responded "In a word, awesome. A few days ago he worked a mile in 1:38 and did it the right way"; can the Classic be won on the front? there has been only one winner on the lead at every point of call and that was Black Tie Affair in a speedless '91 edition; Skip Away and Whiskey Wisdom will keep the pace honest; lightly raced and still has an upside; can't rule out.

Taiki Blizzard

Thought Japanese import was poised to run big in the Mile coming off a troubled yet extremely competitive run racing a mile on the green in the Oak Tree B.C Mile; yet here is 'Blizzard in the Classic for the 2nd straight year; been given plenty of time to acclimate to SoCal and the Santa Anita run validates 'Blizzard is feeling strong; won first 2 career main track starts but obviously was not facing this caliber of competition; demand a big price on the first-time Lasix user.

Touch Gold

Obviously an absolute monster when right; so what happened in the Pegasus? trainer Hofmans - who won the '96 Classic with Alphabet Soup - said it was a case of the sealed track and his foot hurt - quarter crack - in the Preakness; also have the night racing factor; Hofmans on 'Gold following a gallop Oct. 30: "This sucker is doing so good right now. That's why I want to work him this far from the race and gallop up to it like I did for the Belmont." that "gallop" plan led to a resounding Belmont Stakes score; rates and finishes from a stalking position and does so behind what will be an honest to fast pace; Hall of Fame Jock McCarron has said 'Gold might be the best horse he has ever been on; 'Gold ready to prove Chris is right; expecting the burst through the lane that was on display in the Haskell score.

Whiskey Wisdom

Hunch player's dream: sire Wild Again won the first Classic on this track; the rider was Pat Day; Day will ride 'Wisdom; huge Beyer jump at Keeneland brought about partly by an inside bias as rail was golden; from Oct. 5 to Oct. 19 at Keeneland the post 1 was 8-30 in routes; posts 1 and 2 were a combined 13-30; will play a role in the outcome due to the early zip; worried about Day sending? don't; when called for Day will send; remember Louis Quatorze in the '96 Preakness? however, in this case Pat is facing stronger competition; 'Whiskey races with 2nd-time Lasix.

Savinio

Alphabet Soup came out of the Goodwood to win the '96 Classic; 'Soup won the Goodwood only to be DQ'd, giving Savinio the win; Savinio is now coming off a 4th-place performance; does the 7yo belong? outside the Clark H. run - almost a year ago - is a weak fit in the Beyer area; average winning Beyer for the Classic is 117 and Savinio's top fig this year is 104; asst. trainer Dean Greenman on the '97 Goodwood: "He wasn't quite 100% for the race. He's getting up in age and we didn't have him cranked up. He's definitely fit now." with no distinct running style likely to get lost in the shuffle chasing Skip Away and Deputy Commander while trying to finish with Touch Gold; longshot.

Behrens

Lands the "Classic" rider in Jerry Bailey who has won 4 of the last 6 Classics; Bailey has won gate-to-wire with Black Tie Affair, from just off the lead with Cigar and from well off the pace with Arcangues and Concern; Jerry can obviously adapt his riding style to the horse's running style; Behrens brings versatility to the party; the mid-race burst and move to the front in the Pegasus win revealed a new dimension as the plan of attack had been to relax and finish; moving early on a fast Hollywood track could be the key to winning; like Deputy Commander is a lightly raced soph. who still has an upside; Bond sent L'Carriere out to finish 2nd in the '95 Classic; legitimate "value" play.

Dowty

Like Honor Glide and Taiki Blizzard is an accomplished turf runner trying to pull off an upset in the biggest dirt race; the grass speed of Dowty leads to being nowhere near the lead with Deputy Commander, Skip Away and Whisky Wisdom all allowed to roll early; quite a drop off for Stevens who was going to ride Gentlemen before the likely favorite became ill; can't see Dowty having a strong say in the outcome; for Mott fanatics in search of a large payoff.

A CLOSER LOOK Hollywood Prevue

Grady
 Rail in 7-furlong races at past 6 autumn meetings here: 6% wins (fast and wet-fast tracks only); this one has a higher bankroll than the rest of the field combined; he graduated in a race with $571K purse at Santa Fe; half-brother to 3 runners with 6-figure bankrolls, led by O. K. No Problem at $158,269; Bradshaw with experienced 2yo at major SoCal tracks since start of '95: 17% wins (17 of 103); prefer faster foes.

Cape Town
 Big Beyer in first-Lasix run; Oct. 10 race at Keeneland turned into key heat, as 2-3 finishers came back to win allowances at Ky. tracks; this one's a 3/4-brother to $911,507 earner Golden Attraction, the 2yo filly champ of '95; dam banked $272,541; Team Lukas with experienced 2yo at major SoCal tracks the last 3 years: 17% wins (23 of 139); Lukas won this event in '81 with Sepulveda; logical contender.

Oly Ogy
 Each of the others has exceeded his best Beyer, which is a tough trend to overcome; perhaps he's matured during months off; half to $224,135 earner T. V. Of Crystal; cost 75 grand in March; armed with workout bullets but would be a surprise.

 Baffert won this event last year with In Excessive Bull and has dominated SoCal's 2yo stakes this year; since start of '95 with experienced juveniles, he's won at 32% rate (44 of 139) for a 17% flat-bet profit; given the troubled trip, this one ran a big one in the Del Mar Futurity; gets blinkers; cost 20 grand as yearling; 3/4 to $96,590 earner Explode N' Win; major player.

Buttons N Moes
 Shortens from Cal Cup route; won 3 sprints at the beach before getting a freshening; dam's first foal; barn does well with experienced 2yo: since start of '95, it has won at 21% rate (12 of 58) for a 12% flat-bet profit; nothing special from speed-figure standpoint; drew favorable post toward outside; mixed signals.

Search Me
 Shares best last-race-Beyer status with Cape Town; pressed rapid splits in the Beau Brummel win and then set a sizzling quarter-mile fraction at SA; came home in about :24 4/5 for the final quarter-mile despite rapid first half; barn with experienced 2yo since start of '95: 15% wins (20 for 138); half to $51,600 earner Dodge The Ford; drew favorable post.

A CLOSER LOOK

Steinlen

Bienvenido

First stakes start resulted in a 3rd for this colt and a Breeders' Cup Turf springboard for winner Big Sky Chester; regains Chris, who was aboard 2 of McAnally's 5 Oak Tree winners, and it will be interesting to see if he will be able to settle down better early than the last time McCarron was aboard; in any case, Henry P Russell pace foe Mufattish is back for another round, drawn just 2 stalls away; can at least have a say in the outcome.

Sharekann

Maintained a comfortable margin between himself and the field but still surrendered his position in the lane in the Grade 3 Bay Meadows 'Cap'; El Angelo tries to parlay his NoCal victory into a Breeders' Cup Mile triumph while Via Lombardia is back for more here; Dreamer returned to take the Pacifica 'Cap' at Bay Meadows on 11/2; good to see this fellow runs well fresh as well as the most recent pair of strong longish drills; Jones and Flores conducted winning business at Oak Tree, and would be surprised by an alert break from this team in here; must deal with Bienvenido and Mufattish on the front end but remains a likely factor.

Mufattish

Pace duel with Bienvenido took its toll on this gelding in the Henry P Russell 'Cap'; was left with the chore of applying the pressure in a 5-horse field but has been capable of stalking for the score, a la 4/30 victory at the trip here over Sharekann; Bailey is in a perfect spot to tuck in his mount right behind the pair drawn to his inside; will still need to keep the closers at bay in the lane, a task that has been a daunting one in open stakes company; maybe.

Better late than never for 5-year-old with a grass-oriented pedigree to try the lawn; Lively One has turned out to be a solid turf stallion while dam has dropped 2 sod winners out of 3 to try the surface (they were by Gato del Sol and Time to Explode); main issue here is whether invader that ran in a claimer as recently as 5 months ago can improve upon his Canadian graded form in order to handle this group, one that could easily qualify for a listed or Grade 3 crew; others entice more on the win end.

Hawksley Hill

Already respectable resume would come across as much more formidable-looking should Lucky Coin run big in the Breeders' Cup Mile; did what he had to do in order to get within hailing distance of the front-end streaking 'Coin in the Grade 2 Kelso; put together strong mile runs off a layoff in the spring, offering reassurance that regression won't be in the offing 2nd start off American debut; adds Lasix; stablemate Mufattish can help keep the pace an honest one; threat in the lane.

Tychonic

As a 7-year-old, this guy doesn't seem to be quite the horse that was vaunted from high-priced claiming company into graded stakes stardom; Frankel rightfully applied the brakes after the subpar effort against Mufattish and Sharekann; one of barn's fortes is with its turf returnees and its charge will be switching to a rider who was aboard for both of its Oak Tree scores; expecting the odds to creep up for those keeping the faith.

Via Lombardia

Late rush ran out of real estate in the Grade 3 Oak Tree Mile, and connections can take some solace in the fact that the top pair turned around to compete in the Breeders' Cup Mile; as in the case of Drysdale's other closer Hawksley Hill, this runner can probably count on stablemate Mufattish to keep things honest up front, if need be; like the addition of a swift 6-furlong turf drill along with blinkers, and the Drysdale/Eddie D. combo is of long-standing productivity; respect.

Puissant

Punters that have been anticipating this 6-year-old's Waterloo have been candidates for banishment to Elba or St. Helena themselves; continues to handle the raises thrown his way but will be getting a substantial boost into this added-money affair; entrymate Sharekann can cut out the fractions or press them; the party about to be over?—insofar as the price is concerned, with the coupling involved, probably yes, but beyond that, though...

Old Chapel

Comes back to Tinseltown, seeking to recapture the glory that led to a victory in the Grade 3 Generous as a juvenile on 11/25/95 (Kimmel training, Stevens up, $4.80 mutuel); Del Mar 'Cap start a get-acquainted run for new high-profile connections?—maybe, but the longish, not particularly fast, drills indicates that Hofmans has this colt right on track; likely pace scenario shakes out nicely for off-the-pace style; consider.

Gastown

Gonzalez has picked out California-bred gold veins the last couple of starts; it's too bad that the open company non-conditioned affair starts showing were against such small fields; 2nd-after-lay-off situations on card haven't presented a problem; somewhat surprisingly, at the spring/summer stand here, of 41 turf races run at the distance, 4 were won from the 10 hole; horse for the course tempting at what is bound to be the best price he has been in quite a while.
