Almutawakel (PP-6)

Inconsistent sort who jumped up to win 1 1/8-mile Prix Jean Prat from the subsequently disappointing Gold Away and Dr Fong; has been away a long-time, makes his first start on dirt, but could be a pace factor; a prime candidate to ultimately bring up the rear.

Central Park (PP-2)

Has served Godolphin as rabbit in the Eclipse Stakes (for Daylami) and Prix Niel (for Sea Wave, who flipped his rider leaving the gate); despite rider comments to the contrary, it is the belief he is in again to cut out a sensible pace, one that will be required for High-Rise, Daylami and Victory Gallop.

Daylami (PP-5)

Distance is right, class is undoubted, picks up Sheikh Mohammed's latest favorite in Velazquez; veteran multiple Group/Grade 1 winner has won on soft, good and firm, can dirt, over which he has been working all winter, be that much more difficult? the home team's best chance.

High-Rise (PP-1)

Godolphin has been touting this one as their main World Cup hope and has first call rider Dettori in the saddle, but he surely prefers 1-1/2 miles at this stage; chance for a part.

Malek (PP-7)

Subject of a $50,000 win bet in Britain on Wednesday, should be up near leaders early over a track which still favors trackers over closers; relatively fresh from 2 good efforts after long absence since last World Cup; knows his way around; very dangerous, and is the selection here.

Running Stag (PP-8)

Blinkers on the only European entry who is beginning to look a little like a gypsy; probably won't win but probably won't finish last either.

Silver Charm (PP-3)

Has danced too many dances of late, comes to this off form; Baffert is not even staying around to see what happens; will throw in usual good one but will not win off any of last 3 tries.
