PICK: 3 HEAVENVILLE

4YO colt has always been a nice horse. He stepped it up a notch in the last start when he set the track record for 6.5F at Remington Park. He ran one of the few 6.5F times under 1:14 ever recorded. That was the first time he sprinted after a slew of routes so maybe this is what he wants to do. Things might be a bit more hectic for him on the lead with the other speed in here. Form is obviously great.

VALUE: 7 HOLA JOEY

Very fast winning time in the small field last out at Prairie Meadows. He went 1:07.3 for six furlongs. That winning time was just a few ticks off track record at Prairie Meadows. He'll play an important part in this race. He is fast enough to give the top choice trouble up front but has been able to rate just a bit off of the speed and finish. He's 9 for 14 at the distance. Good post given his pressing style.

8 AWESOMESAUCE	10-1	SHARP	LOPEZ
1 LONG AGO	5-1	MOREY	VAZQUEZ

PICK: 9 LA FANTASTICA

This 4YO filly is 4 for 8 on the turf. She won 3 of 4 with Elliott riding (the loss a good second from the 10 post two back in a stakes at this distance). Her previous turf starts came sprinting in Kentucky (ELP, KD, KEE) in her 2nd, 3rd, and 4th starts of her career. Got a nice prep over this turf in the win last time out. 4th from that race won a 50k Ok-bred stakes on turf coming back. Has to deal with a wide post.

VALUE: 2 GALLANT GRETA

She went pretty fast for 1M 3/8 last time out at GP. She was on the lead in there going 47.1 and 1.12 flat for the early fractions. She tired a bit late at 13-1 to finish 5th beaten just 3 lengths. If she runs that fast early she might be in front of this field. She has never missed the board at this distance on the turf. Maker is great with comebackers like this routing in turf stakes. Gets a superb rider Velazquez.

PICK: 7 GRAND YAUPON

Broke his maiden at Saratoga in his second start. Notice the runner-up from the race he won was nearly 7 clear of the rest and third was nearly 6 clear of fourth place. Ran second to the undefeated Bob Baffert colt, Salahudin. He came back to win the G3 Iroquois (83 Beyer). Asmussen trained the stakes placed dirt mare second dam Twisted Tale. Don't think the turf is where this one will want to run.

VALUE: 2 FATE OF WAR

Trainer Danny Pish is 5 for 15 in a non-claiming race (all MSW) sprinting on dirt with a debut 2YO here at Remington Park, 33%. There were 9 in the exacta and off odds were 14-1, 12-1, 8-1, 7-1, 7-1, 7-1, 6-1, 4-1 and 4-1. That means his first time 2YO runners rarely have the kind of works this one has. Dam and a sib were turf stakes winners. Another sib won the G3 UAE Oaks at Meydan back in Feb 2026.

4 GOVERNOR SAM	3-1	WEAVER	LOPEZ

PICK: 5 EAKLY

He brings roughly the same form into this race as he did last year. This time he won the Canterbury Turf Sprint and last year he was second. He was second in this race behind the speedball to the far outside. He's been in the top two 8 of 9 here at Remington Park on the grass. Will need the pace to be contested as he'll be closing from just off here. Already proven with these. Playable at a square price.

VALUE: 1 VIRAT

He was scratched from the Grade 2 Eddie D on Saturday to run in this race. He's coming out of a strong running of the G2 Green Flash at Del Mar. The winner of that race won the Eddie D. 5th (Sumter) was second in the Eddie D. The last place finisher (beaten 21 lengths) came back to win a Cal-bred stakes on the LRC dirt. Rail could be an issue. Has enough speed to break with them but could be shuffled.

PICK: 3 J J GREY

The last start in the WV Derby was too bad to be believed. He was the 4-5 fav in there and never got out of second gear. It could be he just didn't care for the Mnr surface. Prior to that he won 3 straight for fun. If you discount the synthetic and the turf he is actually 4 for 4 on the dirt prior to the flop last out. McPeek is very good with modest priced horses in stakes. Has a flashy work since last time out.

VALUE: 1 THE HELL WE DID

He was second in the Grade 3 Lexington at Keeneland and then split the field in the 14-horse Grade 1 Preakness. He was bet to under 10-1 in that Preakness. He closed well to finish 2nd to the top choice in the Iowa Derby at Prairie Meadows two back. He got a wide trip on a track (Fairmount Park) that is tough to win out wide throughout. Might get the needed pace to set him up. Saves ground in here.

PICK: 3 KRISSYS STAR

Is this race tougher than the optional claiming race at Saratoga two back? The winner of that race was the 1-5 favorite and drew off. But this one hung in pretty well for second far clear of the rest. That winner came back to win the 600k G1 Alabama at Saratoga for Chad Brown. This is the first stakes race for this filly. It is a very good spot to take a shot as she faces a small field and fits with these.

VALUE: 5 P R STITCH

Good horses can come from anywhere. This is a Nebraska-bred who has won 7 of her 8 career starts. Her only loss was a runner-up finish in a NE-bred stakes at Horseman's Park. She has speed to get in front or she can relax and wait if early fractions are too quick. She did beat older last time out at 10-1. That time was a good one as that track was not that fast. Waters get deeper in this open stakes.
