PICK: 12 BUILD OR BUY

Trainer Chad Brown is 2 for 6 (33%) with a debut 2YO in a New York bred MSW sprinting on the dirt for this ownership. He won his last such start with Prat up. That race was 5 weeks ago at Saratoga and the horse, Cash Burn, won by over 13 lengths. The works for this one are similar to Cash Burn. Best recent runner in the female line is the show finisher in the '07 G1 Malibu at SA, Horse Greeley.

VALUE: 9 HARLOW DRIVE

First time starter is bred to sprint and win early. Sire exceeds the average with a 17% win rate in a dirt sprint. He also does better than average with 2YO's and debut 2YO's. His top performer is the $3M dirt sprint winner Jackie's Warrior for Steve Asmussen. Second dam was a 5-time dirt stakes winner in New York who won 800k. Trainer wins 25% in MSW 2YO in the debut for New York bred horses.

5 BOUNCE BACK	9-2	CASSE	FRESU

PICK: 4 FIORA

She sold for 625k as a yearling. The debut makes it look like that was a very nice purchase. She stalked and pressed the speed at 6F before digging in late to hold off the closers. Interesting that the two she dueled with finished last and third to last. Female family is all Euro turf. Trainer has been first or second in 3 of his last 4 with a 2YO turf router. One in between was a 4th place finish in 135k stakes.

VALUE: 1 RUNAWAY BRIDE

One of two in the race to come out of the G1 Natalma (they were a close 4th and 5th place finish in there). Slow break and very wide trip took some steam out of her. She still ran pretty well. Debut was a win in a turf sprint at SAR. That race has come back strong. There were 3 next out MSW winners (DMR, KD, MTH) and two others that hit the board next. Ground saving trip this time from the inside.

8 YOLO TRAIN	7-2	BROWN	PRAT

PICK: 1 BRICKYARD BELLE

The turf was on the fast side for the day this one took her debut rather easy. The Skidmore for males at this same distance run later in the card went 2/5 slower than this one (1:02.1 vs. 1:01.4). She went for 600k earlier this year. Sibling to a turf speedball, Joe Shiesty, who has won over $1.1M sprinting on the turf so far in his career. Another sib, Johnny Unleashed, also loved turf sprinting (221k won).

VALUE: 5 MEDINAH

This filly was an expensive purchase back in April. She went for nearly 600k. Her pedigree is all turf on the female side. Dam was a multiple stakes winner on the grass. Most of her better races were either sprints or up to a mile. Sib to Charlie's Curlin who is stakes placed on the turf for Jeff Mullins in So Cal. Casse won this race last year with a 2nd time starter who won by 4 in her debut. Can be any kind.

3 GAUDREAU	8-5	BROWN	PRAT
4 CLUB REIGN	8-1	BECKMAN	ZAYAS
2 RAKU	12-1	BREEN	LOPEZ

PICK: 5 U.S.S. VALOR

One of the more anticipated 2YO's to run back after a maiden win in the last few years. Troubled trip sprinting in debut for a trainer that normally gives them a race. Once stretched out he put on a show. He ran 3/5 of a second faster than the G1 Spinaway later in the card. Two other MSW were 1 or 2 seconds slower. Shug 7 for 9 in the money with a maiden winner last out in a stakes routing on the dirt.

VALUE: 4 CLUB REIGN

Someone will have to run third. This race looks very top heavy with the top ML favorites. This one impressed in the debut on the Travers undercard. This is the combined ownership that includes former NFL QB Russell Wilson. Sire was all route on the dirt but the female family has leaned heavily to sprints. 5th beaten 17 lengths from the maiden win came back to win at BEL at 15-1 in a MSW, 81 fig.

4 LIBBY LLYOD	8-5	BROWN	PRAT
6 RUN TWIST	3-1	HENNING	LOPEZ
7 VELORA	7-2	RICE	FRANCO

PICK: 1 REVENGE OF THE SIS

Debut much better than it may appear. She broke slow and lagged far back. She started to move, was steadied and then made a fast rush up to the leaders before giving way to the winner late. Never easy routing in a stakes first time out. She is a sib to G1 Ogden Phipps winner, Dorth Vader, who was also trained by George Weaver. That one also ran a close 5th in the Pretty Mischievous G1 Kentucky Oaks.

VALUE: 4 LIBBY LLYOD

Only 3 horses have won by more in the debut for Chad Brown than this one. It is very tough to get a feel for the group she beat. It included Bill Mott, Brad Cox and Todd Pletcher firsters (none of which have run back). Connections had the dam who raced 4x (all in sprints; third in the G2 Raven Run). Another sib, Publisher, was 2nd in the G1 Ark Derby last year and ran in the G1 Kentucky Derby.

11 DOVER STREET	5-1	HANNON	LOPEZ
4 ROSCOE GOOSE	8-1	MOTT	CARMOUCHE
1 CHIEF OF PEACE	8-1	CLEMENT	FRANCO

PICK: 10 HIGH OFFICIAL

He won so well in the debut at Saratoga the connections gave him a shot in the G1 Hopeful. He didn't handle the dirt and faded to last. The dam (who also ran for this team) was third in the G1 BC Juv Fillies in 2019 and was 8 for 14 in the top two on the grass (twice a G3 winner). 4th and 5th won MSW races on the turf next out (SAR, KD) from debut. Pletcher 29% in 2YO turf graded stakes routing.

VALUE: 4 ROSCOE GOOSE

Drew an impossible post in the debut at 1M 1/16. He was hung out in the widest 11 post and that produced a 5-wide trip. Despite that he came running late to be second by a head in a MSW at Saratoga. That is saying something as Riley Mott is under 10% in debut. They spent 225k on him a year ago. Sire was all dirt and is new to the breeding game. He does have 3 turf route winners in 15 tries so far.

3 GOOD TO BE KING	5-2	ARNOLD	FRANCO
7 JUST JOE	5-1	WEAVER	PRAT
4 LUMINOUS BEAUTY	4-1	ANTONUCCI	MORELOS

PICK: 1 MY KID'S SAID NO

This trainer has 6 wins and 2 runner-up finishes from her last 8 starters (all were at Canterbury Park). Something changed as she was a career 9% trainer but she turned the corner of late. Normally would fade a Midwestern trainer, rider and horse in these deep waters but it's not an overly strong race and this one knows one way to run. She'll go right to the lead. Turf in the bloodlines. Catch her to win.

VALUE: 7 JUST JOE

Tried routing in the debut at Saratoga but he tired. They cut him back next time out at Kentucky Downs and he closed to win. The winner of the debut ran 2nd in the G1 Summer 3 weeks ago at WO. The runner-up was 2nd by a neck in the G3 With Anticipation at SAR. The second dam on the female side won the 2015 G1 Spinster at Keeneland. Doesn't hurt to get Flavian Prat up for the first time here.
