CLOSER LOOK: Rail down colt will try a flat mile in his return to dirt following a solid runner up finish behind a subsequent repeater who returned to take a synthetic sprint with a 75 Beyer and the third place finisher in that heat came back to upset Keeneland's G1 Breeders Futurity, earning an 81 Beyer in that front running victory; he's worked well over the local main track and has a right to keep improving, but he'll need to in order to have a say in the outcome today.

Tracked a solid clip and got his neck down at a short price to break his maiden first out in California and now he'll stretch out to 8 panels; he's worked well in the interim at his Santa Anita base and he has route blood on the dam's side of the pedigree so he will likely get better as the distances increase; figures to again take money but looks to be a big player in this spot.

Freaked while sprinting second out in the Gulfstream Park slop, earning a number that would crush these if repeated, but failed to run back to it when stretched out in Belmont's G1 Champagne conducted over fast footing at today's one turn mile trip; he'll catch a softer field in this spot than the rivals who finished in front of him in New York who are among the choices in the Breeders Cup Juvenile later today and expect he'll be more involved in pace here; wet track would certainly move him up, but he looms a huge threat regardless of surface condition; one to beat.

Never got on track at Keeneland when chasing a front running winner early last month and now he'll get back to a one turn trip in his first local start; his 2 better efforts came on or near the lead so expect to see his top pilot look to get him involved from the bell today, but there is other speed he'll catch here so he'll need to settle and then go on to be effective; prefer others on the win end.

He's another who showed little at Keeneland and he'll return to the scene and trip of his second out maiden score here; he's got solid tracking foot and could sit a tracking trip similar to the one that led to that 2 back effort today; price will be right to give him a look.

Returns to dirt after a couple of solid turf sprints, most recently after getting off to a tough beginning; barn doesn't do well with the surface switch but this guy has shown he can handle dirt and expect he'll get off to a better beginning at this longer trip, but still have to think a minor award will be his ceiling here.

Kicked off pace pressure and ran on to an open lengths score at Keeneland a few weeks back and now he'll switch to a top pilot; wasn't good enough to factor late in the G3 Iroquois here 2 back but maybe the move back to one turn will help him continue to improve; price makes him one to consider.

He's taken 2 of 3 on the turf in Florida, including an off the pace SW last time out, and now he'll try the dirt; like the way he worked on the main track prior to leaving his Gulfstream Park base and his pedigree certainly gives the indication that he'll have little trouble taking to this new footing.

Versatile colt will face stakes runners for the first time while switching back to the main track off another open lengths score, this time on the local sod; lone dirt effort came over a wet track so he may need to prove he can not only handle a dry strip, but also improve over it in order to threaten. -Steve Grabowski

Returns to the distance of her 2-back stakes score when rallying from next-to-last; filly faces the boys for the 1st time and needs a hot pace and clean trip to make an impact; the 3-back show finisher captured 290K and 401K-England-stakes events in her next 2 starts; she defeated the debut-show finisher who graduated next-out in a CD-MSW with a 55 Beyer.

Lone win was gate to wire on dirt as she faces the boys again seeking her 1st grass win; projects to stalk the pace like latest when just missing; she's certainly raced well enough in her lawn defeats to give her a chance to defeat rivals who beat her earlier this year; was favored in the June 20 Group 2 event where the winner repeated in a French-152K stakes.

Both of his wins were produced at shorter than today's 5.5F test when stalking the pace a style which could come in handy in a race packed with gate speed; he did not show any gate speed in last then lacked racing room when unable to make an impact vs. similar rivals.

Irish-bred miss is very much the one to deny in this spot after destroying her competition in her first two starts, and she shows up for one of the strongest turf outfits in the World with a go-to rider assigned; if there is a knock, and there really isn't, it's that she's yet to race over firm ground.

 She really hasn't run a bad race to date and she's making her first start for a barn that has done very well with foreign-bred runners over the years; she finished well behind a couple of today's rivals in the Natalma in her latest start, and note the addition of Lasix; she's worth keeping an eye out for in the event that she draws in.

CLOSER LOOK: She went from 20-1 to 11-1 in the last cycle of wagering in the G1 Alicibiades when outfinished by favored Restless Rider who won via a perfect inside stalking trip; in the G1 Spinaway at Saratoga, a race that favored the ralliers, she was stuck on a wide path and failed to advance; steady, local breezes, since the last outing should help as should her important prior experience at breaking from the rail in a large field; logical trifecta candidate if able to find a clear path.

Flawless except for the effort at Saratoga where she suffered through a difficult trip (bumped at the start, wide journey and the rider losing his whip); since then, she has won by huge margins and is the only member of this line-up who has a local route victory to her credit; draws well now but might be seriously challenged by Jaywalk who will also likely be given the green light right out of the gate; extra-fine breeze on the morning of 10/18 suggests she may be able to withstand such a challenge.

Held well behind Bellafina in a G1 at Santa Anita and now that foe draws the demanding outside post position this afternoon; this filly's sire, Violence, was undefeated as a 2-year-old; ideal situation now would be lurking behind a lengthy duel; picks up Hall of Fame rider Velazquez and yet will be a square price on the board; local a.m. drill over the mud last Saturday was fair.

Obtained an excellent early position in the aforementioned Alicibiades when stalking the leader at close range while inside, shifting out with ease, and then drawing clear; huge plus factor: she is the only multiple winner over the course in this line-up; the grey had the worst of it in the Spinaway when drawing widest and losing significant ground; perfect exacta record should remain intact if she is able to stay within striking range without incident; consistent maintenance breezes since that last score.

No 2-turn experience thus far for this lass but her effort in the G1 Frizette was a respectable one where she nearly captured the place; must avoid another slow start which has plagued her since day one (unless there is a maniacal pace in this event which would work to her advantage); a muddy surface would enhance her chances of earning a share at generous odds.

Seems up against it this afternoon as she was clearly trounced, while triple digit odds, by several of these same rivals in the Spinaway; scheduled blinker addition may help somewhat after finishing a remote third in her last assignment in an overnight stakes in Ohio; decent local drills last month hardly seem enough to spark a sudden upgrade.

One of the keys to the pace puzzle this afternoon; she dispatched the field in the G1 Frizette at Belmont Park when expertly rated by Rosario; now this filly, daughter of G1 winner Cross Traffic, must deal with a 2-turn route setting for the first time and faces the strong possibility of pace war with rivals who have drawn more favorably; on the plus side: the excellent batting average, in many categories, of the trainer at the helm.

From Derby winner Orb, this filly has matured since a failed turf debut in July; will likely be reserved for one late charge but notice usual rider Rosario opts for Jaywalk; shows a series of endurance-building workouts over the training track at Belmont and will offer a generous price; would certainly appreciate a prolonged speed duel up ahead and serious pace meltdown before the turn for home.

The morning line favorite must find a way to overcome this outside slot but showed a new dimension in winning the G1 Chandelier at Santa Anita when rating off a decent pace before drawing away (defeating only 4 rivals, however); the Achilles heel might be her tendency to drift in; will have to play the rating game again before being produced at the right moment by Prat; this talented lass was sired by Quality Road, who compiled 4 G1 route victories. -Jim Kachulis

A perfect 2 for 2 so there's no telling how far this guy can progress; what you have to like, too, is the versatility as he dueled and led all the way to win his dirt debut at MTH Aug. 24, then ended up far back but finished full of run while wide to win the Futurity on turf at BEL Oct. 7; sure, those were sprints and we're talking a mile here, but his pedigree and that versatility give every indication this trip is within his reach; still, the water is a lot deeper here, but trainer Servis doesn't win at a high percentage because he puts his horses in the wrong spots.

Lost his only turf try, but at least it was a good 2nd and it came at this distance; it was also just his 2nd start and he handled the footing just fine, pressing the issue, taking over into the lane, opening up as if ready to go on to victory only to succumb to King of Speed's smart rally; cost $600K so you know there are some expectations here; for all Baffert's success, not a lot of it has come on turf, at least at the highest level, though in his defense he hasn't had a bunch of high-class turf horses; speed to be in it from the start and eligible to spring forward.

2 for 2 on turf so you know the footing suits; sure, that first came vs maidens but he then stepped up to face winners for the first time and yielding turf for the first time in BEL's G3 Pilgrim and handled that just as well; shown enough tactical speed to make you believe he won't be too far out of it from the start, which could be key in a big, bulky field.

Stalked the pace in the G3 Bourbon at KEE Oct 7 and finishing smartly only to come up just a nose short of holding off Current; that was still a big try and makes for 3 such good efforts in as many starts, all on turf; no shock he likes the sod as daddy Kitten's Joy was a turf beast, a grass champ and is now a top turf sire; shown some tactical speed and versatility.

Maiden win going 9fs on turf at SAR was a beaut as he romped by 9; first 2 tries vs. winners, both G3s, saw him run well in each, finishing 2nd on both occasions; that being said, he was beaten by today's foe Opry and Forty Under so he must not only make up a bit of ground on those 2 but deal with fellow tough American Current not to mention some rugged Euros; at least has tactical speed and versatility so making the necessary move forward to win this is by no means out of reach.

May rank a bit behind stablemate Current in here; that said, he earned his slot with a smart win in the G3 With Anticipation at SAR Aug. 29; and while he was a non-factor 4th in the G3 Pilgrim at BEL Sept. 29, remember he was very wide into the lane and caught yielding turf on which he may not have been all that comfortable; worked well since; Pletcher won this in 2010 with Pluck.

Just missed in the G1 Summer at WO Sept. 1 to a horse (Fog of War) who would surely have been one of the favorites in here (injured); came back in the G3 Bourbon as the 7-5 choice vs. a bunch of these, set the pace and stayed on gamely to be a close-up 4th in a blanket finish; that speed can serve him well as it can have him right in the race from the start, letting others deal with the traffic behind; faded just a bit in his last 2, yes, but that seemed more a function of his rivals, not that he didn't handle this distance.

Found a home on turf out West as he finished gamely from far back to post a 15-1 upset in the DMR Juvenile Turf Sept. 2 at this trip, then rallied smartly again to win the Zuma Beach there Oct. 8; of course, those weren't the strongest fields in the world, but hey, that's not his fault and he did what he needed to do; that said, the water is surely deeper here, he's had to ship for the first time and deal with new surroundings; and if being a deep closer is his game that means he'll need all the breaks in terms of traffic here.

Absolutely exploded home from far back to win the G3 Bourbon at KEE Oct. 7 and prior to that he broke his maiden easily at this trip at BEL Sept. 8; in other words, turf and this type of trip suit; no surprise he has talented as he's by 2-time HOY Curlin and cost a pretty penny ($725K), so you know there are expectations; the other nice thing about those last 2 wins is the versatility shown, something that could be critical here going just a mile with a short run to the first turn and a crowded field; Pletcher won this with Pluck in 2010.

AE ran 6th behind a few of these in KEE's G3 Bourbon but it's not as if he was beaten all that far (2 3/4 lengths) so he isn't out of his element here; best Beyer came the one time he ran this mile trip (80) when just a head behind today's foe Henley's Joy; that guy could be a player in here so doesn't the fact this guy finished just a head behind Joy in the KD Juvenile mean this guy could have a say, too?; darn tootin' it does.

AE rallied from far back to win the LRL Futurity in his first try on turf; that was on yielding turf, too, so if the rains persist and the footing isn't firm then this guy has already shown he can handle it; yes, that was 6fs so this marks his first route, but the way he finished that day hints this longer trip is by no means out of his reach. -Michael Hammersly

CLOSER LOOK: Overcame soft fractions to win going away in his first route attempt at Santa Anita; scheduled to add blinkers for this assignment but Mike Smith opts for the more experienced Well Defined; moderate workouts for this initial G1 test; this grey was a clear-cut second when beaten by Game Winner in August and that rival is one of the legitimate favorites in this event; rail advantage may enable him to land a share and he will be a decent price for a change.

Graduated at the course and distance but moderate fractions were the order of the day; seems certain he will have to deal with a much swifter pace that seems in store because of the stretchout sprinters in attendance; of great interest is the most recent breeze, a superior drill at five-eighths over a wet-fast surface; bonus points if that is the course condition at post time; his sire twice won the Breeders' Cup Dirt Mile and 3.04 million in career earnings; curious longshot.

Deceptive last try when losing to several of these same opponents at Keeneland in the G1 Breeders' Futurity; in that effort, he was burdened with a wide post before unleashing a decent middle move; draws a far more comfortable slot now and progressed in his most recent local half-mile breeze; had an excuse when losing to Mind Control in the G1 Hopeful at Saratoga; will be an appealing price on the board.

Experience over the course is a big plus factor in handicapping and this son of Tapit ran a brave race in defeat in the G3 Iroquois; in that performance, he was pressured throughout and lost only in the final stages to Cairo Cat who enjoyed a ground-saving journey for most of the running; a trouble-free start would help his cause today and the workout on the morning of 10/21 was superior; will offer square odds for a change.

Sports a perfect in-the-money record but his last route victory must be tempered somewhat by the very soft tempo; in a way, he was more impressive in the prior try when losing by a mere half-length after being pestered from the opening bell before losing to a rival who rallied cleanly from fifth position; newcomer to this course arrives with a competitive Beyer.

Set some swift splits, under a confident ride by Ortiz, before scoring in the G1 Champagne at Belmont (despite being on the wrong lead in mid-stretch); even though this colt is inexperienced to the 2-turn scene, he still must be respected because of the top-notch trainer at the controls; the sire in question is Maclean's Music who won his only start and 32K; the dam was unraced; kin to G3 victor Valadorna (669K in earnings).

Closed with a rush to capture third in the aforementioned Breeders' Futurity and the new headgear this afternoon may afford him a chance to get into the race at the early point; his sire is multiple champion Curlin who won 10.5 million; the dam won 1 of 14 and 47K; kin to 72K earner Plein Air; had to deal with horrendous post 13 in the last outing and that compromised his chances of running down the loose Knicks Go; should benefit by the quicker early pace expected this afternoon.

Undefeated, just like his exceptional sire, Candy Ride; this Baffert trainee appears to be the real deal because he has won in various ways up to now, including the last G1 score where he raced wide in a prolonged duel before opening up daylight in the final stages; may now use the inside speed types as target pacesetters before being cut loose; even intervals to the October workout regimen; obvious major danger if adapting to this soil.

Blew a fuse on the tote board at Keeneland when going wire-to-wire at 70-1; latest five-furlong breeze over that course was even faster than the one prior to the shocker; the trouble now is the wide draw and the numerous rivals to his inside who will also shoot for command; encore victory will not be easy to achieve.

Certainly would have been a lot closer to Complexity at the finish line last month if not for the stumbling beginning and rallying wide; breezed well thereafter and has Hall of Fame connections; the sire is multiple Group 1 winner Noble Mission (2.2 million in earnings); the dam won 5 of 10 appearances and 326K; winning siblings include 216K earner Big League; needs perfect timing by original rider Velazquez.

Considering the huge class leap, that was a commendable effort behind Game Winner last out in the G1 American Pharoah; drilled much faster than mate Dueling on 10/27; now must deal with a large field and a demanding post position; sharp a.m. move on 10/20 should help towards that end; requires perfectly timed middle move.

Arrives with low Beyers in comparison to the major players in the field and post 13 around 2 turns has never been a lucky one; did improve in workout activity during the last month and his sire, Bellamy Road, won the G1 Wood Memorial; inexperience in route racing is just another shortcoming; cannot endorse even with a Hall of Fame trainer at the controls.

He completed a huge exacta in the G1 Breeders' Futurity and ran well over this course back in May when rallying belatedly for the place in his first try; a couple of upbeat five-furlongs drills last month may help him advance to a decent stalking position during the middle stages of this affair; his sire won the G1 Blue Grass and 1.22 million. -Jim Kachulis

CLOSER LOOK: This is obviously a rare distance with maybe the San Juan Capistrano at Anita a similar fray but on grass; wonder what happened to this runner's tactical speed?; he was prominent early in his first couple of runs this year but then kind of dawdled in the last pair; hard to be overly optimistic about the local debut especially since he lines on scrimmage against some familiar foes.

If a speed play is up your alley, you could very well be looking at a gift horse here; he chased a major player in Saturday's Dirt Mile three back and it was nice to see this runner extend in his last 2 efforts; with five ideally spaced works since the last race, it looks like Baffert had the screwdriver out to tighten everything down; can't fault those that project a hat trick on the front end.

Proven locally but the victory came against $20K claimers; he has been a pretty nice claim for the potent Amoss and maybe he can get kind of a stalk and kick kind of a journey; he did have his shot to quicken 2 back in the 5-1 horse field and could not close the deal.

This colt punched his ticket to the Triple Crown mix last year with a desperate win in the Lexington; it's basically been nibble time since; fit enough to drill a couple of times since the last race but he also has Dollar Bill to deal with among others; hard to be overly positive here.

Don't discount this horse for the course; Grade 1 placed last year to the monster Gun Runner, this racer showed he belongs in his G2 win in the Bayou in April of 2017; if you figure he just was in need of a race last time, one can make a case for a jump ahead.

This pro has had a special career; he broke his maiden by a dozen, sizzled back in the day in the UAE Derby, and ran Bayern to a nose in the BC Classic in probably his best effort; one and done last year in the small field but considering the layoff, he came back with a nice prep locally; he's been right there in his career with the best in the business; his A game puts him in that same spot today.

Colt is coming off the career Beyer and it was a solid ride last time; Rosario sensed that he had to get into action and he went from last to first in one call; this distance should be of no concern and if the Baffert charge either is pushed early and just cannot sustain the speed for this demanding distance, this runner could be right in the mix of things. -Brian Mulligan
