A CLOSER LOOK

First Flight Cap

Dust Bucket

She was the only filly with late staying power against Classy Mirage Oct. 8; must deal with 7f specialist Chaposa Springs, who dusted her with energy to spare across the river last month; training well in Maryland and will save all the ground; exacta factor.

Igotrhythm

Although she is just a 3yo with 6 starts who recently left the NW3 allowance condition by only a neck, the California company was strong and she seems to be getting better; remember, at this time last year everyone on the West Coast was in a dither about Call Now, that she was supposed to be better than Serena's Song and ready for Flanders until an injury; Frankel gets her in light with Pat Day and for a 7f race, who could ask for anything more in an alternative to the favorites?

Lottsa Talc

Nice NY-bred mare ventures into tougher open company than in her August Monmouth win; nice record at this distance, but her company lines aren't as strong as several others; biggest money-earner in the field will nevertheless be a nice price over a track she likes and which suits her come-from-behind style.

Goldarama

Led after 7f in her recent one-mile win; habitually short-priced Florida horses deserve long look in NY; she was entered yesterday in a race with a $44,000 purse, theoretically an easier spot; ships in sharp, likes the distance, but may want an easy lead in order to give her best effort.

Chaposa Springs

Winner at 3 different racetracks since April and 5 different tracks this year; Beyer boys will love the triple-digit numbers in her last 2 starts, and her recent workouts over the Calder track have kept her fit and ready; beat Dust Bucket and Classy Mirage in her last start and was flattered when Classy Mirage came back to win an $80k stakes race; never out of the exacta at today's distance; big threat.

Twist Afleet

Her season was as underwhelming as an 8-for-10 filly's can be until the bust-out Floral Park; but she had everything her way that day in a race against allowance horses and other suspect fillies; her 7f win this year was accomplished at equal weights, but now she must lug 121 around vs. multiple stakes winner Chaposa Springs; obvious contender, but no lock to want today's 7th furlong.

Salta's Pride

Based on her overall record, the best way for her to get 7f is straight down from a helicopter; her last 3 wins were either in shorter sprints, or as lone speed over sloppy track, or as the rail horse and main-speed at Fairplex, where outside horses have no shot; adds to the pace equation but her role is similar to a pace car's and the pace car usually gives way.

A CLOSER LOOK

Juvenile Fillies

Cara Rafaela

Lukas' history in this race: 25 starters, 3 wins, 3 2nds, 3 3rds; every time Lukas has won the Juvenile Fillies, he also has sent out the 2nd-place finisher; most recent example is Flanders-Serena's Song running 1-2 last year; this filly once was described as high-strung and immature by Lukas, but she's getting her act together; made a bold 4-wide challenge in the Matron after smashing through the gate; drifted out for several strides nearing the sixteenth marker in the Alcibiades; although 4 of her foes have exceeded 90 on the Beyer scale, wouldn't be shocked to see her in any of the 3 trifecta slots.

Mystic Rhythms

Never has raced beyond 7 furlongs, but her Dosage Index of 2.56 suggests she's bred to go at least this far; she's the last horse to beat Oak Leaf winner Tipically Irish; wired allowance field that included Tipically Irish, but came from off pace in her stakes wins; upgrade slightly if track is other than fast; every runner to make the exacta in this race during the '90s has shown at least one Beyer above 85; prefer faster opponents.

Golden Attraction

Perfectly fits the profile of each winner of this race so far in the '90s: best last-race Beyer in the field, a victory in a G1 or G2 race going into the Cup and a last-race Beyer that exceeds each of her previous figures; the Spinaway-Matron-Frizette path was a yellow brick road for Juvenile Fillies winners such as Meadow Star ('90) and Flanders; been successful setting or pressing pace, giving Stevens options; lone defeat came on a sloppy track; thus rain would be a concern even though she's bred to cope with off tracks; already has defeated each of the major contenders in this race at least once; tote quirk: all 5 favorites sent off at 6-5 or less in this race have won, but none of the 6 going off at odds exceeding 6-5 has finished better than 3rd; queen of the division has made a habit of winning tough battles; imposing.

Ocean View

Doesn't look that bad for a one-time winner; $160,000 yearling performed quite well in Oak Leaf stretch run; enough speed to get striking position after 6 furlongs; half-sis to $574,818 earner Jacksonport; 2yo fillies who made their previous start in California, then shipped to either NY or Florida for the Breeders' Cup have a dismal record: all 9 finished 6th or worse, despite that stat, she's not the worst spreading-in-exotics play in the world if odds are in teens or higher.

Gulch, winner of Ky. Derby and Belmont; this filly was sold for $5,000 as a yearling, then purchased by Tabor following her first race; granted, a couple of one-time winners finished 2-3 in the Oak Leaf, but Tipically Irish pressed odds-on Batroyale (a 2-time Grade 2 winner) and put her away; Smith takes off 2 others to ride her; the previous 4 Oak Leaf winners have accounted for 2 wins and a 2nd in this event; gives Team Lukas a 3rd legitimate contender.

Flat Fleet Feet

Super Saratoga season; if you average the 2 best Beyers for each entrant, she comes out on top; problem is, the figures have declined since the huge maiden score; fact she was distant 3rd in Frizette is a negative, as 19 of the last 20 runners to finish first or 2nd in this event were first or 2nd in their previous start; Smith wrapped up on her late in the Frizette; didn't show she could get the distance, but 2.50 Dosage Index offers hope; some exotics appeal if not among top 4 betting choices.

La Rosa

First offspring of 2 BC winners to compete in the Cup; crushed in the Matron after attempting to wheel at the start and Zito said she later "tried to jump the fence"; big allowance win in the slop with first-time Lasix; not crazy about her if track is fast, as several others have class and/or figure edge; for her, the wetter, the better.

Gastronomical

Jones is among the best Southern California-based trainers with 2yos; improved with added distance, as one would expect from runner with 1.24 Dosage Index; Jones contends she likes this track; has fewest starts in the field and perhaps the most room to develop; reasonable to expect some improvement, but prefer others.

My Flag

Has lost to Golden Attraction 3 times, but finally got close in the Frizette; great pedigree, as she's a half to $967,170 earner Miner's Mark and $268,626 earner Our Emblem; last race was a huge jump forward; a key issue is whether she can avoid regressing to previous, less-exciting form; wish she had more speed – in last 2 years at Belmont, only 16% of winners at this distance have been more than 3 lengths off the pace after 6 furlongs; on the plus side, off-pace runners have fared well in the Juvenile Fillies; Shug-Phipps-Bailey team, big last-race Beyer should attract money; the more intense the pace battle is in front of her, the better her chances become; ultra-tricky call.

–Mart Koivastik

A CLOSER LOOK
Sprint

Golden Gear
One of many a solid case can be made for; consistent, can carry the weight, proven from the rail sprinting via victories in the Teleprompter and Phoenix; stylewise fits the Sprint profile fairly well as a track-and-blast type who figures 3-4 lengths in back of the expected quick pace; sure looks good from where we sit, and he was only a length in arrears in the seemingly key Vosburgh, an absolute monster over modest foes in the sloppy Phoenix; could offer some wagering value as he won't be one of the top 3 or 4 selections, and only looks more playable if Belmont were to come up sloppy; no knocks, but is he as strong as this race's major players? will he be able to avoid traffic troubles in bulky field? food for thought.

Classy Mirage
Hard not to extoll her virtues, we all know this is one classy femme; but her recent sprints just haven't been that great, and from a pace standpoint she's nowhere near as quick as Track Gal with a real probability of getting shuffled back in the cavalry charge to the far turn; yes, she owns a great local record, a strong record for the distance, but she just doesn't look particularly playable in affair where others are faster early, faster late, and in sharper form at the present.

Owington
Part of the foreign contingent and certainly a capable sprinter in his own right; Timeform has been rather impressed with this guy, giving him a 123 rating while calling him 'leggy, attractive and a very smart performer'; runner is believed to be 'effective at 5 to 6 1/2 furlongs and acts on firm to dead surfaces'; run well 'when sweating'; but he has limited appeal as part of the mutuel field, and he was sans excuse behind Lake Coniston in the July Cup, had 'every chance' when 3rd in the Haydock Park Sprint Cup; others will look more playable.

Not Surprising

Hard not to be impressed with his Vosburgh score as he raced on the lead through the stretch, held 'em all off in a cavalry charge finish that saw 4 lengths from 1st to 12th; hmmm...maybe the Vosburgh was a weak race? possibly, and the fractions weren't anything awe-inspiring as the half actually went in nearly :45, the last eighth in :13; but the event has proven key with Top Account returning for a 1st in a local mile allowance, Dumaani a 1st in the Keeneland BC at a mile on turf, Lite the Fuse and Waldoboro a 2nd and 4th, respectively, in the Boojum, Golden Tent a 3rd in the Laurel Maryland Million and Golden Gear a 1st in the Phoenix at Keeneland; value then comes into play as this guy could be low odds, maybe even the chalk, and a short price hasn't been the way to play in the Sprint with only 2 favorites (Cherokee Run last year, Eillo in 1984) prevailing — and this guy has no real advantage over the bulk of these that we can see.

Desert Stormer

Nice mare, real nice; but she couldn't handle Track Gal at Del Mar, faced some good, but not great, gals through most of her career; quick, though, could add to the heated pace, but is she a factor during crunch time with the boys coming from all corners? seems very doubtful, unless the pace comes up soft and speed is king for the day.

Lit de Justice

Highly talented sort has been his own worst enemy at times, and Californians know he can be great on his day, nowhere to be seen if in an eccentric mood; absolutely awesome in victory at Del Mar on albeit a very fast surface, but what happened in the Vosburgh, though? he bled, and understandably didn't do much running; what hoss shows up this time? hard to say, but the ability is there, and don't be shocked if he finds his way into the exotics—at a price not helped by inclusion in the mutuel field.

Friendly Lover

Beyerwise certainly in the hunt with these and hard to downgrade his performances in the Philly Bud BC and Boojum; a smidge of concern comes via his age, though, as 7 of the 11 prior Sprint winners were 4-year-olds (yes, we do remember that Cardmania was 7 when winning the 1993 version at Santa Anita); pacewise we have a problem with this guy as well as he's pretty much a closing type who could get in real traffic trouble in bulky field – and the pace profile of the sprint has been heavy on those able to be within 2 lengths at the half; all in all, he's a threat regardless, but prefer others with up-close capabilities.

Da Hoss

A bit surprised this guy is in here, but sprint-speed types with stamina such as Precisionist, Gulch and Dancing Spree have won the Sprint; hard to gauge this one's effort in the Pegasus as the track was a sea of slop, yet with a hard top; Beyerwise, this guy is in the hunt with these, but he's seemingly in a very tough spot while facing his elders for the first time.

You And I

Many were extremely impressed with his narrow loss in the Vosburgh as runner dueled throughout, held tough in a nose loss; huge post switch to consider and runner exudes class, scored this year in G1s and G2s; fits the Sprint profile of having enough rest (45 days has been the average), having enough speed to be up close and personal; add to this guy's arsenal a Hall of Fame trainer, regular jock at the helm, and a sprightly drill from 3 days ago; pacewise can certainly see this one in the 'garden spot' the last eighth; obviously a big threat, yet at a price not all that conducive to Sprint success in the past.

Our Emblem

Those who saw the Vosburgh remember this guy holding up the start for many minutes, and trainer has said the antics haven't cropped up since; colt only lost by a head, endured an overland trip as well; worried about the declining Beyers? maybe you shouldn't be concerned as last year Cherokee Run had a 112 in the A Phenomenon, then a 105 in the Vosburgh, prior to his 114 in victory at Churchill Downs; pacewise, though, therein could be the problem as runner has no speed, figures well back of the pace with plenty of traffic congestion heading into the last eighth – and 7 furlongs has been this guy's best distance, not 6; your call from there.

Hever Golf Rose

Timeform rates her at a lofty 120, calls her 'small, strong, good topped with quick action'; filly has won in 5 different countries, is 'effective from 5 furlongs and should stay to 7 furlongs, probably on any going'; she's 'tough, game, genuine' and obviously on top of her game with a 4-race win streak in tow – and her last score came over Cherokee Rose in the Prix de l'Abbaye (the same route taken by Sheikh Albadou in his victorious 1991 Sprint); not much speed in this one's corner, though, and foreigners in general haven't done all that well in this dance with Sheikh Albadou's win and Dayjur's 1990 runner-up the best of the 20 overseas sorts that have raced in the Sprint; classy lass thus must be considered iffy despite her lofty reputation.

Mr. Greeley

Threw a shoe in the Kentucky Cup Sprint, so toss the race; colt can certainly fire a huge shot at times, has the speed to be up close early in affair known for its up-front success; but this guy just hasn't had much oomph the last eighth since late April of this year and could find himself in a chase mode if Track Gal zings to the lead – as expected; colt is also facing his elders for the first time and might be more comfortable at 7 furlongs despite his 6-furlong success in late 1994, earlier this year; chance regardless via his speed, but must admit others intrigue much more.

Track Gal

Give her a long, long look as she actually outsped Lucky Forever and Forest Gazelle early and late in the Ancient Title, and they are arguably the 2 fastest in the country for a quarter-mile – and Siphon is no slouch either (check and see how he did in Friday's Sport Page); precedent in her favor as she's fast – very fast – with a turn of foot that should put her into the lead before heading into far turn; and distaffers have done well in this race in the very recent past with Meafara a front-running runner-up in 1992, a front-running narrow loser in 1993, and Soviet Problem an up-close throughout head loser last year—and don't forget Very Subtle's wire-to-wire job in 1987; true, filly hasn't tried this track, but the home course angle hasn't worked all that well with the Sprint overall although prior local 1990 Sprint winner Safely Kept (gee, another distaffer) had won the local Genuine Risk in both 1990 and 1989 and had raced in the 1990 local Boojum prior to victory; trainer Sadler has had great success with sprinters, started speedball Olympic Prospect twice in the Sprint (in 1988 and 1989) with that one on top of the pace both times until very late in the game; no real overall Beyer advantage for this gal, but her figs fit, her Sprint angles fit, her speed fits, her jock fits – all enough to possibly fit this gal right into the winner's circle.

Lake Coniston

Monstrous credentials, Timeform pegs him at 136 and calls him 'strong, rangy and best at 6 furlongs over good ground' 'tough and genuine' and 'dominated' the July Cup while on the lead throughout; admittedly no excuses for the 4th in the Haydock Park Sprint and have already mentioned the lack of major success in the past by the foreign forces in the Sprint; but he's been trained specifically with this race in mind, could easily bounce back and be a huge threat; but are we endorsing an actual non-speed type from Post 14 with question marks attached? not exactly.

A CLOSER LOOK

Distaff

Inside Information

Heavenly Prize's stablemate (they are coupled) is considered the 2nd string by some, but her Beyers are just as good and her sheet figures are actually better; loves this track, but isn't as dominant at this distance; never off the board in 16 starts (quite an accomplishment) and she gamely won the Spinster over a track she may not have liked; style suits, has the Beyers and the Spinster has produced 6 Distaff winners; concerns are her breaking with the rest of the field as she's had trouble in 2 of her last 3 and it cost her in the Ballerina – doubt she can spot this ultra tough field any lengths and still win; would not be surprised if the 2nd team beat the first team and the rest of the bunch, too.

Lakeway

Couldn't have looked more dull than she did last time; how could she be dueling on a :45 half in previous effort and off the pace next out with the half in :48? can't like those front wraps added and she just never really seemed to try at all; from a Beyer perspective she isn't the same horse she was last year; continues to work great and connections say she's going to show the speed she showed in the Chula Vista which means a duel with Mariah's Storm, Serena's Song, Inside Information and co. is likely; doesn't meet the 105 Beyer criteria as every Distaff winner has Beyered at least a 105 at some point during the year; a pace factor, and that's probably it.

Vinista

Seemingly her only prayer is if the track is off but note that Mariah's Storm, Serena's Song, and Inside Information have also handled wet tracks; does not figure on the Beyer criteria and her 2 best recent Beyers have come on wet tracks; note her wins on wet tracks have been on the lead and the 3 mentioned above all seem quicker; Mott is having a great year, as is Bailey, but this gal has tried the big gals from coast to coast and failed; doesn't seem to like this distance; if it's wet, then she could perhaps hit the board, but if it's dry, well...

Forested

Doesn't seem to have a prayer; not only are her Beyers light years from the big girls', she seems to need to be on or very close to the pace and several others appear quicker; doesn't seem to want any part of this distance and has been crushed every time she's taken on the big gals; pass.

Borodislew

Not often you'll get 10-1 or so on a horse that has the best-last-race Beyer; mare is a perfect 4-for-4 since joining Inda; Inda, the former No. 2 man in the Ron McAnally camp, started training on his own this summer and is winning over at 40%, with an awesome 8 for 12 mark in main-track routes (67%); mare has enough speed (never been farther back than a half-length at the 6f call) to keep everyone close; concerns are she's never gone this far and many thought she was just a sprinter (although bred to get the trip); that Beyer is a career high, so she may regress; also, she's never tested this track and the only time she shipped, she got killed by Heavenly Prize (Apple Blossom); conflicting information.

Serena's Song

What can you say about her? proven a great filly;,never misses a dance and every time you think maybe she's finally had enough, she just goes out there and wins; got away with very easy splits when holding off Heavenly Prize, but that's not going to be the case today; loves this track and distance; no one is hotter than either Lukas or Stevens; has several Beyers that are good enough to win this; looking for her to rate? well, we don't think so as she's never been farther back that 1 1/2 lengths off the lead and still won and that was against a very soft field in the Black-Eyed Susan; if someone happens to beat her they'll know they were in a fight.

Mariah's Storm

Crushed Serena's Song at Turfway earning the best overall Beyer of anyone in the field; back in 2 weeks she almost had to regress and she did as she never made the lead and got thumped by Inside Information in a dull effort; however, that Keeneland track can be quirky (remember Thunder Gulch ran poorly in the Blue Grass before winning the Ky Derby); never been more than a length off the lead and still won so you know she's got to show speed; questions are her ability over this track and can she come close to that Turfway race, which she still may be recovering from? never off the board at this trip and expect connections are going to make sure she's on or very close to the lead this time; anything close to that Turfway effort wins this and her style fits the prevailing winning track profile as 65% of winners at this distance here have either lead or been within a length of the lead at the 6-furlong call starting from the May 1994 meet to Oct. 11, 1995 (stats that are quoted throughout); maybe.

PHILLIPS RACING NEWSLETTER

STRIKES A GUSHER WITH THE NEW DROP IN METHOD . . .

From time to time, Phillips Racing Newsletter introduces new methods to help our readers with their handicapping. In the October issue of PRN, we have just such a method called the Drop In Method. This method was actually written by a Texas oil-man who is a longtime PRN subscriber. He says he likes to "drop in" at several different mid-western racetracks and make a few quick, winning bets before departing. It's very easy to use, and this Texas gentleman reports good success with the Drop In Method. He considered selling it nationally, but kindly decided to share it with his fellow PRN subscribers instead. So please subscribe to Phillips Racing Newsletter today, and you'll receive the new Drop In Method exclusively in our October issue for free!

Phillips Racing Newsletter is published monthly and covers all aspects of horse-racing and handicapping as we review and rate (on a 1-10 scale) most of the new methods, books, and computer software offered to the public. We've been doing this for over 20 years, and our completely unbiased reports (we've never accepted any paid advertising) are considered the "consumer's guide" to thoroughbred racing.

Here's our current special offer to all new subscribers:

1. You get 7 issues of PRN for the usual cost of 6 (regularly $6 each).
2. And you get our valuable 90's Master Index, which lists and rates everything we've reviewed this decade, literally hundreds of items (regularly $10 each).
3. Total value is $52, but our current special discount price is just $45, and you'll get the new Drop In Method, too!

All orders are filled immediately by first-class mail. Please send check or money order to:

E.O. PHILLIPS CO., P.O. BOX 5817, AUBURN, CA 95604-5817

Heavenly Prize

If you could have a dollar for every time someone tells you this race sets up perfectly for her, you'd make more money than this Shug-Phipps entry is going to pay if it wins; never worse than 2nd in 7 tries here, never worse than 2nd in 5 tries at this trip; vulnerable to lone-F speed; however, there appears to be a ton of speed signed up so that should not be of concern; what is of concern is a winning track profile that's not favorable to closers (less than 8% winners have been 3 or more lengths back at the 6-furlong call); it's possible with all that speed she could be more than 3 lengths back at 6f, but looking at her PPs she's shown an ability to be right there at that call, too; recent Beyers are just average and she doesn't hold any kind of Beyer edge; interesting Lasix was added for last; the one everyone will have to hold off late.

Golden Klair

Optimists will note those Beyers have improved with each start and that she had an excuse in last as she hates Anita; also, they'll note she's a closer in a speed-laden race, but check the stats: less the 8% of the winners at this distance were 3 lengths or more behind the leader at the 6f call; does not figure on the Beyer criteria; could run on late and keep your show parlay going, but that's probably it.

Top Rung

Glen Hill Farm is hoping lightning will strike twice as they sent out One Dreamer to upset last year's Distaff. ($96.20); filly meets the Beyer criteria thanks to that effort in the Lady's Secret, but she could also regress since it's a career-best figure; never won at this trip or shipped outside SoCal; also note she's actually lost ground on the winner in the stretch in her last 5 starts; another reason for that big race may be that she's a Anita horse for course; her style of being 1 to 3 lengths off the leader at the 6-furlong call has produced 27% winners; got a great trip in the Chula Vista and failed and now meets tougher and we just can't see her getting the job done.

A CLOSER LOOK

Mile

Poplar Bluff

Inside posts have had the best of it in the Mile – posts 1-6 have accounted for 23 of the 33 placings; when Royal Academy won the '90 Mile here, he did it from this post; 3 of his 4 wins came on soft going, so connections probably say, let the rains come; fairly fresh after a summer break, certainly sharp with 2 French wins; rated a nice 121 by those Timeform guys; never on a left-handed course, and European sprinters have had better luck in the Mile than European milers...maybe having a bit more speed helps; can't eliminate.

Ridgewood Pearl

Timeform dudes rate her at 128p, making her the top-ranked European in here; certainly no way to knock her record as she won 5 of her last 6, and last time, when 2nd, she ran into a runner who relished the yielding turf; downside is that the European milers haven't shown the nimbleness to handle American courses (Warning, Zilzal, Milligram, Rousillon, Lear Fan, Sonic Lady, etc.) while Europe's sprinters have excelled (Royal Academy, Last Tycoon, etc.); Timeform says she'll act on any ground calling her "...strong, lengthy, most imposing filly: has a powerful action...a high-class filly who may very well be capable of even better...", that last part is kind of scary; have to think anybody who wins this has to go through her.

Soviet Line

Has more going for him than just his lofty 126 Timeform rating; at first you may be concerned about his style (falling way back, rallying), but in spite of what you may think wins the Mile, despite traffic concerns and wide trips, except for. Lure it's been the horse who's made the late run; in fact, Lure's the only Mile winner to have the lead by the quarter pole, and only he, Barathea and Opening Verse even had the lead at the eighth pole; 'Pearl whipped him pretty good in the QE II, but this guy hadn't run in a while; Stoute's a great trainer, but his BC record is 13 starts, 0 wins with just 2 2nds; mixed signals.

The Vid

Worried about the layoff? He won after a couple months off last year; worried about the distance? He's 2 for 4 at a mile; worried about his class? Able to beat the likes of Blues Traveller, finished ahead of Tinners Way, Lassigny and Northern Spur in the 'Million; a quality animal, with a great draw and a great trainer; only bad races this year came when he was severely troubled in the Caesars then stumbled badly in the Daryl's Joy; scary indeed.

Dove Hunt

Looked ready to take up the mantle as the top U.S. miler, but he could not handle the boggy conditions last time; can handle soft turf, but if the rains come and it's a marsh again, then he could be in trouble; otherwise he fits beautifully – has the perfect style, a great late gear; plenty of class, a win over the course, and this is his distance; Day is the perfect complement to him; every winner of the Mile was coming in off a big race except Cozzene who ran 6th in the Cliff Hanger, but that year the 'Hanger was forced off the turf due to rains; believers will get a much better price than they would have if he'd won the Kelso, so maybe you ought to view that as a blessing in disguise, because he's capable of becoming the 2nd exception to the sharp-race angle...as long as the turf isn't too soft.

Fourstars Allstar

A grand career, and remember he gave Lure more than a bit of a scare in the Mile a couple years ago; best stuff has come on firm/hard turf – he's probably in trouble in that regard; also, declining figures and form don't bode well for him; can't totally eliminate him as he's jumped up before when written off, but the hurdles look more significant for him this time around...which is too bad, because a win would really be a nice way to send him off to life at stud.

Savinio

Hmmm...was anybody else in the country good enough to beat both Romarin and River Flyer going a mile when they were in peak form in the spring? don't think so; and look at those Beyers – he's just below what usually wins this, and his figs certainly match up well with anyone in here; can fire fresh; for those of you who don't know about Walter Greenman, he's a great trainer out west; has the right style, working brilliantly; ignore at your own risk.

Cherokee Rose

While Ridgewood Pearl may come in with the most imposing Timeform rating and record, this is probably the European to fear most; looks so much like other European Mile winners it's scary; first of all, Timeform rates her just under 'Pearl, at 126+, so she's no slouch; as stated before, European sprinters have been the ones to excel going a mile here, and she looks just like Royal Academy and Last Tycoon – ran great in a sprint prep, behind Europe's top sprinter (Royal Academy lost to Dayjur; Last Tycoon won the William Hill Sprint; this one chased Hever Golf Rose, and was flying in the lane); reportedly been pointed for this since summer, and she's run on left-handed courses before; comes here sharp, on the rise, and this Hammond guy certainly knows how to ship to run well in the U.S. (i.e. Dear Doctor, Kaldounevees); imposing.

Shaanxi

Proved in the Rond-Point that if it rains, so be it, it won't bother her; gave Ridgewood Pearl a significant scare in the Moulin, so on her best day she's capable of going with the best; to give you an idea how competitive the European contingent is, here's another with a strong 126 Timeform rating; and of course the Europeans have done just fine in the Mile winning 5 of the 11 editions – and the record looks even better when you note it took Lure to win twice, Opening Verse had raced in Europe, so had Royal Heroine and Steinlen, so European influence has actually accounted for 8 of the 11 Miles; Lellouche hasn't had much success shipping for the BC – 5 starters, all off the board; still wouldn't be too quick to draw a line through her.

Earl of Barking

Looks like May 29 was his big day in the sun; he's a nice horse, but on most days if he's facing this kind of competition he's going to find somebody a bit too tough for him; style is crucial – he needs to be sitting off a slow pace, then try to outkick them all late, very much like a European race; downside is that he faces others who have that as a strength, and who are probably better at it; gives the field entry a little depth, and on his best day, like May 29 when he beat Sandpit and Savinio on the square, he's capable of making some noise in the lane...just unlikely.

Obviously his last shows if he gets his kind of course, well, anything's possible; still a difficult read – a feast-or-famine type with 7 wins, no 2nds or 3rds, so if he fires his shot, beware; post won't help matters, but he showed last time, winning despite breaking 14th, that he can overcome hurdles on a course he likes; obviously Eddie D.'s a perfect fit; continues to work well, sorry, no 65-1 this time, and, as the old saying goes, if you didn't go to the wedding, don't go to the funeral.

Hasn't done particularly well when shipping, though she handled a left-handed course nicely in Japan last year; only one win in last 2 years, though in May she gave Cherokee Rose quite a scare, but 'Rose is probably considerably better now than she was in May; won the G1 Sussex over Bahri, who won the G1 QE II over Ridgewood Pearl and chased Halling, so on her best day she's still a threat, and the Timeform boys still give her a heady 126 rating; but with the Europeans being rated so closely, her lousy post may give them the edge.

Won 3 of her last 4, with the loss coming at 6f over soft turf; Ridgewood Pearl beat her up pretty good in the late spring; able to win when moved in against G2 or G3 company, but these guys may be a bit too much; still ranked a nice 121 by Timeform; trainer Hern is certainly owed one here, however, after losing the Sprint with Dayjur here in '90.

Sahadi has done a great job with him, but there are still nagging questions; beat allowance horses at Hollywood, then beat a Romarin who was over the top and a Northern Spur at a trip too short for 'Spur when 'Spur was prepping for the Million; they keep talking about how great he runs fresh, and he showed that in the Kelso over a course he wasn't supposed to like, but does that now take away from him since he does not come into this off a layoff? at least continues to work well, but he's got a terrible post and doesn't really come into this with enough of a speed-figure advantage to negate the post; a nice horse, but he's got his work cut out for him.

A CLOSER LOOK
Juvenile

Appealing Skier

Has some things going against him, as he's one of only 2 horses in this field who've never been at least a mile, and only one horse has ever won this race coming off a sprint prep race (Gilded Time '92); also, only Arazi has won this race after breaking his maiden somewhere other than NY or Cal.; on the other hand, he's one of a few of the horses in this field with a graded win, and he continues to workout well; Perkins is having a great summer/ fall in NJ; 3 horses have won this race wire-to-wire (Capote '86, Success Express '87, and Is It True '88); consider.

Winter Quarters

Something of an unknown quantity as he makes both his U.S. and dirt track debut; Arazi overcame all that in '91, however; bred for turf, too, and his dam has produced 4 minor winners to date, including a full sister, who won on the grass only; now trained by Hall of Famer Bobby Frankel, and gets first time Lasix, but this looks like a tough assignment.

Editor's Note

Lukas has had nothing but great things to say about his 3 entrants in this race all week; $125k Keeneland yearling buy has come to life in his last 3 races, and is one of only 2 who owns a graded win at this distance (Honour And Glory); lost to a couple of these horses last time, after breaking slowly, but we're guessing he can turn the tables on those horses with a good trip; was within striking distance at the top of the stretch in both races so far at this distance; dangerous.

Exetera

California shipper is tough to ignore based on his $625k price tag as a yearling and off that sharp race last time out when stretched out and given Lasix; if all that isn't enough to grab one's attention, Angel Cordero picks up the mount; brother to major stakes winners Paper Princess, Sea Cadet, and On Target; seems a late runner and that sort of rallying style has not been paying off in the prior runnings of this race; closers have needed to be close-up at the top of the stretch, and that might be a lot to ask this horse vs. these; one to watch, but this might not be his day.

Sampras
The Juvenile has been one of the most formful of the 7 Breeders' Cup races to date, and has not been kind to longshots such as this horse figures to be; broke his maiden via DQ against an average maiden field at Turfway; has an uphill battle against these.

Diligence
Just a $6k buy as a yearling, but no doubt established as one of the big boys off his 11-length maiden win and near-misses against Editor's Note and Maria's Mon; handled the stretchout last time like he was born to do it; Zito 2yos often get better late in the year; has speed, and should get a good position, within striking distance coming into the stretch; earned the best finish of the horses in this who are exiting the Champagne; major factor.

Another Callejas/Perez import from Panama; that trainer-owner combo have more recently become synonymous with entering these Panama horses far over their heads in major stakes, only to get creamed by the real contenders; this horse seems no different; from a dam that hasn't produced any stakes winners; ran in just 2 sprints to date, against fields inferior to this one; longshot.

Unbridled's Song
Lived up to the hype with an 8-plus-length win at Saratoga; questions were raised when he scratched out of several races before and after that maiden win, but he came back with an eye-popping show of speed in the G1-Champagne, and still managed to hold on gamely for 4th, ahead of Hennessy; $200k yearling buy has continued to drill like a champ; may be able to ration his speed a bit better today, and should benefit from his first route try; has raced only twice, but Brocco won this race under similar circumstances in 1993; seems to have unlimited potential; huge threat.

"Every racegoer should know the principles contained in the Trainer's Edge video. I know that if my horse fits the Trainer's Edge profile, he will run well." — Laffit Pincay, jockey

"An excellent video. Now every fan has the fundamentals at his disposal that top trainers use when handicapping races." — Charlie Whittingham, Hall of Fame trainer

"The Trainer's Edge is one of the most informative videos on horse racing I've ever seen" — Jack Van Berg, Hall of Fame trainer

You can now learn all about winning from the people who know the most about it: the trainers and jockeys. THE TRAINER'S EDGE videotape shows the body language signals that the top trainers and jockeys look for to tell whether their own horses are capable of winning today, regardless of what the odds say. Find out how to spot the difference between a false favorite and a ready longshot. Special in-depth trainer analysis of post parade, paddock & warm-ups; bonus: How to Play the "Trifecta". This is information that trainers have never revealed in any (to our knowledge) racing video. No guess work. Just the plain facts of how trainer's can "read" a horse to determine if he's ready. With THE TRAINER'S EDGE, you can have this advantage too. Get THE TRAINER'S EDGE today, you can't afford to be without it!

Blushing Jim

Shown a dramatic turn-around since adding Lasix 2 races ago; against him, however, are 1) needs to make up 5 lengths on Honour And Glory, who beat him last time; 2) tough task from a pace standpoint, against other speed again today after tiring last time following a battle for the lead; and 3) needed 5 tries to break his maiden, and no horse has ever won this race after taking more than 3 starts to graduate; leaning toward others.

Odyle

Despite that big improvement last time one thing stands out – he's a maiden; half to $631k earner Dixieland Band obviously has some talent, beating the likes of Exetera and Editor's Note last time, with trouble, but it's tough to see him repeating that performance against these; no maiden has won this race, and while this horse might be something special, we prefer to wait till later.

Hennessy

With a victory today, the Eclipse is probably his; however, he must pass this test to claim that honor, and that is questionable following a disappointing effort in the G1-Champagne; failed his first route test, and must turn the tables on 2 horses who beat him last time; a very tough horse to ignore based on all he's done, but he hasn't won since back on Aug. 27, and Gary ends up on Honour and Glory; $500k Keeneland purchase may be back on track with sharp workouts; also could be he needed his last (his first in 6 weeks) and was running on the worst part of the track; could be he'll be back on his game, but can't blame those who take a stand against him.

Seacliff

Undefeated, and the leading money earner in the field; it's easy to question the quality of the competition he's faced, but can't question his sharp speed or good form; Beyers aren't as high as some of these others, and except for Arazi, all Juvenile winners were NY or California raced; aside from that, it's difficult to knock this horse, especially with that win at this distance in his last race; dangerous.

Honour And Glory

One of just 2 in here with a graded win at this distance; got back on track last time after taking almost 2 months to return from his huge maiden win; from the most prominent trainer in the short history of this race, D. Wayne Lukas, who's won 4 Juveniles including last year with Timber Country; still improving, with just 3 races under his belt; $125k yearling buy keeps Stevens, who had also been riding Hennessy; has sharp speed, and showed another gear in the stretch last time after briefly losing the lead; enormously talented; the horse to beat.

A CLOSER LOOK

Turf

Awad

Most fans likely willing to toss the dull try in the Turf Classic; after all, this is the Early Times Manhattan and Arlington Million winner; closer to the front than usual in the Turf Classic, due to the slow fractions, and this guy wants no part of the first group as he is strictly a closer; due to the 7th-place finish in the Turf Classic the history of past winners of the Turf is against him as no Turf winner has run worse than 5th in their previous start; has the ability to buck that trend as from a Beyer figure point of view is one of the stronger runners among the field with 7 straight 100-plus efforts prior to the last start; while capable when at his best, the Turf Classic suggests he may not be entering the Turf at the top of his game.

Carnegie

Arc winner in '94 beat both Northern Spur and Hernando last year but has not been the same force in '95; enters with a "bounce" pattern in tow as ran big to win straight off the bench 2 back only to fail to menace coming back in the Arc; no match for Freedom Cry in the Arc and has that foe, also trained by Fabre, to beat once again; Fabre won this event with In The Wings at Belmont back in '90 but if going to win the Turf last year, it figures to be with Freedom Cry; Carnegie does move forward considerably with soft ground; Timeform rating: 126.

Talloires

Would love to be collecting the frequent flier miles with this guy as has travelled from California to Brazil, on to Canada and now to New York since July; possibly a short horse for the Rothmans as was asked to go 12fs following a 2 month respite; encouraged he was able to compete in the Rothmans as that is an indication the trip to Brazil did not knock him out; stalker consistently gets a favorable trip but note the last 2 wins came vs. allowance foes; also light in the area of Beyer figs; average winning Beyer number for the Turf is 112 and he has not displayed the ability to earn that strong of a figure; trained by Mandella who won this event with a favored Kotashaan in '93.

Freedom Cry

Beaten 3/4s of length for all the money by Lammtarra in the Arc, missed by a nose to Pentire 2 back and was beaten by only Hernando 3 back; Lammtarra would be an odds-on here, Pentire would be highly regarded and Hernando is the possible favorite; all that means is that Freedom Cry must be considered especially knowing he came back to beat Hernando in the Guinness Champion Stakes 2 back; handles both firm and soft going which is partly responsible for the 9 exacta finishes in 11 career starts; owns the highest time-form rating of the Europeans in the race with a 132 and hails from the Fabre barn which has experienced success in this race; main concern is the Arc being the goal all along, hinting he could be over the top whioh has not been an unusual occurrence for past European horses coming out of the Arc into the Turf; still must consider for completion of the exacta if not the win.

Flitch

Lashkari, Manila, Prized and Tikkanen were all 3yos when they won the Turf; has some things in common with last year's winner Tikkanen; like Tikkanen, Flitch is coming off a win going 12fs on the grass and like Tikkanen it was his first win at the distance; another similarity will be the jockey as Mike Smith, who won this race for the first time with Tikkanen, will be aboard; on the downside, Tikkanen beat a G1 field of older horses and earned a Beyer figure of 112, the average winning number for the Turf, in his prep while Flitch beat a G3 field restricted to 3yos; nice horse but may be in over his head.

Alice Springs

Untested at 12fs and wondering if the strong finishing kick will be there; unable to mount the same late rush going 10fs last out that she turned in going a 1 3/16 miles in the Beverly D.; sure we are splitting hairs but the margin of victory in 10 of the 11 Turf runnings has been less than a half length; fillies have been successful in this race with Pebbles and Miss Alleged both winning; put off by the lack of a win from since leaving Fla. and also put off by the fact she is taking on the best competition the thoroughbred world has to offer in her first try at this trip.

Lando

German champion and 4th finisher in the Arc is a legitimate 12f horse with 6 wins at this distance; now the bad part; beaten 3 1/2 lengths for 2nd money in the Arc by Freedom Cry and must find a way to make up the ground on that rival; also no match for Carnegie and Hernando when brought to France for the '94 running of the Arc; trend here is the winning has been done in Germany and Italy and not against G1 runners in France and England; faces not only the best those 2 countries have to offer but also must contend with top U. S. runners; Timeform rating: 127.

Hernando

Figures to vie for the favorite's role with Freedom Cry; favorites have fared well in the Turf winning 4 of the first 11 runnings; no match for Freedom Cry 2 back but may have "bounced" in that start after knocking off Freedom Cry coming straight off the bench; debate here is whether or not he hung in the Turf Classic; had every chance to go by Turk Passer but would or could not do so; was it due to Turk Passer being strong following slow splits or was it a hang? does have the right stuff to win the race; first-time Lasix for a horse plagued by a breeding problem this year brings about added appeal; Timeform rating: 125.

Turk Passer

No secrets about the plan of attack here as the strategy tends to remain constant, get to the front and try to slow the pace; worked like a dream in the Turf Classic as waltzed through splits of :51 1/5 and 1:17 3/5; don't think that will happen here with Northern Spur likely willing to take control if the fractions are too slow; another fear is the lack of consistency as the last 2 big efforts have been followed by clunkers; pace factor yes, but remember, only 2 other winners of the Turf have been on the lead after the first mile.

Celtic Arms

Tough call; respectable 3rd in the Turf Classic but was badly beaten by Talloires in Brazil 2 back; enigmatic sort ran his best race of the year in Caesars International but has not been able to duplicate that performance in 2 starts since; on the plus side, may have been over the top for the '94 Turf as was coming out of the Arc; trainer Rash looks to have used the Turf Classic as a prep with this race being the main goal; nonetheless, will go of as a longshot just as was the case last year.

Tamure

Sparkling run in the Epsom Derby as was beaten only one length by Lammtarra; like the fact is a relatively fresh horse for this start as was rested just over 3 months following the Epsom Derby and is now coming up to his 3rd start off a layoff when all systems should be go; as mentioned under Flitch, 3yos have won this race on 4 occasions; however, the Champion Stakes start was the first with older horses and he suffered his first finish out of the exacta; does offer 2-for-one value being coupled with Carnegie and is a first-time Lasix user; regains the services of regular rider Dettori which can be viewed as a plus; Timeform rating: 123.

Rates as the "now" horse of the field after knocking off Sandpit who would be among the favorites no matter who showed up for the race; highly competitive in Europe before coming to the U. S. for the '95 campaign; lone poor effort this year came in the Arlington Million when was forced to race wide and was reported to have bled; win over Sandpit came with first-time Lasix and he pressed Sandpit prior to proving to be easily the better through the lane; gets the trip here as likely rates just off Turk Passer; such tactics lead to getting first run on contenders Hernando, Freedom Cry and Awad; if McCarron can avoid the temptation of moving too soon, this guy may not be passed after putting away Turk Passer; major player.

No threat to win the Man O' War which takes away from the 3rd-place finish; while improved, he's nowhere near as accomplished as others in here; do have to respect Schulhofer; tactics likely to be wait and make a late run and that means having to run down Northern Spur and Hernando while outfinishing Freedom Cry and Awad – which may all be too much to ask for from a horse yet to win a graded stakes event.

A CLOSER LOOK

Classic

French Deputy

Beset by the same wet-fast track last outing that Cigar had to run over 6 races later, and connections had indicated a preference for the Sprint were the track to come up heavy; perhaps some regression was inevitable on Oct. 7 after a tour de force comeback in the Jerome, but chances certainly couldn't have been helped by being stuck on the deep inside while laying close up to fast fractions, aside from having the rider lose the whip; of all the entrants in the race, this corner's barn towers over the rest for Breeders' Cup success, as Drysdale has 5 wins and 2 seconds from 14 starters; adds Lasix, and all other indicators point toward a truer bill over a fast track.

Unaccounted For

Hard to avoid the observation that this colt moves up several lengths over an off track, and the good 2nd to Cigar after a wide trip in the JC Gold Cup confirms his G1 wet-track ability displayed in the Whitney; note the addition of Lasix in the Gold Cup but also note that Cigar did more work early before dealing with this guy late; barn one of 4 represented here with more than one Breeders' Cup win (2 seconds, 3 thirds from 19 starters), but Schulhofer's win-end success has been limited to the Juvenile and the Sprint with 5 off-the-board starters in the Classic; would upgrade chances over an off track.

Halling

The 2 best finishes by a European-based runner in this event, Ibn Bey's 2nd in '90 and the stunning upset of Arcangues in '93 were preceded by starts just over a month prior in the 1 3/4 miles Irish St. Leger and 1 3/16 miles Prix Dollar respectively; comes into this renewal with considerably more exalted credentials than either Ibn Bey or Arcangues with a heady 134 Timeform rating enhanced by an impressive neutralization of the multiple G1 winning miler Bahri at York; can't ignore the experience gained racing over the sands of the Emirates, but have to question the competition conquered in the Gulf (Lower Egypt has since come to New York and barely cracked the classified allowance ranks); trainer's first starter in the BC does make for much cross-Atlantic drama in the battle of winning streaks with Cigar and adds Lasix for American debut, but let's just be diplomatic and say the home court holds the advantage.

Concern

Of the 2 defending champions of the Classic to have returned the following year to contest the event, one (Skywalker in '87) finished dead last and the other (Unbridled in '92) finished 3rd; score last year gave Small a perfect one-for-one record in the Breeders' Cup, and the training regimen coming up to this renewal has reportedly been at an optimum; Small also reportedly assures that his runner won't be out pressing the pace as he did at the Meadowlands; he better not be with his frequent nemesis Cigar storming down the stretch; would demand value before considering a sentimental flyer.

Star Standard

Little doubt about what the strategy will be for this corner, and while there is no Thunder Gulch to apply the pressure early in here, at least L'Carriere will be ready to take his place; not even a wet track was able to help duplicate a 2nd-place finish versus Cigar when going the distance in last; the Classic has provided Zito with his one placing (3rd in the '90 renewal with Thirty Six Red) among 5 Breeders' Cup starters; pace factor.

Soul of the Matter

Might have been able to give a better account of self in last year's Classic but for a change of course, but the fact remains that the late punch just wasn't there against a horse he just beat going 10 furlongs for his lone G1 triumph and who would himself be winning at the distance for the only time in 7 career tries; has now proven he can beat Tinners Way, at least at 9 furlongs, and now gets the chance to show if he will take to the sweeping turns here; Mandella won 2 Breeders' Cup events (the Juvenile Fillies and the Turf) at Santa Anita in '93 but has 6 other starters to have finished off the board; maybe a share.

Tinners Way

Hailing from perhaps the most starstruck barn of all those entered here (Frankel has had 23 Breeders' Cup starters, with 4 2nds, and 3 3rds), older runner seems like a tough sell to get barn's first top honors with a pair of miserable efforts at Belmont showing; unlike frequent foe Soul of the Matter, at least the issue of reaffirming ability in G1 10-furlong competition was confirmed recently in the Pacific Classic; were this event on the West Coast, the chances for a repeat of an exacta with Cigar would be good, but in here this guy just seems like another pretty face.

L'Carriere

Able to steal away from Unaccounted For with only token front-end opposition going the distance in the Saratoga Cup but had his hands full trying to keep up with Poor But Honest in the Meadowands Cup; lands one of the better "send" jockeys around as a replacement for Bailey, and most rivals in here are probably counting on the team to preoccupy the younger Star Standard; barn's first Breeders' Cup starter adds fuel to the fire.

Peaks and Valleys

Back-to-back G1s over questionable competition in Canada and often hapless competition in Jersey doesn't exactly reassure backers for the mother of all confrontations to take place on this battlefield; students of Dosage might be assuaged by a 1.93 index for the 10 furlongs, but Mt. Livermore on top still must send some shivers up their spines; barn has had 13 Breeders' Cup starters with Dance Smartly in the '91 Distaff the one winner along with 2 2nds and one 3rd: others entice more for the top prize.

Computer-based handicapping for the serious parimutuel investor.

Unique pace, speed, and class figures.

ThoroVision

Welcome to excellence

ThoroVision offers razor sharp, blazingly fast analysis and an unprecedented contender selection ability. Whether you're handicapping a dirt sprint for maiden claimers or a classic Grade 1 turf race, ThoroVision has the tools and data to help.

Full analysis in seconds

Begin with easy, menu-driven downloading of as many race cards as you want from our main computer. Then pick a race, and within seconds you have a full graded summary of the field. But don't stop there. Next use sophisticated analysis tools to look at the probable pace of the race or determine just how much reserve ability each horse in the field has. Not sure what kind of horse should win this race? Make a quick query to the Database Model and see if one or more of forty factors stands out. Or check the track profile to see what's been winning lately. When it's all over, grab the charts and update your model.

Simulcasting power

Unparalleled speed and unlimited access to race cards from all major North American tracks makes ThoroVision the only sensible solution for playing full-card simulcasts.

DON'T MISS OUT!

Until Nov. 15, get ThoroVision for a special price of $395, including the Database Model for FREE (a $395 value). Access unlimited data for a low $100/mo. and a $20/mo. account maintenance fee.

Cigar

Without question the Horse of the Year regardless of the outcome of this event, and deservedly so having thrashed all comers in 7 G1s in almost every corner of the U.S.; came closest to pulling all the stops since beginning of '95 campaign when dress rehearsing in the Jockey Club Gold Cup, but that was largely because of a tiring, drying out track and the additional real estate covered when carried very wide; answered questions about ability under duress and challenge, as it was no small task to stalk the pace while wide, put away the leaders while pushing the gas in the upper stretch, securing a clear lead with the crack of the whip only once, and then unleashing another gear late when fending off Unaccounted For; delivered the same easy 6f drill as major a.m. preparation, just as prior to to the Jockey Club, and Mott boasts one of the more experienced Breeders' Cup backgrounds with 2 wins, 3 seconds, and one third from 16 starters; while odds-on favorites Slew O' Gold and Easy Goer were both officially 2nd in '84 and '89 respectively, overall favorites have taken this event 3 times; will be ultra-tough to deny.

Jed Forest

Aside from the possible need for American debut when breaking poorly in the Jockey Club Gold Cup, about the best rationale for improvement might rest on an 11-length pummeling over eventual Jim Dandy 2nd and Travers 3rd Malthus back in Panama; barn's 5 starters in the Breeders' Cup have all finished off the board; don't ever say "nunca", but just say no.

Flying Chevron

Breeding on the sire's side says the distance is a problem; Beyer boys will flinch when he passes them in the post parade, for fear of him bouncing into their laps; when horses run their career-best as unchallenged speed over a sloppy track at night (when the other horses would rather have been sleeping, not having mud kicked in their faces), many experienced handicappers take the skeptical stance — especially when a 3-yo faces elders in a stakes for the first time.

Poor But Honest

Sandwiched by a pair of nice horses in the Meadowlands Cup; obvious tactical speed and staying power; meal-ticket has already run 15 times this year, frequently in graded stakes, and shows no sign of slacking off; moves better than Gene Kelly over puddles, so if the rain forecast by weather weirdos hits, his chances improve even more.

Owns weakest credentials in the race, having recently graduated from NW2 allowance ranks by only a neck, with the show horse hogging the photo; based on overall class, has less chance than Salman Rushdie at the Islamic block party; for low-weight or Nakatani fans.

Pistols and Roses

Looks like Lasix was introduced in NY too late for him; another bullet workout, but his previous sharp drills over the summer were followed up with out-of-the-money efforts in allowance company; a history of winning when least expected, but he seems to be on the downward cycle and anyone interested would be banking on the "3rd race off layoff" angle or simply going for one final hurrah.

Patsysprospect

Krone off, Angel on NY-bred who recorded triple-digit Beyer figures in one-turn routes here during spring and summer; flattered when L'Carriere won the Whitney, but he needed time off over the summer and if he couldn't threaten on the day of big $250,000 purse (in theoretically weaker field restricted to NY-breds), then this spot should be a tougher hurdle; wise, old humans his best feature.
