Always a Princess

Talented Baffert-trainee took full advantage of loose lead in slop to post top last Beyer Indiana G2 score; today comes initial dry dirt start yet she showed class as G1 SA runner-up to Ladies Classic ML favorite Blind Luck; 3-year-old is out of sw dam of $220K who has thrown stablemate Gabby's Golden Gal (G1 $499K); must be dealt with from start to finish.

Direct Line

Firing fresh hasn't been an issue for this 4-year-old; filly out of 1-2 dam who has dropped 3 sw's (best is Adieu; G1 $907K) nailed pacesetting 36-1 upstart West Hope in 2-turn G1 event at Ellis Park; prior GP 1-turn mile victory is nice resume item but class could be issue for lass who spent much of '09 in preliminary allowance ranks; leaning another way.

Emmy Darling

Hollywood Park juvenile sw faded to last-place after prompting soft pace behind Zenyatta off claim; Bejarano's presence is noted aboard chestnut returning to site of popular April win; daughter of sp $36K earning dam could be involved early along with Always a Princess and Be Fair; requires very best.

Taste's Sis

Individual owning lowest Beyer ceiling was overmatched in recent pair of SoCal sprints and may face similar predicament here; connections will be hoping she fares better on dirt, as only such start was $41 Arizona stakes upset; it's possible mare out of 2-5 dam who's kin to G1 winning millionaire Taste of Paradise is at very best on turf; others entice more today.

Be Fair

Sharp route speed led to Lukas-trainee's solid 3-year-old campaign but presence of Always a Princess could complicate matters here; G1 Apple Blossom 3rd behind Zenyatta was 1st of runner's 5 straight defeats; Saratoga turf experiment was met with mixed results so daughter of 2-10 dam who's kin to G1 winning millionaire Macho Again heads back to main track; small slice may be best hope.

Distinctive Dixie

2-time '09 Churchill winner was an odds-on favorite in both of those triumphs; mare out of G2 winning dam of $383K dropped latest as 4-5 chalk in Indiana race out of which runnerup Taptam returned to capture Hoosier's $100K Wigwam; note runner outfinished subsequent G1 winner Jessica Is Back in local G2 won by 'Rachel; not impossible.

Third Dawn

Trainer Sadler's 1st lacks the 1-turn resume of most of these; filly out of 1-6 dam was nose shy of G1 triumph at 3 and acquitted herself nicely in HOL G2 behind next-out $100K Prairie Meadows sw Wynnng Ride; local breezes appears strong while trying to fire off nearly 6 month layoff; not out of exotics contention.

Devil by Design

Mott/Desormeaux charge is potential horse for course seeking rebound in local return; filly out of sp $171K earning dam has been favored in all 5 wins yet doesn't figure to be so today; needs excuse for latest debacle but did outfinish First Passage in Saratoga's G1 Ballerina; Oct. 30 local breeze is encouraging; can't fault any taking positive view.

Double Espresso

Filly's Beyers have risen with blinkers added although her Remington Park score came as favorite over sw who has now dropped 10 straight (Vertical Vision); 29% '10 conditioner now returns lass to site of 2 of her wins at distance which has not been her best; she's come up short in lane of both graded stakes attempts this year; others rank a bit higher.

Alpha Kitten

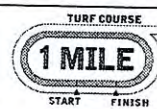

Third Dawn's uncoupled partner has been knocking on door in SoCal stakes yet still seeking initial victory since returning from 13 month layoff; filly out of 0-3 dam tries dirt after chasing hard-hitter Unzip Me on grass and Filly and Mare Sprint entrant Sweet August Moon on polytrack; Rosario likely tries to strike from beneficial outside stalking spot; factors if handling strip.

Utley
He's shown enough in his three starts racing overseas to merit plenty of respect in his first start in America and this colt is a 1/2 to multiple G1 stakes placed turfer just as Well (3-20, 804k over turf), multiple graded stakes winner over turf Winter View (4-12, 292k over turf) and multiple G1 winning turfer Rainbow View (7-16, $1.6 million); must consider.

Willcox Inn
Sire wins with approximately 10% of his turf starters and dam was multiple graded stakes placed racing over turf while winning 3 of 19 turf starts for 194k; this is obviously a tough assignment for his first turf test but he's been very good in his first two starts over synthetic surfaces.

Banned
He's displayed terrific tactical speed in his two starts over turf, and in each race when his rider asked him for run through the stretch, the response was there; feel that he was particularly impressive in his latest outing when making an early move off the rail down the backstretch before tracking outside of the two leaders around the second turn, and then moving on to win with authority.

Soldat
He has to be regarded as an interesting player in here as he'd likely be a much shorter price if he had been able to come through in the Pilgrim, and note that he was a heavy odds-on favorite in that contest; not going to be at all surprised if he's ready to bounce back with a much sharper showing.

Madman Diaries
Sire has won with 22 of 82 (26%) of his turf starters and dam was unraced; it's difficult to knock anything that he's done in his first five starts, and if anyone in here is going to lead this field every step of the way this appears to be the one; this is his first turf start and his first start beyond six furlongs, but feel that his natural ability alone commands respect.

Rough Sailing
Son of Mizzen Mast has a strong pedigree for turf and it is worth noting how well he ran in his career debut in a two-turn mile, a race where he ran very green, and encountered trouble at the top of the stretch, but when he leveled off through the final furlong he really kicked on; have to view him as an interesting price player at the very least.

Humble and Hungry
200k purchase has the look of a hard trying colt but thought that he benefited from a very comfortable trip in his turf debut in most recent start, and feel that it is fair to question the competition that he faced that day; it's interesting to see Peslier assigned, but looking toward others.

Pluck
His only turf defeat came in a roughly run Continental Mile at Monmouth Park back in August, and he was extremely sharp in winning the Summer stakes at Woodbine in his latest start, a race that saw him break a beat slow and display a serious turn of foot; like to see Gomez land here, and even though the outside post isn't ideal, this colt looks like he has a lot of ability to work with.

One more reason to race in California. A 25% purse increase.

On Dec. 26th, our purses go up. On average, we're offering $425,000/day at Santa Anita.

Flat out, you can run for more money this winter in California than anywhere else. For the full story on why you should run here, visit BigCalPurses.com

Wise Dan

Is just 1 of 2 three-year-olds entered; Grade 3 SW beat older rivals in last; is a kind stakes winner Our Royal Dancer (195K) and G2 Successful Dan (301K); is usually forwardly placed for a barn scoring 46% of the time with repeat winners since 2009; has a good rating gear which will be needed in a race loaded with early speed; view as an exotics possibility.

Girolamo

Exits a best-last-race Beyer speed figure 5 weeks ago while today is the 3rd race of the form cycle which is often any runner's peak effort; the barn scores with a high percentage of fresh runners; has good tactical speed and shouldn't be too far off the lead early; his sire captured the Breeders' Cup Classic; G1 stakes winner is out of a Grade 3 dam (5-11-157K) who produced G3 Accelerator (414K) and G2 Daydreaming (696K); appears the one to beat.

Big Drama

Enters with 4 straight solid efforts a runner-up finish in latest despite encountering a troubled gate break; 9-week layoff racing for a high-percentage fresh trainer; is almost always sitting very close to the early pace and shouldn't be too far back early today in a race loaded with early zip; Grade 2 stakes winner defeated 2 next-out graded winners in last as the 5th and 6th-place finishers took G1 and G3 events respectively (105-104 Beyers); will be using on deep exotics tickets.

Smiling Tiger
Multiple G1-stakes winner captured 4 of his 5 victories right on the lead but rated just off the front in latest now the only concern is if he can handle conventional dirt; is 1 of 2 three-year-olds entered; has certainly run fast enough to win this and gets 1st run on the closers; appears like a speedy contender for win honors.

Pashito the Che
From a pure Beyer speed figure perspective he seems way off his best game despite being here off 2 wins the latest being a stakes victory; has gate speed in a race loaded with early gas; the trainer is adept at getting repeat winners but view him as a pace presence for part.

Benefits being a mid-pack runner in a race loaded with inside speed; career-best Beyer was on the CD dirt in May at today's distance; seems ready to rumble with 5-weeks away for a high-percentage fresh barn; won the photo finish 2-back over the runner-up who Beyered 91 in his next-out PID allowance win; G3 winner is a sibling to stakes winner Patriot Love (359K) and SW Deputy Connor (341K); the pick.

Atta Boy Roy

Have to forgive the recent turf defeat; flashed early speed earlier this year while winning for fun 2-back however projects for a wide pace-pressing trip today; last start should be considered merely as a prep for this; the 6th and 10th-place finishers from most recent Beyered 92 and 85 in next-out allowance and optional-claiming wins; G2 stakes winner is a kin to G3 The Great Face (340K); projects to flash gate speed wide.

Warrior's Reward

Hasn't missed a CD dirt exacta yet in 4 starts but he's ranked a notch below the top players based on losses to similar rivals throughout his 2010 form; G1 winner's field-best Beyer speed figure was in a CD 'good' track 7F event in May, 2009, capturing an n1x allowance and could likely use an extra furlong today to get up in time; like that he's a closer in a race loaded with speed but overall have mixed feelings.

Central City
 What kind of company has he been keeping?; place horse in last last win has been out of the money twice since; he's giving away some experience as he is facing a few that have been around the block and back; not thrilled with the way he was tiring in the lone turf score and there will be no breathers on the front end today; he did come off a very similar race to cash in that second off the lay-off spot in Maryland; leaning another way for a key top horse.

Stradivinsky
 Will prove to be one of the most successful claims ever if he can pull off the victory; he did get away with a moderate pace in the local win on the course and today the splits will be radioactive; Dutrow has him feeling pretty good about himself with the bullet works locked and loaded; his trainer after his Monday breeze, Dutrow: "I wish everyone could have seen this horse's breeze. He's sitting on a big race."

Unzip Me

Runner got away with moderate splits last time but there are a few others here that can also give up .21 and change velocity; the feeling is that though that this miss will be able to adapt; she broke her maiden on the synthetic came from 8th place; three for 3 for this plot and nothing wrong with the maintenance drills since; can't fault her heart or the results; will be a case of if she can turn back the boys and she got late as the chalk the other time she faced males.

Silver Timber

Came to this race last year of a similar score in the Woodford but didn't get the best of trips; the way the race will set up, he will get the kind of pace he needs to succeed; gelding went off from in mid-summer, but the freshening obviously did him a world of good; winner of the Troy posted a 93 Beyer taking a similar stakes next out; major threat in an absolute Rubis Cube of a race.

Waveline

Only her 4th race in almost a year and a half; this field is a long way from whipping stablebred like she did in the sprint of last year; you can build a case that she was a bounce victim in that 8/13 race but she was backing up late last time vs. the Jones charge; it could be asking too much of her today.

Bridgetown

Maybe colt just didn't like the good course last time; like fact he is versatile and doesn't need the lead to win and he was hung out in the marooned slot in the local effort; show horse in the shore score was next, but it was only a N2X trip in Philly with a powerful 98 Beyer; beaten chalk in 2 of last 4, needs very best.

California Flag

Since the end of 2009, for his defending champ it's been Hong Kong, Dubai, the beach and Keeneland; even if you the orize he needed last badly, he really gave up the ghost very quickly; you generally want to come to these huge races of a big performance and that's just not the case here; homebred needs to turn it around in a hurry.

Tropic Storm

You have to wonder why he was out for the entire 2009 season; gelding got away with controlling a legit pace in the mile win but it could be a whole new story here; the place horse in the last win was making his start in a stakes and was out of the money in the other attempts; only one of the 6 wins came on turf; may find the competition too tough this time.

Canadian Ballet

Yet another distaffer taking her chances here and she did better than split the cast in the race last year; basically tried in a duel in her last 3 races, could be looking at a similar fate today and she has some familiar foes to attempt to thwart here; not sold on chances.

Yield Bogey

If he is lucky enough to draw in, he will be involved late if at all these types-kind of fool you sometimes; sure, the pace will be hot and heavy and that helps but that doesn't guarantee he'll quicken in time; not convinced he was beating anybody in the lone score this year; the place horse that day lost twice since, the last in a $75K optional.

Gave the winner of this race all he could handle in the Green Flash, then got a nice 2-hole trip in the Morvich; O'Neill has done a good job with this guy but he is a little light in the class department; he did beat a former SW who was second in last, but that runner had only taken a $69K stakes and lost all his Graded attempts; not impossible chore.

Grand Adventure
Key off the race in April and you can build a case for him; sure, the speed has probably been dulled by the miller and the good course sprint last time but he also was beaten by a nice horse in last that is 5 for 11 career; with his style, the trip will be everything and he'll need a traffic free journey.

A CLOSER LOOK

7th Churchill

Biondetti

Import has done little wrong in his 3 starts overseas, including taking the Italian G1 as the chalk and now he'll get Lasix for the initial time; his sire was a classic winner at 2 turns and though the dam's SW foals did their best work on the lawn, she did drop a few dirt winners as well; undefeated colt is on the improve and is certainly worth a look.

Boys At Tosconova

Belmont maiden score 4 months ago earned him the highest Beyer in the country until matched by today's Uncle Mo's debut score at Saratoga; he showed the ability to rate in his G1 Hopeful win and he's been well trained up to this by a superior fresh outfit while the sire's distance limitations were exposed when beaten en chalk in this heat's 2001 renewal at Belmont, this guy's dam's 3 wins all came going long and he certainly gives the impression he wants to go on; top contender holds the valuable edge of having had a race over the local main track.

J. B.'s Thunder

Rolls into his initial dirt try with wins over both turf and synthetic after never looking back in the Keeneland G1; he didn't go as well in his first local move as he had over the artificial footing and he's going to have to work a lot harder to make the lead today than he did in either of his wins; though he's bred to handle dirt and the price figures to be ok we'll have to side with others on the win end.

J P's Gusto

G1 SW fought a good part of the way in his initial route attempt and couldn't hold off the outside runner here; there's other speed signed on for this so he'll likely need to be taken a hold of early and he also has the new surface question to answer; price figures to be much better this time, but the pace scenario plays against him.

Best of luck today to our clients.

 Maiden tries winners after getting closer to the top 2 finishers last time; he adds the hood so maybe that helps him keep his focus and he did work ok here on Halloween for his second route try, but he's another who will be trying the dirt for the initial time in this spot; maybe for a minor award.

 Repole's first uncoupled runner has shown plenty of ability in his brief career and he enters this fresh off a steady set of drills; while this will be his first crack around 2 turns his sire was a classic winner going long and the dam's best foal was multiple G1 SP router and 836K earner Andromeda's Hero so this guy should adore the added trip; barn's main man opts for connections' other runner, but have to think this guy proves to be a huge threat.

Uncle Mo
 He was clearly the most impressive juvenile debut winner at Saratoga when unveiled on Travers Day and he didn't disappoint while fending off pace pressure on the stretchout in Belmont's Champagne last month; Repole colt retains the barn's first call pilot and his route winning dam did drop a 5 time route winner so he figures to have little trouble stretching his run out to this 2 turn configuration and trip; he may face some pace pressure, but he's the one they'll have to beat.

 Peruvian import had little trouble going undefeated in his 3 dirt starts against questionable company in South America; he'll make his first start for a new barn while getting Lasix and a top pilot, but he's got a lot to prove against this type of competition; price may make him appear enticing for exotics inclusion, but he faces a difficult task.

 G3 SW has shown some versatility on the lawn and he's been working well over synthetic since that stakes score, but he'll be trying conventional dirt for the initial time in this spot; barn is sharp with its runners switching surfaces and this guy has shown that he has ability as well as the pedigree to succeed on the main track; may be worth a look at a price.

 Broke his maiden in the Norfolk, besting the West coast's top juvenile in the process and he's worked pretty well in the interim; sire was a classic winner on the dirt and dam was a multiple dirt route winner so he should be right at home over this footing; improving colt draws outside but if things get hot up top he must be considered a player.

Beethoven (IRE)
He didn't run poorly when he was shipped over last year to run in the Breeders' Cup Juvenile, and it's kind of interesting to see that he'll be racing on Lasix today; that said, it seems like a lot to ask of him to be ready to handle the likes of Goldikova, Gio Ponti, and Paco Boy.

Society's Chairman
Seven-year-old is certainly eligible to be ready for a top try while making his third start since being returned from a layoff back in September, and there was no disgrace in running second, beaten only a length, by Gio Ponti in his most recent start; nevertheless, he's facing an extremely difficult assignment.

Gio Ponti
In just about all of his starts between 7f and 1 1/16m he's produced a devastating late turn of foot, and that was on full display in the Shadwell Turf Mile in his latest outing, and Dominguez handled him with an alarming degree of confidence that day; simply put, he's just a terrific horse who has a big chance to walk away with the top prize.

Court Vision

He deserves a lot of credit for how sharp he was in winning the Woodbine Mile in his latest start, and perhaps if Sidneys Candy really heats things up on the front end it can help him pick up some pieces, but feel that he's going to need to produce a career best performance in order to come out on top.

Delegator (GB)

This is a four-year-old who obviously has a good deal of quality to him but he was soundly defeated in this event last year, and feel that this is an even tougher bunch from top-to-bottom; on the positive side, maybe hell like the feel of the Churchill Downs turf better than the Santa Anita turf.

Paco Boy (IRE)

Multiple Group 1 winner is probably wishing that Goldikova hung it up after 2009 as he's been narrowly beaten by her in three of his last four starts, and it's certainly difficult to not respect his chances in here off of those performances; he's clearly an interesting candidate while getting Lasix for the first time.

The Usual Q. T.

Four-year-old has done very little wrong in his 11 starts on turf while recording eight victories and he owns the type of positional speed to help him negotiate a comfortable trip just about every time out; nevertheless, this is a serious group of horses he's meeting up with, and that makes it difficult to envision anything more than a minor award for him.

Get Stormy

Three of his five starts this year have been sharp winning performances, but it's fair to question the competition he beat in those three races, it's just difficult to give the nod to anyone but Gio Ponti of the horses coming out of the Shadwell Turf Mile.

Sidney's Candy

Sometimes when a horse moves to turf they just love it, and that very well might be the case with this colt after the way he burned up the turf course in his first turf start while setting a course record when last seen; it's a little scary to think about what he might prove to be capable of while turning back in distance, especially when seeing that he's likely to catch an early breather as Get Stormy will probably be very content to sit second early on.

Goldikova (IRE)

She's on the same list as Miesque and Lure as being dual winners of the Breeders' Cup Mile, and she'll be favored to separate herself from those greats in her bid to make it win number three in this event; she comes here off of a campaign that was very identical to the one that led to success in this event a year ago, and a case can be made for her 2010 form being even sharper; what more can be said about one of the great turf milers of all time.

Proviso (GB)

She's four-for-four racing over turf in North America and she's made a steady climb up the Beyer Speed Figure ladder in those four starts; she didn't disgrace herself when she faced Goldikova off of a layoff last year, and that might be a reason to include this currently sharp mare in the exotics.

Mad Flatter

Off a career effort, but this is only the 2nd time in his career that he will be able to put 4 races together; he beaten a solid horse last time as 2nd finisher is a multiple G3 winner, got to expect Court to be aggressive and send hard as all of his wins came wire to wire except the last score; he'll at least muddle the pace, but may need to run the race of his life to repeat.

Here Comes Ben

Love fact half of his wins have been local and his only off efforts came on grass; he doesn't need just one scenario to score either and he can be placed anywhere and still perform; trainer does an excellent job without a ton of stock and he tightened the screws on colt with the KEE bullet on the 28th; last race also came back live as the 5th finished took G1 Vosburgh, 6th finisher took a G3 at BEL and 4th finisher was 3rd in the G3 Phoenix at KEE; legit contender.

Gayego

Unlucky in defeat in the Sprint last year, this pro is capable of putting in a stellar performance with his A game; place horse in the Shaheen in March has won 3 of his next 4 and last race also returned okay as 2nd and 4th finishers took allowance events with 101 and 89 Beyers respectively; too sharp to ignore.

Thiskyhasnolimit

Like fact he has been more involved early of late; he was almost 4 clear last time and show horse was daylight in front of next rival; show horse in the Philly win two back cashed 10/10 at Remington in the $400K Oklahoma Derby by 4 with a 100 Beyer; you can dismiss last race if you figure he hated the slop; runner has a homecourt thing going on too and that could be a telling factor when the real racing begins.

Champ Pegasus

Comes into the biggest race of his career on a roll with back to back wins in California; latest was in the Grade 1 Clement L Hirsch but it wasn't the toughest field around; the horse that finished second was coming off of a win in a $40K optional race and he came back to finish third in a first level allowance that was washed off the turf at Hollywood; his Beyer Speed Figures also come in pretty light and he will have to pick things up considerably to compete with the ones he's facing here; passing.

Winchester

He's never been better and he made a strong move while going wide to beat a very tough Paddy O'Prado in the Grade 1 Turf Classic in his latest; Al Khalil edged him in the Bowling Green but he was coming off of a two-month layoff and he could be sitting on a peak effort in the third start of his current form cycle; he also handles any kind of going and he would appear to have the best chance of upsetting the Europeans.

Telling

Son of A.P. Indy has two Grade 1's to his credit going 1 1/2 miles but both came in the Sword Dancer at Saratoga and he just hasn't shown enough in any of his races against top company at other tracks; no match for Winchester in the Turf Classic in his latest and he was coming off of a third in the same race when he finished last in this race last year; prefer others.

Debussy (IRE)
 He was good enough to beat Gio Ponti in the Arlington Million before he shipped back to Europe where he finished third behind a couple of tough ones; Twice Over is a multiple Grade 1 winner and he finished third to Zenyatta in last year's Classic; Vision d'Etat has also won multiple Grade 1's and has earned over $4 million; 4-year-old seems to have improved quite a bit lately and the only concerns are his record at the distance and how well he'll handle another long trip; mixed signals.

 That was a pretty impressive fourth in the Canadian International at Woodbine because he had to regroup after he dropped back to last when he got bumped around midstretch; he also beat Winchester in the Bowling Green so he appears to be coming into this on top of his game; Leparoux attracted and does anyone ride this course better? consider for the exotics.

 Hard not to be impressed by the ride Moore gave this guy in the Arc and he won't have to work as hard to find clear sailing here; not sure what went wrong in the King George but mabe he bounced after setting a course record for 1 1/2 miles in his romp in the Epsom Derby; he certainly has the talent to become the first horse to win the Arc - Turf double wine but so did the other five that tried; it certainly isn't encouraging to hear his connections complaining about the shape of the turf course so we'll try and beat the favorite — if he runs.

One more reason to race in California.
 A 25% purse increase.

On Dec. 26th, our purses go up. That means at Santa Anita a Maiden Special Weight purse increases to $54,000, and a first-level Allowance purse increases to $56,000.

Dangerous Midge

He is coming off the best performance in his career in the Grade 3 Arc Trial at Newbury and he will be stepping into a Grade 1 for the first time; the horses that finished second and third in his latest are Grade 1 winners in Europe but not at the same level as Workforce and Behkabad; Rainbow Peak came back to win a Grade 1 in Italy and Campanologist, 16th in the Melbourne Cup on Monday, has won a couple of Grade 1's in Germany; blinkers go on so it wouldn't be surprising if this is the one they are chasing with Dettori aboard; prefer others.

First Dude

Is still eligible for an allowance event; thought of a pure-speed runner during the Triple Crown races he raced kindly from off the pace in recent defeats; thought he was completely through in deep stretch of the Pa. Derby but fought back gamely when edged in a 3-horse photo today's field is loaded with speed which doesn't help his chances of holding on late for share; G1-placed runner is a kin to SW Via Veneto (1200) view as a pace presence by part.

Blame

Snapped a 5-race winning streak when needing some pace help as Haynesfield was loose on an easy lead then gone; G1 stakes winner is out of a stakes-placed dam (6-45-235K) who produced SW Term (316K); his trainer hits with a high percentage of 2nd off-the-bench winners and he loves the CD main track taking the Clank here; looms for a great pace setup and despite bouncing off the 2-back new career-top Beyer he ran very well in defeat in most recent race; the pick.

Fly Down

Inconsistent sort doesn't always bring his 'A' game to the gate but when he does watch out; still don't know how he didn't go by Afleet Express to win the Travers; great sign that he graduated over today's CD oval; Grade 2 stakes winner is a kin to G2 Seafree (4-11-280K); this seems like his best distance; will be using on deep exotic tickets.

Zenyatta

Goes for an amazing 20th straight win; a two-time winner on conventional dirt at Oaklawn Park she brings her perfect record to the gate seeking a repeat victory vs. the boys in this event; 13-time Grade 1 winner is a kin to G1 Balance (1M); the 2-back show finisher Beyered 86 in her next-out 100K stakes win; there is plenty of early speed signed on to help her explosive stretch kick; is clearly the one they all must hold off late; is strictly the one to beat.

Etched

Projects for a wide-pace pressing trip which doesn't help the cause; his lone CD dirt start was a dull effort facing similar rivals; is the 1st foal out of G1 dam (1.7M) who captured the Breeders' Cup Distaff; goes for a strong-repeat barn but has much to prove racing over today's strip.

Espoir City (JPN)

Japan-Grade 1 stakes winner comes off the bench amidst an extremely light 5-year-old campaign; this certainly is a huge class test while the CD morning drills are not very enticing; will be taking a wait-and-see approach.

Lookin At Lucky

5-time Grade 1 stakes winner returns to the scene of his nightmare trip/6th-place finish in the Kentucky Derby from the rail draw; broke last from the gate racing on a very wet track in most recent race then roared from off the pace to prep well for this; his Haskell was simply sensational; 5-week layoff for a high-percentage fresh barn; is a kin to G2 Kensei (580K); looms a logical contender for win honors.
